OLD DOMINION COFFEE-POTS!!

of which so many thousands have been sold during the past year.

COFFEE.

Boiled coffee, it is well known, is superior to coffee made after the French fashion, by straining; but, when boiled in an ordinary coffee pot, the fine aroma goes off with the vapor, leaving the infusion flat or bitter, hence a resort by many housekeepers to the French biggin.

Several attempts have been made to construct a coffee pot that would accomplish this desirable object, but, until the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot" appeared, none was found entirely adapted to the purpose. It is simple in construction, easily used, and will always give good coffee at one fourth less cost than by the old modes of boiling.

There is in coffee both an aromatic and a bitter principle. In boiling, the aromatic (which is very volatile) escapes if the boiler is open, and the bitter remains. The excellence of coffee depends on the amount of aroma retained in boiling; but all know that this delicious fragrance of the berry is allowed to pervade the whole house for half-an hour or so before breakfast, during the boiling process, and that, in too many cases, the flavor of the coffee is so impaired, that little or no enjoyment is found in the drinking. Coffee thus deprived of its aroma, is neither so pleasant nor so healthy as a beverage.

We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times. Ladies' Home Magazine.

made upon the same principle as the Coffee-pots.

WOOD'S

PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.

A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.

It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Theodore Tilton of New York has collected the following statistics. Ministers and members of the Methodist Church south and north now own 219,000 slaves; the Baptists do, 125,000; the Reformed Church 121,000; Presbyterians, old and new school, 77,000; the Episcopalians 88,000; all other denominations 55,000. Total, 600,000. This led Rev. Albert Barnes to say if it were not for the American church, American slavery would not exist!

THE CONJURER DONE.—Herr Blitz selected from the audience a bright little fellow to assist him in his experiments. "Sir," said he, "do you think I could put the sovereign, which the lady holds, into your coat pocket?" "No," said the boy confidently. "Think not?" "I know you couldn't," said the little fellow with great firmness. "Why not?" "Cause the pocket is torn out!"

"Where are you going?" asked a little boy of another who had slipped and fallen on an icy pavement. "Going to get up!" was the blunt reply.

THE
WORTHY OF
Universal Confidence and Patronage.
FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst. has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to be in constant dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a dandruff was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color (except from dye). I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her est, I strongly recommend husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Sumaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the public the effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," it may be restored to a beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds one pint, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay AIL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know a dissatisfied child or disappointed mother, by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with SELDOM EVER FAILING SUCCESS, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives to each energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the SAFEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your fears, prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 3 Cedar st. New York.
Price only 25 cents per bottle.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in each instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply those deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERUSE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for exhaustion it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, ERYSIPELAS, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to give immediate relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIUM OF any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it is unequaled—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics and other worthless nostrums, Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing effects of poverty, and by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which produces the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have not the power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by the taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this hereditary contamination; by far the most destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the resume of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from or are aggravated by it.

AYER'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, BOILS, TETTER, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR FACE PAIN, DEBILITY, LIVER COMPLAINT AND DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from impurity of the blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular properties of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a cathartic medicine these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health restored and invigorated by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every family, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures of the diseases for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Costiveness, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

FOR THE CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every family may count among its persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public need no other assurance and antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innumerous in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by Samuel Hodgkins, a resident of Boston, a victim of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic ailments to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for restoring the tone of the nervous system the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the tissues of which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and hectic fever, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicine has been found more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—these medicines have invariably well-marked, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition to active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to SEBASTOPOL AS IT IS.—A vessel named the Eltham has just arrived at Hull, from Sebastopol. Captain Pollard states that Sebastopol remains in the same forlorn and dilapidated condition as when the troops left Balaklava. Inkerman and the Redan bear the same traces of the besieging forces. A few old houses have been converted into habitable dwellings by the Russian soldiers who reside in them. Lord Raglan's house and the churchyard also remain in the condition in which they were left, nor has anything been done in the shape of restoration of the hospital, once one of the most magnificent buildings in Sebastopol. One portion of the city, which was rendered not wholly uninhabitable, has been patched up by a few poor Jews, who get their living by going over the desolated fields of battle, picking up the leaden treasure, shot and shell. During the captain's stay, one of them, who had picked up a shell, accidentally let it fall, and the missile not previously having been discharged, burst and killed the poor fellow on the spot. Although these men have been engaged for a long time in gathering the shot and shell, and digging the earth for bullets, yet there is an abundance left in all directions.

The harbor has been partially filled up. The American Company engaged with the sunken vessels have raised about forty.—This work and the making of a patent slip for a dock are almost the only means of employment for the inhabitants.—Manchester Examiner.

COL. FREMONT.—There is a strong desire in many quarters that Colonel Fremont should receive the Republican nomination. He is not the favorite of the politicians, but the people like him, as their vote in 1856 showed; and there has happened nothing to indicate that he is not as popular now as he was then. He has behaved nobly since the last contest, carrying himself so well that the idea prevails that he could be carried into the White House, even if he is a "Black Republican."—Trav.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & FAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and cheaply, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Size, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "it cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 1860.

CHARLESTON CONVENTION.

The National Democratic Convention, now in session at Charleston, after engaging in the irrepressible conflict, for a week, succeeded in adopting most of the minority or Douglas platform on Monday, including an indorsement of the Dred Scott decision.

Upon this result, the delegations of eight or nine Southern States announced their secession;—leaving it almost certain that Douglas will be nominated by the remainder. But as "white men are mighty onsartin," it is possible some further pro-slavery concessions may bring back the seceders, and bring up some new man.

We copy as much of Monday's proceedings as we have room for.

The question was taken on adopting the minority report as a substitute for the majority report, and it was adopted—yeas 167, nays 138.

The question then recurred on adoption to the majority platform.

Mr. Ash of N. C. stated that if these minority resolutions are adopted he would be compelled to abandon the Convention, and disconnect himself from the Democratic party. (Cheers from the South.)

Mr. Butler demanded that the question be taken on the first part of the resolution affirming the Cincinnati platform, separately, and it was adopted; ayes 233, nays 70.

When Mississippi was called, Mr. Glenn arose and voted No, declaring that Mississippi believed that the Cincinnati platform, as explained at the North and South, was an unqualified swindle.

His voice was drowned in cries of order.

Mr. Gittings rose to know whether he had been ruled out of order simply because he came from a slave State?

Cries of "order," and great confusion.

The chair stated that he had not, to his knowledge, called the gentleman to order except when he was clearly out of order.

Mr. Gittings replied—"Perhaps so;" and then added that he had not had the honor of meeting the President before since 1840, when he made the most violent Whig speech he ever heard.

By a vote of 81 to 188 the Convention refused to lay the majority platform on the table.

Mr. Brown of N. C. warned gentlemen if they adopted these resolutions, the Democratic party will cease to exist as a Democratic National party.

The vote was taken on the motion to strike out the preamble and first resolution relating to the Dred Scott decision of the Supreme Court relative to slavery.

Mississippi, Alabama, Arkansas and Florida declined to vote.

The delegations generally went out to consult.

The vote was finally announced—yeas 40; nays 240.

This vote is regarded as yielding to the South.

The President announced that the preamble with the first resolution was rejected.

On the resolution to protect foreign born citizens, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Alabama, and Florida declined to vote, and the resolution was adopted unanimously.

On the Pacific Railroad resolution, which was adopted, the same States refusing to vote, and there being but 20 negative votes.

Mr. Cook gave notice of a motion to reconsider this vote.

The remaining resolutions were then voted on, the same States declining to vote, and Arkansas throwing but three votes.—All the resolutions were adopted nearly unanimously—the yeas numbering 272.

Mr. Stuart of Mich. obtained the floor, on a motion to reconsider. He complained that while those on his side had given a respectful hearing to the South, they had not been allowed to say a word.

Mr. Yancey replied declaring that Congress had the right to protect the property of slaveholders against the encroachments of territorial legislation whenever it may occur.

Mr. Stuart moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, and called the previous question, but gave way to

Mr. Walker, chairman of the Alabama delegation, who announced a communication from that delegation to the Convention. He proceeded to read a protest, giving their reasons for withdrawing. He also read a resolution declaring that in case four delegates of Alabama should withdraw, as adopted by the Convention of that State, no other person should represent that State in the convention. The delegation rose to depart, when

Mr. Barry of Mississippi stated that the delegation of that State authorized him to state that their delegation also withdrew from the Convention, with Alabama.

Wm. Morton of Louisiana was authorized to state, on the part of the delegation of his State, that they no longer retain their seats in the Convention! We have heretofore declared that the Democratic party was harmonious, but we are now parted, forever separated on principle, if our friends from the free States cannot join us in fighting the Black Republicans. He concluded by stating that two delegates declined to join the majority, but the majority contends as they are instructed to vote as a unit, that no one has the right to cast the vote of the State after they leave.

Gen. Simmons, chairman of the South Carolina delegation, in behalf that delegation, read a protest that the platform adopted, is in contravention of the principles of their State Convention, and therefore the delegation withdraws with the exception of three members.

Mr. Glenn of Miss. in behalf of that State, told the Convention that, in less than 60 days, they will see the united South acting in concert. (Deafening applause, in which the galleries joined.) The time will come when you will want us. He concluded by stating that all who sympathize with the retiring delegates could meet them at St. Andrews Hall to-night.

Mr. Milton of Florida, in behalf of that delegation, presented their protest and withdrawal, telling the North and Northwest that, as they had hardened their hearts and stiffened their necks, they parted with them with but little regret. He read a long protest, signed by the whole delegation, and refusing to allow any others to cast the vote of Florida in the convention.

Mr. Bryam of Texas, had long looked forward to this result. After a few remarks he presented the protest of Texas, declaring that a persistence in the principles maintained by a majority of the convention, will ultimately dissolve the Union.

Mr. Burrows of Ala. in behalf of the delegation from his State, entered a protest that they could not consent to place a sound man on an unsound platform, and expressed an opinion that the chief of squatter sovereignty should receive the nomination. This protest is signed by three delegates, who protest that no one else shall cast the vote of that State in the Convention.

Mr. Bayard of Delaware, in behalf of himself and one of his colleagues, withdrew.

Mr. Saulsbury of Delaware, said that himself and a majority of the delegation are not now fully prepared to act. He therefore asked leave to retire for consultation.

The convention adjourned at 6 P. M., to 8 Tuesday Morning, after a continuous session of eight hours.

The excitement in the city is great. A salute is preparing in honor of the southern delegations.

The seceders will meet to-night, and it is expected will nominate Dickinson, with probably Stephens for Vice President.

Douglas will be nominated to-morrow on the first ballot.

The Convention will have difficulty in obtaining a Southern candidate for the Vice Presidency.

New York, April 30—9, P. M.—A private dispatch says that North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Virginia, Delaware, and Tennessee have withdrawn from the convention, and others will follow.

[A corrected version of Monday's proceedings, shows that the northern, or Douglas party, rejected the Dred Scott decision as a part of their platform, and this rejection brought on the secession.]

On Monday evening, St. Andrew's Hall was thronged with members and bolters from the Democratic Convention, John C. Preston of South Carolina presiding. Mr. Yancey defined the position of the bolters, saying,

We are sent to the National Democratic Convention as delegates, but our mission has been faulthled, and we retire as mere citizens from the late National Convention, which is now a mere sectional gathering.

A few Southern delegates still remain there, it is true, but it is only in the hope of inducing them to forego their Black Republican purposes. Should that Convention nominate Douglas, it would then become our duty to present or recommend to the people of the United States, candidates for President and Vice President on a national and constitutional basis.

After more speeches, the bolters adjourned till Tuesday.

The Douglasites held their meeting at Hibernia Hall. It was largely attended.—Flournoy of Arkansas presented himself as a peace-maker. His proposition was a resolution endorsing the Dred Scott decision. There was some indication to applaud at first, but the crowd stood upon the other tack. One speaker said that the bolt upon the platform was a mere pretence, and that it was really based on the prospective nomination of Mr. Douglas.

In conversation, one ex-Congressman, defeated by Buchanan's influence, said: "I feel, praise the Lord, that I have got thro' eating dirt. I have eaten my 'peck', and don't want any more." Another ex-member said, "I was in at the beginning, and am in at the death. I saw the Nebraska bill passed in Congress, and now I taste its bitter fruits."

Fernando Wood will probably be candidate for Vice President on Guthrie's ticket. The Bolting Convention meets in his room, and closed doors. His delegation have all joined the seceders.

Tuesday.—It is positively asserted Caleb Cushing will vacate the chair to-day, at the regular Convention, and perhaps preside over the Seceders' Convention. The Southern seceders have appointed a committee of organization, and meet at noon to-day, when their organization will be perfected.

Douglas professes satisfaction with the result, declaring the seceders do not represent the popular sentiment of the South.

By Telegraph to the Chronicle.

DOUGLAS NOMINATED.

From the Traveller Office, at half-past 6 Tuesday evening, we learn that the delegations from Virginia, Maryland, Tennessee, and part of Ky. and N. C. delegates did not secede. Only extremists bolted—and even Southern conservatives were glad they were gone. An immense Douglas meeting was addressed by Southerners, pledging their States for Douglas. The chairman of the Louisiana State Committee telegraphed that State safe for him by large majority; Payne of Ohio says Douglasites demand a platform incapable of misconstruction.

And at half-past 9 we received from Mr. Blanchard, the gentlemanly Boston agent of the Associated Press:—"The Convention nominated Douglas. No particulars."

GREAT FIRE IN TRINIDAD.—New York, April 30.—Advices by the Star of the West state that a Fire occurred on the 19th of March in the Valley of Trinidad, extending along the valley. All the standing cane on the sugar estates for eighteen miles was swept down. Loss estimated at a million and a half. It is estimated it will reduce the production of sugar on the island over eight thousand hogshead.

☞ In Michigan, a villainous plot was revealed by two rogues, sentenced to State Prison, to destroy a railroad bridge, on the Grand Trunk Railway, and allow a passenger train to precipitate itself into the river. The object of this fiendish proceeding was plunder alone, the perpetrators intending to conceal themselves in the vicinity, and watch for the catastrophe, and thence pounce upon the victims on pretence of assisting them from the wreck. They went so far as to commence work on the bridge, removing, by the use of a wrench, a number of nuts from the long bolts which support the trestle work. But for the detection and conviction of the rascals for other crimes, another Des Jardines disaster, with its bloody record, would have been added to the list of railroad tragedies.

☞ The Conference of the Methodist Church, North, met at Buffalo on Tuesday. The four principal questions which will come before the body are:—first, shall slaveholding be forbidden to the membership of the church; second, whether the time for which ordained ministers shall be allowed to remain at any one station shall be extended to more than two years; third, whether the system of Presiding Eldership, as it now exists, shall be modified or be abolished altogether; fourth, whether the rules of the Discipline shall be so changed as to admit lay delegates to the annual and general Conference. This body meets once in four years.

☞ The Union of these States will remain in force, notwithstanding all the attempts of Abolitionists at the North, and Fire-Eaters at the South, to dissolve what was so nobly cemented by our fathers. Dr. Ham, the discoverer of the Invigoring Spirit, is so confident of this, that he keeps his manufactory in full blast, to supply the Union, as heretofore. His orders from the South have not fallen off in consequence of the excited state of feeling against the opposite section of the Union, which shows that whatever else they do without, they cannot dispense with that great medicine—the "Aromatic Invigorating Spirit." So says his advertisement—which see.

EARTHQUAKE IN HAYTI.—We have received an account of a series of earthquakes which startled the inhabitants of the Island of Hayti from the 8th to the 13th of April. The first shock was a heavy one, and occurred on the morning of Sunday, April 8. The inhabitants, alarmed by a constant recurrence of the dangerous symptoms, camped out in the open air, with the thermometer ranging daily from eighty to ninety-three degrees in the shade.

☞ The Belfast Age says that on the 16th inst., Ellidge Cunningham, of South Hope, while in Collamore's tavern in Camden, was stabbed by Ezekiel Bowley, causing his death the next day. The difficulty grew out of Bowley's having been put out of Cunningham's house for disturbing a religious meeting that was being held there at the time.

☞ There is one day's later news from England, with no item of any consequence, that we see, except the statement that the two poor bruised prize-fighters are not to fight again. A picture of them in a penny paper shows their faces in a pitiable plight.

A friend suggests that the reason why the office-holders would prefer the nomination of Hunter, Guthrie or Davis to Douglas, is because they would rather be removed from their fat berths by a Republican than by a Democrat.—Bath Times.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Lawrence, Mass., Apr. 30.—A fatal accident occurred on the site of the Pemberton Mills this morning.—Mr. James A. Hearn, a laborer employed in rebuilding the mill, was instantly killed by a derrick falling upon him, caused by an insufficient guy while hoisting a large foundation stone. Mr. Hearn's head was crushed. He was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. He had a daughter killed at the great catastrophe.

He would now return his sincere thanks to the public generally, for the very liberal patronage they have been pleased to bestow upon him; and ever grateful for past favors, respectfully solicits a continuance.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to one unfortunate face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts. $1.

Piles.

All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

BOSTON, Sept. 8, 1858.

Gentlemen:—For more than thirty years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and piles. I have been frequently under medical treatment, and have tried various preparations which have been recommended to me, but received no permanent relief. In January last I commenced taking the "Peruvian Syrup," and after taking three bottles of it I became perfectly cured of the dyspepsia and piles, and my general health is now all that I can desire it to be.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

This preparation is a certain cure for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Incipient Consumption, &c. In confirmation of the highest medical authority that "Consumption can be cured," numerous instances of complete restoration from this disease by the use of the Balsam can be given.

The following letter was received from Colonel Markham, of the British army, and shows the estimation in which the Balsam of Wild Cherry is held abroad.

Pier Hotel, Isle of Wight, England, Sept. 30, 1850.

Sir.—I have a daughter in a delicate state of health, who has, I think, received signal benefit from Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, three bottles of which were sent her by her brother in Canada. Kindly fill me up six bottles, and forward them by the first steamer to Southampton or Liverpool, as you may find most convenient, with any account of the medicine you may be so good as to send me. We have searched London for it in vain.

Believe me yours, truly,

The wide reputation which Dr. J. Hostetter's "Stomach Bitters" have attained during the past year, bespeaks its excellence in a more forcible manner than we can offer. It renovates, purifies, and strengthens the system, and aids the stomach in the performance of its functions. It is regarded on all sides as a sovereign specific, and therefore, to procure it in the best possible way, should be the object of the public. We commend it with more than usual zeal and confidence, believing and knowing, as we do, that it stands foremost among the many preparations of the day, for imparting strength, vigor and tone to the system, and possessing the curative powers for all similar diseases arising from a disordered stomach. In the most severe cases of cramps, diarrhea and weakness in the stomach, the "Bitters" have been rigidly tested, and always with the greatest success.

CONCEALED GARDENS.

The following seasonable hints, on the subject of opening beautiful gardens to the public eye, are from the sermon of a pastor in this city, delivered last Sunday.

I want to utter a few plain words in relation to a custom common in this city, but which seems to me a useless custom and a crying evil. I refer to the practice of enclosing our gardens in such a manner as to exclude them entirely from the public eye.

I am told that there are in this city, many gardens of choice flowers,—gardens that are cultivated with exquisite taste and skill, —gardens that are an honor to the possessors, and might be an ornament to the city. I know that this is true, for I have entered some of their gates, and feasted my soul upon their beauties. But I might pass them a dozen times per day, from now until the Autumn frost shall crisp the last Autumn flower; nine-tenths of our population, and the "strangers within our gates," might pass them as often as myself, and yet know no more respecting them than if they were located in the moon.

All this wealth of loveliness and beauty must bloom, and fade, and die, comparatively unknown, unseen, and unenjoyed. Ten thousand souls might be quickened and expanded and lifted up to God, but for those towering walls and fences; and yet the proprietors of those gardens would not be in the least impoverished. They would not enjoy them less, because others enjoyed them more. No; a really noble nature enjoys his possessions better by sharing them with others. If the eye and soul of every passer-by could feast upon the floral gifts of God, I know the favored hearts that call them mine would find their joy increased.

And what a beneficent influence they might exert upon our entire community. A garden is an efficient minister in the cause of moral and religious improvement. A man can hardly come within its influence, without being made wiser, better and happier. Even the poor neglected children that throng our streets—were it not for the useless lumber that surrounds them—might receive impressions from those gardens that would awaken new aspirations, quicken latent energies, and elevate them to a higher plane of virtue, usefulness and happiness.—Some of them might even derive the germ of a taste and an ambition which would ensure to themselves a deathless fame, and to the world a benefactor.

And why shall they be deprived of such a joy and blessing? Why shall the flowers and shrubs and trees, that could never grow but by the direction and energy of our common Father, be thus concealed from that Father's children?

I can but believe that this evil is the result of thoughtlessness, and not of willful wickedness. I can but believe that if the attention of our community were awakened to the subject, the evil would be corrected. If God should deal by them as they deal by his children, he would wither every flower, and bring a blight upod the trees, and spread a veil over sun and stars, and leave them in a cold, bleak, barren world. They exclude mankind from their dominions,—deny them them the privilege of even looking upon the beauties which they call their own. If God should imitate their example, and build a wall around his garden,—leaving them nothing but what their hands have furnished,—desolate indeed would be their condition.

I would not intimate that we should give men free access to our gardens. But I would say that, so far as we can do it without injury to ourselves, we should share the blessings God has lent us, with our brothers and sisters of the same great household;—we cannot do less than this, and be guiltless in the sight of God.

If all our citizens will adopt this Christian rule of life, many of their garden fences will be cut down,—at least one story,—and beauties which we know not of to-day, will cheer our hearts and adorn our homes to-morrow. Will not you who may be guilty in this regard, awaken to a sense of your obligations to God and man? Shall not this blessed Spring-time be the beginning of a better era in the history of our city? Shall it not cease to be reproached, as alike devoid of taste and generosity, on account of its garden fences? If God has blessed you with a garden, do not hide it from the world. He makes the trees grow and the flowers bloom. He gives them as an ornament to His earth, and a blessing to His children. But he never made your fences grow to conceal them. They are inventions of your own. And if you have built them so high or in such a form as to hide the beauties he has made, cut them down to such a hight, or so change the form of their construction, that men and even children can survey your gardens at their will. Be assured that in so doing your own joy will be increased; you will add largely to the general fund of happiness, honor God, bless and uplift humanity.

☞ A house belonging to Mr. Joel Smith, at Candia Village, N. H., was destroyed by fire on Wednesday.

☞ Among the ornaments and embellishments at the fine residence of A. W. Simpson, Esq., on Middle Road, we notice in passing, a large and very handsome horse, recently mounted on the stable, as a vane,—which while showing "which way the wind blows," also indicates the taste of the occupant of the premises—every man of taste, of course, having regard for a good horse. The animal, we are told, has veritably "bones and sinews of iron," and is from the foundry of Thomas Manning, in Dover. Though no doubt costing considerable, yet he is much cheaper kept than the animals inside the barn.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—Agreeably to a call, a Convention was held at Raymond, April 19.

A committee was chosen to nominate the County Prosecuting Committee, to report at an adjourned Convention, to be held at Raymond, May 3d, at 1 o'clock, P. M. It is urgently desired that the friends of temperance attend largely from every town.

OLD DOMINION COFFEE-POTS!!

of which so many thousands have been sold during the past year.

COFFEE.

Boiled coffee, it is well known, is superior to coffee made after the French fashion, by straining; but, when boiled in an ordinary coffee pot, the fine aroma goes off with the vapor, leaving the infusion flat or bitter, hence a resort by many housekeepers to the French biggin.

Several attempts have been made to construct a coffee pot that would accomplish this desirable object, but, until the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot" appeared, none was found entirely adapted to the purpose. It is simple in construction, easily used, and will always give good coffee at one fourth less cost than by the old modes of boiling.

There is in coffee both an aromatic and a bitter principle. In boiling, the aromatic (which is very volatile) escapes if the boiler is open, and the bitter remains. The excellence of coffee depends on the amount of aroma retained in boiling; but all know that this delicious fragrance of the berry is allowed to pervade the whole house for half-an hour or so before breakfast, during the boiling process, and that, in too many cases, the flavor of the coffee is so impaired, that little or no enjoyment is found in the drinking. Coffee thus deprived of its aroma, is neither so pleasant nor so healthy as a beverage.

We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times.

Ladies' Home Magazine.

made upon the same principle as the Coffee-pots.

WOOD'S

PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.

A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.

It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

HOME MANUFACTURES NEEDED.

Portsmouth enjoys greater facilities for active industry in a variety of manufactures, than any other town in the State; yet while the capital of our citizens is invested elsewhere, our own wants are overlooked, or every projected enterprise looked upon with a suspicious eye. In reading in the Portland Argus a communication on the need of factories there, our own case seemed so similar, that we readily appropriate the remarks there made to our own locality.

That Portsmouth is deficient in one of the principal elements of prosperity, every day's observation renders too apparent. The demand for labor is altogether disproportioned to the supply.—There is more labor than there is employment for it. In respect to all articles of domestic manufacture, we are large consumers and small producers, and the balance of trade is always against us. Our facilities for manufacturing boots and shoes, carriages and harnesses, cast and malleable iron goods, combs, brushes, all sorts of woolen ware, and a thousand and one Yankee notions—such as always find a ready market,—are not excelled by any part of the country. And then our facilities for transportation render us able to cope with the world in reaching the most remunerative markets. Notwithstanding these favor, able conditions, many of our best mechanics are under the necessity of seeking employment abroad, and many that remain at home are unemployed one-third or one-half of the time. In this particular, the contrast between our city and many of the towns in Rhode Island and Connecticut, is very discouraging. Our attention has been particularly called to the subject by observing the extent and great variety of the manufactured products of a town or city in another State, of less resident population than ours, but containing more active capital employed in manufacturing, than our whole business capital—the whole requiring to be transshipped for want of a harbor with sufficient depth of water to admit vessels of the required capacity to carry her extensive shipments to their distant markets, South and West, on the continent, and even to California and Australia. If our capitalists would turn their attention to a judicious investment of their surplus capital in manufactures, they would find the result to be money in both pockets.

While there is a large field for domestic enterprise unoccupied, it is however gratifying to find some wide-awake individuals taking an active part in producing the means of bringing from abroad capital among us,—who while they hope to benefit themselves pecuniarily, are doing much more for the benefit of the city by giving work to hundreds, who otherwise might find no remunerative employment. We speak particularly of the establishment of Messrs. Allen & Paine, in Market street, who are now probably more extensively engaged in the manufacture of outer garments for ladies, than any other establishment in New England. At this season, they are bringing out cloaks and capes,—and as summer advances, mantillas will be the order of the day. They are doing their business in so quiet a way, that although within a stone's cast of our office, we had no idea that so extensive a bee-hive was in our neighborhood.

A few days since we looked in. Passing from room to room in the chambers of their own and adjoining stores, we found no less than a hundred and thirty young ladies busily engaged—some with their needles—others, about thirty, operating sewing machines, creating a hum almost equaling the whirl of the great factory.—Here and there might be seen a model living form called into requisition, and the garment just completed, tried on, and undergoing a scrutinizing survey to test its completeness, before it is to enter the box for some belle of Boston, or Bangor, Providence, or Portland, New York or Rochester, Montreal, or Toronto. The work is carefully examined, and if all right, on it passes, and another is begun. Here it is not a novel sight to see a new garment,—for a new cloak is sometimes produced every five minutes through the day,—a week completing from six hundred to a thousand.

Messrs. Allen & Paine began in a small way last year, to try the business, and their success has this season warranted an extension of it.—They have a salesroom in Boston, agents in various cities—and are receiving large orders from distant places. Their styles of goods are various, cut in good taste, and highly approved. Many of the garments prepared for other markets are in styles which have not yet been used here—and probably will not be, until those who go abroad for the latest fashions bring them from Boston or New York as the latest French styles.

In the course of a few weeks, the demand will be for mantillas—then this temple of industry will be in as full operation for their manufacture.

We speak of this laudable enterprise not only in commendation of the worthy young men engaged in it, but also to lead others to make some corresponding movement. It is only by bringing into our city more money for our products and manufactures than is sent out for foreign products, that we can increase in riches, influence, and general prosperity. Those men who do this, are deserving of success as public benefactors.

PORTSMOUTH DIRECTORY—1860-61.

Four years have elapsed since the last edition of the Portsmouth Directory was issued. The many changes which have taken place in that time have rendered the issue of a new edition desirable. The call for it has frequently been made upon us, and a few months since we took the preliminary measures for responding to that call;—but the project of a change of the Names of some of our principal Streets, and a consequent change of Numbers, required a delay until the matter was decided. The decision of the City Council last week not to change, enables us now to proceed, and we shall issue a new Directory as speedily as we can put it to press.

Officers of Societies will confer a favor and guard against errors, by handing in the names of their institutions, with a list of officers, and such information respecting them as may be of public interest.

Those who have changed their location since the year commenced, or may change in May, are requested to give us information.

Those who have a desire to announce their occupations in any different form from that in the last edition, will please hand in the change.

Advertisements will be inserted in a conspicuous manner, on reasonable terms. Such advertisements are stationary cards, remaining before the eyes of the public for several years.

The price of the Directory will be 60 cents per copy. To subscribers 50 cents. Those who have not subscribed should send in their names to the Portsmouth Journal Office forthwith, to enable us to decide the number to print. April 28.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the Throat and Lungs tending toward CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from ABUSE, USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you take is what you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For FEMALE COMPLAINTS, GRAVEL, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you of all that we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the cause of the disease, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Scalding Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anodyne, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from untold misery and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate child.

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the blood becomes vitiated or weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the condition, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the real "sin of the parents" visited upon the children of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or morbid matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or ulcerous sores. Whatever which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are tainted by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this, every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disease from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMS, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, MYALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the Blood" is founded on sound philosophy. It is the generation of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its disordered action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with weakness or racked with disease, soon find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish its agents, to whom he is a stranger, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the fame of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been rescued from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate the necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, FEVER AND AGUE, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land, forwarding signal testimonials of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, without change, and other complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be alterative, from the old oxide, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, from its most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has also proved decisive. Friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In NEROUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy as a restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory, it has been found highly beneficial;—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and inflammation of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy as a energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

Its remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—and acquisitions, the complete restoration of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to UNEVANGELICAL LUTHERANISM.—A letter writer from Berwick, Pa. says:—"Like many others, this community is afflicted with the influence of a denomination calling itself the Lutheran church, conducted in the style of the Germanic churches, in which, in addition to possessing little or no Christian vitality, both pastor and people allow themselves to become intoxicated without reserve and whenever they choose." This people acts on the proceedent of "the Jewish church," of which all were members, without examination or discrimination as to spiritual character. That is to say—they carry out the premise of the argument from circumcision to infant babtism.—Morning Star.

POLLY MOORE of Auburn, a fortune teller, with the cognomen of "Molly Mink," was arraigned at the recent court at Exeter, for violating the liquor law. She was in bed when the officer from Exeter came after her, and absolutely refused to dress herself, saying she was sick, and besides that had no clothes fit to wear in court. The officer did not like to dress her, and went back to Exeter to report progress. He was returned the next day, however, notwithstanding he plead "pretty tough capers" would be occasioned if he rode with "such a looking piece;" but took assistance with him and a carriage sufficiently large to carry her on a bed. Mrs. Moore seeing them coming, took leg bail for the woods, but was run down by the deputy and taken to Exeter. She plead nolo con., and was fined $50 and costs.—Manchester Mirror.

☞ The number of persons driven out of the South, as suspected upon the negro question, since the John Brown affair, is more than 200.

☞ It is a fact not generally known, that a stick of wood placed in a stove with the bark up, will burn much longer than in any other position.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for the past year, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.
Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1860.

CHARLESTON CONVENTION.

EIGHTH DAY.

On Tuesday, the floor and north gallery of the hall were literally inundated with ladies, and all the galleries massed with spectators. The President's table is lined with boquets. The seats of the seceding delegates were filled with South Carolina ladies. The Georgia, Virginia, and North Carolina delegates were in their seats. A prayer for union and harmony was offered by Rev. Mr. Ingersoll.

The Arkansas delegation presented their protest and withdrew. A portion of the Kentucky delegation announced they had no desire to retire.

After considerable blowing, blustering and "withdrawing" by the Southern delegates,

Mr. Montgomery of Pennsylvania said he was opposed to speeches on either side. If there are more delegations prepared to leave, let them go. They have all made up their minds, and we have made up our minds. We wish to proceed to business.

Mr. Boulden of Georgia was among those who had refused to retire, and he desired to give his reasons. He was a southern States rights and American slave trade man. He believed slavery to be morally, socially, and politically right, and that slavery was an institution of civilization. Still he believed the doctrine of protection to slavery in the Territories a mere abstraction, on which he was not prepared to disintegrate the Democratic party.

It is no trouble for a man to be a saint in Heaven, but when I look to the Northern Democrats, and see them standing up to breast the storm of fanaticism, I love them, and will stand by them until the last day of this week, late in the night. He was not willing to cast them into the arms of the Black Republicans. The African slave trader is the true philanthropist—he brings the heathen here to civilize, and sends them down the stream of life, Christian beings.

The remainder of the Georgia delegation demanded the right to cast the full State vote on the question of adjournment.

The President decided they were not entitled to do so. An appeal was taken, but the decision was sustained.

Georgia withdrew then altogether from the convention.

FIRST BALLOT.

Douglas	145½
Guthrie	35½
Dickinson	7
Lane	6
Hunter	12
Davis	1
Toucey	3½
Pierce	2
Johnson	13

New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota voted entire for Douglas.

SECOND BALLOT.

Douglas	147
Guthrie	35½
Dickinson	6
Hunter	41½
Lane	6
Johnson	13
Toucey	2½

During the day, ten other ballots were taken, the last of which was as follows:

Douglas,	150½
Guthrie,	36½
Hunter,	8½
Johnson,	13
Lane,	6
Dickinson,	4
Davis,	1½

The adoption of the resolution requiring 202 votes to nominate, makes the nomination of Douglas doubtful.

Mr. Brown of Miss. has declined the nomination for Vice President.

The Southern Convention have organized by the choice of Mr. Bayard of Del. for permanent President.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Two fugitive slaves from Maryland were arrested yesterday, and, after an examination before Mr. Commissioner Botts, were ordered to be sent back to their owners in Liberty District, Md. They are now on their way there. No disturbance.

The house of a man named Hobbs was burnt at Orange, N.J., yesterday afternoon, and four children of Hobbs perished in the flames. Mrs. Hobbs and two children were rescued, badly burned. Hobbs set the building on fire himself, and is under arrest.

☞ Steamer Calhoun exploded her boiler at Columbus, Ga., April 30, killing six negroes, mortally wounding the acting captain, and seriously injuring two passengers and the engineer.

SINGULAR AND SUDDEN DEATH.—Rev. Origen Crane of Grafton, while in the act of swinging a friend, for exercise, lost his balance and fell forward, striking his temple on a stone, from the effect of which he remained unconscious, and died the next day. Mr. Crane was fifty-five years old, and has been a minister in Massachusetts twenty-four years.

☞ The New York Post says one might almost believe the United States to be inhabited exclusively by a race of pugilists if he were to judge by the excitement which prevails on all hands in consequence of the news from the prize fight.

☞ A committee of the Canadian Parliament have declared the election in Quebec void, on account of violence and illegal voting, and propose to declare the city disfranchised for the remainder of the session, as a punishment for tolerating such abuses.

☞ The poor-house at Sturbridge, Mass., was destroyed by fire Wednesday night, and a deaf and dumb girl perished in the flame.

THE DOUGLAS PLATFORM.

The following is the minority platform as it was finally adoped by the Charleston Convention:—

Resolved, That we, the Democracy of the Union, in convention assembled, hereby declare our affirmation of the resolutions unanimously adopted, and declared as a platform of principles of the Democratic Convention at Cincinnati in the year 1856, believing that Democratic principles are unchangable in their nature when applied to the same subject matter; and we recommend as our only further resolutions the following:—

Resolved, That it is the duty of the United States to afford ample and complete protection to all its citizens, whether at home or abroad, and whether native or foreign born.

Resolved, That one of the necessities of the age, in a military, commercial, postal point of view, is speedy communication between the Atlantic and Pacific States; and the Democratic party pledge such Constitutional government as will insure the construction of a railroad to the Pacific coast at the earliest practical period.

Resolved, That the Democratic party is in favor of the acquisition of the island of Cuba on such terms as shall be honorable to ourselves and to Spain.

Resolved, That the enactments of State Legislatures to defeat the faithful execution of the fugitive slave law, are hostile in character, subversive of the Constitution, and revolutionary in their effects.

SECTIONALISM RAMPANT.—The report of the Seceders' Convention at Charleston, is decidedly rich. Mr. Preston's opening speech is dark with negroes and bright with patriotism. Mr. Yancey charged the great National Democratic party with sectionalism—and this after all its concessions to the impudent pretensions of the South. The Transcript says he seemed not to reflect he was addressing the smallest, narrowest, and judged by the real democratic standard, the most offensive sectional party in the country.

☞ Concerning the split at the Charleston Convention the Newark Journal says, the opposition to the Democracy "will soon find out, as it has often learnt before, that the Democracy do their fighting in Convention, and vote together at the polls."

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—James Redpath has been on a visit to his friend Mr. Hyatt, here in jail. It is more than probable that he would have remained in that delectable residence, for a longer time, if Sergeant at-Arms McNair of the Senate had known of his whereabouts, as he has been twice summoned to testify before the Senate Brown-Raid Committee, but has failed to appear.

The substance of the testimony given before the Covode Committee Thursday and Friday, by Mr. Bean, Assistant Clerk under Col. Allen, the Democratic Clerk of the last House, is that he received from Mr. Wendell the sum of $5000 for his services to carry the English bill, and that he heard Wendell say that the bill must be carried, if it would cost a bushel basket full of gold. Mr. Bean, is at present editor of a democratic paper at Freemont, Ohio. The Committee have the evidence before them that a disbursing agent of the administration deposited and checked out of the Bank of the Metropolis $925,000, a great portion of which the committee expect to be able to prove was checked out to several persons who were employed to carry the English bill through the House. The Bank book does not exhibit the names of the parties, but only shows blind initials, signifying such terms as "To save the Union," and "For Kansas."

It is said much indignation is expressed by the President and Mr. Breckinridge, Mr. Toombs and others, at the tenor of the despatches addressed to each of them by George Sanders, from Charleston, in relation to the pending Presidential domination.

☞ Charles Fernald has been appointed postmaster of Atkinson, New Hampshire, vice L. P. E. Richards, removed on a charge of being engaged in the sale of Shute lottery tickets. The Department have reason to believe that the lottery business is carried on to some extent by country postmasters, and will promptly remove all who are caught.

☞ The votes upon the amendments proposed to the Newburyport city charter, on Monday, the Herald says, were significant. The people declared thereby that the Mayor had power enough, and the veto should not be given him: they further said they did not consider a mayor's services worth one cent to them, and they would give him no pay.

☞ Mr. Townsend Harris, our Consul General at Japan, is reported dead, but no information on the subject has yet reached the Department of State. We trust the rumor is incorrect.

DEFAULTING CASHIER SENTENCED.—On Saturday last, Daniel C. Kenyon, the defaulting cashier of the Rhode Island Exchange Bank, was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment in the State Prison.

☞ The steamer Vanderbilt made her last passage across the Atlantic in nine days, twelve hours and thirty minutes—the quickest passage across the Atlantic on record.

THE SEASON IN NEW HAMPSHIRE, which a month ago promised to be early, is now but a few days in advance of last year.—Rain is very much needed. The wells and streams are very low, and the pastures, as well as tillage land, begin to show the need of moisture. April has been a dry month throughout.

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY appears to be taking the lead of all such corporations on this continent, and probably long before any other company they will push their rails across the continent. Next Monday they will start a train daily from Portland direct for Chicago, going through in forty-eight hours. This will be the easiest, quickest and cheapest route from New England to the West, and probably most persons attending the Chicago Convention from this section will go through that channel.

The amount of produce brought over this road to Boston is immense and constantly increasing. The idea of extending this road to Bostoo, appears to be given up, if was ever entertained, as the Grand Trunk have made a contract for seven years with the Boston & Portland Steamboat Company to carry their freight to Boston, and a new steamer is at once to be added to that line.

☞ The woman found gagged and sunk with a barrel of pitch, in a dock in New York, was Mrs. Richardson, wife of Boston Charley, who stated that he had not lived with his wife for over two years, during which time she had lived in magnificent style at St. Denis; next at the house of a doctor in Astor place, at St. Julien Hotel, next at a private house in University place; from there to Lafarge House, from where she went on board the steamer Cahawba for New Orleans, which was the last positive information they had of her.

The hotel books revealed the fact that a wealthy young gentleman of family of high standing in the community, had paid Mrs. Richardson's hotel bills, the suit of rooms and board amounting to $40 per week. It is reported that this gent attempted to sever his connection with Mrs. R., as her demands upon him for money were becoming more and more exorbitant, sometimes compelling him to furnish her with $700 or $800 at a time, in order to prevent exposure, and that the total sum in two years extorted in this manner amounted to nearly $20,000.

☞ The telegraph, a few days since, announced the shooting of Deputy U. S. Marshal Arms, at Topeka, Kansas, by a man named John Ritchey, whom he was attempting to arrest. The State Record, published at Topeka, states the crime with which Ritchey stood charged was that of mail robbery—a false charge trumped up during the troubles of 1855–57, in order to punish him for his active efforts in the Free State cause. Arms was under the influence of liquor when he started to arrest Ritchey; he had no writ or other official authority for the arrest, and tacitly admitted the fact.—The Justice decided that the case was one of justifiable homicide, and discharged the prisoner.

MAGAZINES FOR MAY.—The Religious Educator for May, edited by Rev. W. H. Cudworth; published by Walker, Wise & Co., Boston.

Grace Greenwood's Little Pilgrim, from Philadelphia; and the Student and Schoolmate, from Boston and New York—are both full of valuable attractions, as usual.

The Freemasons' Almanac for 1860 is just issued by Morris & Monsarrat, publishers of Masonic Works, Louisville, Ky., compiled by Rob Morris,—in which we find condensed in 64 large pages a complete statement of the origin, progress and present condition of Freemasonry in North America.

☞ The sum of twelve thousand dollars has been subscribed by a few gentlemen of Boston and vicinity, and presented to Dr. Walker, the retiring President of Harvard College.

President Felton, who began the active duties of his office on the 1st of March, will be formally inaugurated on the 28th of May.

☞ The dispatch announcing the nomination of Douglas, which we, in common with Boston and other papers, (on good authority,) published, Tuesday morning, was premature, if nothing more. He had a majority on first ballot, but not the needed two-thirds. "Just wait a bit, though," said the Douglasites—and so we will.

☞ Isn't it a little singular, that just when the ladies are changing the little bonnets for large ones, the gentlemen should be reducing the size of their tiles? However, the men never yet have worn anything so ill-adapted, foolish and uncomfortable as the ladies' head-dress of the past few years.

☞ The suspension of the house of Treadwell, Perry & Norton, of the Eagle Furnace, Albany, is announced. Their liabilities are said to be $600,000.

☞ The milk men of Concord and vicinity have agreed to post the names of all persons not reliable, and who have not heretofore paid their honest milk bills.

Gentlemen:—For more than thirty years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and piles. I have been frequently under medical treatment, and have tried various preparations which have been recommended to me, but received no permanent relief. RESIGNATION OF DR. PEABODY.

At the annual meeting of the South Parish, held in this city, April 30th, the Committee who were appointed to prepare a letter expressive of the feelings of the parish, in reply to Rev Dr. Peabody's letter of resignation received March 26th—presented the following:

To the Rev. A. P. PEABODY, D. D., Pastor of the South Parish, Portsmouth, N. H.

Reverend and Dear Sir:—

The letter addressed by you to the "Legal voters of the South Parish in Portsmouth," on the 26th of March last, has left us no other course but to express to you, in reply, our deep sorrow at the loss which awaits us, and our heartfelt sympathy with you in the new field of labor and usefulness to which your sense of duty invites you.

If the relations which have subsisted between us for more than a quarter of a century must now be broken, we cannot but rejoice that your letter was so explicit as to leave no possible supposition that on our part there was any wish or any willingness that an event so full of important consequences should occur.

For more than a hundred years the care of the South Parish has been under the pastorate of yourself and your two immediate predecessors; and this extended relation is even less remarkable than is the harmony and attachment which have uniformly subsisted between the pastor and the parish.—There is not, in the memory of the oldest member of our Society, a single instance of discord, or even dissatisfaction; but in their place have been feelings of the strongest attachment and of undisturbed confidence.

We cannot therefore but feel deeply in view of the separation which now awaits us; and had you been moved, in your letter of the 25th ultimo, by any other cause excepting the conscientious belief that you were following the imperative voice of duty, you may well believe that the unanimous feelings and wishes of the parish would have been expressed in decided opposition to such a step.

You cannot for a moment doubt the influence you hold over the minds and hearts of those who, for so long a period, have reaped the fruits of your intellect, and enjoyed the ready sympathy of your heart, in seasons alike of joy and sorrow.

Indeed, it seems almost superfluous for us to express to you officially what has been seen by you daily for so many years, namely, the true affection and entire confidence felt by every member of your parish towards you. It would not be kind in us to dwell much upon the difficulties to which this separation may expose us. To many of us it will be impossible to transfer to another those feelings of personal attachment, which the course of so many years has called forth and strengthened; and we must all feel it is beyond the line of our hopes to have replaced in another the character and intellect which in you have been matured by the experience and studious culture of so many years.

Permit us also, as citizens of Portsmouth, no less than as your parishioners, to express our sorrow that we have to lose from among us one whose counsel has always been judicious, and whose labors have ever been so efficient and valuable in all the public interests of our city; and in the expression of this sentiment we feel sure that we shall have a response from all our fellow citizens.

To your new field of labor and influence, you will rest assured that you take with you, from every heart, the most sincere wishes for your happiness, your health and prosperity. We sincerely hope that in this new sphere you may be able to inculcate and strengthen in many minds those same liberal views of Christianity, the beginning of which can be traced so far back in the history of your present parish, and that thro' your efforts and labors the great and final principle of religious toleration may be attained, when each mind shall be free to adopt and enjoy that belief which is congenial to its instincts, its reason, and its conscience.

Renewing to you the assurance of our profound interest in your welfare and of our earnest wishes for your success, we remain your friends,

GEORGE W. HAVEN,
SAMUEL LORD,
JOHN P. LYMAN,
J. M. TREDICK,
ICHABOD ROLLINS,
} Committee of the South Parish.

Portsmouth, April 30, 1860.

After the reading of the above, it was unanimously

Voted, That the committee cause the same to be forwarded to Rev. Dr. Peabody, and also send copies for publication to the Editors of the Portsmouth papers, Christian Register, and Christian Inquirer.

From the records of the meeting.
JOHN SISE, Parish Clerk.

☞ We publish this morning the reply of the Committee of the South Parish, to the Rev. Dr. Peabody's letter asking dismissal. The letter of the pastor, on account of its naturally private and confidential character, it was not deemed advisable to make public.

☞ On Wednesday morning, at the Alms House in Rye, as Mrs. Nancy Philbrook, widow of the late Mr. Joseph Philbrook, got up from the breakfast table, she mistook the cellar door for the one leading to her bed-room, fell to the bottom of the stairs, killing her instantly. She was 84 years of age.

☞ We have received two numbers of the "Business Man's Advertiser," a sheet considerably smaller than the Daily Chronicle—very well gotten up by Frank D. Webster, a young man employed at the Journal Office. Among the long list of advertisers, we observe but one or two who have never appeared in our columns.

☞ A Social Levee will be held at Hanover street Chapel, this (Thursday) evening, May 3d, which the public are respectfully invited to attend. Music and refreshments for the occasion. Admittance 10 cts.; tickets to be had at the door.

☞ The "Floral Exhibition" given on Tuesday evening, at the Pearl St. church, is to be repeated this (Thursday) evening, by special reqest. Some variation will be made in the programme. Tickets 10 cts., to be had at the door. Doors open at 7; commence at half past 7.

☞ A Frenchman, at Dexter, Me., undertook, a few days since, upon a wager of $10, to saw six cords of wood, two cuts, between sunrise and sunset. He accomplished 4 cords and 7 feet, at 6 P. M., and then gave up the job. The Frenchman belonged in Dover, and was carried down to Dexter for the purpose by a hotel-keeper, who wagered $40 on his head. The wood was packed very close by the Dexter boys, to render the feat as hard as possible. Besides having a man constantly sharpening the saws, the betting landlord furnished a round of pork to grease the saws with.

We have often been told that the late Mr. Samuel Trickey, of this city, once sawed 7 cords of wood, (pine, in both instances, of course,) two cuts, in a similar day at the Navy Yard here,—on a wager, which he won. He had men to put the sticks on and off, as also probably did the Dover man; but even with all the help possible, most men might as well undertake to whip Heenan, as to cut up such a woodpile.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—Agreeably to a call, a Convention was held at Raymond, April 19.

A committee was chosen to nominate the County Prosecuting Committee, to report at an adjourned Convention, to be held at Raymond, May 3d, at 1 o'clock, P. M. It is urgently desired that the friends of temperance attend largely from every town.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

OLD DOMINION COFFEE-POTS!!

of which so many thousands have been sold during the past year.

COFFEE.

Boiled coffee, it is well known, is superior to coffee made after the French fashion, by straining; but, when boiled in an ordinary coffee pot, the fine aroma goes off with the vapor, leaving the infusion flat or bitter, hence a resort by many housekeepers to the French biggin.

Several attempts have been made to construct a coffee pot that would accomplish this desirable object, but, until the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot" appeared, none was found entirely adapted to the purpose. It is simple in construction, easily used, and will always give good coffee at one fourth less cost than by the old modes of boiling.

There is in coffee both an aromatic and a bitter principle. In boiling, the aromatic (which is very volatile) escapes if the boiler is open, and the bitter remains. The excellence of coffee depends on the amount of aroma retained in boiling; but all know that this delicious fragrance of the berry is allowed to pervade the whole house for half-an hour or so before breakfast, during the boiling process, and that, in too many cases, the flavor of the coffee is so impaired, that little or no enjoyment is found in the drinking. Coffee thus deprived of its aroma, is neither so pleasant nor so healthy as a beverage.

We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times.

Ladies' Home Magazine.

made upon the same principle as the Coffee-pots.

WOOD'S

PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.

A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.

It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN,

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it begins to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head. I very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if anything gray or getting bald. . . . Very Respectfully,

BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Alamazoo, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a month or two of "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all!

Yours truly,

WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage yonder. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and dispose of it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, and is more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

☞ It seems that the individual who attempts to mount the ladder of Fame from the area of the Prize Ring, has to climb by many and very unpleasant "rounds." A detailed account of the Great Fight, published in Bell's Life, tells us that the combatants struck each other with mawleys and bunches of fives, upon the head, the nut, the cone, the conk, the cannister, the noddle, the mug, the knowledge box; the nose, the sneezer, the snorer, the snuffer, the snuff-tray, the nozzle, the mazzard; the eyes, the ogles, the optics, the peepers; the mouth, the kisser, the whistler, the orationtrap; drawing the blood, the claret, the ruby, the crimson, the home-brewed, the gravy; and in several instances knocking the unfortunate knocker off his pins, his pegs, his stumps, and his foundation, to say nothing of boring, fibbing, and sending him to grass. Who wants the Belt?

☞ The cattle distemper in Massachusetts is a very serious affair. The State Commissioners, in their investigations, have found it necessary on some farms to have the entire herds slaughtered. Several hundreds have thus been destroyed. The lungs of the animals are found to be a mass of corruption.

☞ The Manchester American says Hillsborough is the most populous, and in the aggregate the most wealthy county in New Hampshire, yet the number of persons whose property exceeds $60,000 is less than twenty.

Dyspepsia Remedy
DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.
This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.
As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.
It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.
Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.
What it will do!
DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.
NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.
Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.
Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.
During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.
All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over a I others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1860.

CHARLESTON CONVENTION.

NINTH DAY, MAY 2.

Ballotings went on, to the number of fifty-seven in the aggregate.

After the 22d ballot, Mr. Norfit of Va. said that himself and colleagues thought that his constituents ought to be heard, and he demanded that they should be heard.—He could no longer vote for Mr. Hunter.

Debate was indulged in for some time on the question, when the President decided that the Virginia delegates were entitled to cast their individual votes. The vote of Virginia was then cast as follows: one for Douglas and fourteen for Hunter. Douglas also received one vote from North Carolina, giving him a majority of the whole electoral college.

On the 23d ballot, when Virginia was called, Mr. Ruskin stated that he was required to cast fourteen votes one way, and one another. He declined to cast it, however, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention. The State Convention had not passed any resolution on the subject, but voting as a unit was regarded as the Democratic law of the State.

On the 23d ballot, Douglas had 152 1-2.

In the evening session, Mr. Gittings of Md. gave notice that after the next ballot he would move that the Convention adjourn to meet in Baltimore on the first Monday in June. He thought the delegates should go home to see their constituents, and they would be ready to do their duty by nominating any man who could beat the Black Republicans.

Mr. Randall of Philadelphia would move to adjourn sine die.

The thirty-fifth ballot was then announced —Douglas, 152.

A debate ensued on the motion of Mr. Gittings. He assured the Convention that Baltimore was no longer a plug ugly town, and promised a hospitable welcome to the Convention. The motion was withdrawn for the time, but Mr. Gittings said he should renew it.

During the 36th ballot, Arkansas having voted for Breckinridge, one of the delegates from Kentucky requested the votes to be withdrawn, he was instructed by Mr. Breckinridge not to allow the use of his name in opposition to the gentlemen then in nomination, especially Mr. Guthrie.

Tennessee withdrew Mr. Johnson.

After the 54th ballot, Mr. Gittings made a motion that it was inexpedient to make a nomination. He wanted gentlemen to face the music. His motion was declared out of order.

FIFTY-FIFTH BALLOT.

Douglas,	151½
Hunter,	50
Dickinson,	3
Guthrie,	65½
Davis,	1

The 56th and 57th ballots were had with the same result.

Mr. Ashe of N. C. moved to adjourn.

Mr. Gittings moved an amendment, to adjourn to the first Monday in June, to meet in Baltimore. Amendment rejected.

A vote by States was taken on the motion to adjourn, which was carried—yeas 148, nays 100.

Douglas' friends are determined to stand by him to the end.

CONVENTION ADJOURNED.

At Charleston, Thursday, May 3, immediately upon being called to order this morning, Mr. Russell of Virginia moved to adjourn to meet at Baltimore on the 18th of June, and that the different States be requested to fill the vacancies in their delegations. The preliminary motion to suspend the standing order (to ballot) was agreed to, 100 to 51. A scene of dire confusion then followed. No attempt was made to maintain even decent order.—In the noise and confusion, the adjournment was agreed to. Thus we have the end of the chapter. The disintegration of the Democracy is complete. A previous dispatch, earlier in the morning, said:—

The candid men in the Douglas rank, give up his chance entirely, but say no other man shall be nomination. The opinion is openly expressed that the only thing the party can now do is to sustain its organization, and that only the nomination of some such man as Guthrie can do this.

☞ The Transcript says the Japanese Embassy will visit Boston.

The latest suggestion for the torture of the coming Japanese, is that of the Philadelphia Ledger. It recommends that all the Missionary Boards send delegates to Washington to lay before the Princes the leading points of doctrine, with a view to their proper understanding of the religious condition of the United States.

Among the ancient records of the North Hadley (Mass.) Congregation, is the following clause:—"Provided further, that if the owner of said pew, shall let the pew, or any part thereof, to any negro or mulatto, or in any way admit any negro or mulatto to the possession or occupancy of the same, then the said pew, or share thereof so let, or occupied, shall in every such case, thereby immediately revert to, and become the property of the said society."

The dead are never sick. Consequently all diseases may be classified as affections of the "Liver."

EVENTS IN CHARLESTON.

The two-thirds rule was adopted in the grand Convention, Tuesday, May 2.

A resolution offered by Tennessee, requiring that the President of the Convention shall not declare any one nominated for President or Vice President unless he shall have received two hundred and two votes or more, was called up.

Mr. Richardson of Illinois moved to lay it on the table. Ayes 111 1-2, nays 141.

Mr. Stuart of Michigan raised a point of order, that the resolution must lie on the table one day before being acted upon, as it made a change in the standing rules of the Convention.

The President decided that the resolution was in order.

Mr. Stuart appealed. The Chair was sustained—ayes 144, nays 108.

This vote is regarded as fatal to Douglas. Mr. Stuart moved an amendment that all who vote for the nomination shall be bound to sustain the nominee. Voted out of order.

Thus the Convention has decided that a vote of two thirds of the whole number shall be required to secure a nomination; so the withdrawal of delegations does not affect the candidates, by reducing the number of votes actually cast. The Boston Herald's dispatch says:—

The New York delegation, on the test question, deserted Douglas, and Guthrie stock is on the rise. Messrs. Stuart of Michigan and Richardson of Illinois led the Douglas host, while Messrs. Bigler of Pennsylvania and Butler of Massachusetts headed their antagonists.

The Tribune has a dispatch which states that the friends of Douglas begin to believe they are sold. The New York delegation voted for Douglas, but also in favor of requiring two-thirds of the whole Convention as necessary to a nomination. It is said that the New York delegation is disposed to go for Guthrie. If the Douglas men see his defeat inevitable, they will concentrate on Stephens of Georgia. Some of the friends of Douglas say New York means to defeat Douglas as she did Cass.

A dispatch has been received from Washington announcing that the Administration will support the nominee of the Secession Convention.

Seven of the Georgia delegates have gone home.

The two-thirds resolution has caused a dead lock.

An adjournment to Baltimore on the 25th of June is strongly talked of.

A dispatch to the Boston Journal says, May 1:

Mr. Douglas's nomination is believed by the knowing ones to be impossible, and yet he has the power to say who shall be nominated. The state of matters is no better than before the bolt.

There is a talk about adjourning to meet again in Philadelphia, in June, as the Convention can hardly hope to recover from the present excitement before that time.

The Pennsylvania delegation is considering a resolution defining territorial rights, but there is no more prospect of harmony in this fragment of the Democracy than there was when it was an entirety.

Many openly talk of breaking up in a row.

The withdrawal of the Southern States works no improvement in the maintenance of order. The utmost confusion has prevailed throughout the day. Quite a scene occurred between Cushing and Oliver Stevens of Massachusetts. The former got very mad, and ordered the latter to his seat, at the same time instructing the sergeant-at-arms to enforce his mandate.

☞ The Boston Herald, the leading Democratic paper in New England, is down on that ancient old line Whig, Caleb Cushing, now the President of their National Convention, and very possibly their candidate for President now or hereafter—or perhaps the very "man on horseback, with a drawn sword in his hand," who is to "secure to the world a respite from the dissonant din of the ideologies of the hour," and "close up the truncated series of the honored Presidents of the United States" in a general Democratic "cataclysm." The Herald is down upon this eminent convert to modern Democracy in this cruel fashion,—Mr. Cushing's offence being simply the very natural desire to push his boat along in the Democratic puddle as fast as possible, and get a nomination at the present time if he can. Says the Herald:

This man, Caleb Cushing, is doing immense injury to the Democratic party by misrepresenting the people of New England. He is constantly pushing himself forward for place, and would sacrifice the country, if need be, to be made President. The Democracy never made a greater mistake than when they warmed this viper into life to sting them. He should not have been sent to Charleston, but there were leading Democrats who favored it, and he was allowed to go. But no sooner is he elected than he is ready to sell out the Democracy of Massachusetts to Mississippi abstractionists. We shall, without fear or favor, expose the traitors, be they who they may—big or small—most decidedly.

HALF VOTES.—Many persons wonder what is meant by half votes, at Charleston. The answer to this query is, that there are two delegates allowed there for each electoral vote in a State.

For example: New Hampshire, sending two Senators and three Representatives, has five votes, but she has ten delegates.—Now, if they vote all alike, she throws 5 votes on one side. If the delegates vote 6 for Douglas, and 4 for Hunter, they are counted as 3 to 2. But if they vote 5 for D. and 5 for H., they are counted as 2 1-2 for each.

THE NEW BONNET is an improvement Ladies look much more queenly. The mode which is going out always had the appearance of being plastered upon the back of the head; and the ladies in their efforts to keep them on their heads, particularly in adverse winds, had a shrugged and dumpy expression. We think there will be a long list of marriages next Fall.—Manchester Amer.

Well, we are glad somebody likes the coal-scuttle style. Small bonnets are an abomination—always were to common sense and good taste, as they soon will be to fashion and so of course to the ladies. But the new ones are so homely—ah! go away! you can't tell your sweet-heart from your grandmother, in one of them; and we don't see that they afford much more protection to the head and face, than the rose-leaf pattern. The prettiest and best head-gears we know of, are the jaunty little hats worn by girls.

☞ A correspondent of the Bath Times, at Arizona, New Mexico, tells of a Mrs. Page who was captured by the Apache Indians, near Tuscon, recently—and becoming fatigued on the march, was stabbed by lances and pelted with stones, and rolled off a steep cliff; and being supposed dead, was stripped of all clothing. But she revived, and though having sixteen lance wounds, and seven from stones, actually dragged heself twenty-three miles home, and will recover. She had no covering whatever, and during her sixteen days' journey subsisted on roots and berries. The journey was made among mountains, whose snow-covered tops furnished her water.

This account may suggest to the reader the story and the sufferings of Mrs. Dustan; but who now living cast of the Mississippi, would suspect that such scenes are enacted in the territory of the United States, in the year 1860?

The citizens of Taunton will determine at the polls to-day whether that village shall remain a town or become a city. Stick to the town, dear friends, if you would avoid silly parade and enormous taxation. But city sounds pretty, doesn't it?—Boston Post.

The vote upon the question of adopting the proposed charter for a city was—whole number 2003—yeas 974, nays 1029.

"OUT WEST."—The town of LeClaire, Iowa, has been sued for seventy-three dollars interest on its bonds.

The Madison (Wisconsin) Argus says that the number of mortgages upon farms to railroad companies in that State is 4500, the average of the mortgages is $1200, and the total amount $5,400,000.

☞ The people of Manchester, N. H., according to the Mirror, are highly favored in the way of daily beverage. That paper says:

It is nauseating to think what the water here is flavored with; we cannot reflect upon the subject without having our thoughts run to sink-spouts, stables, vaults, leaky gas-pipes—bah!

Rather bad, but yet not so bad as much of the other stuff that is drank in Manchester.

At a railway station, an old lady said to a very pompous-looking gentleman, who was talking about steam communication;—"Pray, sir, what is steam?" "Steam, ma'am, is, ah—steam is, ah—ah! steam is—steam." "I knew that chap couldn't tell ye," said a rough looking fellow, standing by; "steam is a bucket of water in tremendous perspiration."

And this last chap wasn't exactly correct, either; for "perspiration" means an insensible and of course invisible exhalation or excretion.

☞ It is said all the "fancy" men in New York denounce Morrissey for his course towards Heenan and his sympathy for the English Champion, and the Boston Post says hopes are entertained that the "Boy" will finish his work by whipping his American conqueror.

MORRISSEY CUTS THE ROPES.—A gentleman now in New York, who witnessed the fight, says that when Heenan had got Sayers into such a position that he must inevitably have won the battle, John Morrissey cut the ropes and let Heenan fall to the ground.—N. Y. Tribune.

What an undertaking is the Pony Express from California; Only think of it—1800 miles across an unbroken country, surrounded by every danger, in ten days! There were nearly one hundred horses employed, and only thirty-six couriers, each riding about 50 miles.

The N. Y. Sun has discovered a melancholy case of black-mailing in that city. A young married lady, who had gone astray, was compelled to furnish her paramour with large sums as hush money until his demands became impossible; then ensued revelation, despair, separation, &c., and the destruction of a loving and wealthy merchant prince of a husband's happiness.

A New Orleans surgeon complains through the newspapers that he has been in attendance at fifteen duels where nobody was hurt. The thrust and parry is the style there and hot blooded youths are skillful.

☞ The New York Herald says—"The old Democratic party has breathed its last and to-day we enter upon a new era in national politics. The convention at Charleston has split, and, whether it be on men or measures, the practical result is the same."

☞ The Ballot asks,—"If the Chronicle is not a tempecance organ, what is it?"—Well, it aims to be a strictly independent paper—bound to no sect, party, clique or clan; asking no favor and fearing no frowns; advocating its own principles and defending its own opinions—and willing to stand or fall on its own merits, without factitious aid of any sort.

The editor of the Ballot "thinks resolutions have been engineered through the Conventions, commending the Chronicle as a temperance organ." But we think he is quite mistaken herein; for certainly no such engineering has been done (by any of its editors,) and no such resolution passed, no such commendation made, that we ever heard of.

He also says,—"Uncle Toby writes as one 'having authority' on that subject, and makes it the leading feature of its editorial columns." Well, the Ballot and everybody else to whom the matter is of any interest, ought to know that "Uncle Toby," as such, is not the Chronicle, nor its editor, and does not "affect" to be; that what he says, he says like any other of our numerous correspondents—on his own responsibility only—all which the Chronicle is no more obliged editorially to endorse, than the opinions or statements of any other correspondent.—And we don't see that the membership of the editors in any Society, necessarily constitutes the paper an organ of the same.

But the editors do not commend to their readers brandy, gin, rum, wine, &c.; they only for a consideration allow them to be commended in the Chronicle. In this respect they resemble many liquor sellers we have known, who abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors themselves, and condemn intemperance, while they continue the traffic for the profit derived from it.

We can't say how "many liquor sellers" our friend may "have known," who abstained from drinking themselves—though we have known but very few. Some of them do "condemn intemperance," to be sure,—that is, the making a daily practice of getting dead-drunk; but we "have known" none who would take a step to promote temperance. In conclusion, we would ask the editor of the Ballot if no publisher of a paper should advertise anything unless he can recommend it—and if such is his rule?

We are experiencing a remarkably dry time at present, not only in Exeter, where temperance men tell us the sale of liquors has been stopped, but over the country generally.—Ballot.

Will the editor of the Ballot inform us what liquors he "recommends to his readers," when they are "dry?"

☞ Mine host Flagg, of the City Hotel, has been making considerable improvements in his pleasant and finely located House,—as will be seen by his card in another column; and now offers good accommodations for the business or pleasure traveller, at moderate terms—as reasonable as at any hotel we ever visited, and much cheaper than most, all things considered.—Our distant friends and readers visiting the city, may feel sure of receiving courteous treatment and prompt attention, while in charge of Mr. Flagg, or his assistants.

By the way, is it not a little singular, that no means is usually and regularly taken to let the travelling public know that there are any hotels in Portsmouth. Take up the Daily Chronicle, in the cars, or any of our city Weeklies, and you find directions where to buy groceries, dry goods, and almost anything else; but where to get a meal, or put up for the night, usually cannot be learned from the newspapers,—the best, most legitimate and effective source of such information. Half a dollar per week would keep a hotel before the readers of all the papers published in the city; and yet even this trifling investment is not made. We are not drumming for the newspapers, for the balance of benefit of such a trade would be ten times greater on the other side named.

☞ It will be seen that the beautiful and staunch Yacht Sibyl, Capt. Preble, is to run for the accommodation of pleasure seekers, the coming season. Such fine vessels are rarely to be found out of private hands; and parties from the country or elsewhere, can be accommodated to their satisfaction aboard the Sibyl.

DEATHS IN APRIL.—The record of deaths in Portsmouth during the last month, shows twenty-seven—a large number for April. Of these, twelve, nearly half, were less than 5 years of age.

Males thirteen—aged 3 months, 7 mos., 9 mos., 1 year, 1 year 7 mos., 3 yrs., 3 yrs. 6 mos., 22, 23, 24, 59, 69, 84.

Females fourteen—aged 1 year, 18 mos., 19 mos., 3 yrs. 6 mos., 5 yrs., 18, 30, 36, 40, 55, 64, 69, 85, 87.

☞ We have been shown a very neat and ingenious "Boot and Shoe Duster," for cleaning both soles and uppers of dust or snow, while on the feet. It consists of several brushes, and is intended to be fastened to the floor in entries of houses, schools, halls, hotels, &c. Manufactured by J. Chesley & Co., Concord, and sold by a travelling agent.

☞ The Second Session of the Teachers' Institute for Rockingham County, will be held at South New Market, commencing on Monday next. All interested will learn particulars on consulting the advertisement—and all concerned in schools, ought to be interested. These gatherings afford rare opportunities for teachers of all grades to acquire information as to their duties and interests; and as pleasant occasions of brief relaxation from labor, and of great social enjoyment, are not unimportant.—Portsmouth pays upwards of $200 annually, towards the Institutes, and yet derives but little advantage from them; for our teachers do not avail themselves of the facilities thereby afforded. We have no doubt, however, that if the School Committees should recommend the teachers' attendance, there would be a larger delegation to South Newmarket, than Portsmouth ever sent to an Institute before.

☞ When one friend meets another on the street at the present time, he is sure to make this remark; "Very dry, isn't it?"—and the reply is, "Yes, it is; we need rain;" and true enough, the drought is seriously felt in this vicinity. Seed which is planted needs rain to effect its germination; trees, grass, flowers, streets, roads, and even ourselves, alike feel the want of genial Spring showers, which give beauty, freshness and vigor to everything. Last Sabbath, prayer was offered in some of our churches, for this much desired blessing; but no cloud like that which the servant of Elijah saw, greeted our dusty vision. Yet we trust and believe that ere many days elapse, and perhaps before this paragraph meets the eye of some reader, we shall hail the sound of the pattering rain-drop. ***

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1835.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Piles.

All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

BOSTON, Sept. 8, 1858.

Gentlemen:—For more than thirty years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and piles. I have been frequently under medical treatment, and have tried various preparations which have been recommended to me, but received no permanent relief. In January last I commenced taking the "Peruvian Syrup," and after taking three bottles of it I became perfectly cured of the dyspepsia and piles, and my general health is now all that I can desire it to be.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

This preparation is a certain cure for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Incipient Consumption, &c. In confirmation of the highest medical authority that "Consumption can be cured," numerous instances of complete restoration from this disease by the use of the Balsam can be given.

The following letter was received from Colonel Markham, of the British army, and shows the estimation in which the Balsam of Wild Cherry is held abroad.

Fair Hotel, Isle of Wight, England, Sept. 30, 1860.

Sir:—I have a daughter in a delicate state of health, who has, I think, received signal benefit from Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, three bottles of which were sent her by her brother in Canada. Please put me up six bottles, and forward them by the first steamer to Southampton or Liverpool, as you may find most convenient, with any account of the medicine you may be so good as to send me. We have searched London for it in vain.

Believe me yours, truly,

WM. MARKHAM.

Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

The wide reputation which Dr. J. Hostetter's "Stomach Bitters" have attained during the past year, bespeaks its excellence in a more forcible manner than we can offer. It renovates, purifies, and strengthens the system, and aid the stomach in the performance of its functions. It is regarded on all sides as a sovereign specific, and therefore, to procure it in the best possible way, should be the object of the public. We commend it with more than usual zeal and confidence, believing and knowing, as we do, that it stands foremost among the many preparations of the day, for imparting strength, vigor and tone to the system, and possessing the curative powers for all similar diseases arising from a disordered stomach. In the most severe cases of cramps, diarrhœa and weakness in the stomach, the "Bitters" have been rigidly tested, and always with the greatest success.

FALSE REPORT.—A dispatch to the Associated Press was received Friday night, stating that a private dispatch from Charleston had been sent to New York, announcing the nomination of Mr. Douglas. We printed this dispatch in our early morning edition, which is sent into the country, believing it to be reliable. A dispatch received at 2 o'clock, Wednesday morning, contradicts the reported nomination of Douglas, and obliges us to make this explanation in justice to those country readers who may have been misled by the New York dispatch.—Boston Herald, May 1.

We were sold by the same dispatch, which was the latest received in Newburyport, and we therefore had no means of correcting. However, it was only anticipating manifest destiny. Douglas has his opponents, as Heenan had Sayers when the Benecia Boy had Tom's head under his arm, and whould have pressed the life out of him, if the ropes had not been cut.—Newburyport Herald.

SECEDERS' CONVENTION.—Charleston, May 2.—The Southern Convention adopted the platform committees of the National Convention. The proposition to take the new name of Constitutional Democracy was after a long debate voted down, the delegates claiming to be the National Democratic Convention. The Pacific Railroad resolution was adopted, but not without considerable opposition.

The convention adjourned to 8 o'clock to-night, and met at the Theatre at that time. Mr. Hatch of La. moved to adjourn to noon to morrow, as the other Conventions have made no nomination as yet. Carried.

There was a large audience, including many ladies, and Mr. Yancey was called upon for a speech. He took a position upon the stage, with the boquets thrown to him by the ladies, in each hand; and returned thanks, and then called upon Mr. Barry, who proceeded to amuse the ladies.

☞ Perley's Washington dispath of May 3, (before the news of the adjournment at Charleston, says:—

Guthrie's friends are jubilant over the news from Charleston, but the Douglas men are firm, and stick to their platform of "the Little Giant or nobody. The President advises the convention should adjourn, unless such a man as Lane or Guthrie be agreed upon. The friends here of the seceders, openly avow their policy to be of throwing the election into the House by running three or four tickets. Once there they count on fifteen Southern States, together with California and Oregon.

A Charleston dispatch to the Boston Herald says:—

Every species of trickery is being brought in play to defeat Douglas. Gambing hells and similar establishments are used to rob and clean out delegates so they will be compelled to sell their votes to the opposition.

FAST RUNNING DOWN EAST.—The Boston Herald says, on Wednesday the citizens of Rockland, Me., were thrown into great excitement by a foot race against time in the streets of the town. George Burns, a resident of Rockland, ran three miles in twenty minutes, and challenges any man to run for $50 a side. George is six ft. four inches high, and the excitement in the streets occasioned by his tall racing was considerably heightened by his costume, which consisted of red flannel shirt, white belt, and a Hussar military cap. He was much cheered by the populace.

A Roman Catholic peasant boy in Ireland, is reported to have listened attentively to a priest earnestly denouncing the revival, and warning the people against it as the work of the devil. "Ah! then, your rivirence," replied the lad, "it must be a new divil, for that's not the way the ould divil used to make the people behave themselves."

On the 9th inst., Mr. David Brumley, of Greensville, Tenn., was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary Jane Davis, living somewhere in the same vicinity. The bridegroom was seventy-two years of age, the blushing bride fifteen.

Just received, a fresh invoice of the world-renowned
of which so many thousands have been sold during the past year.
COFFEE.
Boiled coffee, it is well known, is superior to coffee made after the French fashion, by straining; but, when boiled in an ordinary coffee pot, the fine aroma goes off with the vapor, leaving the infusion flat or bitter, hence a resort by many housekeepers to the French biggin.
Several attempts have been made to construct a coffee pot that would accomplish this desirable object, but, until the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot" appeared, none was found entirely adapted to the purpose. It is simple in construction, easily used, and will always give good coffee at one fourth less cost than by the old modes of boiling.
There is in coffee both an aromatic and a bitter principle. In boiling, the aromatic (which is very volatile) escapes if the boiler is open, and the bitter remains. The excellence of coffee depends on the amount of aroma retained in boiling; but all know that this delicious fragrance of the berry is allowed to pervade the whole house for half-an hour or so before breakfast, during the boiling process, and that, in too many cases, the flavor of the coffee is so impaired, that little or no enjoyment is found in the drinking. Coffee thus deprived of its aroma, is neither so pleasant nor so healthy as a beverage.
We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times.
Ladies' Home Magazine.
made upon the same principle as the Coffee-pots.

WOOD'S
PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.
A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.
It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

KEROSENE! KEROSENE!!

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analysis from Blood taken from persons afflicted with Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory.—Analysis from healthy persons gives PURE COD LIVER PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection when ever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No 1, which is also the No. for Impurities of Blood, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERUSE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2 for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. FOR SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, distinctness must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and stating that it relieves their children immediately, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, DISTURBITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. Are you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are the result of their use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

Is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the fluid becomes vitiated weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor between one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation; indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupting and viscerous matter, which in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or tumors. The foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are tainted with this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, but they must it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the purpose of ridding the blood of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of scrofula, scrofulous, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUMS, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula, in its widest sense, is the source of all the evils which flesh is heir to. Its manifestations are as various as decay, and as painful as death. Hence it is that so many complaints are called scrofulous, but they have the same origin, namely, impure blood, and their cure is to be effected by purifying the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which no good health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so compounded that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every fibre of the whole human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of medicines so full of life, all who have been afflicted with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and efficacious.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purging in general.

JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression or vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this curative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of chronic complaints, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, and, unlike the old codes, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and stimulating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is that MATERIA MEDICA, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these INVIGORATING PILLS has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally precede INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most scientifically balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a gentle, safe and energetic remedy, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy and fully manifested effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 25 cents, and retailed by all Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE
DR. TOWNSEND'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
Is the GREAT RENOVATOR of the BLOOD; the sovereign remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.
These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this WORLD-RENOWNED SARSAPARILLA.
Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portions of the community.
When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a unhealthy saline diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body
TO THE PUBLIC.
The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend, and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.
JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.,
CHEMIST.
Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.
RENOVATING & PURIFYING THE BLOOD
It contains all the vegetable principles which experience has proved useful in clearing the system from disease, extracted and combined with the best of medicinal agents, the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.
Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or splenetic physicians, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.
Caution!
To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of Dr. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over a Moldboard, we offer them AT THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

HINTS TO THE CONVENTION,

To meet at Chicago, May 16th.

That there will be harmony and general union among the delegates, there is good reason to believe. The public interests and welfare require union, and concession, if necessary, of minor considerations. Never in our national history was there a previous time when the highest qualifications, talents, long experience, integrity, firmness of purpose, general knowledge, and a patriotic devotion to our free institutions,—were so imperatively required to be possessed by the candidate to be nominated to guide the ship of State. Should any one say that there is no danger of breakers ahead, he would only evince his ignorance of the signs of the times.

There is a great Southern movement to have Cuba, per fas aut nefas,—to extend our empire over at least a part of Mexico and Central America, (which would be attended with wars for foreign conquests,)—to re-open the barbarous slave trade,—and what would be still more disastrous in consequences, to have property in human beings protected under the Constitution and federal laws, not only in our free Territories, but in all the States. There are other momentous concerns which have been discussed and are probably well understood.

Now, the question has come to this—will the free States, with a population of towards twenty millions, consent to surrender into the hands of the most unprincipled oligarchy that ever disgraced the earth, the glorious rights and privileges which were the fruits of the American Revolution?—or will they, "with loud shouts announcing the rising confidence of victory," as was done in the French Revolution in respect to Robespierre, declare a bas le tyran, down with the tyrants, who have so long controlled the federal government, and trampled down the rights of the people?

The people must arise in the majesty of their strength, put on their political armor, and elevate to the highest office in the nation one who would use the executive authority and influence to retrench the public expenses, preserve pacific relations with foreign nations, and restore the government to its original principles. This must be done, unless they would prefer longer to sustain a policy suicidal to their vital interests, prosperity and happiness. And it will be done, should the Chicago Convention nominate, and the people elect Senator SEWARD to fill the Presidential chair. We may safely predict that, if nominated, he would be elected. No statesman in the Union unites more eminent qualifications—no one would adhere more firmly to the principles he has long advocated. The proud oligarchy stand in more fear of his talents, integrity and learning, than of those of any other statesman.

The slaveholders in the Senate sometimes vent their low abuse of him; but he stands in their midst like some tall tree rising above the forest, while the dogs bark in vain at its base; but when he does deliver a speech in the Senate, he pays them off in a brighter kind of coin, not much suited to their fancy.

The great State of New York, giving 35 electoral votes, is entitled to consideration. True, she once had a native son elected President, who placed himself under the slave power. She has now, in a State Convention, unanimously nominated Senator Seward, who has also been nominated by a public convention in Kansas, for whose admission into the Union he has long manfully contended. The public press in the free States seems to favor his nomination, or else that of Gov. CHASE, who is also well qualified for the station, and has great personal popularity.

The small States of the North would support the nomination of either of these highly distinguished statesmen, and can it be doubted that either of them would receive the 85 votes of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio? Those three States give more than half the number of votes necessary to elect. Should there be a doubt in respect to Pensylvania, let the Hon. SIMON CAMERON of that State be nominated for Vice President.

Should Senator Seward be elected, he would doubtless call to his Cabinet, some of the most able and firm champions of freedom. Gov. Chase might have the offer of the Secretary of State, and Col. Fremont that of the War or Navy department.—Should Gov. Chase, now Senator elect, be chosen President, we predict similar auspicious results, and that Senator Seward would fill the responsible office of Secretary of State, for they are mutual friends and advocates of the same policy. Thus would the Augean stables be cleansed and economy re-established.

Could our advice reach the national Convention, it would be to dispense with a platform, a thing of recent date, which avails little or nothing—makes much "noise and confusion," and when lengthy is open to so much objection in the minds of many, that votes may be lost instead of gained. These platforms are generally drawn up as the contrivances of a few individuals. At this crisis there are but two or three grave and momentous issues for the people to decide, and these are well understood without a platform. But if one must be adopted, let it embrace simply the restoration of the government to its original principles—retrenchment and reform—and the non-extension of the curse of slavery.

Instead of wasting a week's time in angry debate, tending to divide and distract the public mind, would it not evince the wisdom of the delegates, and promote union of action among the people, should they agree, upon being organized, to give their unanimous support on the second balloting to the candidate having the highest number of votes on the first balloting? To secure a triumphant victory, there must be a general union of voters in the free States, as well as some concessions of sound doctrines.

HARMONY.

PRIZE FIGHTING.—The business of pugilism and the recent encounter is denounced in Porter's Spirit of the Times. In a late issue it ridicules the idea of raising the fight of Heenan and Sayers to the dignity of an international affair, and says of pugilism in general:

"There is no kind of combat so unfair as pugilism. Two men of equal nerve and skill may meet on equal terms with any kind of fire-arms or the small sword, and even a slight disparity is equalized by the chances of a sudden aim. Add strength, and broadswords or bowie knives give the like opportunity to both. But two men in a fist-fight may be equal in every one of these qualities—most of which may be acquired—and yet if one has a face like John Morrissey's or Tom Sayers's, that is incapable of being hurt, and like them a stolid sort of brutal instinct that it is impossible to stun out of him—that one is bound to win. Then there is no kind of combat so beastly and disgusting, as the combat with the fist. If any one had his choice to be injured in such a way as to lay him up for—say—three weeks, who would not rather be pinked in the hip, or winged in the shoulder, than mashed in a horrid jelly with a great, rough, dirty, bunch of fives? The fist is, and ever will be, the argument of brutes, blackguards and strong bullies.—None but the Jews and Anglo-Saxon Colts ever gave it countenance, or lent a face to be disfigured by it. It is rapidly dying out of favor with them on the other side of the Atlantic, and we sincerely trust it will never gain strength enough in this country to claim the merit of dying at all, much less of having to be killed by the strong fist of the law.

To any one who regards humanity with a friendly and impartial eye, there is something horrible in the bull-dog prize fight, the human butchery of the broad sword and bowie knife, and the genteel mutual murder by the pistol or rifle.

Let those who choose, draw nice distinctions between them. The difference between them is only this, that some are horrible and the others more horrible.

☞ The princes and higher officers of the Japanese at San Francisco, are very gentlemanly and intelligent. Their servants are gross, and but little if any better than the Chinese. These lower orders were abundantly supplied with obscene books, filled with disgusting but rude pictures, which they showed without any apparent idea of impropriety. One fellow handed an extremely indelicate print to a lady sitting in the parlor of the hotel where the embassy were stopping. The lady looked at it, and retired in confusion. Such pictures and books were found in the hands of children at the hotel, and were collected and burnt. The officers did not seem to interfere with the tastes of their servants, though they used no such books themselves.

☞ The Boston Daily Advertiser appears dressed in new type throughout, and is beautifully printed. Its proof-reading is careful and correct; its Marine Journal the most complete of any in New England;—and its editorials well considered and well expressed. We rejoice to see such evidence of the continued prosperity of this oldest of the daily papers of Boston. It is announced that the paper is soon to be printed on one of Hoe's presses,—when the establishment will be one of the most complete, as the paper is now one of the most accurate and reliable. See Advertisement.

RAIN WANTED.—The Transcript says the suburbs of Boston are suffering severely from want of rain water, and the washerwoman's occupation is almost gone. In some localities in Charlestown soft water is hawked about at one dollar per barrel, and in some instances it has been retailed at ten cents per pailful.

PURCHASE OF A FUGITIVE.—The Trojans propose to pay for the freedom of the negro whom they rescued from the officers last week, and have probably raised $1000 for the purpose ere this. The sum of $500 was subscribed at once. The negro is now in St. Catherines, C. W.

☞ The U. S. authorities in Kansas have offered a reward of $300 for the arrest of John Ritchey, who shot Deputy Marshal Arms at Topeka. Ritchey has fled.

THE CLOSE.

The tenth and last day of the National Democratic Convention at Charleston, closed as follows,—May 3:

The resolution to meet at Baltimore was adopted—yeas 166, nays 88.

The resolution to meet in Baltimore, June 18, was adopted by yeas 195, nays 55.

Mr. Stewart, of Michigan, moved that the Convention adjourn.

Gen. L. Pratt proposed three cheers for the National Democratic Party, which were enthusiastically given.

Mr. Cushing, before putting the motion to adjourn, asked permission to address to the convention a few words. He said:

Notwithstanding deep and conflicting interests here at stake, I may say to the country that no convention has ever sat for so great a length of time with the observance of so great a share of order and freedom from personalities or offensive language as this!

He regarded this convention as having in its destiny not only the permanence of the Democratic party, but the question also whether these great United States should continue and endure. He will not, however, relinquish the hope that the Union will continue to eternity.

Mr. Brent of Baltimore extended a cordial invitation to the Democracy of the Union to the hospitalities of that city.

The convention then adjourned.

At 1 P. M. the delegates left in crowds for home. The adjournment was effected by the Douglas party, under instructions from Washington.

THE BOLTERS' CONVENTION.—This Southern Democratic Convention closed its session, May 3.—In the evening, Gen. Bayard, the president, left the chair, and addressed the convention. He reviewed the course of the National Convention, and said that sixteen non-Democratic States had voted down seventeen Democratic States. His preference was for Senator Hunter of Virginia. He styled the New York Soft Shell delegation as a band of political gamblers; and concluded by saying that he could not retain a seat in this Convention. He spoke for two hours, and on finishing, took his hat and retired from the convention.

Robert Scott of Alabama was then chosen President. Mr. Jackson of Ga. then offered his resolution for a Southern Convention in Richmond, Va., on the second Monday in June next. Adopted.

So the Southern Bolters are to have their convention a week before the Regulars.

RETORT COURTEOUS.—In the Charleston Convention on Friday, Mr. Johnson of Maryland, in an heated argument with Benj. F. Butler, of Massachusetts, taunting replied to some sharp remark of Butler, by observing that Maryland had never countenanced or encouraged resistance to the fugitive slave law, and had maintained her national position. Mr. Butler instantly retorted that Massachusetts had never been under a rule that prevented a man voting his sentiments from fear of the bludgeon or bullet—a fair hit which, even in a Democratic Convention, was greeted with loud and prolonged applause.

CONGRESS.

SENATE not in session Thursday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Gooch reviewed the Dred Scott decision, denying its binding authority.

Mr. Hale defined the position of the Republican party.

Mr. Stanton replied to Mr. English. He said that not one man in a thousand in Ohio or the Northwest was in favor of extending equal social and political privileges to negroes. He branded as treasonable the purposes of the Democrats who avow that the election of Mr. Seward, or any other Republican, as President, is sufficient cause for the dissolution of the Union.

Mr. English explained that he did not believe a corporal's guard of the Democratic party were willing to go out of the Union because of the mere election of any objectionable man President.

Mr. Stanton said that was true as to a good many Democrats of the free States, but they are in fellowship with those who avowed such sentiments in order to aid them to obtain control of the government.

Mr. Millson said that Mr. Stanton was in error in saying that the Democratic party, North and South, had ever declared it the purpose of the party to destroy the Union in the event of the election of an opposition President.

Mr. Stanton referred Mr. Millson to McPherson's speech, wherein were extracts from twenty Democratic speeches, showing such a purpose distinctly avowed.

After further remarks in a similar strain, Mr. Singleton controverted Mr. Stanton's position as to Southern labor.

☞ The New Englanders of Chicago suggest to their old comrades who propose to attend the Republican Convention, that they and other visitors from New England gather at Niagara Falls, Saturday night, (12th,) spend Sunday there, and start in a body, Monday morning, direct for Chicago. On their arrival at Chicago they are to receive such a welcome as is not often witnessed.

☞ The Peterborough Transcript states that ex-Gov. John H. Steele has gone to Missouri, with the intention of purchasing land and removing to that State.

☞ Everybody is rich at Pike's Peak;—but men who call themselves worth $20,000 spend an hour or two each morning to borrow money enough to buy a breakfast.

☞ Prentice thinks an old man makes love at a disadvantage. It must be a very amorous sort of a wink that can captivate through a pair of spectacles.

Whene'er a noble deed is wrought,
Whene'er is spoke a noble thought,
Our hearts in glad surprise
To higher levels rise.

The tidal wave of deeper souls
Into our inmost being rolls,
And lifts us unawares
Out of all meaner cares.

Honor to those whose words or deeds
Thus help us in our daily needs;
And by their overflow
Raise us from what is low!

Piles.

All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

BOSTON, Sept. 8, 1858.

Gentlemen:—For more than thirty years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and piles. I have been frequently under medical treatment, and have tried various preparations which have been recommended to me, but received no permanent relief. In January last I commenced taking the "Peruvian Syrup," and after taking three bottles of it I became perfectly cured of the dyspepsia and piles, and my general health is now all that I can desire it to be.

The following letter was received from Colonel Markham, of the British army, and shows the estimation in which the Balsam of Wild Cherry is held abroad.

Fier Hotel, Isle of Wight, England, Sept. 30, 1850.

Sir:—I have a daughter in a delicate state of health, who has, I think, received signal benefit from Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, three bottles of which were sent her by her brother in Canada. Please put me up six bottles, and forward them by the first steamer to Southampton or Liverpool, as you may find most convenient, with any account of the medicine you may be so good as to send me. The wide reputation which Dr. J. Hostetter's "Stomach Bitters" have attained during the past year, bespeaks its excellence in a more forcible manner than we can offer. LAUNCH. — The fine ship "Liverpool Packet" will be launched from the yard of Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, Noble's Island, at half past 12 o'clock to-day, Saturday.—She is about 1000 tons burthen, and an A 1 vessel in all respects. Her owners are Messrs. Page, Richardson & Co., of Boston; she is to be commanded by Capt. Crosby.

Seen never so often, the launch of a noble ship is at once a scene of beauty and grandeur to the spectator; and must be an occasion of great interest and intense excitement to the builders. After all the care and skill, toil and expense, involved in her construction—now comes the critical moment which is to test all. And as the gallant craft disdainfully leaves her temporary abiding place on the land, and enters her natural element—and slowly at first, but presently with resistless speed, rushes into the water, which quietly opens to her a path, and piling up on either hand, receives her as of right mistress of the seas—a picture is presented which would captivate every eye, but for its frequency. Think, too, of the inevitable anxiety the builder must feel, ere he can positively know his craft is to ride the waters as she ought—for believe it confidently as he may, yet all scientific calculation and all skill must be submitted to the test of actual experiment, ere every doubt removes.

☞ We regret to learn that Charles W. Walker, Esq., for a good number of years proprietor of the Market Street House, died very suddenly on Friday forenoon, at the age of 44. He had been slightly unwell, but with no alarming symptoms, and was seated in apparent comfort, having been conversing but a short time before his death, which occurred with but a momentary struggle, during which he fell from the sofa to the floor. He was an attentive and pleasant business man, with strong and kindly domestic and social feelings. His death was caused by apoplexy.

☞ Gentlemen desirous of purchasing a residence one mile or two miles from the centre of the city, may find their desires answered for a moderate outlay of money, by attending the Auction of Houses advertised this day. And they may find a chance for Furniture to replenish the same, by a look in the same Auction column.

Messrs. Editors:—Reading an article a few days since, in the Chronicle, headed "Concealed Gardens," and feeling quite interested in the same, it reminded me of a little story I clipped from a paper some time ago. Although simple, it is beautiful and touching; if you think it worthy of a place in your columns, it might add to the good feeling already manifested, and as a drop in the fountain flowing, reach the hearts of some of our citizens who have it in their power to impart pleasure to the passer-by, and which might also be the means of exerting a good influence on some poor creature, as in the case of The Beggar Boy. Yours respectfully, LIZZIE.

THE BEGGAR BOY.

"Get away with you, you dirty old beggar boy. I'd like to know what right you have to look over the fence at our flowers?" The speaker was a little boy not more than eleven years old, and though people sometimes called it handsome, its face looked very harsh and disagreeable, just then.

He stood in a beautiful garden, just in the suburbs of the city; and it was June time, and the tulips were opening themselves to the sunshine. O, it was a great joy to look at them as they bowed gracefully to the light with their necks of crimson, of yellow and carnation. The beds flanked either side of the path that curved around a small arbor, where the young grape clusters that lay hidden among the large leaves, wrote a beautiful prophecy for the autumn.

A white paling ran in front of the garden, and over this the little begger boy, so rudely addressed, was leaning. He was very lean, very dirty, very ragged. I am afaid you would have turned away in disgust from so repulsive a spectacle, and yet God and the angels loved him!

He was looking with all his soul in his eyes on the beautiful blossoms, as they swayed to and fro in the summer wind, and his heart softened while he leaned his arm on the fence railing, and forgot everything in that long, absorbed gaze! Ah! it was seldom the beggar boy saw anything that was either very good or beautiful, and it was sad his dreams should have such a rude awakening.

The blood rushed up to his face, and a glance full of evil and defiance flashed into his eyes. But before the boy could retort, a little girl sprang out of the arbor and looked eagerly from one child to the other. She was very fair with soft hazel eyes, over which drooped long, shining lashes. Rich curls hung over her almost bare, white shoulders; and her lips were the color of the crimson tulip blossoms.

"How could you speak so cross to the boy, Hinton?" she asked, with a tone of sad reproach quivering through the sweetness of her voice. "I'm sure it doesn't do us any harm, to have him look at the flowers if he likes."

"Well, Helen," urged her brother, slightly molified and ashamed, "I don't like to have beggars gaping over the fence. It looks so low."

"Now that's a notion of yours, Hinton.—I'm sure, if the flowers can do any possible good we ought to be very glad. Little boy," (and the child turned to the beggar boy and addressed him as courteously as though he had been a prince,) "I'll pick you some of the tulips, if you'll wait a moment."

"Helen, I do believe you're the funniest girl that ever lived!" ejaculated the child's brother, as he turned away, and with a low whistle sauntered down the path, feeling very uncomforable; for her conduct was a stronger reproof to him than any words could have been.

Helen plucked one of each specimen of the tulips, and there was a great variety of these, and gave them to the child. His face brightened as he received them, and thanked her.

O, the little girl had dropped a "pearl of great price" into the black, turbid billows of the boy's life, and the after years would bring it up, beautiful and fair again.

Twelve years had passed. The little blue-eyed girl had grown into a tall, graceful woman. One bright June afternoon she walked with her husband through the garden, for she was on a visit to her parents. The place was little changed, and the tulips had opened their lips of crimson and gold to the sunshine, just as they had twelve years before. Suddenly they observed a young man in a workman's blue-overalls, leaning over the fence, his eyes following eagerly from the beautiful flowers to herself. He had a frank, pleasant countenance, and there was something in his manner that interested the gentleman and lady.

"Look here, Edward," said she, "I'll pluck some of the flowers. It always does me good to see people admiring them," and then releasing her husband's arm, she approached the paling (and the smile round her lips was very much like the old, child one,) saying, "Are you fond of flowers, sir? It will give me great pleasure to gather you some."

The young workman looked a moment very earnestly into the fair, sweet face.

"Twelve years ago this very month," he said in a voice deep and yet tremulous with feeling, "I stood here, leaning on this railing, a dirty, ragged little beggar boy; and you asked me this very question. Twelve years ago you placed the bright flowers in my hands, and they make me a new boy aye, and they made a man of me, too.—Your face has been a light, ma'am, all along the dark hours of my life, and this day that little beggar boy can stand on the same place and say to you, though he's a humble, and hard-working man, yet, thank God, he's an honest one."

Tear-drops trembled like morning dew on the shinning lashes of the lady, as she turned to her husband, who had joined her, and listened in absobed astonishment to the workman's words. "God," said she, "put it into my child heart to do that little deed of kindness, and see now how very great is the reward he has given me."

And the setting sun poured a flood of rich purple light over the group that stood there, over the workman in his blue overalls, over the lady with her golden hair, and over the proud looking gentleman at her side. Although it was a picture for a painter, the angels who looked down on it from heaven, saw something more than a picture there.

SHIP BUILDING IN PORTSMOUTH.—In taking a run through the ship yards in this city, we find quite a revival in this branch of industry, which has been at low water mark for a year or two past. In the old yard of George Raynes, we find laid out the keel of a clipper bark of 350 tons which is to be built by Mr. William Fernald recently of Newburyport, for Messrs. Daniel Draper & Son of Boston. She is to have a very heavy frame of white oak, with hard-pine planking, and is intended for the Mediterranean trade.

Messrs. Toby & Littlefield, at Noble's Island, who have built some of the best ships ever constructed on the river, have nearly completed a beautiful ship of about 1,000 tons, for Messrs. Page, Richardson & Co., of Boston. She will be launched in the course of a week.

As soon as the ways are cleared a ship of about the same size is to be built for Jonathan M. Tredick, Esq., of this city, which will be pushed forward with all convenient despatch.

Messrs. Toby & Littlefield have also laid the keel of another 1000 ton ship which is not yet sold. All three of these vessels will be constructed of white oak, in a most thorough manner, and will undoubtedly sustain the reputation of the builders, as reliable and successful ship builders.

Messrs. Snow & Badger, at the ship yard of Marcy & Petigrew have on the stocks, nearly ready for launching a beautiful schooner of 130 tons, which is awaiting a purchaser.

Messrs. Neal & Mathews, at the yard of the late Capt. Samuel Badger, at Kittery Foreside, are getting out the frames for a vessel, but have not yet determined to put them up.

There is a prospect that ship building in this section will recover to some extent from the recent stagnation, and that much more work will be provided for our skillful mechanics. As it is, wages of ship carpenters have slightly advanced, and will probably remain through the season a little higher than at any time last year.

From the Journal.

NEW CARS.—For the ease and accommodation of travelling, the managers of the EASTERN RAILROAD do all the public can ask. A magnificent train of three new passenger cars and one baggage car has recently been placed on the road, for the accommodation of the long travel. These cars were built for the road at the Company's works in East Boston, and for strength, convenience and comfort, as well as elegance of design and excellence of finish, we have never seen they surpassed. As they pass through our station, every one is struck with admiration at their beautiful appearance—and are no less delighted in the general internal aspect, and ease of the seats. A new kind of ventilators, projecting like ears from the sides of the cars, renders them more comfortable than those before in use.

In Portsmouth and its neighborhood, during the whole month of April not one-fourth of an inch of rain fell. 3½ inches is the usual monthly average throughout the year.

The great lack of rain, since January, keeps the planted seeds from germinating, and causes some apprehension with regard to the grass crop in the Eastern States.

THE MYSTERY SOLVED.—A correspondent of the Traveller, writing from Brunswick, Me., says the mystery in regard to the sudden disappearance of two men from a hotel in that place has been solved. They were a Mr. Boardman of Lawrence, Mass., and his son. They arrived at Gardiner with their own team, but having driven their horse to death, they were obliged to charter another at a stable, and with this one they arrived at Brunswick on Saturday night, the 21st ult.

Young Boardman's baggage contained some engraver's tools, which excited suspicion, and it has now been discovered that he is a forger. Parties were arrested in Boston a week or two since charged with uttering notes forged by him. Mr. Boardman is a man of honor and integrity, but desired to avoid the consequences of his son's actions. He was probably on his way to Canada when he stopped here, and is supposed to have arrived there ere this.

When Mr. B. was recognized here by Mr. Webb, he doubtless became alarmed, and the two left at once for Yarmouth Junction, where they took the morning train for Canada. Young Boardman has been guilty of forging his father's name, and other serious misdemeanors are charged upon him.

The World's Fair Churn.

THE attention of farmers is solicited to this celebrated Churn. It is without controversy the best Churn in the world!—having taken the premium at the Great Exhibition in Boston. It is simple, and easily managed by any child, and performs not only the action of churning, but also of working and salting the butter in the most perfect manner. It is of the utmost importance, as every dairywoman knows, to have a Churn well made, and free from imperfection of the wood that will retain any particles of cream to become sour, and spoil the flavor of the butter. None but the best material is used in constructing these churns, and every one is perfect before being sent to market.

The farmers in our vicinity are using these Churns very extensively, and award to it the very highest commendation.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

37 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1859.

GENTLEMAN:—Your Hair Restorative, of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting any certificate of the fact I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My gray hair has changed the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the work on the crown of my head to look like hoary frost, and continued to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a friend urged me to try them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling of the hair arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head. Very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if they would keep gay or gray hair.

Very Respectfully,
BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Stanneton, Ala., July 27th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the first bottle, that I feel bound to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a few bottles of your "Hair Restorative" the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all. Yours truly,
WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.

By publishing in our Southern papers you will get many patronage; only send a dozen of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having tried the manufacture of your hair portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and have used it only a few bottles, which has given me a new head of hair, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and, of course, the True Source of Life Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Scrofula, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of the blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you cure the disease. With this "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory. Some its astonishing success. Thousands have TESTIFIED TO ITS MERITS in the establishment of the blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS and CONSUMPTION, affections of the THROAT or LUNGS (which cause CONSUMPTION, see No. 1, which is also the No. for Dyspepsia), or Liver Complaint, or for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION, see No. 2; for NERVOUS COMPLAINTS and for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Blood and carried immediately into every circulation, which explains why it is so much more effectual than other medicines. The No. 8 is for FEMALE DISEASES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special circulars. For ERUPTIONS, SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails in effect (satisfaction guaranteed). It is pleasant to the taste, is harmless, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the cause of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself to the notice of the population now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WORMS, WHOOPING COUGH, HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Soothing the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving Pain in the Head, Ear and Face. Unlike other Cordials, it is used with unerring success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, do not fail to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of Opiates. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may appear in almost any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is sometimes caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depravity of parents, as all, or at least, a great proportion of the human family are more or less infected. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or viscerous matter, which, in the lungs, lays the foundation for tubercles, or scrofulous tumors; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which renders the blood impure, poisons every glee of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, have rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin dispetly in this source. Scrofula is one of the many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by this same cause.

One-quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking malady, and their lives are undermined by it. To eradicate it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined with the most active vegetables that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the cure of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, SORES, SALT RHEUM, TETTER AND ITCH; SCROFULOUS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from impurity of the blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular properties and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy tone and vigor. Of their cures and recitations for their use in the following complaints, Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Biliousness and Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Scrofula, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every person in our community has been cured by it, or knows, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. Many cases of its wonderful efficacy have been made known, which have been published for the benefit of others, but the list is too long to be here published. Its virtues are known to every one, and our agents are not authorized to publish certificates of its cures in our vicinity, and throughout the State.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, sanctioned by the Highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have been forgotten by their own neighborhood, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in substant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, nervous prostration, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In RHEUMATISM and AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old, it is not in vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable evacuation.

It settles latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific power, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single bottle of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most inveterate cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, excoriating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the total loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has caused the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicinal iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iron, and, in fact, of the most well-known chalybeates.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently directed to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory, it has been found to act more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness in the joints of the limbs.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and in Ague it is the most effectual cure of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

An remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Blood purifier, it imparts vigor, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents (per box), for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE
DR. TOWNSEND'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
Is the GREAT RENOVATOR of the BLOOD; the sovereign remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.
These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this WORLD-RENOWNED SARSAPARILLA.
Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.
When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a uniform saline diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the Stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.
TO THE PUBLIC.
The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend; and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.
JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.,
CHEMIST.
Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.
RENOVATING & PURIFYING THE BLOOD
It contains all the vegetable principles which experience has proved useful in clearing the system from disease, extracted and combined with the highest skill which the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.
Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or spiteful physicians, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.
Caution!
To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of Dr. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.
BE VERY CAREFUL TO USE NO OTHER.

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.
Dyspepsia Remedy
This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilirates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.
As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.
It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.
Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subjected to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.
What it will do!
DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Orgaus.
Females who are unfortunately afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.
NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.
Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.
Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.
During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.
All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market:
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MAY 7, 1860.

THE NEW STATES.—The constitution of Kansas, which has passed the House of Representatives, reduces the length of the territory some five or six hundred miles. Between that and Pike's Peak are four hundred miles—termed the American desert—a sandy, treeless waste. Then comes the gold region, that, within this year will have a population quite as large, though not so permanent, as Kansas. The new silver and gold mines of Nevada fix the fact that Utah is to be divided, and Carson valley is at once to form a State. Within two years from this day, we shall have Kansas, Nebraska, Jefferson, Nevada, and Washington, a squad of five States, covering a territory equal to the original thirteen; and when another national election comes round, we shall not have less than 22, and possibly may have 25 free States, while slavery will still be confined to its 15.

MISFORTUNES IN THE WOOLLEN MANUFACTURE.—Mr. Rice of Massachusetts, in his speech on the tariff, stated the following facts:

The Bay State Mills of Massachusetts, which cost over $2,000,000, were sold for $500,000. The Middlesex Mills, fifty sets machinery, cost over $1,000,000, sold for $225,000. The New England Worsted Company failed to pay its debts in full, and its property was an entire loss to the stockholders. The Hollister Mills, near Utica, N. Y., cost near $150,000, sold for about $48,000; and so on with the mills at Watertown (N. Y.), Burlington (Vt.), Dexter (Me.), and other places. In fact, an amount equal to the whole original investment in woollen mills has already been sunk in the business. During the same period, also, under the tariff of 1846, the manufacture of broadcloth in this country was entirely suspended, and so continues to this day.

☞ Concerning the Charleston Convention and the Democratic party, the Newburyport Herald says:

There are more than a hundred members determined to stick to Douglas till the last, and it does not appear that any other person can be nominated if he fails. There is one thing certain, that the Southerners, both on platform and candidate, are fairly beaten, and this is a matter for rejoicing.—There is rebellion in the Democratic camp, and resistance to the slave-drivers such as they never had heard of before and never expected to meet.

It is evident now that the Democrats must take Douglas or nobody. No other candidate stands a ghost of a chance of an election, if he could be nominated. Never before was the Democratic party in such confusion; never before was any convention unable to nominate; and really the sturdy democracy, however they may come out in this election, have approached their last hour as a national party. Where the Whigs have gone they will soon lie down, and the breath of resurrection will never reach them.

SUGAR MANUFACTURING IN NORTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—A Traveller correspondent at Bethlehem, N. H., writes:

Large quantities of maple sugar and syrup are manufactured in this and adjoining towns, and the manufacture is extended far later in the season than in the southern portions of the State and in Massachusetts. The business has been remarkably good this season. It is scarcely finished here, very few of the buckets having been taken up. Many of our farmers realize immense profits from their maple yards, without much extra exertion. Parker Breede, Esq., a farmer of Sandwich, has manufactured about two tons without any special exertion, and others in Carroll county and in this direction have made similar amounts.

Tin or zinc spouts, about five inches in length, driven into the bark about an inch below the hole, are in almost universal use here, to convey the liquid sweet to the buckets. In Carroll county, the elder spiles are still in use, but many manufacturers are introducing long strings of wooden gutters to carry the sap from the hill-sides to their houses or to some convenient place for boiling it. Large flat sheet iron vats are also coming in vogue, instead of the old-fashioned kettles and boilers.

WOOL AND WOOLENS.—In a late speech in the House of Representatives, Mr. Rice objected to an increase of duties on low-priced wool as not being a production of the country, and low duties being necessary for the encouragement of the woolen manufactures. His argument embraced a variety of statistics going to show that we export no wool, but import four million dollars' worth of coarse wool, and thirty-four million dollars worth of woolen goods; many descriptions of woolen goods we might manufacture ourselves by the aid of cheap raw material.

IMPORTANT MEETING.—The merchants of New Bedford held a meeting on Friday, to consider measures in relation to the whale oil business. The object hoped to be gained is to create a greater demand for the oil referred to. The former price was 75 cents per gallon and upwards; it is now 40. A committee was appointed, who will report at a future meeting.

☞ The Kentucky Legislature offer a reward of one thousand dollars for a cure for the hog cholera, which is now prevailing in that State.

THE "IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT" having entered into the Democratic party, will next force itself within the limits of the slave States themselves. Virginia, Missouri and Kentucky will probably be the seats of the war.

The New York Courier, of Thursday, says at Wheeling, Virginia, on Wednesday, there was a large and enthusiastic Republican Convention, at which delegates were appointed to the Chicago Convention, and stirring speeches made. A private despatch from Wheeling, dated last evening, informs us that at least three thousand persons attended the Convention, and that at every mention of the name of Seward, the cheers were long and loud. No other name called forth such enthusiasm.

THE COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT given to Miss Angela S. King, sister of Rev. T. Starr King, at Charlestown, on Friday evening, says the Transcript, was eminently successful. The spacious City Hall was literally packed with a delighted and enthusiastic audience—the seats not only being filled, but every square foot of standing room was occupied. Miss King's readings were from "Evadne," "The Love Chase," and "Merchant of Venice." She also read Longfellow's "Sandalphon," and Whittier's "Maud Muller." Her reading of Maud Muller was exquisite, and there were numerous other portions of her other readings in which this quality came out with beautiful effectiveness. Her mind seems as flexible as her voice, and she threw herself into the varying moods of the dramatic scenes with a kind of instinctive self-surrender to all the changing spirit of the piece, which was charming.

☞ Two five hundred dollar bills on the Atlantic Bank, Boston, stolen from Adams's Express some weeks since, have been received by that bank, in the regular course of redemption. They were received from the Metropolitan Bank, New York, which redeemed them from one of their corresponding banks in Burlington, Iowa. It would seem that any of the Western banks, receiving bills of so large a denomination at such a distance from their emission, would not be altogether ignorant of the source from which they came.

RATS IN NEW YORK ALMS HOUSE. Dr. Thomas, a physician who makes frequent visits to this institution, says he thinks it impossible to keep the rats from overrunning this building, as multitudinous swarms infest the wharves and piers and all buildings near it. He says, further, that at Bellevue Hospital he has encountered rats on the stairways, and has been obliged to kick them out of his way in passing through the building. In one instance, a rat was bold enough to remain in the hall after being kicked away a foot or two. In fact, according to his tale of experience with rats in that institution, they are thoroughly at home there, often gnawing at the poultices put on the faces and other parts of the bodies of the patients.

☞ In Cincinnati, on Saturday evening, a negro named Frank Buckner called at the house of Mary Emerson, a negress, and demanded his two children, alleging that since the death of their mother they had been of no particular vaule to him, and he was determined to sell them into slavery and realize a handsome thing out of them. The woman and a friend stoutly resisted the unnatural father, when a pitched battle ensued which would have ended in the death of both the women, but for the timely arrival of the police, who took charge of the whole party

BURNING OF STEAMER A. T. LACEY. The telegraph has already announced the burning of the steamer A. T. Lacey, bound from St. Louis to New Orleans, and the loss of a number of lives, since ascertained to be sixteen. There were between forty and fifty passengers on board. The fire broke out about ten o'clock in the evening. It caught in a bundle of hay, of which the boat had a large quantity, with cattle. Very bad freight for a passenger boat. The persons lost were chiefly German and Irish emigrants and employees of the boat.

☞ Jack O'Neil, long a well-known and much feared desperado of Kansas, recently ended his miserable life, in Denver City. It appears that he had insulted a man named Rooker, who challenged him. O'Neil accepted the challenge, and chose bowie knives as the weapon and a dark room as the place. These terms were refused, and then O'Neil announced his intention of shooting Rooker as soon as he saw him; but the latter forestalled this intention by killing O'Neil. He fled afterwards, but soon returned, submitted to an easy trial, and received a sure acquittal.

☞ The loss by the fire at Warren, Ohio, on the 30th ult., is estimated at from $100,000 to $200,000. It was the third great conflagration that has visited the place, and the inhabitants contemplate the ruins with heavy hearts. The property was mostly insured in Eastern companies.

WORCESTER'S DICTIONARY.

This complete and beautiful Dictionary, advertised in our columns to-day, is the great work of a man, better fitted than any other man now living on this continent, to say what is the present literary standard of the English language.

And it is no disparagement to the fame of Webster, now deceased, to say that Mr. Worcester's labors, in improving the edition of Webster which he edited, gave that book a hold on the literary men of this country and England which the previous editions never had.

The advertisement contains a few testimonials from high sources, to the value of the work. We add a few more in this place. Dr. Peabody, editor of the North American Review, and high authority in all that concerns language, says of it: "No department within the province of a Dictionary, has been left imperfect." The Hon. Geo. P. Marsh, one of the ripest of American scholars regards it as "much superior to any other general Dictionary." Edward Everett says: "I have made constant use of Worcester's Dictionaries since their first publication; his orthography and pronunciation represent, so far as I am aware, the most approved usage of our language; his definitions seldom leave anything to be added."

We rejoice in the favor this great work of Worcester is receiving, because we think justice has hardly been done him in the past. He will hereafter rank as a learned, original, invaluable lexicographer, able to appreciate and develop worthily our noble English language. Whether we regard this Dictionary as an intellectual effort, or in its mechanical execution, it reflects honor on all engaged in it.

POPULAR ASTRONOMY.

POPULAR ASTRONOMY: A concise elementary treatise on the Sun, Planets, Satellites and Comets. By O. M. Mitchel, LL.D., Director of the Cincinnati and Dudley Observatories. New York: Pinneay, Blakeman & Mason.

This is a well executed volume of 376 pages, with a good number of illustrations. The author is a distinguished astronomer and successful author, who has now given to the public an astronomical book, embracing the latest discoveries in the heavens, and the latest improvements in those instruments by which those mortals who "build below the stars," can look up among them with understanding and delight. He says in his preface:—

The author has no other apology to present for offering to the public the following work on "Popular Astronomy" than the marked favor with which his "Planetary and Stellar Worlds" has been received, both in this country and in Europe.

The science of Astronomy is so rapidly progressive that to keep the public advised of its advances new works are required almost every year. This may be offered as an additional reason for the present publication.

The "Popular Astronomy" is sold in Boston by Chase, Nichols & Hill; in Portsmouth by C. C. Harvey.

SLOW DEATH BY LIGHTNING.—As Mr. George L. Slocumb of Marietta, Ohio, who has been employed as a telegraph operator at Big Run, Athens County, was sitting at the instrument in his office a few weeks since, during a heavy storm, the lightning ran in upon the wires and completely stunned him. A few days developed the horrible fact that his limbs were paralyzed, and his muscles almost totally deprived of action. The paralysis gradually extended over the body until death ended his affliction.

☞ A Cincinnati coroner recently held an inquest on two children of Ellen Dillon, and the circumstances revealed concerning the treatment they received at the hands of their mother, a degraded being, led the jury to return a verdict of "death from exposure and neglect on the part of their mother." The children were so stunted in growth that, although five or six years old, they were thought to be only two or three. The family lived on the food begged by the oldest girl, who is still living, and bought whiskey with the proceeds of garments, given her by the charitable.

☞ The ladies visited the social club rooms in New Orleans, a few evenings since, by invitation. They were furnished with lunch and lemonade, allowed to admire the fine pictures and splendid furniture, and at an early hour sent to their homes delighted. The visit was a coup d'etat of the married members, and it is thought will ensure much domestic tranquility.

THE TRAGEDY AT ORANGE, N. J.—An investigation proves that Hobson did not set fire purposely to the building in which his wife and four children perished, but that while at work below and somewhat intoxicated, he dropped a red hot horse-shoe among some combustibles which set fire to the staircase.

Peter Mallahan is an Irishman who has enough pluck to vote the Republican ticket and has done so for four or five years. Most every year he has had a beating from zealous democrats, in consequence of his manner of thinking and voting. Last evening he was stopped, insulted and very badly beaten by H. Jerry Bishop, assisted by one Costello. The parties have been arrested.—New Haven Palladium.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, May 4.

SENATE.—Several private bills were passed, when the Senate adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—Several bills were passed, including that for payment of indemnity for depredations committed on the Shawnee Indians, in Kansas, and a bill re-imbursing expenses in Utah in suppressing Indian hostilities in 1853.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole.

Messrs. Longnecker, Adrain and Nixon made speeches in favor of protection to domestic manufactures. Adj.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Receipts of the Treasury for the quarter ending March, amounted to nearly $22,500,000; expenditures upwards of $20,250,000.

The Supreme Court adjourned to-day till next December. Of about 70 California land cases adjudicated, thirty, where there was a contest of title, were decided, on the ground of fraud, in favor of the Federal Government. Those involved upwards of a million acres of land, worth $15,000,000 or $20,000,000, and including the Bolton or Santalban case, this claim being for 10,000 acres in the city of San Francisco, and 20,000 outside its limits estimated to be worth $10,000,000.

CHARLESTON, May 4.—All States that approve of the anti-squatter sovereignty platform are invited to send delegates to Richmond.

Gen. Cushing has gone to Sullivan's Island to spend a few days.

Strangers are leaving the city in crowds, and the hotels are nearly deserted.

☞ An English paper has the following:

"The Pope has adopted a new system of advertising. A few days ago an advertisement was inserted in one of the Vienna papers, inviting young men of good health to apply for 'an engagement,' at a certain address in one of the suburbs. Upon application, the 'young men in good health' discovered the advertiser to be the Pope, and the engagement a private position in his army."

ARRIVAL OF A PUGILIST.—Mr. Morrissey and several of his friends arrived in Boston Friday by the steamer from Europe, and put up at the Parker House. Morrissey brought over the identical colors worn by Sayers in the fight. The 'kerchief bears some of the battle stains of the fray. It is said a large crowd of indignant "roughs" is already in New York to give Mr. Morrissey a severe pummelling when he shows himself, as a reward for his conduct towards Sayers, and in revenge, probably, for losing their money. They were to have waited upon him at the steamer's wharf, but misapprehended the time of his arrival. Fears that Mr. Morrissey may ere long be a defunct individual are generally expressed.—Boston Post.

A cannon was dragged upon Barnes's lot yesterday morning, and dragged back again last night, after dark. The idea is to fire it, in order to bring the dead body of the Democracy to the surface, that its friends may give it a decent burial. But the delay is occasioned by a controversy as to who shall pay for the powder, and occupy the places of chief mourners.—Springfield Republican.

☞ We have received the first number of the Dover Sentinel, the new paper by John T. Gibbs & Co. Mr. Gibbs was for many years the publisher of the Dover Gazette, and proposes to sustain the Democratic party.

Piles.

All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

BOSTON, Sept. 8, 1858.

Gentlemen:—For more than thirty years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and piles. I have been frequently under medical treatment, and have tried various preparations which have been recommended to me, but received no permanent relief. In January last I commenced taking the "Peruvian Syrup," and after taking three bottles of it I became perfectly cured of the dyspepsia and piles, and my general health is now all that I can desire it to be.

This preparation is a certain cure for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Incipient Consumption, &c. In confirmation of the highest medical authority that "Consumption can be cured," numerous instances of complete restoration from this disease by the use of the Balsam can be given.

The following letter was received from Colonel Markham, of the British army, and shows the estimation in which the Balsam of Wild Cherry is held abroad.

Pier Hotel, Isle of Wight, England, Sept. 20, 1850.

SIR:—I have a daughter in a delicate state of health, who has, I think, received signal benefit from Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, three bottles of which were sent her by her brother in Canada. Please put me up six bottles, and forward them by the first steamer to Southampton or Liverpool, as you may find most convenient, with any account of the medicine you may be so good as to send me. We have searched London for it in vain.

The wide reputation which Dr. J. Hostetter's "Stomach Bitters" have attained during the past year, bespeaks its excellence in a more forcible manner than we can offer. It renovates, purifies, and strengthens the system, and aid the stomach in the performance of its functions. It is regarded on all sides as a sovereign specific, and therefore, to procure it in the best possible way, should be the object of the public. We commend it with more than usual zeal and confidence, believing and knowing, as we do, that it stands foremost among the many preparations of the day, for imparting strength, vigor and tone to the system, and possessing the curative powers for all similar diseases arising from a disordered stomach. In the most common form of cramps, diarrhea and weakness in the stomach, the "Bitters" have been rigidly tested, and always with the greatest success.

ROCKINGHAM FAIR.—At a meeting of the Trustees of the Rockingham County Agricultural Society, held in Exeter, on Saturday, it was voted to hold the Fair this year, in Portsmouth, on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 19th and 20th. This decision was made, on a guarantee that the citizens of Portsmouth will subscribe $500 toward the expenses of the Fair—which of course they will readily do, as a safe and profitable investment. There ought to be at least one hundred more life-members of the Society, in and about Portsmouth—whereas there are now but very few. The life subscription is but $5, which includes admission to all shows of the Society. It is a matter of interest to the city to enroll members enough at least to secure a voice in the management of the business of the Society, and be represented in the Board of Officers, and on Committees—to either of which positions members of the Society only can be admitted. Gentlemen so disposed, will have an opportunity to join, in a short time.

GRADES.—Messrs. Editors:—The board of Aldermen are still considering the project of grading the streets. If they should carry out the undertaking, would it not be well for them to consider one kind of a grade, which if they employ a man that resides in Boston and give him a thousand dollars to begin with, will lower the grade of wealth to that amount in Portsmouth, and raise that of the now overgrown city of notions.—There is more than one way to raise or lower the grade of a city. S.

HON. B. F. BUTLER of Lowell appears to have been the hero of the New England delegates at the Charleston Convention.—The Newburyport Herald says: "He stood up to the mark like a man, and won laurels that he will carry with him through life. Butler has no fear of man before his eyes; he has the real pluck, and not a fire-eater in the South could more back him down, than they could the White Mountains." He is, we believe, a cousin of Hon. Jas. H. Butler, of Nottingham, N. H., of which town both were natives.

A DISCREPANCY.—Gen. Cushing during the progress of the Charleston Convention, threatened several times to leave the chair unless the delegates would preserve better order and decorum. But when the fragmentary convention adjourned, Gen. Cushing, in a speech, complimented them on their uniform decorum and good behavior, stating that he had never known a convention so orderly! Did the crash of the black ship striking on the rocks of disunion confuse the General's memory and his wits. —Atlas.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—One-half the Southern members of Congress had last night refused to sign an address endorsing the action of the seceders. The Douglas men are getting up indignation meetings at the South. There is much bitter feeling all around.

☞ Mr. Wm. Davol of Rhode Island caught about 2400 barrels of fish, principally scup, valued at $1200, at Saconnet, on Monday last. They were shipped to Philadelphia.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 5.—A large meeting of the National Democracy was held here yesterday. Addresses were made by Gov. King of Miss., and Mr. Flournoy of Alabama. Arrangements were made to choose delegates to the Baltimore Convention in June.

SHOE BUSINESS IN HAVERHILL.—The Salem Gazette says that many of the Haverhill shoemakers are out of work, and some of them are now unable to get as high a price as before the strike.

BLACK TEA AND GREEN.—Sir John Bowring, at a recent lecture in Glasgow, said if they were to give a Chinaman green tea, he would consider himself insulted.—Green tea! it was painted with Prussian blue, China ink, and gypsum.

☞ Mr. Fillmore, who ran against the republicans in 1856, will go in with them, this year; and it is even said will stump Pennsylvania for Seward, if he is nominated.

☞ One of the most prominent fire-eaters among the Southern seceders from the Democratic Convention, hails from Alabama, and rejoices in the name of Meek.

"Bob, is that dog of yourn a pointer?"
"No. He's half hunter and half setter; he hunts for bones when he's hungry, and sets by the stove when he's satisfied."

☞ From the accounts of the Republican State Convention of Delaware, it appears nearly every district was represented. Republican resolutions were passed without a dissenting voice.

The thumb is a useful member; but because you have got one, you needn't necessarily try to get your neighbors under it.

☞ Rev. Bailey Loring died at his residence in North Andover, Mass., Saturday morning, aged 73. He was one of the earliest advocates of Unitarianism in this country, having been settled over the "First Church in Andover," in 1810.

SEQUEL TO A TRAGEDY—Our readers generally remember the Mercer and Heberton tragedy that occured in Philadelphia many years since. A man of some wealth and social position, named Heberton, had seduced Miss Mercer, a young woman of seventeen, and refused to repair the matter by marriage. A brother took vengeance into his own hands, waylaid the seducer in a ferry boat, and shot him dead. for this he was tried for murder, and acquitted. Since that period he led a wild career, and finally, about two years since, was shot in a restaurant in Philadelphia.—The sister was married a few years subsequent to the death of Heberton, lived unhappily with her husband, was drowned, and we find her death recorded in an exchange. The whole family have now passed away.—New York Post.

Down East there resides a certain M. D. One very cold night he was roused from his slumbers by a very loud knocking at the door. After some hesitation, he went to the window and asked,

"Who's there?"
"A friend."
"What do you want?"
"To stay here all night."
"Well stay there, then," was the benevolent reply.

☞ Mr. Winslow of North Carolina, recently declared:—

"He was early taught that there were three classes of people he ought to avoid all controversy with—one class was the preachers, for they had the pulpit to denounce him from, while he had none to reply from; the next was the editors of papers, who had the columns of their journals to carry on a controversy, while he had none; the next class was the women, who would always have the last word.

☞ In Sunflower County, Mississippi, two negroes belonging to R. W. Randle, living on a plantation of their master, wilfully murdered their overseer, H. W. Bell, and so effectually concealed the act that it was not discovered until the perpetrators, goaded by guilty conscience, made confession a few days ago.

☞ A runaway negro arrived at Cincinnati on the 29th ult., having come up the river on a steamer as freight, packed in a crockery crate, unknown to the officers.—Having been carefully packed, he came out in good condition for shipment further North.

An ignorant minister having remarked, in the presence of Dr. South, that "the Lord has no need of man's learning," that witty divine replied, "Still less has he need of man's ignorance."

Miss Muloch declares it to be "flying in the face of Providence" to marry upon "Nothing a week, and that uncertain very."

THE WORLD'S FAIR CHURN.

The attention of farmers is solicited to this celebrated Churn. It is without controversy the best Churn in the world:—having taken the premium at the Great Exhibition in London. It is simple, and easily managed by any child, and performs not only the action of churning, but also of working and salting the butter in the most perfect manner. It is of the utmost importance, as every dairywoman knows, to have a Churn well made, and free from imperfection of the wood that will retain any particles of cream to become sour, and spoil the flavor of the butter. None but the best of material is used in constructing these Churns, and every one is perfect before being sent to market.

The farmers in our vicinity are using these Churns very extensively, and award to it the very highest commendation.

OLD DOMINION COFFEE-POTS!!

of which so many thousands have been sold during the past year.

COFFEE.

We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times. Ladies' Home Magazine.

OLD DOMINION TEA-POTS.

made upon the same principle as the Coffee-pots.

WOOD'S
PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.

A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.

It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

The Charleston Convention.

Thus it is seen that the Southern delegates only ask for an interpretation of the Cincinnati platform in accordance with its letter and in agreement with the principles of the Dred Scott decision—in other words, that the clear and incontrovertible constitutional rights of the South shall be affirmed and maintained. But why demand more than the Cincinnati platform, "pure and simple?" If that was satisfactory four years ago, why is it not so now, for "Democratic principles are unchangable in their nature when applied to the same subject matter?" Because a meaning differing from its letter, differing from what was understood to be its meaning four years ago, at least at the South, is now claimed for the Cincinnati platform by Douglas and his followers at the North. That platform declares it to be the right of the people in the Territories to decide whether they will or will not have slavery within their limits, at the time when they shall possess the requisite qualifications to form constitutions for admission into the Union as States, and by necessary implication and consequence that they cannot exercise this power at any previous time. This doctrine places the North and the South on an equality in the public Territories; the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott decision have affirmed it to be correct, and what less can the Democrats of the South ask consistently with their honor than that the party platform shall be explained to accord with it? To assent to the Cincinnati platform under the circumstances, without explanation, would be to ignore their rights and submit to dishonor and disgrace.

Nor are their views in regard to the candidate less reasonable than their position upon the platform. They cast 120 electoral votes, or nearly five-sixths of the number required for a choice.—Uncurrent money bought, sold, and exchanged

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The BLOOD FOOD is based upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in differing cases, viz: No. 1, for COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION; use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERTASK, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for the Spring Trade, we offer it to the public and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD", $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. KEYNES' INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN'S DISEASES, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with the utmost success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from years of misery and blight, we say to you, that we are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, but that DR. KEYNES'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor where one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and dilth, vitiated the decaying vitiated, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or vitiated matter, which, when the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cause and which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking pollution, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is compounded of the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TOOTH ACHE, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, PALPITATION AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from a DEPRAVED STATE OF BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular properties and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting disorders of the secretions, rousing its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain, or languishing in sickness and suffering, find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named again, correcting a portion of this circular, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Female Complaints, Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptives in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz.

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, ASTHMA, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old iron, it acts vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is recommended among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been speedily decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent heetic, which usually indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicinal iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In ASTHMA, and other chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and relieving the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such powerful, happy, and decisive tonic effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box. For sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

GROVER & BAKER'S
Celebrated Family Sewing Machines.
FOR FAMILY USE.

From the very flattering manner in which our Machines have been received by the public, resulting in the sale of

we are led to believe that our endeavors to manufacture a RELIABLE MACHINE have been appreciated. We take this opportunity to remark that the policy will be unchanged, and that

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,
Adapted to every variety of
FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS —of the— Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]
Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]
My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that have been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]
My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable. She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.
Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel-street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Machine, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1860.

THE POINT OF DIFFERENCE.

The Portland Argus, an administration paper, says:

That there has been a serious division among our friends at Charleston is very evident. But it is a division on questions of principles, not of mere passion, or of men.

The nature of the controversy which arose was one involving peril alike to the Democratic party and to our common country.

These two sentences, which we cut from two distinct editorials, contain some very important statements or admissions. A division has taken place, on principle. Then, most certainly, one side must be wrong.

And the division, or controversy, was between friends and is perilous to the Democratic party.

One section of the party, then, must have gone wrong in principle, for the Argus assures us the disunion was not about men nor trifles.

Yet the same Argus says:—

The probable results of the division which ensued can now be candidly considered both North and South, and time enough given for all who really value the supremacy of the party and the integrity of the Union to give their best energies and most patriotic efforts to the work of restoring harmony and preparing the way for final success.

Here the party which split on a principle, is proposed to be restored to harmony, and its supremacy established or sustained.

The question on which it split, was, Shall slavery reign Supreme! over Court and Congress, over President and People, over Territories and States?

A bare majority of numbers in the delegations, ventured in Charleston to say No: —and thereupon the devotees of the slave power withdrew.

The correctness of these statements will appear by the following extracts from the Boston Post, of May 5.

We spread before our readers the protests of the States of Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, South Carolina, Arkansas and Texas, against the action of the Charleston Convention in refusing to adopt the report of a majority of the Committee on a Platform, and in accepting the minority report, with the resolution expunged, which pledged the Democratic party to abide by the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States on constitutional questions. Those protests should be examined by the masses of the Democratic party with much care, for they present the reasons which inspired the important movement of secession from the Charleston Convention. The Alabama protest states with brevity the points of assumed difference between the North and the South.

The Alabama Delegates say: "We deny to the people of a Territory any power to legislate against the institution of slavery; and we assert that it is the duty of the Federal Government, in all its departments, to protect owners of slaves in their enjoying the property in the Territories. These principles, as we state them, are embodied in the Alabama Platform."

The Convention has refused, by the Platform adopted, to settle either of these propositions in favor of the South.

The Mississippi protest claims for slave property protection outside as well as inside the States. Florida cannot accept the Cincinnati platform with a squatter sovereignty construction; while Arkansas elaborates, at some length, the thought that, in Democratic National Conventions, it has always been understood, that while the electoral votes of States are to control the election of candidates, yet in the making of platforms the sovereignty of each State is to be considered, and the small States are to have as much power as the large States. We bespeak for these protests careful study.

It will probably require a large amount of studying, to make the absolute supremacy of slavery palatable to northern independent democrats. The Newburyport Herald says:—

The universal sentiment of the North is —let them have their negroes if they will— let them curse themselves with slavery till death and desolation comes to them, if so they wish; but me they shall not have for a slave, nor mine; nor this country of ours —so grand and glorious—they, an insignificant minority, shall not govern.

We do not deem this sentiment quite universal, even here:—but there is a great deal of it

A DOUGLAS VIEW.—"Occasional," the warm Douglas correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, makes the following serious reflection on the Democratic crisis:

"The contest before the meeting of the Baltimore Convention will be no child's play. It will enlist all the talent and all the energies of the friends of free government. It may end in the defeat of the Democracy, but it will elevate principle, and will compel every party to put forward its best men, and to deal frankly with the great American constituencies. The Administration and the fire-eaters are resolved upon the destruction of Douglas. I hear of their denunciations all ready. There is to be no quarter shown him or any of his friends. He is to be offered up as a sacrifice, and they are to be hunted out of public life. The fact is no Northern man who dares to differ from the pro-slavery leaders can ever hope to regain their confidence. He is foreloomed, and this forever. Do not suppose, however, that I abandon the election of Judge Douglas."

ITALIAN AFFAIRS

The King of Sardinia continued his triumphal progress through his new dominions. He was at Leghorn on the 23d.

The criminal proceedings at Bologna against Father Velletti, an inquisitor of the holy office, for the abduction of the child Mortara, resulted in his acquittal.

The King of Sardinia, following the advice of the Emperor of France, had for the moment abandoned the idea of taking the title of King of Italy.

Accounts from various sources represent the insurrection in Sicily as completely suppressed.

The Independence Belge states that the Count of Syracuse had written to Prince Carignan, stating that he will offer his sword to the King of Sardinia, to combat for the cause of liberty and Italian independence, if his nephew, King of Naples, persists in his dangerous policy of refusing to restore the Neapolitan constitution of 1848.

A commission, formed among the clergy of Turin, has drawn up an address to the Pope, which, after receiving the signatures of the clergy of the kingdom, is to be sent to the Vatican. This document places before the eyes of his holiness the dangers of the present policy of Rome, and points out that the surest way of warding them off is to accept the propositions contained in the letter of King Victor Emmanuel.

ENGLISH NEWS.—We have four days later intelligence from Europe, by the screw steamer Bohemian, which left England on the 25th ult. There is but little political news by this arrival.

An enormous defalcation has come to light in London. The Chief Cashier of the Union Bank is a defaulter to the enormous sum of £263,000,—which places him at the head of all transactions of this character, either in Europe or America. The entire sum will be met by the reserved fund of the bank. The delinquent carried on some unsuccessful stock speculations for years, and his frauds were carried on by means of a forged pass-book, representing an account of the Union Bank with the Bank of England. The shares of the Union Bank were quoted at a decline of £5.

Nothing yet is decided relative to the fight—between the two national Irish bullies, who are supposed to represent England and America. The referee's decision is still withheld.

A report had been circulated in London that Heenan had died from erysipelas, which proved utterly unfounded. Heenan, on the 22d, writes to the London Times, in which he claims the belt or a renewal of the fight. He says:—

If Sayers is not able, on account of injuries received from me, and cannot meet me according to the rules of manly opposition, I demand and claim that he resign to me, the Belt, which he is not, according to the rules of the Prize Ring, entitled to retain. I do not wish to compel Sayers to fight because he is represented to be in a disabled state, but I wish to obtain what I think I have already won.

It is said that £200 have been subscribed in Liverpool by American ship captains, merchants and others, for the benefit of Heenan.

In the House of Commons, the debate upon the Reform Bill was resumed, but without action. The discussion was adjourned till the 26th.

☞ The French Emperor has decided on two military expeditions—one of which is to set out from Algeria, and the other from Senegal, to proceed to Timbuctoo, where they are to unite. A large sum has been placed to the credit of the Minister of War to defray expenses.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that crime is fearfully increasing in Paris, and that a frighful number of murders have been committed within the past few months.

The editor of a satirical journal of Turin has been condemned to two months' imprisonment and a fine, for publishing disgraceful articles against the French Emperor.

☞ It is said that after the prize-fight was over, Mr. McCabe went to John Morrissey, and offered to match Heenan against him, to fight in three or four months, for $5000 or $10,000, but Morrissey took no notice of it. Another American, at the railway station, offered to double the stakes, should Heenan and Sayers fight again—or would match him against any man in the world for $10,000, but there was no answer to it.

SLAUGHTERING OF LONG TAILS.—The work of exterminating the rats in Bellevue Hospital, New York city, progresses. It is thought that about five hundred unlucky animals have been disposed of, and the Commissioners avow their determination to continue hostilities until all are destroyed.

CONGRESS.—Washington, May 5.—Senate not in session. The bill was passed in the House, authorizing Capts. Hudson and Sands to receive a testimonial from the British Government for their services in laying the Atlantic Cable. The House went into Committee of the Whole, and Trimble briefly advocated the protection of domestic manufactures. Adjourned.

A SINGULAR STORY.—A young and good-looking woman was arrested by the police of Boston, on Saturday evening, at Ordway Hall, for being in male attire. She stated that she belonged to a respectable family in New York State, and had been married about three months. Her husband had treated her very badly, and in Philadelphia, where they went to reside immediately after their marriage, he pawned nearly all her clothing. They came to Boston from Philadelphia, and have since been boarding in a private family. Her husband has upon some pretext, and partly by threats, prevailed upon her to don male attire. At the time of her arrest, her husband was near by, and in fact followed the officer and herself part of the way to the station house. She expressed much gratification at her detention by the police, as she hoped it would relieve her from her husband's cruelty.

BRAVE BOY.—The Cincinnati Gazette of the 3d inst., records the following brave deed:—

"Yesterday, soon after a freight train had passed Shelbyville station, on the Cincinnati and Indianapolis Railroad, a rail slipped several inches from its place, but without doing any damage to the train, and without the knowledge even of any one on it. This was on a curve, rendering it doubly dangerous. As the passenger train going west neared the place soon after, the engineer discovered a little boy standing in the centre of the track energetically waving a hankerchief. He was not inclined to stop at first, knowing the fondness of all boys for sport; but fearing some difficulty, he whistled and applied the brakes, and succeeded in stopping the train within five feet of the loosened rail. If he had not done so, we should have had to chronicle another shocking railroad accident. The little boy, who's name is McBride, on walking along the track, had discovered that the rail had been slipped, and took this method to save the train. He is a noble little fellow, and should be richly rewarded.

Scorbutic disease is the parent stock from which arises a large portion of the fatal maladies that afflict mankind. They are as it were a species of potato rot in the human constitution, which undermines and corrupts all the sources of its vitality and hastens its decay. They are the germs from which spring Consumption, Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Liver Complaints, and Eruptive Diseases which will be recognized as among the most fatal and destructive to the races of men. So dreadful are its consequences to human life, that it is hardly possible to over estimate the importance of an actual, reliable remedy, that can sweep out this Scrofulous contamination. We know then we shall proclaim welcome news to our readers, of one from such a quarter as will leave little doubt of its efficacy—and still more welcome, when we tell them that it surely does accomplish the end desired. We mean AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and it is certainly worthy the attention of those who are afflicted with Scrofula or Scrofulous complaints.—Resister, Albany, N. Y.

MATCH AGAINST TIME.—A match has been made in Bangor, Me., to drive a six-year old gelding one hundred miles, between sunrise and sunset, some day in May, for a purse of $300.

☞ Munn and Theodore, Ryuders' U. S. Deputy Marshals, were on Saturday dismissed from office for alleged complicity in the escape of the supposed slaver "Storm King," which left New York on Wednesday for Africa.

☞ Advices from Mexico to the 27th ult. have been received at New Orleans. The Liberals have been victorious in several skirmishes. The mere rumor of Comonfort's return caused much excitement at the Capitol.

☞ According to the Washington correspondence of the New York Times, Messrs. Hickman, Haskin, Forney and other Douglas men, have said that if the Chicago Convention will nominate F. F. Wade of Ohio, they will support him.

☞ The Phrenological Journal for May, contains heads of Tom Moore the Poet, Mary L. Booth the translator, and A. L. Dennison the match-maker, with descriptive notices.

REV. DANIEL WORTH.—This martyr of freedom is now in New York city. He was let out of prison on bail for three thousand dollars. A meeting will be held this week, at which Mr. Worth will speak.

The moderate men of the South are those who, when they banish a man for thinking contrary to the thoughts of the majority, pay him for his property; and the violent men there, are those who banish him, and confiscate his property.

Some day it will be found that to bring up a man with a sound body, genial nature, good temper, and happy frame of mind, is a greater effort than to perfect him in many accomplishments.

"JIM," said one youngster to another, on the Fourth, "lend me two cents, will yer? I got up so early, that I spent all my money before breakfast. I didn't think the day was going to be so long."

SHIP BURNED.—New York, May 5.—Ship Switzerland was burnt yesterday, at Apalachicola, while loading with cotton, and is supposed to be a total loss. She is owned in this city.

Those who will abandon a friend for one error, know but little of the human character, and prove their hearts are as cold as their judgments are weak.

☞ The people of Sigourney, Keokuk county, Iowa, are planting out large-sized elm and maple trees around their public square, under the direction and at the expense of Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, of Hartford, Conn., who asked the privilege to bestow this ornament on the town which bears her name.

The Charleston Convention is a body which has not met to perform a comedy.—Washington Constitution.

It is more like some star actors, who, on benefit nights, "appear in two parts."—Louisville Journal.

☞ It is reported in Washington that the Administration will join the Union party, and advise all Democrats to do the same.

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it to any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY.—New York, $8000; Boston, $5000; Portland, $3000; Brooklyn, $2500; Lowell, $1000; Manchester, $1000; Bangor, $800; Lawrence, $600; Concord, $500.—Portsmouth has as yet made no appropriation. The Common Council voted $500, on condition that citizens subscribe $300; but the Aldermen have not agreed to this, and perhaps will not. We should like to see a fitting Rural Celebration—a procession to march out of the city to the woods somewhere—where, with the reading of the Declaration of Independence, good music, a collation, and social festivities, half the day might very pleasantly be passed; then, in the evening, more music by the Band, and fireworks, would make out a very satisfactory celebration—and all need not cost more than $500.

Now that the County Fair is to be held here, next Fall, many citizens are disposed to do little or nothing on the Fourth; but we belive that something of the sort we propose, could be carried out to the advantage of all; and a conditional appropriation of $250 for each object—an equal sum to be subscribed for each also by the citizens interested, would no doubt secure the success of both.

☞ A team horse belonging to Mr. Robert Roberts became frightened, at the head of Market street, on Friday last; and breaking away from his owner, who was leading him, ran and threw out Mr. Isaac Maxwell, who was riding in the wagon—severely bruising him and badly spraining an ankle.

On Monday afternoon, as a clerk at Mr. H. F. Gerrish's grocery store, was turning his wagon in Pleasant street, the horse being in a brisk trot, the seat was thrown off, and the boy came heavily to the ground, bruising him considerably, and also badly badly injuring an ankle. His name is Cate.

LAUNCHES.—On Saturday, the staunch ship "Liverpool Packet" was launched in good style, at Noble's Island, by Tobey & Littlefield.

Also, the beautiful schooner " " by Snow & Badger, from the yard of Marcy & Pettigrew, at the foot of Pleasant street.

Also, a yacht of 15 tons, to be named the "Yankee Girl," from the yard of Geo. Humpries, on New Castle street.

STEAMER ON THE LAKE.—The Laconia Gazette says:

On Tuesday afternoon, May 1, 1860, the new Steamer built by Hiram L. Dixon, of Portsmouth, for Messrs. Chapman & Mugridge, of this village, was launched into the quiet waters of Sanbornton Bay, or as the Indians called it, Winnesquam.

We hope that other localities in this vicinity will be called by their original and proper names, besides Lake Winnipisaukee and Lake Winnesquam.

The Steamer Winnesquam is 66 1-2 feet on deck; 62 feet keel; 23 feet breadth of beam; depth of hold 3 feet 10 inches. She draws 8 inches of water, has an engine of 12 or 14 horse power, and will carry 40 to 50 tons burden.

☞ The residences of Com. Storer and Samuel P. Long, Esq., on Middle street, were broken into and entered by the back way, on Saturday night; and a few silver spoons, with a considerable supply of cooked provisions were carried off. The thieves appear to have been in no hurry—having at Com. Storer's house, carefully taken a lot of eggs from a basket, in which probably to place pies. At Mr. Long's, there were drippings from a spermaceti candle, which must have been brought there, as there were none in the house.

☞ A valuable heifer, belonging to Hon. H. D. Walker, died on Monday morning; and he has another cow sick—their disease being generally pronounced horn-ail, and we are told in no way resembling the Massachusetts "murrain" among the cattle.

☞ Rev. J. Hall, of the Brodhead M. E. Church, on Sunday last, administered the rite of baptism to three persons—two by immersion and one by sprinkling.

☞ We have just received from the publishers, McFarland & Jenks, Concord, a valuable campaign document for New Hampshire, viz., "The New Hampshire Political Manual." It is a valuable document for reference, and should be in the possession of every person interested in the Presidential contest of 1860. It contains the Governor vote, by towns, of 1859, and 1860, and the Presidential vote of 1856;—and a dozen other tables of votes in State and nation, times of election, lists of officers, &c., &c.

☞ The U. S. Circuit Court begins its session this morning in this city.

The Methodist Theological Seminary at Concord has 83 students.

Andover Theological Seminary has 128 students. From Rockingham Co. there are J. W. Lane, of South Newmarket; W. O. Carr, L. H. Adams, Derry; and E. P. Ladd, Deerfield.

Rev. G. W. W. Thompson of Stratham, has engaged to preach this season at Fremont. There is no Congregational Church in the town.—Exeter News Letter.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Eli Thayer will to-day make an attempt to organize Arizona as a land district, and divide Utah between Nevada, Jeffurson and Dacotah, as a land district, and immediately admit delegates from these four land districts, thus recognizing the independent governments already existing in three of these districts.

Sewards friends count on eighty-eight votes for him on the first ballot at Chicago, which will make it necessary to gain thirty-seven votes in order to obtain the nomination. They hope to obtain these through the influence of a German National Convention, which is to meet on the same day, and which they are confident will insist on Seward's nomination.

Jeff. Davis will make his bid for the Richmond recommendation for the Baltimore nomination to-day in the Senate.

Douglas shows no disposition to retreat, but some whom he considered his friends are plotting against him. Even the New Hampshire delegation talk significantly about Franklin Pierce.

It is rumored that the President delays the removal of George Saunders, Navy Agent at New York, in order to have his accounts examined, as fears are entertained of a deficiency.

Gen. Scott's friends say that ten Democratic Senators urge him to become the Union candidate at Baltimore.

☞ Rev. Joseph A. E. Long, a Congregational clergyman at Hooksett, N. H., for ten or fifteen years, was found dead in his chamber, on Wednesday last. It is supposed that his death was caused by heart-disease.

MARRIED.

In Windham, by Rev. Loren Thayer, Mr. JOHN M. HALL, of Auburn, to Miss SARAH E. CLARK, of Derry.

In Brentwood, Mr. John C. Sanborn to Miss A. B. Hook, both of Fremont.

City Hotel, Portsmouth, N. H.

This popular, comfortable and commodious House is pleasantly situated

On Congress St., near Market Square.

The location is unsurpassed for business or pleasure. The Proprietor would state that he has thoroughly renovated and also refitted the same in a style that would please the most fastidious; the rooms are commodious and airy, the tables will be well supplied with the best the market affords, the attendants gentlemanly and accommodating, charges reasonable, and that no pains or expense will be spared to render this House equal if not superior to any public House in the city.

He would now return his sincere thanks to the public generally, for the very liberal patronage they have been pleased to bestow upon him; and ever grateful for past favors, respectfully solicits a continuance. J. B. FLAGG.

THE WORLD'S FAIR CHURN.

The attention of farmers is solicited to this celebrated Churn. It is without controversy the best Churn in the world;—having taken the premium at the Great Exhibition in London. It is simple, and easily managed by any child, and performs not only the action of churning, but also of working and salting the butter in the most perfect manner. It is of the utmost importance, as every dairywoman knows, to have a Churn well made, and free from imperfection of the wood that will retain any particles of cream to become sour, and spoil the flavor of the butter. None but the best of material is used in constructing these Churns, and every one is perfect before being sent to market.

The farmers in our vicinity are using these Churns very extensively, and award to it the very highest commendation.

COFFEE.

We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times Ladies' Home Magazine.

OLD DOMINION TEA-POTS.

made upon the same principle as the Coffee-pots;

WOOD'S

PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.

A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.

It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard—Analyzing the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find to our great certainty the deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is formed upon this discovery, hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different cases, viz: For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and GENERAL PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption, it enters by Drops and circulates immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. FOR SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD", $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO FAKE, NARCOTIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For the reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING; DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which invariably result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, for this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and other organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which so fearfully disorders the organs, and generates of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by the taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal taint. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, TUMORS, BLOTCHES, BOILS, SALT RHEUM, SWELL HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOLOREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. They penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find that health is restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every town has its proofs of its efficacy in persons previously known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public need hesitate no longer and doubt to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSUMPTION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from early complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long and so hopelessly have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from unpeopled realms of perpetual land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous extravasations, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physicians has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be distinctive, and the old axiom, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinctive and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

IN DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been speedily decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which unmyrkly indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

IN SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, it acts more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

IN INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the ague districts of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

A remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good health is generally the result, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
n. dew.tuc.tf of 18T.
16 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not incontestably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, all but one of which (now) have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made SIXTEEN rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.
Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.
Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.
During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 9, 1860.

ELECTION BY THE HOUSE.

We have seen various statements in regard to the result in the House of Representatives, in case the election of a President should fall upon that body. In that case each State has one vote, and that is cast by the majority of the delegation. The following, says the Atlas, is the accurate statement of the strength of parties in that body in such a contingency:

REPUBLICAN.

	Dem.	Rep.
Connecticut,	—	4
Indiana,	4	7
Iowa,	—	2
Maine,	—	6
Massachusetts,	—	11
Michigan,	1	3
Minnesota,	—	2
New Hampshire,	—	3
New Jersey,	2	3
New York,	7	25
Ohio,	6	15
Pennsylvania,	8	9
Rhode Island,	—	2
Vermont,	—	5
Wisconsin,	1	3

These States would cast fifteen Republican votes.

DEMOCRATIC.

	Dem.	Opp.
Alabama,	7	—
Arkansas,	3	—
California,	2	—
Delaware,	1	—
Florida,	1	—
Georgia,	6	2
Illinois,	5	4
Louisiana,	3	1
Mississippi,	5	—
Missouri,	7	—
Oregon,	1	—
South Carolina,	6	—
Texas,	2	—
Virginia,	12	1

Fourteen votes for the Democratic candidate.

SOUTHERN OPPOSITION.

	Dem.	Opp.
Tennessee,	3	7

One vote for the Baltimore nominee.

EQUALLY DIVIDED.

	Dem.	Opp.
Kentucky	6	6
Maryland,	3	3
North Carolina,	4	4

These three States, thus divided, could not vote at all. Tennessee by voting with the Republican States could elect, but could not give the Democrats the majority. The admission of Kansas would decide the result, in case the three divided States did not vote, as the Republicans would then have 16 out of 31 votes. Mr. Morris of Ill. (Douglas) could change the vote of that State to the Republican side.

It ought to be stated in addition, that in the above tables all the anti-Lecompton Democrats are classed with the Democrats; but Messrs. Hickman, Haskin, Reynolds, Schwartz and Adrain, neither of them, properly belong in that category, as none of them sustain the present administration. But their votes, even if cast with the Democrats, would not affect the result nor the calculation we have made.

The Tribune correspondent at Washington writes:

Southern Senators have determined to manage if possible so as to keep Kansas out of the Union till after the Presidential election, lest her vote might exercise a controlling influence in case the choice should come to the House. Her admission would make eighteen States necessary to choose. They have now some little hope of getting the requisite seventeen for a Southern man, or failing in that, to defeat the election by the House, and thus devolve it upon the Senate, where their chances will be greater. But even there they much prefer not to have two Republican Senators from Kansas. They may have power to play this game, but will find it dangerous, as the people of the free States will become so exasperated by this new outrage upon Kansas that they will settle the question at the polls beyond a peradventure.

☞ Rev. J. V. Himes, who led the Second Adventists in 1843, has commenced a new paper, entitled the "Voice of the Prophets," in which, with Dr. Cummings and others, he predicts the end of the world in 1867. The end of the world has been preached these two thousand years, and any number of dates for that event have been set, but the ball rolls on yet; and while the Adventists see in the Scriptures many predictions of the destruction of the earth as it now appears—other sects of Christians see and believe the statement that "the earth abideth forever," though one generation goeth and another cometh.

☞ A drunken Irishman, named James O'Neill, was murdered by another drunken Irishman named Michael Daley, on Sunday afternoon, at Poquonock, Conn. Daley confesses that he struck O'Neil four times on the head with an axe, as he lay on the ground. Cause, jealousy.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Washington corr. Mr. Wendell's testimony before the Covode Committee, establishes the fact that he expended between $30,000 and $40,000 to carry the English bill, part of which has been traced and the rest is in a fair way of discovery. The evidence of Simeon Jonson furnishes another link in the chain, proving that the Lecompton Constitution was made here and sent to Kansas by the administration agent.

NASHUA, N. H., May 8.—Zimri Barrett of Wilton, N. H., hung himself this morning, a few moments after his wife left for Lowell on a visit.

Ezekiel Greeley, one of our oldest and most prominent citizens, died this morning, after a brief illness.—Boston Jour.

Some one waggishly says, the split in the Charleston Convention was the opening of the political campaign.

☞ The Concord Democratic Standard still keeps at the head of its editorial columns, "For President, Daniel S. Dickinson of New York—subject to the decision of the Charleston Convention." In that paper of the 5th, in an editorial article written before the adjournment, it is said:—

If the South surrender principle, and succumb to Douglas and his Squatter Sovereignty Platform, it will then be time for the patriotic people of the North to take the business of making Presidents out of the hands of the trading and huckstering politicians, and do it themselves.

If the abolitionized Democracy of the North shall have controlled the Convention, and dictated the Platform, it may then be necessary for the people to name the coming man. The People's Man is Sam Houston, the Warrior, the Statesman, the Legislator.

☞ Speaking of the adjournment of the Charleston Convention, the Boston Post says:

This, under the circumstances, is the best thing that could be done. We will not attempt to disguise our disappointment at the fact that the session at Charleston has terminated without effecting nominations of candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States—yet, great and important advantages will attend the course adopted.

Our enemies will make the welkin ring with their shouts of joy at the late events, but what now appears to be our calamity is capable of being converted into an essential blessing.

We have full faith that a way will yet be pointed out through which our party, united, can take the field in a manner that will lead it to a glorious triumph, however inauspicious the aspect of its present condition must appear.

The result of the Charleston Convention, as to the platform, necessarily gives fresh prominence to slavery territorial questions. This issue is forced upon the country by the incessant attacks on the Democracy and on the South by the Republican party, and by its open war on the Supreme Court.

STARVATION stares the residents of middle Tennessee in the face. The editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate complains that he has to pay forty cents a pound for all butter used in his family, and thought himself particularly fortunate the other day in getting a "Jack fish" for half a dollar. That fish furnished him with a breakfast, but he says it is rarely he can afford to buy a cabbage or a salad for dinner,—cabbages and other light and nutritious vegetables having been sadly neglected by Tennessee farmers. Secular papers confirm these melancholy representations of the clergy, and, if things don't mend, we shall have to send provisions over the railroads to that desert region, just as we fed Ireland by the shipload in '48.

☞ A bar of gilded lead, purporting to be a bar of gold worth $2075, was lately sent from California to Paris. It was easily traced to the sender, who expressed some surprise, but promptly paid the above sum, plus the costs of carriage and litigation in France.

The steamer Australian, that left Portland on Saturday last, went out at dead low water, drawing 23 1-2 feet. The same ship in New York was lately detained 48 hours for want of water. This shows the superiority of Portland as the port for great steamers. The Great Eastern, it is said, will go to New York; but after the experience of the Australian, her destination will probably be changed back to Portland.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ By Pony Express we have San Francisco dates to April 28. A paper of that date says:

The combination among operators in refined sugars broke through this morning, causing a great decline in prices; at auction, 3600 bbls. crushed, powdered and loaf, at an average of 13c.; 1600 bbls. eastern crushed 12 1-2 a 13c. The traders were the sole purchasers, and obtained a 30 days' supply; prices since the sale are 13c.

Emigration has again commenced from China. Ship Flying Mist, from Hong Kong, brought 478 passengers, and the ship Jas. Browne as many more.

It is estimated that $35,000 in drafts were transmitted eastward by this pony express, which may reach their destination and be presented for payment twelve days before the steamer having the treasure to meet them arrives in New York.

The pony express which left St. Joseph on the 13th, arrived at San Francisco in 9 days and 17 hours.

RECENT TESTIMONY.

Washington, April 16, 1860.

Sir:—In answer to your letter, asking that I would inform you as to what standard of orthography has been adopted in the Smithsonian publications, I give you the following reply:

Early in the history of the Institution, the subject of orthography was referred to one of the best writers of this country, and in accordance with his recommendation, Worcester's Dictionary was adopted as being nearest the general usage of English scholars.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JOSEPH HENRY, Secretary S. I.

From Hon. Philip F. Thomas, Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C.

U. S. Patent Office, March 16, 1860.

The new Dictionary of Dr. Worcester combines, in my opinion, more of the requisites of a work of reference than any similar one ever published. The fullness and accuracy of its technical definitions make it of especial value in this office; and this, together with the correctness of its orthography, and its general excellence in definition and in etymology, have made it the standard work of reference in this office.

PHILIP F. THOMAS.

From Hon. John Hart, Sup. of Public Printing.

OFFICE SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC PRINTING,
Washington, March 14, 1860.

I have long been familiar with Worcester's Dictionary, and have been highly gratified with the appearance of the new and beautiful edition of this valuable work. Its vast vocabulary, the skill of its arrangement, accuracy of orthography, precision of definitions, particularly of technical and scientific terms, its general completeness, and its freedom from political or sectarian bias, render it, in my estimation, the most perfect and authoritative expository of the English language. It gives me pleasure to state that it is the standard authority for the public printing.

JOHN HART.

From Jos. Mettingly, Foreman of the Congressional Globe.

It gives me pleasure to inform you that, with the commencement of a new volume of the Congressional Globe, the system of orthography represented in Worcester's Dictionary will take the place of that heretofore used in the publication of the Globe of Congress.

Office Secretary U. S. Senate, March 16, '60.

Dear Sir:—It affords me great pleasure to inform you that the Committee to admit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate, have manifested their appreciation of Worcester's Quarto Dictionary by directing that the Senate Chamber and all the committee and office rooms of the Senate, be furnished with that work.

I am highly gratified at this additional testimonial of the merits of a book, that in my judgment, is decidedly the best work of the kind in the English language.

Yours,
JOHN G. FITZPATRICK,
Assistant Clerk, Office Secretary Senate.

Clerk's Office, U. S. House of Representatives, March 15, 1860.

Worcester's New Quarto Dictionary is the standard work of reference in this office, and the system of orthography therein represented, is that adopted in the official records and documents of the U. S. House of Representatives.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of mind. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I left greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

THE CIRCUIT COURT of the U. S. commenced the May term in this city on Tuesday. Present, Hon. Matthew Harvey. In consequence of the absence of Judge Clifford, no jury trials were held.

Reuben Wallingford, (colored) indicted for an assault upon the high seas in July last, upon Maxwell Cochrane, with a sheath knife, with intent to kill.

The Attorney for the government entered a nol. pros. as to the intent to kill, and Wallingford plead guilty as to the assault, etc. He was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty cents, and be imprisoned until the 4th of July.

Marshall, U. S. Att'y for the prosecution. Hackett for the prisoner.

On motion of Wm. H. Y. Hackett, Esq., Chas. H. Bell and Moses N. Colbie of Exeter, were admitted to practice as Attorneys and Counsellors of the Court.

It is understood that the Court will adjourn to-day to the third Monday of August.

☞ The cause of the sickness of Mr. Walker's cows—which, as we stated on Tuesday, has resulted in the death of one of them—is yet a mystery; and as a matter of public interest at the present time, merits some attention. A post mortem examination made by Dr. Lillyman, veterinary surgeon, of Boston, on Tuesday, resulted in his declaring the sickness in no respect like the pleuro-pneumonia now raging in Massachusetts—the whole disease, in this case, being in the brain, which was considerably congested or softened. Dr. L. regarded this as probably resulting from indigestion, caused perhaps by over-feeding, if only a single time, and with nothing but hay!

But this opinion seemed to meet with little favor from old stock-raisers present;—and it does seem singular—especially considering that both animals were taken sick within one week, without any great change in their feed or treatment—and that while the chief seat of the disease of both appears to be in the brain, yet the symptoms of the two were very unlike—there being stoppage in one case, and not in the other. It is a singular malady, and as yet inexplicable; for if it were an apoplexy, or the result only of high flesh, it could hardly happen to the two animals at the same time.

☞ In the Senate of the United States, Monday May 7, the resolutions of Mr. Davis were taken up.

Mr. Davis spoke in favor of his resolutions, which he said, were little more than a mere announcement of the principles of the constitution. He said the declaration of independence was not for the colonies united, but for each colony separate; and the Constitution was not framed by the people, en masse, but by the States severally,—and that the States could, at any time, when they deemed such a step necessary, resume the powers which they had only delegated to the general government. After referring to cotton, as the great bond of union between the States, Mr. D. referred incidentally to the question of protection, asserting that the general government had no power to limit the importations of any State, (i. e. of slavery) and asking if the States are to be taxed for the protection, by what right is slave property deprived of its benefit? On this issue, after days of discussion, we saw the Democratic Convention at Charleston broken up, and a party waiting joyfully for its funeral.

He had faith, however, that the democracy will live, and that it would honestly meet the issue, and that the masses of the country would sustain it. Mr. D. referred to the 4th and 5th resolutions, which asserted the right of slave property to protection in Territories, contending that it was the duty of Congress to see this protection afforded. He also combatted at length the doctrine of squatter sovereignty. His remarks were continued at some length, but most of his speech was inaudible; he complained of indisposition.

Mr. Brown replied to the remarks of Mr. Davis, that the second resolution of his series affiliates with the views of Mr. Douglas; and withdrew the second and third resolutions, substituting one stating that it was the duty of Congress to protect slave property in Territories. Mr. Brown briefly urged immediate legislation for the protection of slave property in Territories.

Mr. Clingman commenced a speech favoring non-intervention. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—A resolution, offered by Mr. Sherman, that debate on the Tariff bill shall close to-morrow, at 1 o'clock, was adopted.

Mr. Sherman then spoke on the tariff question. He said the act of 1857 was crude and ill digested, and ought never to have been passed. Three years ago, when it went into effect, there was a surplus of seventeen millions in the treasury, while now the country is upwards of sixty-five millions in debt. He appealed to facts and figures to show that the ordinary receipts are far below the expenses of the government, and pointed to several sources of expenditure where large reductions could be made in appropriations; but he had but little hope of any material reduction while party spirit and sectionalism were rampant in the land. Neither was there anything in the way of revenue in the future to be expected from the public lands. He therefore advocated the passage of the pending bill, which would yield from sixty to sixty-five millions per annum, affording, at the same time reasonable protection to the interests of all sections of the country.

Messrs. Schwartz and Grow also spoke in favor of the bill.

Without any action upon the subject, the House adjourned.

There is a water-fall in India six times the depth of Niagara—nine hundred feet.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—An address to the seceders from the Charleston Convention, showing the urgent necessity for their return to the National Democratic Convention at the adjourned meeting in June, was in circulation to-day, for signatures of members of Congress. The movement is intended to forestall the meetings of convention in the States which were represented by the seceders, to supply the vacancies occasioned by the withdrawal of delegates.

The number of delegates passing through Washington on their way to Baltimore to attend the Constitutional Union Convention, is larger than was anticipated. All the States will be represented except those of the Pacific coast.

It is supposed that not more than twenty Republican members of Congress will attend the Chicago Convention.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20, 1858.

GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling of of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to try, and by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very Respectfully,

BENJ. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, N. Y.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly,

WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. K.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to be the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

THE WORLD'S FAIR CHURN.

The attention of farmers is solicited to this celebrated Churn. It is without controversy the best Churn in the world!—having taken the premium at the Great Exhibition in London. It is simple, and easily managed by any child, and performs not only the action of churning, but also of working and salting the butter in the most perfect manner. It is of the utmost importance, as every dairywoman knows, to have a Churn well made, and free from imperfection of the wood that will retain any particles of cream to become sour, and spoil the flavor of the butter. None but the best of material is used in constructing these Churns, and every one is perfect before being sent to market.

The farmers in our vicinity are using these Churns very extensively, and award to it the very highest commendation.

COFFEE.

We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times Ladies' Home Magazine.

WOOD'S
PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.

A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.

It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

PARTY SPIRIT.—Dr. Paul Chatfield, in his "Tin Trumpet," defines party spirit, as a species of mental vitriol, which we bottle up in our bosoms, that we may squirt it against others; but which in the mean time, irritates, corrodes, and poisons our own hearts. Personality and invective are not only proof of a bad argument but a bad urger; for politeness is perfectly compatible with wit and logic, while it enhances the triumph of both. By a union of courtesy and talent, an adversary may be made to grace his own defeat, as the sandal tree perfumes the hatchet that cuts it down.—The bitterness of political pamphlets, and newspaper writing, so far from acting as a tonic, debilitates and dishonors them. Political writers and orators must not mistake the rage, the mouthing, and the contortions of the Sybil, for her inspiration. It is a melancholy thing to see a man clothed in soft raiment, lodged in a public palace, endowed with a rich portion of the product of other men's industry, using all the influence of his splendid situation, however unconciously, to deepen the ignorance, and inflame the fury, of his fellow creatures.—These are the miserable results of that policy which has been so frequently pursued, of placing men of mean, or middling abilities, in high stations.

A HINT TO OARSMEN.—Oarsmen should indulge in their favorite sport in moderation, as a writer in the London Times says "that almost all young men who have been at Oxford and Cambridge, especially those who have meddled much in boat races, have as a rule diseased blood-vessels, arteries or veins, and very many of them diseased and dialated hearts—all brought on by the strain and undue excitement (remora' ve, the doctors call it) of the circulation induced by pulling at boat-races. In fact, the matter is now well recognized both at insurance offices and in the administration of chloroform, amongst the upper classes, where diseased hearts can be avoided. It would seem the delicate fibers of the hearts of the boys and lads sent to Oxford especially at once give way before this pressure or remora."

IN DISHABILE.—A railroad condutor, who wore a long, roomy white linen sack coat, with a standing collar, and buttoned up to the chin, had a dispute with a female passenger. The lady won the victory gloriously by the following brilliant and destructive charge: "You are a purty fellow, ain't you. You are the first conductor I ever seed agwine about among a passel ove decent women folks in yer shirt tail. Ain't you 'shamed ov yourselve?" He probably was, for he left that car quickly, and unbuttoned the shirt tail coat.

"How much money have you?" said a rich old curmudgeon to a gay young fellow courting his pretty daughter. "Oh, I have not much of anything now, but I have a very rich prospect, indeed." The wedding occurred, and the old chap learned from his fine son-in-law that the rich prospect was the prospect of marrying his daughter.

SEVEN TIMES FLOGGED.—James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald, has been publicly flogged seven times; twice by James Watson Webb, once by Dr. S. P. Townsend, once by T. S. Hamblin, once by J. W. Hale, once by T. S. Clason, and once by John Graham, each time in the streets of New York.—Ex.

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.
Dyspepsia Remedy
This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaint, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.
As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.
It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.
Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating effects of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.
What it will do!
DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.
NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.
Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.
Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the earworn face.
During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.
All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller then is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which our Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1860.

NO FINALITY.

Uncle Toby has ventured to laugh, several times since 1850, at the several finalities of the question of slavery. And about as often, somebody has sanctimoniously rolled up the whites of his eyes in horror at such irreverence towards the great men who were so foolish as to suppose there could be any such finality while slavery exists, and while any freedom remains to hate and fight against it.

Now the Union Democrat, of Manchester, in a very able editorial on the Action and End of the Charleston Convention, says:

If our Southern friends will look back a few years, they will encounter a period when nearly all our people contended that it was the right and the duty of Congress to prevent the extension of slavery into new territory; and it cost the Democratic party hundreds of thousands of votes to establish the opposite theory of non-intervention.—But we succeeded at last, and the election of 1852 proved that the public sentiment of the North accepted that policy as a proper and final adjustment of the whole slavery controversy.

Uncle Toby begs leave to stop a moment here, and say that he presumes this is the proof that the Democratic party and its principles are ancient and unchangeable, viz., that "within a few years" it has contended for two principles—one being the opposite of the other. Q. E. D. But says the Democrat:

Let us take a party view of this question. The South demands what it don't need, and can never get. Suppose we adopt the majority platform: no argument or effort could secure 5000 votes for it in New Hampshire, or a greater proportion in any Northern State. What then? The Abolitionists take possession of every department of the government, and secession offers the only remedy. That remedy is easy now, but will be difficult then. * * *

We believe they have had ample cause for secession; and, much as we would regret it, we could not have withehl the justification of our judgment. But, when they undertake to secede because we will not agree that Congress shall force upon slavery upon a people who don't want it—where will they look for sympathy or justification then?

We trust our friends will re-consider;—and undo at Baltimore the wrong they did at Charleston. Some of them taunt us because we have been whipped. It is true we are in a minority in nearly every Northern State. Why? We have sacrificed ourselves in defence of what we deemed to be the rights of the South. Seven years ago, in this State, we could command 5000 Democratic majority, without the expenditure of a dollar. About that time it was thought best to re-affirm the compromise measures of 1850, which secured to the South equal privileges in the territories, by an act which was extremely vulnerable to Abolition attacks. We undertook to defend it, because we thought the equality of the States demanded it. We were disastrously beaten, and have been ever since.

☞ It spoils a joke to explain it—and it damages a platform to construe it, especially at this time.

It was commonly understood through the country, during the Helper debate in Congress, that in case a Republican Speaker and President were chosen, somebody would put on their hats and leave.

It seems now, however, that this was only a bugbear, and they never meant to go. In a debate in the House, not many days ago, Mr. Stanton of Ohio charged some Southern men with threatening disunion in case of a Republican President. Mr. Millson of Virginia denied the charge.

Mr. Stanton—All I have to say, then, is that my sense of hearing deceived me if it be not so. If the gentleman would have the goodness to refer to the speeches made by the gentlemen on that side, he would find it indistinctly avowed, in more than twenty speechs, that in the event of the election of a Republican President, (Mr. Seward was frequently named,) they would look upon it as a sufficient cause for the dissolution of the Union.

Mr. Millson—That is what the gentleman affirms; but if the gentleman declares that it was said repeatedly on this floor, that it was the purpose of the Democratic party, he is greatly mistaken. All that was said at any time was, that in the opinion of a gentleman's constituents, the election of a Republican President would furnish sufficient justification for such a step.

With Mr. Millson's explanation, the threat is as harmless as the Bull of a Pope who has lost his power to do anything but bellow—and was only meant to frighten somebody, of whom the bellower himself was afraid.

COURAGE.—The Portland Argus says: The result at Charleston produces no despondency. The Democracy of the country is capable of taking care of itself and of the nation, and will do so.

The Washington Constitution says:

For ourselves, though we sympathize duly with those who look upon the eventful occurrences of the day with concern and solicitude, we must say that we have no shade of distrust that a good Democrat will be elected to the Chief Magistracy as surely as November shall come.

The Pierce party did not show at Charleston, and the General can pursue his travels in the British West Indies, and let the world know how they have been affected by the abolition of slavery.—Traveller.

NEW ORLEANS, April 30.

Though for ten days past the weather has been more like a Northern April than it was like the usual April weather of this latitude, having the coldest "norm" experienced for thirty years, still the action of the theatrical managers indicates approach of summer. The St. Charles Theatre has been closed a fortnight. At the Varieties, the engagement of Mrs. John Wood is announced to close with this week, and with it the theatre for the season. The engagement of the Parodi Opera Troupe, at the Amphitheatre, proved so successful they have been re-engaged for seven nights, during which time they are to perform Rigolette, Lucrezia Borgia, La Favorita, Il Barbiere di Siviglia, Poliuto, Il Trovatore, and Norma. Parodi and Alaimo are the "stars." The former appears to have discovered some magic art of rejuvenation.

One week ago the bark Laura sailed hence for Port au Prince, having on board as passengers, seventy-five free negroes from the parishes of St. Martin and St. Landry, making about 500 who have left Louisiana in a few weeks. Being nearly all cultivators, and possessed of more or less means, they will be a valuable acquisition to Hayti, in the northern part of which they are all settled. Mr. A. L. Porce, the energetic agent of President Geffrard in this city, is making preparations for a still more extensive scale of migration in June. The harsh nature of the laws of this State relative to free negroes is the prime cause of this exodus.

Some weeks since, Mr. H. Copeland, a promising young actor and highly esteemed gentleman, one of Mr. Owens' troupe at the Varieties, had a rencontre with Mr. J. W. Overall, of the True Delta; the difficulty arising from some remarks of that paper; and in the course of the trouble Mr. C. received a pistol ball in his leg, below the knee. Amputation was found to be necessary in a few days, but lock-jaw ensued, and Mr. Copeland expired on the morning of the 23d inst. He was a native of New York, about 28 years old.

Among other luxuries of the season we we have been treated to a few mad dogs, but that delicacy has for some time been out of the market. It has been a matter of notice to me that the muzzle is seldom used on dogs south of Mason and Dixon's Line.

Last Wednesday, the Brooklyn Warehouses, seventeen in number, on the Algiers side of the river, were destroyed by fire, involving a loss of $60,000. Besides a large amount of sugar and cotton stored therein, there were 300,000 bags of salt, the damage of which has affected the price of the commodity in this market.

Matthew Hughes, the drunken policeman, who unprovokedly assassinated Henry E. Hyams, on his own door-step, on the night of the 8th of November last, (election night) has been found guilty of murder.—The trial of the slave of Mr. Lumley, for the dreadful poisoning of the 20th of March, is now progressing. She is supposed to have put arsenic in charlotte russe, by which ten or twelve people lost their lives.

Quite an improvement has been made in street sweeping, by performing that operation at night.

On Saturday morning last, a fire broke out in a mattress shop in the Third District. The firemen were promptly on hand, and it is said could have quenched the fire with the most miserly supply of water.—But, no,—as usual, there was no water, and as a consequence, two whole squares, containing more than fifty buildings, among them one church, were burned, entailing a loss of $100,000.

Violations of the slave liquor law are being prosecuted with energy; licenses are revoked and heavy fines imposed by an unsparing hand. For two violations, a cabaret keeper was obliged to pay $1000, last week.

The news of the battle between Heenan and Sayers has caused a great deal of excitement. For awhile even the Charleston Convention was in the shade. One death has already occurred in consequence. On Saturday night two men in a coffee-house were engaged in a dispute relative to the fight, when the partizan of Heenan gave the champion of Sayers the lie. The other was about to return the compliment by a blow with his fist, when the first one drew a pistol and shot him dead. He has not yet been arrested. ION.

POLITICAL.—The Washington Constitution says that the Republican opposition are just at this time so absorbed in the proceedings of the Charleston Convention that they have no time for getting up falsehoods, and that consequently the Democratic press are relieved from the necessity of daily answering new accusations.

SPRING BIRDS.

They come! they come with the morning sun,
In feather robes bright and gay,
And welcome on the thousand-hued throng
That come with the Queen of May.
They flit about in the bright day-dreams,
With hearts full of gay delight;
And drink in the song of wakeful streams,
When stars deck the bours of night.

A man is valued as he makes himself valuable.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, May 8.

SENATE.—Mr. Pearce offered a resolution providing for an observation of the total eclipse of the sun on the the 18th of July. The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. Brown presented a bill for deepening the channels of rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico, and authorizing certain States to levy tonnage dues. Referred.

Mr. Davis' territorial resolutions came up, and Mr. Clingman finished his remarks, arguing at length in favor of Congressional non-intervention, and the propriety of leaving the matter to the decision of the courts.

Mr. Clingman contended that the Cincinnati platform embraced all the principles requisite for a Democratic candidate.

Mr. Douglas proposed to offer some remarks in reply to Mr. Davis, on Thursday.

Mr. Wade gave notice that he should press the Homestead bill to a vote to-morrow, unless overruled by the majority of the Senate.

He spoke at some length, asserting that the Cincinnati platform, properly constructed, was sufficient. But under what circumstances was that platform offered at Charleston? It was with the understanding that it had two interpretations.

Mr. Pugh denied this.

Mr. Benjamin replied it was admitted time and again in the convention. It was avowed also, that if the convention put upon it the construction that if the citizens of the South had the right to hold property in the territories and that the Legislature had no power to effect that right, that not a single northern State could be carried. That was a fraud upon the good faith and honor of the Democratic party. It was unworthy of the democracy to go into the canvas on a platform wearing two aspects. He would enter into the contest on no such platform. Let their principles be blazoned in letters of light upon their banners, and upon those principles let them stand or fall. He had no choice between the man who openly denied him all his rights, and a man who admitted those rights but was unwilling to grant them. If the Democracy at Baltimore decline to plant themselves on a constitutional platform, he would co-operate with a third organization that would.

Mr. Douglas thought it would have been better to have pressed it before he was attacked than after.

Mr. Davis said he had not attacked the gentleman from Illinois; he only advocated certain principles. He desired a vote, not an interminable debate.

Mr. Douglas replied that he was willing to speak to-morrow, if the Senate prefer.

HOUSE.—The House went into Committee of the Whole, and took up the Tariff bill, upon which there was considerable debate.

Messrs. Taylor and Millson ineffectually endeavored to introduce amendments increasing the duty on sugar.

Mr. Pettit's amendment to repeal the duties on molasses were voted down.

Owing to some Democrats declining to vote, the committee repeatedly found itself without a quorum, although it appeared by the roll calls that one was present. The struggle was prolonged till 8 o'clock, when the House adjourned.

☞ Chief Justice Taney is so seriously ill, or rather so far worn out, that serious fears are entertained, that he never again will take his seat on the bench. A few days ago he fell down from mere exhaustion, and had to be borne to his chamber. He is too old to know how far gone he is, and will not therefore probably resign should he linger ever so long. Judge Daniel of the same court is also nearly as much enfeebled.

☞ It appears that one black man named Blocker, came slily from Charleston in the steamer S. R. Spalding, which brought the democratic delegates to Boston; and that the captain sent Blocker back to Charleston as a fugitive slave. It is now reported among the colored people, that another negro, named Norris, a slave, came in the steamer, and has gone to Canada.

☞ A Washington letter in the Providence Press says, the jealous lady who betrayed Key and Mrs. Sickles, has published a book of political squibs; and the writer thinks instead of making attacks upon government officials, she had better cease her scandalous "goings on" with a young Washington clerk.

☞ The ball which the Empress Eugenie gave in the Duchess d'Albe's palace in Paris cost a lively figure. The decorations alone required $30,000. The Empress wished to appear as Diana, but it is said the Emperor objected, as the costume was immodest and undignified.

☞ The Postmaster General, in a communication to the Senate, Tuesday, says, after the most careful consideration he is constrained to believe that the chief improvement in the dead letter office must be effected by providing for the return of letters through the office in greater number and at a shorter period to the writers.

HYMNS AND MUSIC.—J. M. Usher, of Boston, is about to publish a large Collection of Hymns and Tunes, on the plan of the Plymouth Collection of H. W. Beecher,—which will be in no respect inferior to that book, and which will be adapted to the use of Universalist congregations. It is to be published in September.

☞ Gen. Lewis Cass, Secretary of State, was born in Exeter, N. H., and is now in the 78th year of his age. It is said that Gen. Cass never had an overcoat upon his back but once in his life. The first drop of intoxicating liquors never yet passed his lips.

A SCRIPTURAL ROMANCE.—The publisher has sent us a copy of "The Throne of David," a handsome volume of 600 pages. The Rev. J. Ingraham has completed his remarkable series of historic scriptural romances, by the publication of "The Throne of David, from the Consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Absalom." Of this work David is the hero, as Moses is of "The Pillar of Fire," and as the Redeemer is of "The Prince of the House of David." The writer, taking facts from sacred history, has woven them into a surprisingly interesting narrative, purporting to have been written in letters from Prince Arbaces, Assyrian ambassador to the Holy Land, to Belus, king of Assyria. Mr. Ingraham's style is florid, rapid, eloquent and and impressive. The book will no doubt fascinate a large number of imaginative Christian readers. It is illustrated with steel and wood engravings, and is published by G. G. Evans, of gift book celebrity, No. 439 Chestnut street, Philadelphia;—and is for sale in this city by J. H. Foster.

Bitter complaints are made that the pay of our naval officers is not high enough, but it is, we believe, quite as high as is that of the men. We once heard a naval officer say that the navy was no place for a poor man, and we incline to think he was right.—Traveller.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1855.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, Portsmouth, N. Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine, and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

☞ Rev. Mr. Hall has furnished us with the Minutes of the New Hampshire Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, held at Manchester in April.

This conference voted it desirable to extend the term of stationed preachers from two to three years.—The General Conference will probably adopt this as a rule.

The Minutes before us contain the names of 240 Ministers, including 11 out of the State, and 24 superannuate.

The pamphlet has as a frontispiece, a View of the Conference Seminary at Sanbornton Bridge. The Report of this institution represents it as quite prosperous,—and says:

The citizens of the place have of late been making more effort than ever before, to render the town a safe and quiet residence for our choice young people. In two large and enthusiastic mass meetings recently held there, they have unanimously resolved that no intoxicating drinks shall be sold. They have informed all who have been suspected of selling, that they will be prosecuted to the extent of the law, unless they desist; and they have promised to do so. And what is as delightful as it is singular, there is heard but one voice on the subject, even by those who have sold and drank.

This little item shows admirably, how moral suason agrees with the law at Sanbornton Bridge;—and how nicely the law there fits the disobedient and profane, for whom it was made.

BALTIMORE CONVENTION.—This body assembled in good numbers, May 8,—and in the evening the State delegations held caucuses. Their candidates are Legion.

There are two sections in the Convention,—one of men who wish to construct a new party; the other is made up of men who wish to revive old organizations. Houston's success will be the defeat of the latter.

The New York delegation have met and voted informally. Houston received thirty-three out of thirty-five votes.

Everett is a candidate; and so are Genls. Scott and Wool, Messrs. Sharkey, Bell, McLean, Bates, Crittenden and Judge Nelson.

It is called a Union Convention, and one writer says—"It is understood that the battle will be fought under the banner of the Constitution, that no platform will be adopted, and that the question of slavery, in every shape and form, will be excluded from the Convention."

☞ In New York, May 8, the friends of the South American Tract Society held their anniversary. A report was read to the effect that the Society has circulated 16,000,000 volumes, 210,000,000 tracts, and 50,000,000 periodicals, (we suppose since its formation.) Addresses enforcing on the audience the necessity of keeping up the national character of the Society were made.

The anniversary of the American Temperance Union Society was held in the Church of the Puritans. Dr. Cheever and Dr. Stephen H. Tyng took part in the services. The report of the Secretary showed that the funds of the Society were in good condition, and that its usefulness was being rapidly extended.

☞ The Japanese embassy are to reach Washington on the 14th inst.

☞ There are scores of speculations in the papers about the probable nominees at Chicago, as well as the two democratic conventions at Richmond and Baltimore. But they are hardly worth re-printing.

☞ A dispatch from Easton, P., states that a triple murder had been committed near that place. The New York papers contain a dispatch from the same place, pronouncing the story a hoax, which originated with a man laboring under mrnia a potu.

☞ The following is part of the report of proceedings in the Newfoundland Legislature, and beats Congress, rather:

"In the House on Friday night, the Colonial Secretary, Kent, and Attorney General Hoggsetts quarrelled. The Colonial Secretary called Her Majesty's Attorney General a puppy and a brat. The Speaker accused the Attorney General of being drunk. The Attorney General called the Speaker a liar. The scene was kept up till one o'clock Saturday morning.

WALKING HORSES.—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman suggests the offering of premiums at annual county fairs for fast walking as well as fast trotting horses. He says he knew a man who kept from two to four teams to work on the road, and never allowed them to trot at all; yet he made the distance in quicker time than his neighbors who made their horses trot at every convenient place. He said that when a horse walked after trotting, he walked much slower than his common gait, if kept continually on the walk, and thus lost more than he gained by trotting.

PITTSFIELD, May 8.—The Hon. Phineas Allen, senior editor of the Pittsfield Sun, which he founded in the year 1800, died this morning, at the venerable age of eighty-four years. He was the oldest editor in the Union.

☞ It is said in Ireland that Rev. Mr. Cahill's letters from America will greatly increase the number of emigrants this year.

Villains may prosper for a time, but their end is ignominy. Underhand practices fail in the end.

NEW YORK, May 8.—James, son of Thomas A. Emmet, committed suicide yesterday, under influence of temporary aberration, aged 27.

A dispatch from Washington says that Calhoun Benham, the second of Judge Terry, in the Broderick duel, has been nominated for District Attorney of California.

The American Anti-Slavery Society held their anniversary meeting to-day at the Cooper Institute, William Lloyd Garrison presiding. Addresses were made by Garrison, Dr. Cheever, Robt. Purvis, and Mrs. Stanton. The finances of the Society were represented to be in a flourishing condition.

BALTIMORE, May 8.—Delegates to the Constitutional Convention, to assemble tomorrow, are arriving in considerable numbers, and the hotels are filling up. The old first Presbyterian church, recently bought by the government for a court-house is finely fitted up for the accommodation of the Convention. A full-length portrait of Washington has been placed behind the President's chair, and the interior of the building is draped with flags. There is considerable speculation as to the course to be pursued. A meeting was called for to-night of the friends of Mr. Botts, but for some reason it did not take place. The church is the same in which Van Buren was nominated for the Presidency.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—Chicago, May 8.—[Special dispatch to the Atlas and Daily Bee.]—The project of a grand excursion through to Chicago from Niagara Falls, on Monday, 14th, meets with much enthusiasm among New England residents of Chicago, who are preparing a grand reception for Monday evening, at the Michigan Central depot, for the New England delegations. This will be the best train for delegations from Central New York and New England. It leaves Niagara Falls at 6 A. M., reaching Chicago at 10 P. M. The hotels at the Falls will be open for guests.

A FEARFUL TRAGEDY.—Easton, Pa., May 7.—Thomas Richardson, an old and wealthy farmer, was beaten to death to-day, near this town, by two of his laborers.—Two sons coming to his assistance were threatened, when one of them went to a house and procured a double barrel gun, returned and shot both the murderers dead.

Wanted for the Directors of the Bellevue Hospital.—A cat (with nine tails.)

THE WORLD'S FAIR CHURN.

The attention of farmers is solicited to this celebrated Churn. It is without controversy the best Churn in the world!—having taken the premium at the Great Exhibition in London. It is simple, and easily managed by any child, and performs not only the action of churning, but also of working and salting the butter in the most perfect manner. It is of the utmost importance, as every dairywoman knows, to have a Churn well made, and free from imperfection of the wood that will retain any particles of cream to become sour, and spoil the flavor of the butter. None but the best of material is used in constructing these Churns, and every one is perfect before being sent to market.

The farmers in our vicinity are using these Churns very extensively, and award to it the very highest commendation.

of which so many thousands have been sold during the past year.

COFFEE.

We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times Ladies' Home Magazine.

OLD DOMINION TEA-POTS.

made upon the same principle as the Coffee-pots

WOOD'S
PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.

A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.

It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

BLOOD FOOD.
Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of itself no one peculiar element. Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is based upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For LUNGS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS indicating CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is the Blood Food. For Depression, Want of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION use No. 2; for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD", $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS.
Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. And we feel by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and is a sure reliever by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only safe preparation to be given for CHILDREN TEETHING; DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it is so equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.
Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, confined or an unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. This last is its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the curse of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.
Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that constitutions from it only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can derive for this, everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed not for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, INTERNAL GIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a deep generation of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.
Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human frame, promoting health gratis by American Alimanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Complaints, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.
So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, the unvarying value of Cherry Pectoral, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.
An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.
The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints:
LOW DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.
In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.
In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorous tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.
It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficacious and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.
In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.
In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, and confirmed, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.
In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent heetic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION this remedy has although the alarm of friends and physicians in several very alarming and interesting instances.
In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicine has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.
The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiar affecting their sex.
In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably the best, if not the only alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.
In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.
No remedy has ever been discovered, in the history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (November 1st, 1857.)

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Models, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, is here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them a prompt and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1860. R. H. EDDY.

GROVER & BAKER'S
Celebrated Family Sewing Machines.
FOR FAMILY USE.

From the very flattering manner in which our Machines have been received by the public, resulting in the sale of 35,000,

we are led to believe that our endeavors to manufacture a RELIABLE MACHINE have been appreciated. We take this opportunity to remark that the policy will be unchanged, and that

Every Machine sold by us
We shall not hesitate to Warrant in every respect.
GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO.

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,
Adapted to every variety of
FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounce it faultless. She can sew more in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.
Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation. CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a household, to be sure and get a Grover & Baker, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size; and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1860.

☞ The Union Convention at Baltimore, May 9, chose Washington Hunt as their president. On taking the chair, Mr. Hunt designated the slavery question, which split the Democratic Convention at Charleston, as a miserable abstraction, and believed that this convention had the power to rally around it the patriotism of the country.

Mr. Grayson of Penn. wanted a platform ignoring the issue of slavery in the Territories.

Mr. Coombs was so thoroughly impressed with the importance of a platform, that he had prepared three. For the harmonious Democracy he would present the Virginia resolutions of 1798–99, with two resolutions on slavery, one to keep it out of the Territories, and one to force slavery into them—to be adopted under the previous question, and no questions asked asked afterwards.—Sil—for the "irrepressible conflict" philanthropists, he proposed the Blue Laws. For the Constitutional Union party, he proposed—the Constitution as it is, and the Union now and forever.

Erastus Brooks of N. Y. did not propose to discuss the merits of candidates or of a platform. He thought the allusions made this afternoon premature and unfortunate.—Party platforms were invented to deceive the people, to wear one face at the North and another at the South. The true platform was the Constitution as interpreted by its judicial authorities.

A business committee, one from each State, was chosen, to whom all resolutions were referred. The committee man from New Hampshire is S. C. Wise; from Maine, G. E. B. Jackson.

WARD BEECHER discusses of debt and interest. Hear him talk:—"No blister draws sharper than interest does. Of all industries, none is comparable to that of interest. It works day and night, in fair weather or foul. It has no sound in its footsteps, but travels fast. It knaws man's substance with invisible teeth. It binds industry with its film, as a fly is bound upon a spider's web. Debt rolls a man over and over, binding him hand and foot, and letting him hang upon the fatal mesh until the long-legged interest devours him."

All true as preaching, Mr. Beecher, the Atlas says; but it is not so easy for those poor ministers who do not get so many hundreds as you do thousands, to keep out of debt. They have to wear the "blister" sometimes.

FIRE IN THE WOODS.—On Friday last, fire was discovered in the large tract of woodland situated in New Ipswich, N. H., near the Rindge line. Owing to a strong easterly wind, the flames proceeded with rapidity, destroying from three to four hundred acres of valuable spruce timber, and a saw mill. The fire ran in the grass, and spread over an area of about seven hundred acres. Many of the farmers removed their effects from their dwellings into the highways, while others were engaged in plowing around their houses, in order to save them from the approaching flames.—Gangs of men worked day and night on Friday, but could not check the flames till turday morning, when their progress was finally stopped. The conflagration is supposed to have been started by two French Canadians, who stopped at the roadside to bait their horses, and lighting their pipes, threw the matches into the grass.

☞ They had laughter in the House of Commons over the Heenan and Sayers fight. Sir Geo. Lewis said that everybody who was present was liable to arrest, at which there was great merriment and loud calls for Monckton Milnes, who was a member and was present at the fight. Mr. Scully said that if such an occurrence had happened in Ireland, the English papers would have been unanimous in denouncing it, and would have characterized all who abetted the proceedings as complete savages.

☞ At the South American Tract Society Meeting in New York, May 9, the Treasurer's report showed receipts of last year to be upward of $380,000. After the reading of the report, Mr. Walcott, of Chicago, moved resolutions to the effect that the society ought to publish anti-slavery tracts, but adjournment was carried without taking a vote on it.

Rev. Nehemiah Adams, D. D. is one of the Publishing Committee. The national position of the Society was sustained by an overwhelming vote, there being but seven dissenting votes against the Executive Committee.

☞ The U. S. Senate, Wednesday, May 9, took up the Homestead Bill, and debated it: amended it somewhat, and rejected many proposed amendments.

The House discussed free negroes and the tariff.

FROM MEXICO.—Advices from Vera Cruz are of the 6th. Miramon's party has been defeated on all sides and his money is exhausted. It is reported that Minister McLane goes into the interior for an interview with Miramon.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Steamship Roanoke, with the Japan Embassy, is below.

AN IMPORTANT WILL CASE.—A suit arising from the will of the late Col. John Wade of Woburn, is now being tried before Judge Bigelow of the Supreme Court, at Lowell, which excites much interest in various quarters. Col. Wade died in July, 1858, leaving an estate of about $100,000. The will which is now contested, was signed about three weeks previous to his death.—The will makes various bequests to relatives and friends, the amounts being small in each case, and the great bulk of his property was left in trust for the New England Female Medical College and Tufts College. One week after making the will he made a codicil, in which he confirmed the will, but made no bequests, simply making some requests in reference to the family lot at Mount Auburn.

The appellants deny that this "paper" is the last will and testament of deceased, or that he was of sound mind when he subscribed it. Three witnesses to the will, and three to the codicil, have testified that in their opinion he was of sound mind at the time of the execution of the document.

A PECULIARITY OF OYSTER BEDS.—It is a curious fact, for which naturalists and men of science have as yet been unable to account, that when solid ice forms everywhere else, the water does not freeze over oyster beds except in the very severest weather. Even then the ice does not become of the same consistence or solidity as in those places where oyster beds are not formed.

☞ The junior proprietor of a daily paper in Boston, residing in the suburbs, was "outraged" by the sexton of his church, who seated in his pew a young lady who does not belong to the white race. The young editor with his family immediately withdrew. Imagine their surprise and shame, on learning that the young lady was the the daughter of a rich Cuban planter, and a—slaveholder!

REPORTED MASSACRE DISCREDITED.—Leavenworth, K. T., May 8.—The reports that Green and Russell's party were massacred at Smoky Hill, are discredited. The party consisted of 35 men, well armed and provisioned. It is thought they could not have reached the Indian country, as they expected to be fifty days on the trip.—They were hired by the Council of Leavenworth to explore the route to the gold diggings.

☞ The jail in Stratford, Canada West, has been for some time, and is still, without a tenant. In five weeks it has not had an occupant. This remarkable decline in the amount of crime is said to be due to the indefatigable efforts on the part of the authorities for the suppression of the sale of intoxicating liquors.

U. S. MARSHALS INDICTED FOR BRIBERY.—New York, May 9.—Rynders and Munn, U. S. Deputy Marshals, accused of bribery in the case of the barque Storm King, are indicted and held in bail for trial.

☞ An old-fashioned emigration "ark"—a house on wheels, with stove, chimney, beds, and all complete—passed through Cleveland recently, en route to Pike's Peak. It contains two women, ten children, two dogs, a cat with a litter of kittens, a she goat, etc.

SAVANNAH, May 9.—In the United States Court, the Grand Jury have found true bills against Charles A. L. Lamar, Carey W. Stiles, J. W. Middleton, and W. Howe, for rescuing Farnham, the slave trader from the county jail.

☞ The cost of the spirituous liquors consumed in this country is estimated at one hundred and fifty million dollars. At a low estimate, two-thirds of that is not only useless but injurious; there is therefore money enough thrown away every year in these United States to pay the whole cost of the Pacific Railroad.

OUR GREAT COUNTREY.—A correspondent of the Ohio Statesman, writing of his journey to Charleston, says:—

"For several miles before we reached the city, the scenery changed into beautiful gardens and fine country seats! Some of our Wisconsin friends had traveled part of their journey on snow shoes! You can imagine their delight as the rose bushes appeared, liveried in red and white!"

☞ A controversy is now going on between the Protestant and Catholic missionaries in the Sandwich Islands, and the consequence has been an increased demand for Bibles among the natives. The natives are diminishing at the rate of eight or ten per cent. annually.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—Atchison, K. T., May 8.—The election yesterday resulted in a complete Democratic triumph. Fairchild was elected Mayor, and the other officers are all Democrats.

☞ Mr. Kennedy of Charleston, South Carolina, having left his wife and taken away six of her negroes, she offers $1000 for the recovery of the negroes, but surrenders her husband to a widow Hatch, who bore him company in his begira.

IDLERS.—One is often struck with the number of idle people in cities. How do the idle people make out to live? There is a mystery about the matter that seems to be insoluble.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

☞ Pat Duffy and Charles Gilmore, two noted ticket swindlers in New York, have been arrested and put under bonds for trial, and their office closed.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—A dispatch to the Constitution says that the Douglas meeting at New Orleans, Wednesday night was a failure, and that the seceding delegates will be endorsed.

It is reported that it was the "Pierce Phalanx" which really controlled the movements at Charleston, and defeated Douglas. Gen. Cushing and Mr. Butler are supposed to have had a friendly understanding. At any rate, that's the way the Douglas men feel. Perley says:

To accomplish this end, [Pierce's nomination] a Newburyport Brigadier fagled the South into secession at Charleston, while a Lowell Brigadier uttered brave words for the North. The cunning manner in which these two Massachusetts heroes played into each other's hands, is very freely commented upon here, by the sore-headed Douglas men, and they insinuate that some of the New Hampshire and other professed New England friends of the Little Giant, displayed a marvelous weakness about the knees. They cheered for "popular sovereignty," but down in their boots they were waiting for the proper time to shout, "Hosanna! to the little man on horseback!"

It is said the Senate will pass an enabling act to catch Sanborn and other such rebels, —and will reject any tariff bill.

A CAT DISTINGUISHES HERSELF.—The N. O. Crescent says a matronly cat in a grocery store in that city recently became the happy parent of five kittens and a puppy, and the whole family are now doing better than might be expected! The puppy is as complete a young dog as any boasting legitimate maternity ever was, except in the matters of feet and ears, which are exactly those of feline species. In other respects it is all dog, and one of the prettiest you ever saw, with symmetrical form, close haired, glossy, tan-colored hide. It looks like a rat terrier. The curious little hybrid sucks away among its brother and sister kittens, as if it was just as good as any of them, and is evidently the object of the special care and affection of his mother—who may have been indiscreet, or, to put the most charitable construction upon the mysterious affair, may have been subjected to an agitating and metamorphosing canine terror at a critical period sometime anterior to the development of the above remarkable phenomenon.

☞ One of the early settlers of Rycgate, Vt., was John Cameron. He was an ardent admirer of Thomas Jefferson, and declared that the next child born to him should bear the name of the Virginia statesman. Contrary to his hopes, the next child was a girl; but with true Scotch persistency, he had her christened Thomas Jefferson. The second name was familiarly abbreviated into "Jeffie," and made a tolerable Christian name for a girl.

Per contra, there died in Walpole, N.H., last year, a man whose Christian name was feminine—Noadiah L. Holton, named for "the prophetess Noadiah," of whom we read in Neh. vi. 14.

☞ Negro Sam lately died on the plantation of his master, A. J. Billingly of Jones county, Ga. When captured in Africa to be brought to this country he says he was 45 years old. He landed in Charleston, and was bought by the Lowther family, lived with them in that city nearly 12 years, and was in their possession till a few years since. From Charleston, Sam was carried to Savannah, and stayed there 40 years. From the evidence of reliable persons, and the negro's own statement, he is supposed to have been over 140 years old at the time of his death.

TEMPERANCE IN FITCHBURG, MASS.—This may be consicered a strong temperance town, in the practice of the mass of its citizens, and in the strict enforcement of the prohibitory law. The town takes the matter in charge for law and order, and yearly appoints an agent to enforce the liquor law. The consequence is that a great amount of crime, disorder and misery is prevented.—The agent of last year, who was honored by a vote of thanks from the town for his success, says in his report that crime had decreased full two-thirds, as the result of closing the rum traffic. He had notified the sellers to quit the traffic, or close the business. Most of them complied without prosecution; 35 prosecutions had been instituted for liquor-selling, and as the result of what selling did exist, there were 39 prosecutions for drunkenness, and 5 for common drunkenness. There had been 17 cases of larceny, only 2 of which were instigated by rum; 13 of assault and battery, 10 of which resulted from liquor; and 2 of burglary, 1 of which was from the influence of liquor. With four other cases of crime, rum had nothing to do.—The new agent, Silas W. Browning, is said to possess great energy of character, intelligent acquaintance with the practical working of the law, and entire fearlessness in executing it. Much good is hoped from his agency.

The clergy of Fitchburg are ever ready to promote the cause. At the invitation of temperance men, they have, through the last winter, continued a series of Sunday evening temperance lectures, which are considered as exceedingly beneficial.—Boston Journal.

What is the difference between an auction and sea-sickness? One is the sale of effects, and the other the effects of a sail.

"Mr. Conductor," asked a railroad passenger, "are you running on time to-day?" "No, sir; we are running for the cash."

☞ We understand that Prof. J. W. Clark, long and well known as a teacher of music in this city, has resigned his situation as organist at the North Church here; and goes to Bangor to-day—where he has been offered, and accepted, an advantageous and lucrative position as organist at the First Parish (Congregational) Church. Mr. Clark has been located in Portsmouth about sixteen years, we think; and his removal will be regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintance. He is a skilful and brilliant performer on the piano-forte and organ—a teacher of much experience; and in years past has devoted not a little time, labor and money to develop and encourage musical taste in this community—without success satisfactory to himself. He will be much missed by our musical public generally, and especially by the religious Society with which he was so long connected. May he never miss the key notes, and may his lines always fall in pleasant places.

☞ Besides the two cows of Mr. Walker, of which we have before spoken as sick of disease of the brain; we learn that another, belonging to a lady living near the city farm, is similarly ailing. If the first-named animals were injured by over-feeding, (which we by no means credit—as they have had no food but excellent hay during the past six months at least,) it is certain that the third was not thus treated, for she is thin as a rail. The sufferers from this mysterious disorder, act so as to plainly show that the seat of their pain is in the head.

☞ Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at Newington next Sunday afternoon, at 5 o'clock.

☞ Rev. Mr. Pierce has been engaged to supply the pulpit of the Christian Society in Rye for the ensuing year.

☞ A fugitive slave arrived in this city last week, on his way to a land of freedom. He was helped on his way to Canada via the Underground Railroad.

☞ Mr. John F. Bartlett, a young married man, at Concord, shot himself with a pistol ball on Tuesday evening, accidentally or otherwise, and is in a critical condition.

The Statesman reports he belongs in Portsmouth,—but we believe not, though he may have lived here at some time.

BALTIMORE, May 10.—The "Constitutional Union Convention" has this morning adopted the "Constitutional Union Platform."

The Convention will soon proceed to ballot for a candidate for the Presidency. The contest lies entirely between Bell and Houston. The Convention is harmonious.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Among all preparations for the hair that have been introduced as infallible, none has ever given the satisfaction or gained the popularity that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative now has. His Restorative has passed the ordeal of innumerable fashionable toilets, and the ladies wherever they have tested it, pronounce it a peerless article. They find, where the hair is thined, that it creates a fresh growth—that it fully restores the vegetative power of the roots on the denuded places, and causes the fibers to shoot forth anew—that it dissolves and removes dandruff, prevents grayness, restores the hair to its original color when grayness has actually supervened, gives a rich lustre, imparts the softness and flexibility of silk to the hair, and keeps it always luxuriant, healthy and in full vigor.—*N. ☞ The Ballot don't seem to be exactly suited with the manner in which the Chronicle is conducted: but as this paper is not the "organ" of anybody except the publisher and editors, we don't see that we can "blow" to suit the Ballot folks, even were we to try—which we havn't done yet, very hard.

It is utterly impossible for partizan papers to appreciate or understand an "independent" course; and the fact that ours suits "neither party," is the best endorsement we could have, that the Chronicle is without bias toward any.

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

RECENT TESTIMONY.

Washington, April 16, 1860.

Sir:—In answer to your letter, asking that I would inform you as to what standard of orthography has been adopted in the Smithsonian publications, I give you the following reply:

Early in the history of the Institution, the subject of orthography was referred to one of the best writers of this country, and in accordance with his recommendation, Worcester's Dictionary was adopted as being nearest the general usages of English scholars.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JOSEPH HENRY, Secretary S. I.

From Hon. Philip F. Thomas, Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C.

U. S. Patent Office, March 16, 1860.

The new Dictionary of Dr. Worcester combines, in my opinion, more of the requisites of a work of reference than any similar one ever published. The fullness and accuracy of its technical definitions make it of especial value in this office; and this, together with the correctness of its orthography, and its general excellence in definition and in etymology, have made it the standard work of reference in this office.

PHILIP F. THOMAS.

From Hon. John Hart, Sup. of Public Printing.

OFFICE SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC PRINTING, Washington, March 14, 1860.

I have long been familiar with Worcester's Dictionary, and have been highly gratified with the appearance of the new and beautiful edition of this valuable work. Its vast vocabulary, the skill of its arrangement, accuracy of orthography, precision of definitions, particularly of technical and scientific terms, its general completeness, and its freedom from political or sectarian bias, render it, in my estimation, the most perfect and authoritative expository of the English language. It gives me pleasure to state that it is the standard authority for the public printing.

JOHN HART.

From Jos. Mettingly, Foreman of the Congressional Globe.

It gives me pleasure to inform you that, with the concurrence of a new volume of the Congressional Globe, the system of orthography represented in Worcester's Dictionary will take the place of that heretofore used in the publication of the debates of Congress.

Office Secretary U. S. Senate, March 16, '60.

Dear Sir:—It affords me great pleasure to inform you that the Committee to admit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate, have manifested their appreciation of Worcester's Quarto Dictionary by directing that the Senate Chamber and the committee rooms and office rooms of the Senate, be furnished with that work.

I am highly gratified at this additional testimonial of the merits of a book, that in my judgment, is decidedly the best work of the kind in the English language. Yours,

JOHN G. FITZPATRICK,

Assistant Clerk, Office Secretary Senate.

Clerk's Office, U. S. House of Representatives, March 16, 1860.

Worcester's New Quarto Dictionary is the standard work of reference in this office, and the system of orthography therein represented, is that adopted in the official records and documents of the U. S. House of Representatives.

A COOL CORNISH MINER.—Some years ago a party of Cambridge philosophers undertook, for a scientific purpose, to penetrate into the vasty depths of Wheal Fortune mine. The venerable Professor Farash, who had made one of the number, used to relate with infinite gusto the following startling incident of his visit. On his ascent, in the ordinary manner, by means of the bucket, and with a miner for a fellow passenger, he perceived, as he thought, unmistakable symptoms of frailty in the rope. "How often do you change your rope, my good man?" he inquired, when about half way from the bottom of the awful abyss.—"We change them every three months, sir," replied the man in the bucket; "and we shall change this one to-morrow, if we get up safe!"—Builder.

Mr. Campbell, the banker, shot himself recently in Davenport, Iowa. The sucide, shortly before his death, not only picked out his grave but had a suit of clothes made to wear in the other world. These were never put on until after his death, and he was buried in them. His spiritual brethren have been talking with him since his decease, and he expresses himself satisfied with the change. The impression in Davenport is said to be, although the deceased might have been influenced by the fact of having secured debts to pay, yet the main idea was that he could get along more comfortably by stepping over into the other world.—Keokuk Gate City.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—At Porter, Me., on Saturday, April 21st, William Brown, a man about 30 years of age, while assisting in raising a building, and with one hand upon the ridgepole, fell to the ground. He was badly injured and lived till Friday, 4th inst., in great suffering, and then died, leaving a wife and six children.

Out in Illinois, an editor gives notice that there will be no paper this week, as his wife is using his scissors to half-sole his cassimeres with.

An author, ridiculing the idea of ghosts, asked how a dead man can get into a locked room. Probably with a skeleton key.

TREES! TREES!—Now is the time to set out shade trees, and there are yet many naked places about our streets that need to be covered and adorned by the shade and foliage of trees. Every man should plant at least one tree to keep his memory green when he is in the grave.

We are glad to see that a number of trees have been planted near the old Dwight mansion on Pleasant street, now being fitted up by Mark H. Wentworth, Esq.

This popular, comfortable and commodious House is pleasantly situated

On Congress St., near Market Square.

The location is unsurpassed for business or pleasure. He would now return his sincere thanks to the public generally, for the very liberal patronage they have been pleased to bestow upon him; and ever grateful for past favors, respectfully solicits a continuance. J. B. FLAGG.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddy against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed every thing I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription not hopelessly decayed. Every one afflicted should give them an impartial trial.

TO VOCALISTS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS these Wafers are peculiarly valuable; they will in ONE DAY remove the most severe occasional hoarseness; and their regular use for a few days will, at all times, increase the power and flexibility of the voice, greatly improving its tone, compass and clearness, for which purpose they are regularly used by many professional vocalists.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color, about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THABERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three size viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents with the same invariable elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of THE THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD.", $1 per bottle.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, restore the weak nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

What it will do!

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take this invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from nature, and restore to them the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depraving vice, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whetever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, tubercles; in the bones, white swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which ought to be cast out of the system, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which ought to be cast out of the system, is termed gies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, LOW SPIRITS AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its health and vigor. As a compact and ready family physic, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health and vigor restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every household, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Rheumatism, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country should have its persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public need not hesitate what auditoute to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and procured cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSMENORRHŒA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, TIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as it returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this powerful and yet restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—the most obstinate and severe, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

This remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
[illegible] of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its connections have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any other agency can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, is here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such a remarkable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1860. R. H. EDDY.

GROVER & BAKER'S
Celebrated Family Sewing Machines.
FOR FAMILY USE.

From the very flattering manner in which our Machines have been received by the public, resulting in the sale of 35,000,
we are led to believe that our endeavors to manufacture a RELIABLE MACHINE have been appreciated. We take this opportunity to remark that the policy will be unchanged, and that Every Machine sold by us
We shall not hesitate to Warrant in every respect.
GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO.

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,
Adapted to every variety of
FAMILY SEWING.
A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—Of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.
[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]
Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.
[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]
My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.
[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]
My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.
Baltimore, July 14, 1859.
PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.
PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.
"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller then is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1860.

THE CATTLE DISEASE has now assumed the most alarming character in Massachusetts. The exigency requires prompt and decided action from the authorities. It is stated that the distemper has broken out in other States. At a meeting of the Commissioners, Prof. Clark of Amherst, introduced a series of resolutions which were adopted. These resolves says that at least 1000 head of cattle have been discovered by the Commissioners, either diseased or likely to become so, and that a guaranty fund of at least $60,000 should be raised to enable the Commissioners to prosecute their labors. The reporter of the Journal gives the following particulars concerning the distemper:—

The whole number of cattle condemned by the Commissioners is about 580 and the number slaughtered about 400. It is believed that three-fourths of all the stock in North Brookfield have been exposed to the contagion. The infected district is contained within a radius of only about three miles, but includes most of the principal stock farms of the town. This region presents a sad and desolate appearance indeed. Scarcely an animal is to be seen in the fields or pastures, and the consequence is, a general stagnation of farming operations. To heighten the melancholy appearance of these farms, almost every field exhibits a huge grave yawning to receive the carcasses of the animals as they are slaughtered.

To add to the alarm before entertained, it is now certain that the disease has made its appearance in Sturbridge, where three herds have been exposed. It is also expected to make its appearance in Stoneham, Oakham, and Hardwick; but the best is hoped for.

In 1847 the pleura-pneumonia appeared in the herd of Thomas Richardson, of New Jersey, who with most commendable foresight and public spirit, killed every animal upon his farm, at a personal sacrifice of $10,000. This is a splendid example, and entitles Mr. Richardson to an enduring monument.

MUSTY ASSETS.—A Word to Business Men.—Take down your ledger, open your pocket-book, pull out your drawers, look over your papers, and see what portion of your capital is lying dead. If you are actually in business, (and if you are not you ought to be,) all such capital should be brought into use as soon as possible. Time flies, and such assets rapidly vanish and fly also. Don't flatter yourself that by-and-by you will get fifty per cent. more than at present. It may be so, and it may not.—Some men think it best to retire from a good business, for a while "in order to settle up old matters." Better go to work by the day than thus to fritter away your precious time.

Twenty-one years of a man's life is devoted to drilling, to preparing for the great campaign of business before him. Threescore and ten is the farther bound. Fifteen of the last of these years can hardly be worth more on an average than the price given to "keep what you have got." Thus at the beginning and end, there are (21 and 15) 36 years during which little, if any, very profitable labor—as far as money results are concerned—can be made available.

Now why spend the most valuable portion of this active period in digging and delving over old musty debts. Except with rogues and scoundrels, deal promptly and liberally. Make up your mind in regard to the amount you will probably get, not what you ought to have, and then make a settlement as near that figure as possible.—If you cannot do as you would, do as you can, and then balance your books, and give your time to live instead of dead matters.—It will be more pleasant, and in the end more profitable.

The best time to look after bad debts, is to look before. All after-looking is generally time spent at a high price. We believe, that as things run from year to year, that the best way is to settle upon some terms every debt as soon as it is found that it is in a doubtful state. Take what you can get, ninety, sixty, thirty or ten cents to the dollar. Of course a mistake will now and then be made, but when the dividend is once in hand, however small it may be, use it with more care, than before. An old debt once settled can certainly never again bother you. That is one comfort.

Above all things, as much as lies in you, live peaceably with all men,—i. e., don't go to law if you can avoid it. Be your own lawyer, and make your own collections.—We say again to the business men of our cities, all,—don't let an old debt stand a year on your books. Time flies, and your life is fast passing. Let your best efforts be put forth in the very center of your business. In that direction there is profit, and what is more, satisfaction.

☞ A party of ladies and gentlemen, who were tempted by the beauty of the walk to take a stroll over to Mr. Rogers' Nursery in Kittery, a few days since—found the attractions of the grounds very much heightened just at that time, by a dress parade and drill of the Kittery Artillery, Capt. M. F. Wentworth, on the fine lawn near the green-houses. The ladies report the Company as extremely soldier-like in appearance, and performing their evolutions in the most finished and satisfactory manner—and one of them says, further, that she had not supposed there were so many fine-looking men in all Kittery!

The courtesy of a boat-ride over to the Navy Yard, with U. S. Engineer Chandler, added agreeable variety to the trip; and the walk home, through Love Lane, is one of the most wildly-rural in this vicinity.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, May 10.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson offered a resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire whether the Marshal of the Southern District of New York has permitted any vessel fitted out for the slave trade to leave that or any other port, upon the payment of any sums of money to him, or any one in his office, or for any other consideration; with power to send for persons and papers. Laid over.

Mr. Yulee reported the House bill to furnish additional mail facilities,—and it was passed.

The consideration of the Homestead bill was resumed, and most of the amendments adopted in Committee of the Whole were adopted without debate.

Other amendments were offered and rejected; and the bill finally passed. Ayes 44, nays 8.

The nays were Messrs. Bragg, Clingman, Hamlin, Hunter, Mason, Pearce, Powell and Toombs.

HOUSE.—The consideration of the President's Protest, was postponed till Wednesday and Thursday next.

Mr. Bingham, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill declaring null and void all territorial acts heretofore passed by the Legislative Assembly of New Mexico for establishing and legalizing Slavery in that Territory.

Mr. Grow reported a bill to organize the Territorial Government of Idaho.

Mr. Clark of Missouri gave notice of an amendment to strike out the clause prohibiting slavery, and insert instead that the legislative assembly shall not by legislation establish or prohibit slavery.

Mr. Kellogg of Illinois, by consent of Mr. Howe, offered an amendment providing for the election of all Territorial officers by the people of organized territories.

Mr. Morris said he could show his colleague that he was in this matter playing the demagogue.

Mr. Kellogg retorted that it was impossible for his colleague to conduct himself as a gentleman, for the Almighty had written on his face —— (The remainder of the sentence was lost in vociferous cries of order!)

Mr. Morris replied excitedly. The only words heard were, "Falsehood! I can prove that God Almighty has written his name"——

Mr. Kellogg replied, but his words were not heard in the roar of voices calling him to order.

At last quiet was restored, and Mr. Sherman moved to censure both gentlemen, but finally by request withdrew it.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Tariff Bill.

Mr. Morrill's bill with a few slight modifications not affecting its general principle, was agreed to—89 against 97.

The Committee rose and reported the bill to the House. Much confusion ensued, principally in relation to getting in an amendment raising the duty on flax seed from ten to sixteen cents per bushel, which was finally rejected.

The bill was then passed by 105 yeas to 64 nays. Adj;

FRUIT TREES! FRUIT TREES!—Messrs. Editors:—Your correspondent "Rep." reminds the public that "now is the time to set out shade trees;" which is all very well, if we had not an abundance of them already. But instead of shade, why not set out fruit trees? Now, I hear some open their mouths (and eyes) and say, "O, the boys will get the fruit, and break the trees." Well, let the boys and girls get the fruit, if they will; and furnish them with a bowl to get it in, if they want it. Almost everybody has boys or girls, or ought to have them. Let the trees be set all over the city, and let everybody's boys and girls help themselves, and then there will be as much shade as there is now, and more money in the pockets of parents. O, for a twenty-ox stump-machine to root out the long-standing notions and perverted prejudices; and for twenty grafters to inculcate new and more profitable ones. B.

FLOWERS.—I hear that it is talked of, (if the money is raised) to have a floral procession on The Fourth. Well, raise the money; and it would take but little to plant flowers and shrubbery on each side of the streets, and then we could have a floral procession, not only for one day, but on every day of the season, and for all seasons, if you plant those that the winter will not kill. B.

☞ The Constitutional Union Convention, at Baltimore, have nominated John Bell of Tennessee for President, and Edward Everett for Vice President. On the first ballot, Bell had 68 1-2; Houston—. On the second ballot, Bell had 138 1-2, and Houston 128.

☞ Rev. James Cruickshanks of Chelsea, has received and accepted a call from the Second Presbyterian (Harris street) church, Newburyport, to become their pastor. He will be installed some time in June. Mr. C. is a young man, a native of Scotland.

☞ The residence of James F. Dewolf, about one mile east of Bristol, R. I., was totally consumed by fire about 2 o'clock Friday morning. One of the chimnies fell, crushing a number of men beneath the ruins. Two bodies, those of Lewis and Frank Waldron, have already been taken out.—Seven or eight others were very badly burned and bruised, but it is hoped not fatally.

FRESHET IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Tyrone, Pa., May 10.—The river Juniata is swollen by the heaviest freshet that has been known for years. Half the town is submerged.—All the bridges over Bald Eagle Creek have been swept away and travel entirely suspended.

DANGEROUS MANAGEMENT OF THE CALIFORNIA STEAMERS.—Rev. T. S. King, who was a passenger via the steamer which left New York, 5th April, for California, exposes the perils to which the cupidity of Vanderbilt is exposing the lives of two thousand people, men, women, and children, every month. In a letter published in the Transcript, he makes the following statements:

The Northern Light is a very good boat for a Southern passage. She is well ventilated, and as well protected from the fierce heat as we draw near the equator. Her machinery works admirably, and jars the boat very little. She was put in good order for this trip, too, and is thoroughly clean. Her commander, Captain Tinklepaugh, is evidently an excellent seaman, attends to his duties, and has entire command of all his men. If no more passengers were put on board than she can accommodate, a voyage might be made in her quite pleasantly.

So much let us say in justice, before making complaints, which every passenger ought to make long and loud. The boat is frightfully overloaded. There is no promenade deck on the steamer. The upper state rooms occupy the centre of the upper deck, only half of which is given to cabin passengers, state rooms and all. The only place in the open air for the passengers to congregate is beneath the covered passageways, between the state room doors and the deck-guards, and a moderate space at the stern. When the first and second cabin passengers are all out, there is about an inch and a half of spare room to each person. This is all the opportunity there is for walking. When the ship rolls, tpe theory of some atomic philosophers, that no two particles ever touched, or can be forced into contact, meets with a vigorous rebuff. There are not accommodations for more more than a third of the passengers to be seated on the deck. Luckily, I purchased two camp-stools before starting. Then, too, the large half on the deck are always smoking, so that the warm sea breeze is decidedly qualified before it reaches our lungs. The sick ones, also, in the upper state rooms, are obliged to lay with lemons at their nostrils, to protect them from the villainous smoke. By calculation, I can't have breathed more than 10 cubic feet pure ocean air, since starting. About six in the evening our deck is like a mall on the Common, on Fourth of July night, when the fire-works are over We are bundled together like cattle in a s o k train on a railroad.

There are at least a thousand persons on the steamer. This is far more than she is entitled to carry by law, and twice as many as can be accommodated. Every state room has three persons, and in the second cabin, which is below the main, or dining saloon cabin, scarcely less than the horrors of the middle passage are experienced. The prices which the second cabin ticket holders pay are extortionate in the extreme, at any rate, in comparison with the charge and accommodation for the chief cabin passengers. But on this trip many of the first class ticket holders are put into the second cabin state rooms, and there are more than a hundred of the regular passengers below—many of them women with infants—who have no place to sleep,—not even a mattress on the floor. The heat there is African. It comes near being a Black Hole. Every servant on the boat, it is said, has sold his room or bed for a round sum to persons who have paid $150 each for their ticket, and still there are scores who are not provided.—Some even pay for their food.

I have said nothing of the steerage passengers, and the cheating practiced on many of them, nor of the different rates of charge for many of the passengers at the regular office in New York. Their black-mailing and pick-pocket arithmetic could be borne with comparative equanimity, if any provision was made for the safety of their victims. But there is not. Six boats, weak and sun-cracked, into which no more than two hundred people could be crammed, are all the means available for saving a thousand lives in case of accident. Not twenty life-preservers can be seen on the vessel.—There are no means of saving the children on board in case of disaster. This is the most profitable steamship passenger line in the world. Is it always to be managed as it is now on the Atlantic side? Are we to wait for a catastrophe in which a thousand lives are lost, before any interest is taken in the open defiance, by the owners, of the laws of Congress and the laws of decency? When I look at my wife and child, and think what the cry of fire would mean, what passions it would let loose, what horrors, ten-fold worse than on the Austria, it would start, I am tempted to wish that I may live to see the man or the men who are responsible for this piratical trifling with life on the sea, hanged over the City Hall in New York,—less as an act of public justice than of public mercy. If Mr. Vanderbilt was on board now, I believe he would find a Vigilance Committee extemporized to deal with him.

MONEYED VIRTUE.—Those persons who make property the test of excellence, have found a spokesman in one of Bulwer's plays. "Worth," he says, "makes the man, and there the more a man is worth, the worthier he is." There are some people who mean by "a capital fellow" a fellow who has capital, and a martyr in the stocks would draw forth more of their veneration than a martyr at the stake.

☞ Augustus M. Connor, a pupil of Prof. Wise, attempted an ascension in a balloon from Palace Garden, New York, on Thursday afternoon. The voyage was of brief duration. The balloon burst against the walls of the concert room, and Mr. Connor received injuries from the effects of which he died Thursday night.

☞ A prize-fight took place near Epping on Thursday, between Henry Finnegass of Boston and Robert or Michael Leavitt of Lowell. The fight was for $300. Finnegass was the victor in 23 rounds, lasting about 30 minutes. Leavitt was completely blind ten minutes after the fight, and suffered considerably, so that he was left at a house near the scene of the fight.

BALTIMORE, May 11.—Some of Gen. Houston's friends feel very sore because twelve of the votes for Bell, on the first ballot, were cast by empty districts, and because on the second ballot his nomination was obtained by more rotten borough delegates.

Most of the delegates have left the city, all in high spirits except the intense Houstonites.

It was well understood that Mr. Everett would accept the nomination for Vice President only with Mr. Bell.

The Chicago Douglasites, who are passing through this city on their way home, say that Douglas will be a candidate any how, come what may. They speak by the card on that head.

Caleb Cushing and company declare that they will bolt if the two-thirds rule is repealed at the Democratic Convention next June.

The proprietors of the Boston Post are doing the handsome thing with a "Campaign Post" they are publishing, obtaining a circulation for it that is of Bonnerian magnitude. Commercial Bulletin.

Old Leather Breeches don't understand this, and wants to know to what 'campaign' it refers. He says the Democrats went down to Charlestown lately, and opened the champagne, but that was quite another thing.—Charlestown Adv.

FINE PIANO AT A BARGAIN.

A very superior 7 octave PIANO-FORTE, which has been used a very little, and is warranted to be equal in every respect to any instrument ever brought into Portsmouth, may be seen for a few days at the Store of the subscriber; and will be sold at a great reduction from cost, if applied for soon. Judges of such instruments, and those who want to improve a rare opportunity to procure a first-class Piano, at the price of a mean one, are invited to call and examine.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1858.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and obstinate cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

W. A. BACON, Teacher of Detroit Select School.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. apr28 4w&w

THE BALLOT VS. CHRONICLE.—It can hardly be a matter of much interest or importance to the public, what these papers say or think of each other; and we always dislike to occupy our columns with personal controversies or discussions;—but to "point a moral," we shall notice certain invidious remarks of the Ballot concerning ourselves.

The editor, after stating that he has been "a reader of the Chronicle from its birth," asks, "what are the Chronicle's principles and opinions?" Now, if eight years' acquaintance and daily intercourse don't afford an answer to the question, we can hardly hope to elucidate the matter in a single item; and so shall beg to be excused from the trial.

The Ballot charges us with "inconsistency" in advertising articles, the use of which we denounce; but this rule, carried out in full, would stop almost all advertising and other business. A Grahamite mustn't advertise or sell meat; a believer in any of the new-school theories of hygiene couldn't accept any business from one of the "regulars;" our anti-brown-bread correspondent "A. J. P." would refuse to serve a variety bread baker; and nobody should perform any service, for love or money, unless in accordance and furtherance of his own particular belief and theory. This might be correct abstract doctrine, were each and all infallible—in which case, however, of course all would agree; but in the present diversity of opinions, we cannot conceive how any business could be done, were that exclusive and intolerant plan adopted.

Our friend is mistaken as to our "denouncing liquor-sellers and commending rum-shops." We think he will not find it so easy to show that we ever done either. We are not in the habit of "denouncing" anybody; and if any such term could be applied to what we have said, it refers to the selling but not to the seller, as to the smoking but not the smoker, and to the drinking but not the drinker.

The Chronicle's "commendation of a rum shop," to which the Ballot has more than once referred, was our mention of an eating-house in this city, where he says and we do not doubt liquors are sold. Well, we do not know of a single eating-saloon in the city where liquors, weaker or stronger, are not sold; and yet, in the same Ballot which "denounces" us, is an advertisement and "commendation" (well-deserved, we grant,) of a public-house, which, so far as we know, makes no pretensions to temperance. Is this consistency?

As to editorial identity, it would seem that the editor of the Ballot has been in the business long enough to know what every intelligent reader of newspapers is aware of, —that any signature or personal authority given to an article or opinion, takes it out from under the editorial endorsement. We should wish, were it possible, that all editors should remain unknown, as such; then editorial matter would pass for just what it was worth, itself alone considered, — no more, no less,—as in the case of the great London Times; but that don't appear to be the fashion this way, as regards books, magazines or newspapers.

Politically, (says the Ballot,) the publisher of the Chronicle is so independent that while those who know him best say he votes the democratic ticket, he manages to obtain office as a Republican; and was ready to throw up his hat for Douglas had he been nominated at Charleston.

There may be "those who know" the writer better than he knows himself; but so far as we "know him," we are not aware that he ever voted "the Democratic (party) ticket," so-called,—though, from what we do know of him, we should judge that he would be apt to reserve the right to vote as he pleased. And as to "managing to obtain office," we have not the slightest recollection of any such doings, or any solicitations or suggestions of the sort.

As to who we personally "throw up our hat for,"—that no more committs the Chronicle to his support, than the fact of the Ballot man being Commissary General makes him an advocate of a war with Mexico.

The Ballot knows some tectotal liquor-sellers; but this is an anomaly we never meet, so far as we know. * * Yes, "the Chronicle does adcommodate those who want to advertise, because it pays"—and we presume they advertise in the Chronicle for the same reason.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Thacher—at the old "Corner of State and Pleasant Street" stand—has been fitting up his store amazingly; and now has one of the best in the city—worthy to be located under the shadow of the elegant new Post Office. The beautiful marble counters are from the works of Mr. Silas Philbrick, at the foot of State street; and can't well be excelled—we were about to say "beat," but they have been beat and rubbed just to perfection.

Mr. Harding is also enlarging and improving his quarters, on Congress street—and among other good moves, has cleared out that little old smoky, dusty oyster shop on the corner. His store, crowded and piled full of tempting niceties, always reminded us of a great Cornucopia, or horn of plenty; but doubtless he will keep his new and enlarged premises equally full.

ILLIBERALITY.—A couple of store-keepers, of the bunker stripe in politics, living and doing business on Christian Shore in this city, both actually refused to allow a copy of the Weekly Chronicle to be left at their places of business for a lady subscriber living at a distance from our North carrier's route—we presume, because the paper doesn't advocate exactly their party principles, or rather creed. So we go.

And a supply minister, in a pulpit in a neighboring town, declined to read a notice that the Universalist pastor of this city would occupy the desk, (the house is town property,) for a third service! And the minister settled over the same Society, earnestly remonstrated with some of his parishioners, for attending said Universalist ministrations! He probably was not aware that a large proportion of his hearers and supporters entertain Universalist sentiments.

Verily, it would seem that intolerance is not extinct yet, and that all the missionaries should not be sent off to the Feejee Islands.

☞ It would seem, from appearances, that there is manure enough lying broadcast about our streets, to fertilize a five-hundred acre farm. Can't it be cleaned up, somehow—by the city, by private speculation, (which apparently couldn't help paying well,) or by subscription? There are several cords in Market, Daniel and Congress streets alone.

☞ We learn that the rumor is not correct—that the editor of the Ballot has dried up and blown away, during the present severe drought—though he is always "blowing" away at somebody.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents; $1 per year, in advance.

☞ There is not much work being done at our Navy Yard just now; but yet about one hundred and fifty mechanics and laborers are on the pay-roll.

This popular, comfortable and commodious House is pleasantly situated
On Congress St., near Market Square.
The location is unsurpassed for business or pleasure. He would now return his sincere thanks to the public generally, for the very liberal patronage they have been placed to bestow upon him; and ever grateful for past favors, respectfully solicits a continuance.

CITY COUNCIL

In the Board of Aldermen, on Thursday evening, a petition was received from G. J. Greenleaf and others, former and present members of Engine Co. No. 6, protesting against the removal by certain individuals of the former company of property placed in the hall of the engine house by the petitioners, and praying that the proper authorities may cause the same to be replaced. Referred.

Voted, That the bills of Engine Cos. 1 and 6 be paid when the badges belonging to the city shall be returned. The terms were complied with on Friday morning.

The Appropriation Bill was taken up and discussed.

A joint committee of five was appointed to examine the City Charter, and report at the next regular meeting what alterations are necessary.

A resolution was sent up from the Common Council instructing the City Marshal to enforce the Dog Law. A fine of three dollars to be imposed on the owners of all dogs running at large—half of which shall go to the City Marshal. Referred to Com. on Burying Grounds.

THE OLD HEARSE HORSE.—Among the long standing fixtures of our day are the Hearse-man, the venerable Robert Bell, and his scarcely less venerable old Black Horse, which will be twenty years old next month. For fourteen years the same man and the same horse have been in attendance at almost every funeral that has taken place in our city.—For nearly two thousand times have they borne to their resting places the old and the young—the rich and the poor, the learned and the unlettered. There can be seen scarcely a more grave sight than these funereal accompaniments. The old horse, though lively and active on other occasions, knows the moment a corpse is put into the hearse, and he will scarcely mind the admonition of a whip to change his speed from walking. His master is growing infirm and the horse is nearly blind—a premonition that all must ere long return to the dust.

From the N. H. Gazette.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.—The attention of those desiring musical instruction is invited to the card of Mr. Pearson in another column. Mr. Pearson possesses in a high degree the musical knowledge, combined with skill and taste in execution so requisite in a teacher of the Piano Forte and organ, and in the department of vocal music has acquired considerable reputation, particularly with children, large numbers of whom have been under his instruction, since his residence among us. He also offers his services for the purchase of Piano Fortes, in the selection of which he has given great satisfaction, while his arrangements with celebrated manufacturers enable him to secure superior instruments as low as they can be procured through any other agency.

SICKNESS AMONG COWS.—Several cases of sickness and death of cows have recently occurred in this city and neighboring towns, which in view of the dangerous disease among cattle in Massachusetts, have occasioned considerable anxiety among the owners of stock. Mr. James P. Packer of Greenland and Albert R. Hatch, Esq., of this city, have each lost a valuable animal, from disease called by the farmers garget, but nothing that was administered to them seemed to produce any beneficial effect. Each of these animals were taken, soon after calving, with a general weakness of the limbs, and an almost instantaneous drying up of their milk. No examination of the bodies was made by veterinary surgeons, so that it is impossible to state the cause of death with any degree of certainty.

CONCORD & PORTSMOUTH RAILROAD.—In the report of the Directors of the Concord and Manchester & Lawrence Railroad, we find the following statement of the business of the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad from the commencement of the contract to the first of April last:

Receipts from commencement of contract, September 13, 1858, to March 31, 1860,	$82,526.87
Expense of operating the road during said time,	$51,236.56
Rent for said time at $15,500 per year,	23,250.00
Expenditure for permanent repairs as per contract, $2,500 per year,	3,750.00
Balance,	4,350.00
	$82,586.71

THE FIRST NOMINATION.—The Convention of the National Union party, as they style themselves, composed chiefly of old line whigs, assembled at Baltimore on Tuesday, and have nominated John Bell of Tennessee as their candidate for the Presidency. Gen. Houston was the next leading candidate before the Convention. Their platform is the Constitution as interpreted by the Supreme Court. This is a decided improvement upon the platform adopted at Charleston, which is the Constitution with the interpretations of the Supreme Court rejected!

The latest intelligence from the Convention is that they have nominated Edward Everett for Vice President. Bell and Everett certainly present a strong national ticket, and a worse one might be elected.

THE SOUTHERN CONVENTION.—The seceding members of the Charleston Convention will assemble at Richmond, Va., on the second Monday (11th day) of June, to nominate a Presidential ticket and prepare for separate action in the coming contest for the Presidency. There can be little doubt that the candidates which they shall nominate will receive the support of the united Democracy of the South, unless the action of the adjourned Convention at Baltimore shall be just and satisfactory.—Nothing can be plainer than that the South with its 120 electoral votes will never support Douglas.

FIRE IN SOUTH BERWICK.—One of the mills of the Newichewonock Co., on the Gt. Works river one mile below South Berwick village, was burned to ashes early Monday morning. The mill was occupied by the Co. for the manufacture of flannels and blankets.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents the following nine essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and cures are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERUSE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for Use. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as a charm, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIUM, but is the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING; DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, SCROFULA, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relaxing the Skin. Being an anti-emetic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value life for yourself and of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, we would say but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the mild blood becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor inflicts one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt matter, ulcerous matter, which in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions, pimples, blotches, and sores, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from constitutional debility, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are diseased, their blood is infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our time can exercise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the extirpation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ELCORS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR THE DOLOUREUX, DEBILITY, JAUNDICE, VIRGINIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from impurity of the BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its disorders and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or disease, debility is enabled to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish, free of expense to subscribers. D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, FIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, some trial of this medicative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long debilitated as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if from the tomb of premature protracted silent land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of chronic complaints, some third of their prime, in critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and specific.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which so generally follow the disease, the use of this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of a mere tonic, obviously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In MENSTRUATION, if chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as allaying and exciting or reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

IN INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as BUSINESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full account of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, is here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1860. R. H. EDDY.

GROVER & BAKER'S
Celebrated Family Sewing Machines.
FOR FAMILY USE.

From the very flattering manner in which our Machines have been received by the public, resulting in the sale of 35,000,

we are led to believe that our endeavors to manufacture a RELIABLE MACHINE have been appreciated. We take this opportunity to remark that the policy will be unchanged, and that

Every Machine sold by us
We shall not hesitate to Warrant in every respect.
GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO.

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,
Adapted to every variety of
FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines,

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am asked if it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the greatest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over a I others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

THE REPUBLIC.

There are so many discordant elements in operation, that while we hope that our new theory of self-government may be perpetuated for the benefit of countless millions in the future, still we know that it depends on the virtue and general intelligence of the people. The form of government is one thing, and its administrative policy another. It has been said with some truth, that that form of government is best which is best administered. But the radical principles upon which our government was based, seem to be changing, or are changing with the times. It is said that "times change, and we change with them." Certainly many constructions are now put upon the federal constitution, entirely different from its meaning as understood by its wise framers.

While we would not accuse any Northern party of being inimical to the Republic or our original free institutions, established for their own prosperity and happiness, yet we would assure all Northern parties, unless they change the present administration policy, the government itself would soon be changed, and the mouldering parchment upon which free principles were inscribed would be of little avail.

History is philosophy teaching by example. It may be the mark of wisdom to note causes of the fall of many former nations from the acme of their renown and glory. Corrupt rulers spread general corruption among the people, until it was extended through the veins and arteries of the body politic. We are no partizan, unless we be so for advocating the rights, privileges and welfare of all classes. Taking a retrospective view of the Republican party of 1800, we find that it was brought into existence by the master spirit who drafted the Declaration of Independence. Thomas Jefferson, although at the time much abused, was elected President to carry out, with able associates, the principles of social and political freedom.

The present Republican party was some years since organized to maintain the same essential principles inculcated by Jefferson, Madison and Monroe, and by adhering to those principles the government would be restored, at least to a great degree, to its original purity. Virginia, once called the Mother of Presidents, and the highest State in the Union, now how fallen! Converted into a slave-breeder—her buildings dilapidated—her once fertile soil now sterile—as the inevitable consequence of the curse of slavery. Such must be the fall of other slave States, unless the sinful institution shall be speedily abrogated.

Should the Republicans of 1860 be prudent and judicious in the great movement they are now making, and while they rally under the star-spangled banner of this country as the emblem of freedom, invite by conciliatory language men of any or all parties to join in the defence of the sacred cause of their country, they would be as certain to gain a political victory as did the Republicans of 1800, and as they did at succeeding periods.

They must encounter the united opposition of all the slave States, where one idea preponderates over all others. But if those States act as a unit in support of an institution whose unholy shrine they worship, why should not the free States act as a unit in support of the sacred cause of liberty, which is the cause of their country? Her altar is pure and undefiled. It is not stained by the blood of murdered human victims.—Such is our faith in Democratic principles correctly defined, that we are unwilling to believe that the Northern Democracy will unite their political destinies with the nominal Southern Democracy, in support of an institution which, if suffered to be extended and triumph, would triumph over the free institutions which they profess to love and cherish.

The event which has taken place at the Charleston Convention augurs well for the country. We anticipated long since that the time could not be distant when the Northern Democracy could not submit to the humble tools or vassals of the proud, arrogant and dogmatical oligarchy. The Whig party of the North were obliged from principle to separate from them. The Democratic party has too long submitted to the yoke, and can no longer sanction the outrageous doctrines which the oligarchy attempt to force upon it. Even should the two divisions unite in support of the next Presidential candidate, a union could not be long continued. It is no idle prediction that slavery, without extension, and the sustaining power of the Northern Democracy, must soon die out. And the sooner the better for the North, South, East and West.—Then we should have peace, prosperity, fraternal feelings and happiness within all our borders. FABIUS.

Our country exchanges all contain brief editorials headed "Prepare for the Census." A woman in Herkimer County, N. Y., has done so. She presented her husband with two fine boys and a girl.

THE CONFESSIONAL.—The following extracts from the Boston Pilot may interest some of our readers, who do not know much of the faith or the superstitions of the Roman Church; and are not aware how exclusive their claims are:

Individuals and the State may conceive themselves to be aggrieved by the secrecy of the Priest; but they have no right to a disclosure from the Priest, who, in hearing confession, represents God.

The following is a specimen of their logic, found in the same article on the confessional:

The Priests have never yet betrayed it. They have been often tortured to do so, but in vain. Their principle is, that the State itself should be dissolved before a betrayal should be made. They never founded it; man has no right to found it—man has not the power to found anything so universally necessary and permanent. Sin is against God alone; therefore, He alone had the right to found the confessional; eternal mercy is necessarily connected with it:—therefore, He alone had the power to found it; it exists: therefore, He alone did found it. It is an ignorant lie to say the Priests founded it.

The article closes thus:

It is absolutely true that, if the confessional were overthrown, and betrayal would effect that at once, all that is good in Protestantism would suffer the same fate, for whatever is good in Protestantism came from the Church, and, as we have seen, the existence of the Church essentially requires confessional. When Protestants attack the Church, they attack that whose dissolution would be immediately followed by their own dissolution. They would then sink precisely as the world would sink if God fell away.

THE WADE WILL, contested before the Supreme Court at Lowell, Mass., has been sustained, though it is likely to be carried up to a full bench on exceptions. If this verdict is sustained, the Female Medical College will be in the receipt annually, from this estate, of an income of about $2500, and some fifteen years hence will receive $10,000 more. Tufts College at the same will receive $20,000, and upon the death of Miss Brooks, additional real estate now worth $25,000 or $30,000.

GIFT TO TUFTS COLLEGE.—The Boston Traveller understands that within a few days, Tufts College has received from a friend a gift of $10,000 or $15,000.

A STORM OF ICE.—The Neosho Register of the 15th ult. gives an account of a singular storm which occurred at Leroy, K.T., during which tremendous hail-stones fell, some of them weighing a pound and a half each. The Register says that the clouds were so thick and heavy that the town was as dark as midnight, and the storm was accompanied by terrific thunder and heavy gusts of wind. The storm lasted about fifteen minutes, during which time the ground was covered with ice-balls varying in size from a hen's egg to common table bowls.—One of the balls picked up during the storm weighed ten ounces, and another a pound and a half. Horses and cattle were killed, and several persons seriously injured.

☞ Samuel Grisworld Goodrich—known everywhere by his assumed name of "Peter Parley," died suddenly in New York on Wednesday. Mr. Goodrich was born in Ridgefield, Conn., Aug. 19, 1793. His works for juveniles have been for years the most popular in this country, making him known by his assumed title in almost every household in the land. Mr. Goodrich was at one time a member of the State Legislature, and afterwards received from President Fillmore the appointment of Consul at Paris. Of one of his works it is stated that nearly three million copies were issued.

☞ One Ramond Martinez, keeper of a coffee-house in New Orleans, was lately fined $1000 for selling liquor to slaves. He coolly paid the money and went his way. Testimony was brought up to show that he had a back room with a secret entrance for negroes, and that when an officer appeared in the front room, the signal was given by pulling the cord of a little bell, which was sure to send the darkies flying out the back way where they entered.

☞ The new Worcester's Dictionary is an elegant quarto, and the typography as near perfection as we have ever seen, in beauty of letter, contrast of sizes in the type, and distinctness of arrangement for the eye of the reader.

The mechanical execution of the volume is highly creditable to printer, binder and publishers, and worthy of the high literary character of the book.

☞ Mrs. Margaret Preble, aged ninety-nine years, ten months and six days, died on the 6th ult., at the residence of her son-in-law, in Pendleton county, Kentucky.—She was born in Pennsylvania, and lived to see the grand-child of her great-grand-child.

☞ The Connecticut Legislature has re-elected Mr. Foster United States Senator. The Democratic candidate was Hon. W. W. Eaton, of Hartford. The vote stood in the Senate, 14 for Foster, and 7 for Eaton; in the House 139 for Foster, and 70 for Eaton.

☞ The Concord, N. H. Democratic Standard is a Southern paper printed at the North; a slave paper among freemen. It is, moreover, a very religious paper in its devotion to slavery. In a late number it remarks:—

The real issue between the two great political parties of the country at the present time, is undoubtedly the question of slavery.

Slavery seems to be a part of the wise plan of Providence in reference to this Republic.

Such are some of the propositions to be discussed, or rather, which should be discussed before the northern people, by the leaders of the Democratic Party. They should not put themselves in the position of apologists for slavery. There is no apology to be made in the matter, because none is necessary. It is one of the grand schemes of Divine Providence for the real welfare and benefit of the human race, whether white or black. It may not be a part of the permanent plan of Providence; but, at present, it is best for this Republic and for mankind, and undoubtedly in conformity with the will of God. * * *

It is beneficial to the North, and especially to New England. The South absorbs the products of the labor and machinery of New England, and makes use of her mercantile marine for the transportation of her own products. New England absorbs the products of the slave labor of the South.—It is the great source of her prosperity, without which she would become poor indeed.

THE TRACT SOCIETY.—The following are the resolutions which were offered at the meeting of the American Tract Society in New York, but dodged by an adjournment:—

Whereas, This society, in 1857, on recommendation of the committee of fifteen, adopted a resolution affirming that those moral duties which grow out of the existence of slavery, as well as those moral evils and vices which it is known to promote, undoubtedly fall within the province of this society, and can and ought to be discussed in its publications; and this declaration still stands in full force, therefore,

Resolved, That the reasons which urge to such discussion also remain, and now press on the society with accumulated weight; and,

Whereas, The society at its last annual meeting declared that "it has no doubt of the sin of the African slave trade, or the great wickedness of reviving that iniquitous system in any form," and whereas, during the past year evidence has accumulated until the fact has become notorious and flagrant that this accursed traffic has been re-opened by vessels sailing from various ports of this country,

Resolved, That the publication or the republication of suitable tracts setting forth the iniquity of the African slave trade would meet the warm approbation of the society.

NEW YORK, May 12.—A dispatch from Washington says that Eli Thayer and Horace Greeley, substitutes for the Oregon delegates to Chicago, are instructed to vote for Mr. Bates.

Dispatches from Minister McLane to the Government state that a messenger just arrived at Vera Cruz from the city of Mexico, announced that Miramon's government have accepted the basis of adjustment proposed by the French and English governments, excepting the provisions for civil and religious toleration.

Gen. Scott issued orders yesterday for detachments of troops from Carlisle and Newport Barracks to proceed to Fost Leavenworth.

☞ Rev. Henry Budge, of Port Leyden, N. Y., accused of murdering his wife, has been held for trial by the coroner who examined the case.

☞ Rev. Mr. Budge, the Baptist clergyman who has been undergoing a strict examination for several days past on the charge of murdering his wife by poison at Utica, was discharged from custody on the 9th inst., there not being a particle of testimony against him.

A HOUSTON MEETING.—New York, May 11.—A large meeting of the friends of Gen. Houston, from all parts of the Union, was held at the Metropolitan Hotel this evening. The Baltimore, Charleston and other Conventions were repudiated, and a determination expressed that the people would make their own choice for President.

☞ A young man named George G. Boivin attempted to stop a runaway horse at Burlington, Vt., on Monday, but instead of accomplishing his object he was run over, and received injuries from which he died in a few hours.

SICKNESS OF MR. HYATT.—Mr. Thaddeus Hyatt, confined in the jail at Wasington by order of the Senate, for refusing to testify before the Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee, is prostrated by the hot weather, and the want of proper ventilation in that noisome jail. For a day or two past he has been confined to his bed by a slow fever.

☞ The Campaign Post, No. 1, contains a full account of the Charleston Convention, a mass of other political matter of the same tendency, and various things besides. It is a very large sheet for a campaign document.

The sudden death of Kneeland Chase in Deering, N. H., mentioned last week, is still creating considerable excitement in that town and vicinity. A coroner's inquest was held and its results are kept a profound secret, though from the actions of those interested it is believed that the verdict is that Chase came to his death by foul means.

AUGUSTA, GA. May 12.—Hon. A. H. Stephens has written a letter in reply to several gentlemen of Macon, in which he maintains the principles of non-intervention and disapproves of the secession at the Charleston Convention, and recommends that the delegates be sent to Baltimre.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, May 11.

SENATE—Mr. Hale introduced a bill for the relief of Arthur Edwards and associates. Read twice and referred.

The Senate then took up the private calendar, and several bills were passed.

Mr. Hale moved that when the Senate adjourn it be to Monday next. Carried.

Mr. Grow reported bills to provide temporary governments for Arizona, Dacotah, and Chippewa, which were tabled.

A debate followed on the question of the right of the South to carry their slaves into the territories.

Subsequently, Mr. Hunter moved to postpone the private calendar, and take up the deficiency bill.

Had not the Senate agreed to adjourn over, he would have been content to consider the Deficiency Bill to-morrow.

Mr. Iverson spoke of the small number of days which had been devoted to the private calendar the present session.

Mr. Hunter suggested that the motion to adjourn over be reconsidered, and that the Senate consider the Deficiency Bill to-morrow.

Mr. Latham moved a reconsideration accordingly.

Mr. Hamlin remarked that Congress has been in session several months, and little has been done yet. We are all anxious to get home some time before the constitutional commencement of the next session; but he himself did not want to go until all the business was disposed of.

Mr. Hale did not think the last three weeks had been entirely lost. There had been a great deal of good done by adjourning over, and the proceedings at Charleston. It ill becomes the Republicans to complain of what has been done.

We disposed of the Whig party some time ago, and nothing is now left us but the fragments of the Democratic party to fight against, and they went to Charleston and delivered speeches containing sound Republican doctrines, where the Republicans would not have been permitted to go.—Now the Democratic party is broken to pieces, but there was to be an attempt to unite it together with "Spaulding's glue," (laughter,) and make it stick. There had been a great deal of good done, but the men doing it did not know what they were about. Sampson, when he overthrew the temple of the Philistines, was blind, and did not see what a tremendous piece of work he was doing. So those Democrats were blind instruments in the hand of Providence, to work out good results.

Mr. Toombs thought that not more than five in a hundred private bills could be maintained on any kind of principle.

By general consent the motion to reconsider was withdrawn, and

The Deficiency Bill was taken up and passed.

The Senate then went into executive session, and subsequently adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Senate bill providing for carrying out the stipulations of the Convention with Paraguay.

Mr. Grow reported a bill for the temporary government of Idaho, and moved it be recommitted.

Mr. Thayer moved that it be tabled.

Mr. Grow disputed his right to make such a motion when he had the floor, and the Speaker sustained Mr. Grow, who explained the five territorial bills which the Territorial Committee had decided to report, and urged them upon the House.

After some debate, Mr. Kellogg offered an amendment authorizing the people in the organized territories to elect their own officers.

Mr. Thayer moved to table the Idaho bill. Carried—102 against 73.

Mr. Grow reported a bill for the temporary government of Nevada.

Mr. Clark of Mo. moved to strike out the anti-slavery clause, and insert one of a different character.

Mr. Grow accepted the amendment from Mr. Kellogg, similar to his former one.

On motion of Mr. Houston, the bill was tabled—93 to 74.

Mr. Thayer was against authorizing a government where there were not 300 white men. He contended that all governments derive their powers from the consent of the governed, as set forth in the Declaration of Independence. His colleague, Mr. Gooch, wanted to lend a helping hand to politicians. The people have the right and power to govern themselves, and therefore should be left alone; and secondary, his colleague or anybody else should be prevented from interfering with them.

Mr. Gooch explained his views as to legislation for the Territories.

Mr. Thayer resumed, occasional exciting intense laughter by his replies to his colleagues. He wished, he said, to remove slavery contention from Congress, and denounced Congressional intervention as a humbug. On his motion the Chippewa territorial bill was tabled.

A communication was received from the Commandant of the Washington Navy Yard, inviting the members of the House to witness on Monday the reception of the Japanese Embassy.

Pending the question to accept the invitation, the House adjourned.

Each of the five territorial bills tabled in the House contained an anti-slavery proviso. This result was produced by a union of Democrats of all shades, Americans, and a few Republicans.

John D. Defrees writes as follows from Washington to the Indianapolis Journal: "Twenty years ago I was a looker on at the doings of Congress. The two men who attracted the most attention were William Cost Johnson of Maryland, and Thomas F. Marshall of Kentucky. They were the most brilliant orators—the 'observed of all observers.' Mr. Johnson died in this city a few days ago, a pauper and an outcast, unnoticed and unlamented. The papers, a few days ago, informed us that Mr. Marshall is the inmate of a hospital at Buffalo, diseased and miserable, and about to die! Intemperance, only, is the cause of all this."

HYANNIS, May 11.—A fire which commenced yesterday, has burnt over 1000 acres of woodland, and is still raging. It is supposed to have been set.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.

A. PEARSON continues to give instruction in the following branches of Music:—

Piano-Forte, Organ, Harmony and Vocalization.

Particular attention given to the formation of tone, Cultivation of the Voice, Musical Elocution, and in imparting such directions and principles as will, if adopted by the pupil, give correct Style in Singing.

MR. PEARSON having had many years' experience as teacher in the above branches, is confident that his method of instruction is eminently successful. The most competent and reliable references given, if desired.

Having also had extensive experience as Agent for the sale of PIANOS, he calls attention to this department of his business, and would inform the public that he is able to furnish superior Instruments at manufacturers' prices, and offers his services to those desirous of purchasing.

The advantage of employing, in the selection of a Piano, one whose business gives him opportunities for testing the merits of various kinds of Pianos, must be obvious.

Persons desiring his services, may find him from 11 to 12 o'clock, at his MUSIC ROOM, No 4 Exchange Buildings, or information of his whereabouts can be obtained at his residence, No. 30 Hanover Street; at either of which places they can examine a splendid instrument of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s manufacture, and receive information relative to the purchase of Pianos. m12

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and distress in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine, and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

THE FIREMEN.—While some people are ever ready — perhaps too ready, to complain of and find fault with the b'hoys who run wid der merchine; we are pleased to record a praiseworthy act of one Company, which transpired last week. Laconia Co., No. 2, had a bonus of $40, after paying all bills—which had accrued from fines; and instead of dividing it among themselves, as is customary, they voted to present it to three sick members of their Company—$20 to one, and $10 each to two others. This voluntary act bespeaks more real benevolence than is sometimes evinced by members of professedly charitable Societies or Orders, towards their fellows.

We understand that Granite State Co., No. 1, has withdrawn from the Department, to a man; and will henceforth keep up their organization as Ex-One. It is a Company of good report. A new Company is filling up.

Atlantic Co., No. 6, has also withdrawn, with similar intent—but a member or two dissenting and remaining in the Department, we believe; and the majority have cleared the Hall of all uniforms, pictures, &c. most of which were procured by the Company before the larger part of said majority were members. It remains to be seen if the Ex-Six or the new and regular Atlantic Company are entitled to the property—which we are told is worth several hundred dollars. The Sixes have been one of our most prompt, efficient, and enterprising Companies.

☞ We have the pleasure of announcing to the denizens of Ward Three, and citizens generally, that our City Fathers have procured a new Bell, to be placed in the tower of the Old South Church. It is from the foundry of N. Hooper & Co., at Medway, Mass., where the North and Methodist bells were also re-cast. The new bell will contain all the metal of the old one; but the tone, or pitch, depends upon the size, not the weight. It will probably be received and raised to its place this week.

☞ Some persons have the phrenological organ of Perceptiveness more fully developed than others, it is true; but we think a genuine son of Erin about as thick-skulled as anything else above the class of animals known as donkeys. On Saturday afternoon, some men were blasting a rock in State street, near the Methodist church, preparatory to laying an aqueduct log; and having charged the rock, everything being ready, the fuse was lighted, and orders were given for every one to stand back;—but before the charge exploded, along came Patrick with his horse and cart, and after being admonished of his danger about half a dozen times by as many different people, the idea of a sudden change of circumstances penetrated his brain, and, instantly wheeling the horse into Washington street, he galloped off at full speed, not stopping until he was far from danger, and out of hearing, too. ***

Friend Chronicle:—I see an occasional article in your little sheet alluding to a celebration of the coming Fourth, and I express the wish of many, when I say that I hope you will as in days gone by, have a good celebration. There are many of the Portsmouth boys who will visit their native city on that day, and would like to take part in one of those Floral Processions, such as Portsmouth alone can bring out—Indeed, the mention of the Floral Procession revives my earliest recollections; and you can easily excuse one for indicating his feelings on paper, who is mentally transported to the time when Puddle Dock, Strawberry Bank and Frenchman's Lane were invested with importance that made them all the world to him. We would like to see Liberty Bridge and all the old landmarks spanned by those triumphal arches which we used to feel so proud of when completed, and more so when at the sound of patriotic national airs we marched beneath them. Portsmouth has always had the credit for producing the best celebrations, and we don't wish her to be more backward now. Now is the time for action; wake up! Portsmouth! and give your children, who have long been estranged from their old oaken buckets, a chance again to take part in scenes which were the sunshine of their younger years. ROSE ELMER;
OR,
A Divided Heart and a Divided Life.

BY MRS. SOUTHWORTH.

It was early on the morning of a lovely day in June, A. D. 1800, that a rather large group of idlers gathered in front of the Etheridge Arms, a quaint old tavern, in the ancient little town of Swinburne, in the west of England.

By their looks and conversation, it was evident that some event of unusual importance was expected to come off.

They were, in fact, awaiting the arrival of the mail coach, which was to bring down Colonel Hastings, and his son Albert, who was the bridegroom elect of Lady Etheridge, Baroness of Swinburne, the last of her race, and sole heiress of the immense wealth and vast estate of her lordly ancestors.

The nuptials were to be celebrated on the following day; and the retainers and neighbors of the noble bride, who almost worshiped her for her goodness of heart, were anxious to see the man who was to be their beloved "lady's" husband.

They had not long to wait. The coach soon came thundering up to the door; and as soon as the steps were let down by the obsequious landlord, Colonel Hastings issued forth. He was an elderly gentleman, tall, spare, and stooping; was clothed in a suit of clerical black; and his pale, thin, long face was surrounded by hair and whiskers prematurely gray. He was closely attended by his secretary Ferdinand Cassinove—an Italian, of such graceful mien and dignified bearing, that he might have been taken for a prince of the blood attended by an old gentleman in waiting.

Next came forth a young gentleman, whose handsome person and haughty manner at once attracted general attention. His form was tall and finely proportioned, crowned by a haughty head and face, with high aquiline features, fair and fresh complexion, light blue eyes, and very light, flaxen hair. His expression of countenance, in keeping with his whole manner, was haughty and repellant severity. Great beauty of person, with great dignity of manner, forms a combination very attractive to most young women, and perhaps it was this that fascinated the young heiress of Swinburne Castle, for this was Albert Hastings, the bridegroom elect. He was followed into the house by his valet, bearing his dressing-case.

After a slight repast Colonel Hastings, attended by Cassinove, drove off to the castle to have a preliminary interview with Lady Etheridge, (who was his ward,) and arrange the marriage settlements. On arrival at the lordly castle, Cassinove, was shown into a sitting-room, while the colonel proceeded to the library, whither his ward was requested to come to meet him.

As the young Italian paced up and down the room, occasionally pausing before a full length mirror, which reflected the spacious window (reaching from ceiling to floor) and the picturesque lake beyond, shady walks among the roses outside, glided a purple-draped female figure, that immediately rivetted his attention. It was a woman in the earliest bloom of youth. As young Cassinove gazed upon her, he felt as though a goddess had suddenly descended among the flowers. Her form was above the medium height, and well rounded. Her head was finely formed, and covered with a profusion of jet black, glittering hair, that was plainly parted over her broad, expansive forehead, and swept around the temples, and wound into a rich and massive knot at the back of the head. Her eyes were large, lustrous, and jet black, that seemed, whenever the long veil of lashes was lifted, to throw a light wherever they glanced. Her nose was straight and well formed, her lips rounded, and, like all the rest, full of character. In the carriage of her head and neck, and in her stately footsteps, there was a certain natural majesty that, even in a peasant's dress, would have proved her one of Nature's queens.

The impression made upon the enthusiastic heart of Ferdinand Cassinove was at once vivid, deep, and strong—quick as sun-painting, permanent as sculpture. He saw this goddess of the intellectual brow and stately step open the window and advance into the room, and as she approached him he felt his whole frame thrill with a strange emotion of blended pain and delight. He dreaded to move, yet, as the needle turns to the magnet, he felt himself turning from the reflected image to face the original. He stood before that queenly form, and met those large, luminous, dark eyes fixed upon him in royal graciousness, as she said—

"You are Colonel Hastings's secretary, I believe, sir. Pray sit down. You will find the London papers on that table." And with a graceful bow, the lady passed him, and seated herself on a sofa at the extremity of the room, took up a portfolio, and was soon deeply engaged with its contents.

After the profound bow with which he had returned her courtesy, Ferdinand Cassinove remained motionless where she had left him. But ten minutes had elapsed since she had glided in among the flowers, and passed him like a vision seen in some beautiful dream. But ten minutes, and life, the world, himself, were all changed for Ferdinand Cassinove. He felt, from that moment, that his fate must take its character for good or evil from the will of that royal-looking woman.

In the midst of the pleasing pain of his dream the door opened, and a gray-haired servant entered softly, and stepping across the room to where the lady sat, and speaking in the low, subdued tone in which royal personages are addressed said—

"My lady, Colonel Hastings' respects, and he awaits your ladyship in the library."

"Very well, Williams; go and say to Colonel Hastings that I will attend him immediately," answered the lady rising.

This queenly woman, then, was Laura, Baroness Etheridge of Swinburne. For ever and for ever unattainable by him! Oh, despair! His castle in the air tumbled about him, and buried all his hopes in the ruins in its fall.

After greeting Colonel Hastings, on her entering the Library, Lady Etheridge took a parchment from a drawer in the centre-table and handed it to her guardian. On examining the document, the colonel found it to be a deed of gift, absolute, of her entire magnificent estate, to Albert Hastings, her intended husband. The colonel pretended much surprise, and refused to accept the deed, alleging that such an act might give rise to an unpleasant criticism.

"Oh, Colonel Hastings! there can be no question of mine and thine between me and Albert. The deed of gift that transfers all my possessions to my future husband is made out—let it be executed. He shall then never be jealous of his wife's riches, for she will come to him as poor as a cottage girl," exclaimed Lady Etheridge, with a pure devotion of love flushing her cheek and lighting her eyes.

After protesting somewhat farther against such noble generosity, the colonel allowed himself to be persuaded to accept the deed, and called in Cassinove to witness its execution in due form. The poor secretary could scarcely hold the pen which the colonel handed him, so great was his agitation. His employer could not help remarking upon the unusually poor signature which the Italian affixed, as witness, to the deed; but little did the colonel or the baroness know the terrible passions that were seething in the secretary's soul, or the important results they were destined to bring about.

We will now return to the bridegroom elect, whom we left at Swinburne Arms.

Colonel Hastings had scarcely left the room ere Mr. Albert Hastings arose, stretched himself with a weary yawn, and began to pace thoughtfully up and down the floor, murmuring—

"Men think me a very fortunate and happy man; and doubtless, an unusual number of good gifts have been showered upon me by the favor of the blind goddess—not the least among them would be esteemed the hand of this wealthy young baroness, my bride expectant. Well, we cannot have everything we want in this world, else sweet Rose Elmer only should be the wife of Albert Hastings. Poor girl! she little dreams that the man who wood her under the name of William Lovel, is really Albert Hasting, the envied bridegroom of the high born Lady Etheridge of Swinburne. It cannot be helped. I cannot pause for lady's light, or maiden's honor. Here, then, for a jilted life; my hand to the lady of Swinburne—my heart to the lovely cottage girl; only Lady Etheridge must never know of Rose Elmer and William Lovel, nor must Rose Elmer ever see Lady Etheridge and Albert Hastings. And now to persuade Rose to go before me into Wales, where myself and my lady-bride are to spend our honeymoon."

And so saying, he took his hat, and strolled out into the street.

Taking a course opposite to that which led to Swinburne Castle, Albert Hastings soon came to a cross-country road, which he followed for some two miles, and then turning into a by-path, he went on until he came to a secluded and lovely cottage. Opening the door of this elegant retreat with a latch-key, he passed in. It was a lovely abode, fit for the home of a fairy. And for a fairy Albert Hastings had hailed it furnished. The fairy's name was Rose Elmer, and she was the daughter of the village laundress. Albert had accidentally met her on one of his visits to the castle, and, as his soliloquy, given above, shows, had fallen desperately in love with her, and under the assumed name of William Lovel, had won the beautiful and innocent maiden's heart.

He had had the cottage furnished, and was that morning to meet Rose there, where they had so often met, by appointment. Rose came at last; and as soon as the first joyous greetings were over, the intriguing lover set at work to persuade her to consent to a secret marriage; as he well knew, by a thousand tests of character, that he could never gain his purpose unless Rose believed herself to be his wife. His task was a hard one; but he finally succeeded, by promising that she should stay with her mother just the same, as long as she lived.

This was not at all that Mr. Hastings wished, but neither logic nor eloquence could convince or persuade Rose to consent to desert her ailing mother; and upon no other condition than that of being allowed to remain with her would she consent to the secret marriage.

And, finally, he obtained a promise from Rose that she would meet him at the cottage that same night, where, by a previous arrangement, his confidential servant, disguised as a clergyman, was to be in attendance to perform the marriage ceremony. After which, Rose should return to her mother, to remain during the few weeks of his absence in Wales, whither, he said, important business forced him—This agreed upon, they took leave of each other for a few hours, and returned to the village by different routes. Mr. Hastings went to his inn, and summoned his confidential servant to his presence. And Rose Elmer, full of hope and joy, turned down the street leading to her mother's cottage.

When Rose entered the house, there was a smoldering fire in the grate, and beside this fire, in an old arm chair, sat a female, whom no one would have passed without a second look. She was a woman of commanding presence. Her form was tall, and must once have been finely rounded; but now it was worn thin, almost to skeleton meagreness.—Her features were nobly chiselled, and might once have been grandly beautiful, but now they were sunken and emaciated as those of death. Under her broad and prominent forehead, and heavy black eyebrows, shone a pair of large, dark-gray eyes, that burned fiercely with the fires of fever or frenzy. Her jet black hair, slightly streaked with silver, was half covered with a red handkerchief, tied beneath her chin, and partly fallen in oil locks down one side of her face. A rusty black gown and shawl completed her dress.

As the door opened, admitting Rose, she turned quickly in her chair, fixing her eyes with a look of fierce inquiry upon the intruder.

"How are you now, mother dear? I hope you feel in better spirits?" said Rose, laying off her bonnet, and coming to the woman's side.

"Better. Where have you been? I have wanted you."

"I have been—taking a walk through the woods, dear mother; and see, here are some wild strawberries I picked for you on my return. Will you eat them?" said Rose, offering her little basket.

"No; I want none of them. You care little for me."

"Mother, don't say that. You do not know how much I love you."

"Hush, girl, you have little cause—oh!"

And the the woman suddenly struck her hand upon her heart, dropped her head upon her breast, and seemed convulsed by some great agony. Her features worked frightfully her frame shuddered.

"Mother! mother! what is the matter?" exclaimed Rose, throwing her arms around the woman in great alarm.

"It is—past," gasped the woman, breathing with great difficulty.

'What was it, dear?"

'A spasm. It is gone.'

'Oh, mother, will it return?'

'Perhaps.'

'Let me run for a neighbor, or the doctor.'

'Nay, you must run somewhere else! Tomorrow, Laura—Lady Etheridge of Swinburne, weds with Albert Hastings, of Hastings Hall. It is so, is it not?'

'Surely, dear mother, the village is full of the wedding, and talks nothing else. The village children have been employed all day in bearing flowers to decorate the castle church, and to strew in the path of the bride as she comes—they love her so well.'

'Yes, she is a high and mighty lady; yet, sweet and gracious as becomes one so exalted.' 'Come hither, girl, kneel down before me, so that I may take your face between my hands!' said the woman, growing more strange in her talk.

Rose obeyed, and her mother, throwing her own stern, dark face, shut that of the girl between her hands, and gazed upon it wistfully, critically, murmuring—

'Fair face, delicate features, complexion pure as the inside of a conch-shell, white, and flushed with red; hair like fine yellow silk, and eyes blue and clear as those of infancy; hands, small and elegant. I have not let poverty spoil your beauty, have I, my child?'

'No, dear mother, you have let kindness more likely spoil me,' said Rose, in simple wonder, at her words.

'I have not let your person grow coarse with hard work, have I, dear?'

'No, mother; notwithstanding that I ought to have worked with you, and for you.'

'Your hands have never been roughened by helping me in the laundry?'

'No' mother; though they ought to have been.'

'Your have your sweet eyes been spoiled by needle-work?'

'No, good mother; I have been as useless as a fine lady, to my shame.'

'And I have worked hard to save you from work, and to pay for your schooling, have I not?' 'Dear mother, you have! You have been the best mother in the world, and only too good to me. But I will try to repay you.'

'Think of all that to-morrow, child; and when all the country round shudders at my crime, when all the people call down imprecations upon my name, do not you curse one who has nourished you at her bosom, when that bosom is cold in death,' said the woman, solemnly.

'Oh! she is mad! mad!' exclaimed Rose, in dismay, at hearing these words; then lowering her voice, she said, 'Mother! mother! try to collect yourself! It is I, your poor daughter Rose, that kneels before you. Do you not know me?'

'Ay, I know you well, and I know what I say,' repeated the woman, solemnly.

'Mother! oh, why do you talk so wildly? It is very dreadful! But you are not well!—let me go for some one.'

'Yes; you must go for some one. You must go to the castle this afternoon,' said the woman, in the same tone of deep gravity.

'To the castle! I, mother?' exclaimed Rose in surprise.

'Yes, you must go to the castle; and, when you get there, ask to see her who calls herself Lady Etheridge.'

'The baroness! Dear mother, why do your thoughts so run upon the baroness? What is she to us? Besides, is it likely that she will see me, a poor girl, a perfect stranger, this day of all others, when she sees no one?'

'Hush, child! and for once obey one whom you have so long looked upon as your mother. It will be the last time I will ask you to do so. Demand to be admitted to the presence of the baroness.—Say that you have come upon a matter of life and death, that nearly concerns her ladyship; insist, and she will not venture to refuse you. When you stand before Lady Etheridge, say that her old nurse, Magdalene Elmer—'

'Her nurse, mother! You Lady Etheridge's nurse! I never knew that before, interrupted Rose, in surprise.

'There are many things you never know, my child. But attend! Say to the Baroness that Magdalene Elmer is dying!'

'Dying! Oh, mother, do not say so! it is very cruel! You are not sick in bed—you are sitting up! You are not old either, but have many years of life before you?'

'Child, I mean my words, but do not judge them! Say to Lady Etheridge that Magdelene Elmer, her dying nurse, prays—nay, demands—to see her this night! Tell her that I have a confession to make that she must hear to-night or never! Conjure her by all she holds dear on earth! by all her hopes of heaven! by all her fears of hell! to come to me to-night! Tell her if she would escape the heaviest curse that could darken a woman's life to come to me at once! There! get on your bonnet, and go!'

The above is all of this story that will be published in our columns. The continuation of it from where it leaves off here can be found only in the New York Ledger, the great family paper, which is for sale at all the stores throughout the city and country, where papers are sold. CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and wonderful powers. In short, in this matter, "what we know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we now declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints:—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents the following essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Scrofula, Cancer, Erysipelas, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and the sick man is well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS of it adapted to the different states of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS indicating CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that when you gain you retain the flesh. No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD.", $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it is recommended as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, CONVULSIONS, THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotic and other injurious nostrums, Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; TO OFFER STOMACH, WIND, CONVULSIONS THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor there one who is may not be destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and slothfully habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by hereditary infection. Whetever be its origin, it is hereditary in constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or morbid tissue matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this—scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the purge of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a purgative, of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find how speedily health is restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also those more serious and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Foul Breath, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Neuralgia, Neuralgia, as a diuret Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every person in our country has been cured, or has relations or friends who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once known its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is so apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. MOTT'S
RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions incident to precocity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved admissible to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten by their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Well authenticated instances of this kind are attested of female affections, emaciated energy from apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to all food and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, from the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the Gelatinous, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and repulsive night sweats, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in a manner very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiar to their sex.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invaluable, probably equally, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS, it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative; and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole Materia Medica, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an animal disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THE POTATO IN GERMANY.—The German mind is very slow to make radical changes, but having once taken a direction it is pretty certain to persevere. It was with great difficulty that the cultivation of the potato was introduced in Germany, but now, with the exception of the Irish, the Germans are the most potato loving people in Europe, and in many rural districts it constitutes the chief article of food. It was first introduced by Frederick the Great, and it was a long time before the German peasantry could be persuaded to adopt the now edible offered to their use. They called it the devil's root, and refused positively to have anything to do with it. In Pomerania, especially, the great King (who was also a great despot) laid a heavy tax on such peasants as did not raise a certain quantity of potatoes: and having sent a detatchment of sodiers to enforce this decree, several bloody encounters ensued, which are still remembered by the name of the Potato war.

MOUSTACHES.—A Massachusetts paper defends the growth of moustaches as a preventive of consumption. It seems to us if the only way to preserve our lungs was to strain our soup through a hair sieve of that kind; to have our breakfast, dinner and supper eternally mixed up with a shoe-brush; and to be compelled to taste hair every time we kissed a pretty girl,—we should let them consume. When the fellow on the way to the gallows was offered a pardon if he would marry a carroty-headed old maid, he consented to stop the cart and take a look at her, but he soon shook his head and sung out, "Go ahead, driver!"—Bath Times.

BEAUTY AND UTILITY.—Why did God make the lilies fragrant and the wind melodious? Can anybody point out the use? Music and perfume are superfluous—vanity the highest of vanities. Yet their Maker does not disapprove of them, He uses them lavishly, He fills the earth with them.—Who is it, then, that would be wiser than He, to condemn all which is simply beautiful—to set up utility as the only good?

A Yankee boy once had a whole Dutch cheese set before him by a waggish friend, who, however, gave him no knife. "This is a funny cheese, Uncle Joe, but where shall I cut it?" "Oh," said the grinning friend, "cut it where you like." "Very well," said the Yankee, coolly putting it under his arm, "guess I shall best cut it at home."

Mrs. John Howes, of Wethersfield, Conn., is a remarkable woman! She weighs only eighty pounds, and recently presented her husband with three sons at one birth. He is as well as can be expected.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct as to
Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, stop from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had a beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, it is my opinion, my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jefferseinian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, is lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.
Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.
S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been

THOROUGHLY TESTED

by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them

The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MAY 15, 1860.

☞ Uncle Toby has been reading some late doings in Congress, as to the territories; and perceives there two very different kinds of popular sovereinty, viz., first, that of Mr. Douglas, which amounts to nothing, or next to nothing; and second, that of Mr. Eli Thayer, which would amount to a great deal if a majority should take it up and carry it out in action.

Mr. Thayer takes higher sovereignty ground, and much better, than Douglas.—Mr. Douglas would pursue the the old plan of appointing governors and other officers by the President, and thus put fetters about his sovereign people. Still further, he professes to believe that slaves may be carried there constitutionally, but has some quibble about unfriendly legislation, and says that, after all the unfriendly legislation, the Supreme Court may throw it out. The amount of all this is, that his popular sovereignty is a shadowy sham, with slavery for a substantial reality.

But Mr. Thayer proposes to clothe the people of the Territories with all the political power necessary to their condition and permitted by the Constitution — allowing them to choose their own Governors, Judges, and other officers, and to manage their internal affairs to suit themselves. This is a popular sovereignty that is something and means something. Mr. Thayer has for some years held that the emigration of live men, with habits of industry already formed, with the appliances of the axe, the plow and the school-house, are more effective agencies in making new States than any theories, however carefully drawn. He appeals to sober history to show that where free and slave labor are left to fair competition in the settlement of new communities, the advantage has been and must be decidedly on the side of the former.

With this power in the organized territories, and with no army of officials sent from Washington, not much difficulty need be feared from the Supreme Court, even as it is now organized.

But that Court may be, and probably will be, re-organized in a few years, when some of its modern decisions will stand a fine chance to be set aside.

The intelligent reader may see, however, that Mr. Thayer's view of popular sovereignty, or squatter sovereignty, does not dispose of the whole question.

He says he would not make a territory, and give its powers to a piece of country where there are not 300 white men.

What then? living within the dominion of the United States, are they without law? Surely not. But who makes the laws for them? Answer, Congress.

If Congress, then, makes the law for these people, they have, as yet, no sovereignty at all. Why not? If it is a right belonging to them, as citizens of some of the States, who have removed, then they ought to possess it; but if it be only a privilege, or a power, to become thus when Congress shall pass a bill to organize a territory by a certain name and within certain bounds — then Congress creates squatter sovereignty,—and Congress intervenes, as it always has done, and always must do, between the squatter and his decree to do what he will, without regard to his neighbor or his country.

DOUGLAS OR NOT DOUGLAS.—This is the alternative of the Democratic party, which was deferred at Charleston and must be met at Baltimore. Some few of Douglas' pretended friends in the New England delegation would sell out the "little giant" if they could, and take up a bran new candidate. But the Richmond Enquirer says boldly and manfully, no:

"Let the issue be presented in the most tangible form—by the nomination of Stephen A. Douglas. It is unjust to him, and unfair to the host of friends who sustain him and his doctrine, that any compromise candidate shall be allowed to steal his thunder. Much as we oppose his doctrine of Territorial Government, we would infinitely prefer to see him elected on the honestly-avowed platform of Territorial Sovereignty, rather than witness the election of a man who shall consent to go before the people on a platform speaking one sentiment at the North, and another at the South."

☞ The Boston Post is not very fond of Douglas, just now It says:

The N. H. Gazette and other sterling Democratic papers, contain comments upon the present position of the Democratic party, which we shall copy into our columns entire, or in part, as soon as our space will admit.

The Abolitionists anticipate recruits from nominal Democrats who go half way with them, and the sooner their anticipations are realized, the better the Democratic party.

A RICH HAUL.—The brig fallen in with by Capt. Milliken, of schooner Rienzi, on the South side of Cuba, and supposed to be an abandoned slaver, arrived at Provincetown last week. She is a Spanish brig, in good order, and, with the articles on board, said to be worth not less than ten thousand dollars.

LETTER FROM KENTUCKY—No. 3.

BOSTON STATION, KY., May 9.

Dear Chronicle—I have another sad accident to relate, one of the causes of which was whiskey. Two young men, George Hightowers and Basil Nicholson, of Demosville, eight miles below this place, were drowned last Sabbath, while bathing. Both were intoxicated. There were quite a number of persons in sight at the time, but none thought they were drowning; both being good swimmers.

A temperance organization throughout the region is very much needed. Boston seems to be the most orderly station on the line of the K. C. R. R., besides being one of the handsomest situations I ever beheld.

I find that the "Song of the Old Folks," written by Albert Laighton, is as generally known and used here as at home. Portsmouth may well be proud of such poets as B. P. Shillaber, Albert Laighton and others.

The Charleston Convention has occupied chiefly the attention of this section for the past fortnight. What a grand fizzle it ended in, after all! Some of our Douglas men still adhere to the expectation of the nomination, while the shaky ones are more bold in their denunciations of him, and declare their intention to support the candidate of the real Democratic party, i. e. the candidate of the states which furnish the electoral votes for that sublime, infallible, incorruptible, undefileable combination of spoilsmen. There are many who think the adjourned convention at Baltimore will nominate Hon. James Guthrie of this State. One thing is sure, should Douglas be nominated under the present aspect, Kentucky and the small number of delegates from the remaining slave states will retire from the Convention. With the opposition of Buchanan to Douglas] throughout such a contest, and with the American party of the South on their track, the Douglasites would be beaten in nearly, if not all, the Southern states.

The Baltimore Convention which meets to-day promises to be of no account, unless they take up a man who will be supported by one of the two great parties.

The Chicago Convention, which meets one week from to-day, by pursuing the right course will name the man who will be the next President.

Fremont, Banks, Read or Chase, with "Old Abe" of Illinois, would carry the otherwise doubtful States of Pennsylvaina and New Jersey, with all the Western States.—Seward may be the favorite of the Republican Germans, but a majority of the Republicans are Americans; and if principle as well as policy is not lost sight of, Seward's nomination will be out of the question.—One of the cardinal principles should be, "Americans must rule America." Seward would not get half the votes in the slave States that either of the other above named gentlemen would receive. "Americans" are not partial to Seward. Yours, G.W.M.

P. S.—We have received another accession from old Portsmouth. "Good news from home," &c.

ENORMOUS ENGLISH DEFALCATION.—The singular case of the Carron Iron Company of London versus their late General Manager, Henry Stainton, is again before the English Courts. It appears that from the year 1826 down to the time of his decease in 1851, Henry Stainton had rendered accounts of his receipts and payments to the company as their agent, which were not questioned during his lifetime; but after his decease they were called in question. The present claim of the defendants against Stainton's estate amount to more than £100,000 beyond that which it has already paid. It thus appears beyond dispute that a defalcation was carried on without discovery for a period of thirty-three years.

☞ A young widower, named George C. Hersey, of Hingham, Mass., is now in Dedham jail, suspected of poisoning Mary Tirrell of Weymouth, some months ago, and Betsey F. Tirrell, who has just died,—and somewhat suspected now, also, of causing the death of his wife two years since He was engaged to marry Mary Tirrell, and seems to have been a general favorite of the family, but turns out to be a viper.

☞ The Princess Mathilde, in preparing for her appearance in the costume of an Egyptian Princess, at the fancy ball recently given by the Empress, employed Giraud, a prominent artist of Paris, to paint her face, neck, arms and legs a bronze color.—The work occupied the artist three hours, as there was considerable space to cover.—When in full costume, the Princess seemed to be a living picture of the times of Sesostris or the Pharaohs.

☞ Two fugitive slaves, who had escaped from Hamilton, Ky., were discovered and arrested near Aurora, Ind., by their owners, on Monday night. On their return through Aurora, the slave owners were attacked by a party designing to rescue the negroes, when a general fight entued, in which knives, stones and pistols were freely used. The slaves were not rescued.

CHICAGO CONVENTION.—Items begin to pour in from this quarter. Dispatches of Monday say thousands of people are pouring in; great excitement prevails, and warm but friendly discussion.

On the first ballot, Seward will probably have 80 votes, Bates 60, Chase 30 to 35, Cameron 27 to 30, Lincoln 15, Dayton 10.

The California delegation has letters from Col. Fremont, positively withdrawing his name as a candidate. This delegation will vote for Seward first, and probably Bates next.

The Boston Journal says:

We are informed on very direct authority that Col. Forney, anticipating the defeat of Douglas at Baltimore, has declared that he should support Gov. Banks for the Presidency if he should be nominated at Chicago.

☞ From the Washington correspondence of the New York Tribune:—

"Newsmongers are speculating extensively concerning the candidates at Chicago, and drawing freely upon the imagination for them. The better opinion is that the choice is mainly narrowed down between Messrs. McLean, Seward, Bates and Wade. Of course others are suggested by their friends, who are entitled to equal consideration. Contingencies may occur in which Mr. Foot or Mr. Fessenden, who have not been pressed by the managers, may be presented with effect.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, May 12.

SENATE not in session.

In the HOUSE, Mr. Grow moved to take up the bill establishing a temporary government in Idaho. Mr. Clark of Missouri raised a point of order that this bill was tabled yesterday. The Speaker decided against Mr. Clark's point. A discussion followed on the merits of the bill.

Mr. Houston charged partisan motives on those who supported the series of territorial measures, and moved to table the Idaho bill. The motion was carried by 91 against 78. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the territorial business. Several bills were passed, including those providing for the completion of military roads in the territories of Washington and New Mexico.

☞ From Europe we have Liverpool dates of May 3.

Three thousand pounds of Australian gold had arrived at England.

French commercial affairs and markets very dull.

The English government was negotiating for the Great Eastern to lay a cable between Singapore and Rangoon.

The Chinese were determined to dispute the passage of the allies to Pekin.—Within six miles of the fortifications 200,000 men were under arms.

It is stated that France proposed to Switzerland to relinquish her right in reference to the neutralized districts of Savoy for fifty million francs.

The Bishops of the Romagna have received a prohibition against taking any part in the reception of King Victor Emanuel. A correspondent of the Journal des Debats was ordered to leave Rome by the Pope, but obtained a delay of twenty days.

Advices from Naples say that the royal troops attacked the insurgents entrenched in the town of Carini on the 18th. Desperate fighting continued for three days, when the government troops received reinforcements and compelled the insurgents to retire to Portenico, leaving 250 killed behind. The royal troops had 300 killed. The town of Carini was besieged and set on fire. Great misery prevails at Palermo. Since the execution of 13 insurgents, 26 Neapolitan soldiers have been surprised and hung at Carini.

The Neapolitan army amounts to 160,000.

The Porte concluded a loan with a great Greek house at Constantinople of over £700,000 sterling.

Advices from Messina of the 28th state that perfect tranquility prevails there, but general discouragement also prevails. The number of persons arrested is considerable, and the prisons are crowded to excess.

The government was about to be transferred to Messina, and the garrison at Palermo, though numbering 20,000, are afraid to proceed to the interior.

Liverpool Breadstuff Market, May 2.—The weather has been favorable for the crops, which has caused a falling off in the demand, and prices are weaker.

NEW YORK, May 12.—A dispatch reports a land slide on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Holidaysburg, to-day. Track buried many feet. Damage reported at $100,000. No obstruction to travel, as passengers are conveyed to cars stopped on the other side. No loss of life.

☞ Portions of the South are highly indignant that Sam Houston was not nominated at Baltimore. They threaten to do all sorts of desperate things to the "Old Gentleman's" party.

☞ It takes three editors to start a paper in New Orleans—one to get killed in a duel, one to die with the yellow fever, and one to write an obituary of the defunct two.

One of the clergymen who opened the Charleston Convention with prayer, addressed the Deity on this wise: "Oh, God! Thou who art pleased to consider thyself as the fountain of all wisdom, look down, etc.

☞ Dr. Steele, of St. Louis, was wounded, perhaps fatally, by the accidental discharge of a pistol in his pocket, while going from Louisville to Frankfort on the cars.

☞ It is said of the French ladies, that their fondness for effect runs to such excess, that widows who have lost their husbands, practice attitudes of despair before a looking glass.

The subscriber would offer for sale a fine HEIFER CALF, of the Durham and Ayrshire breed. Those who wish to purchase will please call immediately at the residence of the subscriber, at Kittery Fore Side. CHAS. STIMSON.

☞ The Republican Convention is assembling at Chicago,—and will open Wednesday. There will be great rivalry, much free talk, and no little excitement.—The assemblage will be very large.

RECENT TESTIMONY.

Washington, April 16, 1860.

Sir:—In answer to your letter, asking that I would inform you as to what standard of orthography has been adopted in the Smithsonian publications, I give you the following reply:

Early in the history of the Institution, the subject of orthography was referred to one of the best writers of this country, and in accordance with his recommendation, Worcester's Dictionary was adopted as being nearest the general usages of English scholars.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JOSEPH HENRY, Secretary S. I.

From Hon. Philip F. Thomas, Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C.

U. S. Patent Office, March 16, 1860.

The new Dictionary of Dr. Worcester combines, in my opinion, more of the requisites of a work of reference than any similar one ever published. The fullness and accuracy of its technical definitions make it of especial value in this office; and this, together with the correctness of its orthography, and its general excellence in definition and in etymology, have made it the standard work of reference in this office.

PHILIP F. THOMAS.

From Hon. John Hart, Sup. of Public Printing.

OFFICE SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC PRINTING,
Washington, March 14, 1860.

I have long been familiar with Worcester's Dictionary, and have been highly gratified with the appearance of the new and beautiful edition of this valuable work. Its vast vocabulary, the skill of its arrangement, accuracy of orthography, precision of definitions, particularly of technical and scientific terms, its general completeness, and its freedom from political or sectarian bias, render it, in my estimation, the most perfect and comfortable repository of the English language. It gives me pleasure to state that it is the standard authority for the public printing.

JOHN HART.

From Jos. Mettingly, Foreman of the Congressional Globe.

It gives me pleasure to inform you that, with the commencement of a new volume of the Congressional Globe, the system of orthography represented in Worcester's Dictionary will take the place of that heretofore used in the publication of the debates of Congress.

Office Secretary U. S. Senate, March 16, '60.

Dear Sir:—It affords me great pleasure to inform you that the Committee to admit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate, have manifested their appreciation of Worcester's Quarto Dictionary by directing that the Senate Chamber and all the committee and office rooms of the Senate, be furnished with that work.

I am highly gratified at this additional testimonial of the merits of a book, that in my judgment, is decidedly the best work of the kind in the English language. Yours,

JOHN G. FITZPATRICK,
Assistant Clerk, Office Secretary Senate.

Clerk's Office, U. S. House of Representatives
March 15, 1860.

Worcester's New Quarto Dictionary is the standard work of reference in this office, and the system of orthography therein represented, is that adopted in the official records and documents of the U. S. House of Representatives.

J. W. FORNEY,
Clerk U. S. House of Reps.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.

A. PEARSON continues to give instruction in the following branches of Music:—

Piano-Forte, Organ, Harmony and Vocalization.

Particular attention given to the formation of tone, Cultivation of the Voice, Musical Elocution, and in imparting such directions and principles as will, if adopted by the pupil, give correct Style in Singing.

MR. PEARSON having had many years' experience as teacher in the above branches, is confident that his method of instruction is eminently successful. The most competent and reliable references given, if desired.

Having also had extensive experience as Agent for the sale of PIANOS, he calls attention to this department of his business, and would inform the public that he is able to furnish superior Instruments at manufacturers' prices, and offers his services to those desirous of purchasing.

The advantage of employing, in the selection of a Piano, one whose business gives him opportunities for testing the merits of various kinds of Pianos, must be obvious.

Persons desiring his services, may find him from 11 to 12 o'clock, at his MUSIC ROOM, No 4 Exchange Buildings, or information of his whereabouts can be obtained at his residence, No. 30 Hanover Street; at either of which places they can examine a splendid instrument of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s manufacture, and receive information relative to the purchase of Pianos. m12

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heartonitorumenos.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck; and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1856.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous center, will yield to the alterative power of PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and a predisposition of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it to any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

W. A. BACON, Teacher of Detroit Select School.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot sw6w

THE FAIR.—We copy on our fourth page an item each from the Journal and Gazette, concerning the Rockingham County Fair, which is to be held in Portsmouth next Fall. The Gazette refers to an old dispute or discussion which arose in settling the bills for the Fair two years ago, between some enterprising gentlemen here and the Trustees of the Society for that year; which, after due deliberation all round, was settled as best it could be, we presume, under the circumstances—and we have no judgment to pass concerning the affair, and no remarks to make, except that we believe no member of that Board is on the present—so certainly that matter is no longer in order for discussion.

The Journal fears the old bugbear of "the equinoctial storm," which comes at no particular time, and usually not until after the date chosen for the Fair—which was selected as the only practical time which would not conflict with other Fairs, (see notice elsewhere.) And we should think our neighbor of the Journal, being Assistant Clerk of the weather, might give us fair weather for the occasion; or at any rate, refrain from "throwing cold water" on it, if the skies don't.

☞ We are pleased to learn that the traders on Market street, are endeavoring to form some plan whereby Market street and Market square may be kept clean during the coming summer months. It is said to be their purpose, if a sufficient number agree, to have a sprinkler and a man to keep the street and square free from all manner of dust and dirt.

It is to be sincerely hoped that their efforts will prove successful; for no one has failed to notice the dirty condition this street and square has been in for a number of years back. REP.

☞ We dropped into the new Masonic Hall in Congress Block, a few days ago, and although we did not discover any of the "secrets of the Order," we did see great evidence of good taste on their part. The Hall is richly, even luxuriously fitted up, and has a serene and secluded air well suited to the purpose for which it is intended. We could but regret its being withdrawn from public use, however; and long for the substitution of a good City Hall. REP.

PREPARE FOR GARDENING.—Every family should have a spot of earth in which to cultivate at least one green thing. Now that the warm days have come, and the buds begin to swell, and the flowers to lift their heads, it is time to think of stirring the soil. For our part, we long to be digging in it; the smell of the fresh earth is grateful after the frosts and chills of winter. So look to the garden fences, and the shrubbery, uncover the strawberry beds, and hunt up the "spade, the rake and the hoe." REP.

☞ On Sunday afternoon and evening, Mrs. Currier of Boston lectured at Mercantile Hall, to large and intelligent audiences. If few were convinced of the reality of the so-called spiritual phenomena, we think that all were impressed with the fact that they had in Mrs. Currier a very able expounder. REP.

Messrs. Editors:—Can you tell why the poisonous horse-chesnut tree is allowed in front of dwellings, to the exclusion of any other tree? Its fruit is poisonous, and dangerous in the way of children, and its foliage so extremely dense, as to effectually obstruct the rays of the sun, which makes it the more unhealthy, besides being injurious to a building. And I have heard it said that the birds are not fond of frequenting them. If people prefer a nut tree, why not have it give place to a common chesnut, (the fruit of which is so good to eat,) or lemon walnut, or shagbark, (square walnut); or if the owner is afraid of losing the fruit, have a black walnut, the wood of which is now so common and valuable for furniture. If the horse-chesnut is thought beautiful, certainly it is much inferior to the magnificent elm, which is good as far as it goes. B.

THE WORLD'S FAIR CHURN.
The attention of farmers is solicited to this celebrated Churn. It is without controversy the best Churn in the world!—having taken the premium at the Great Exhibition in London. It is simple, and easily managed by any child, and performs not only the action of churning, but also of working and salting the butter in the most perfect manner. It is of the utmost importance, as every dairywoman knows, to have a Churn well made, and free from imperfection of the wood that will retain any particles of cream to become sour, and spoil the flavor of the butter. None but the best of material is used in constructing these Churns, and every one is perfect before being sent to market.
The farmers in our vicinity are using these Churns very extensively, and award to it the very highest commendation.

COFFEE.
We would recommend to housekeepers a trial of the "Old Dominion Coffee Pot," which some families have had in use for over a year, and say they would on no consideration be without it, as it retains the whole of the strength as well as the aroma of the berry. One-fourth less coffee is required; and this is a consideration in these times. Ladies' Home Magazine.

WOOD'S
PATENT COFFEE-ROASTER.
A great loss of the aroma of the coffee berry is suffered by the common method of wasting it in an open pan. This is entirely obviated by the use of the Patent Roaster.
It is a simple, hollow iron syphon, or globe, intended to be placed over the fire in a stove or range, and so constructed as to be easily turned during the process of burning—so that every particle of coffee is equally roasted, and in this manner retains much more of its strength, than if burned in the ordinary way. No family that uses Coffee should be without a Coffee Roaster and an Old Dominion Coffee Pot.

ROCKINGHAM FAIR.—The trustees of the Corporation known as the "Rockingham Fair," at a meeting held at Exeter on Saturday last, decided that the next annual exhibition of the society should be held in this city on Wednesday and Thursday September 19 and 20. This decision was made on a guarantee that the citizens of Portsmouth would contribute the sum of $500 towards the expenses. We do not know the circumstances attending the guarantee, or the persons making it, but the recollection of the conduct of the managers of the Fair when held in this city a few years ago, will tend to produce a feeling of indifference on the part of several of our citizens who were then most interested in its success and whose zealous labours produced such gratifying results, and were the means of adding a large sum of money to the treasury of the society. However, with proper management and liberal councils on the part of the present trustees, there is but little doubt that the sum can be raised, and such an exhibition arranged as will be interesting and valuable to the inhabitants of the county, and financially beneficial to the society.

From the Journal.

At a meeting of the officers of Rockingham Fair, holden in Exeter on Saturday last, it was decided to have the next Fair in Portsmouth, Sept. 19th and 20th, 1860—provided our people will pay $500 for the favor. Unless some other time than than that of the autumnal equinox is selected, we think it wont pay.

WESTMINSTER REVIEW.—The April number of the American reprint of the Westminster Review, is received from the publishers, L. Scott & Co., New York. The table of contents is as follows:

Vedic Religion; Maria and Venice in 1848-9; The Ethics of War; Plutarch and his Times; Austria and the Government of Hungary; Parliamentary Reform—the Dangers and Safeguards; Japan; Darwin on the Origin of Species; Contemporary Literature.

STATE REFORM SCHOOL.—The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held on Tuesday. All of the Board except Messrs. Wheeler of Keene and Eastman of Lancaster, were present. Horton D. Walker was elected Chairman, and Nathan Parker, Secretary of the board. The financial affairs of the institution have been economically managed during the past year. The property left by Mr. Wilkins proves to be as valuable as represented, and a part of it yields a good income. The leading want of the School is the facilities for affording the privilege of manual labor to the boys during the months from November to May, inclusive. We learn measures will be taken to provide for this deficiency, before another winter.

We would direct the attention of our readers to the notice in another column relating to the merits and the prices of Worcester's Dictionary, the most able work on the English language which has even been published. It possesses an authority as to usage in orthography, in the best circles both in Europe and America.

THE CRITIC CRITICISED, AND WORCESTER VINDICATED is the title of a pamphlet of about 70 pages, consisting of a review of an article in the "Congregationalist" upon the comparative merits of Worcester's and Webster's Quarto Dictionaries; and also, a reply to the attacks upon the character of Dr. Worcester and his Dictionaries.

At the Exhibition held at Harvard College on Tuesday of last week we notice that CHARLES CHRISTIN SAYTER and FRANK WARREN HACKETT, of this city, had parts.

☞ The British Government have authorized the supply of spectacles to the near-sighted men in the Indian army, as an experimental measure to be reported upon hereafter.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine.—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who made the trial. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter, "what we know have," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of every word herein. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard—Analysis the following diseases arising from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood, to supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its remarkable success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depressive Spirits, Want of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERUSE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities of the child. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING; DIARRHŒA, GRIPING PAINS, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain. It has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases where other fails. Are you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is commended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of Tobacco, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitution broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, find the powerful influence of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Nervousness.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind and Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidneys, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them healthy and happy, and will remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the sallow cheek.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial diseases, improper diet, Abuse of nature, healthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the several infections, such as those arising from the hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" in which it seems to be the real sin him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tuberculous; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that a sluggish circulation only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases. Consequently vast multitudes are by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the constitution. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, bladder, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, they are compounded from vegetables the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of those properties, they are invaluable in the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Disease, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, incipient CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cures of its virtues, that every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate states of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON, purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, as the best form of Iron for use.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Invaluable in cases of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description or written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted residence in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of opinated nurasmus, sanguinous exhaustion, hectic critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation is so rapid and necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, yet nearly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, Innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and permanent.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate the first stages of CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily rank as a valuable substitute for quinine, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such universally happy, and decidedly restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 Pills each, and sold by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to HURRAH FOR THE FEMININES.—Ladies were debarred from visiting the Japanese corvette while it lay in San Francisco, But two French ladies were determined to see the decks of the foreign ship; the feminine lexicon, like that of youth, contains "no such word as fail." Accordingly, by the connivance of their husbands, they donned the distinguishing articles of the masculine uniform, and clambered up the ship's sides. As Frenchmen, they were received with remarkable politeness, and carried on a lively conversation with the Admiral—the only drawback being that neither could understand the other's language. But when they prepared for departure, and extended their hands to the Admiral in leave-taking, that distinguished Japanese perceived a rat, and summoning an attendant, presented the the pseudo gentlemen with a variety of magnificent hair-pins, bracelets and furs, remarking that though a Japanese, he was still a man, and could detect the pressure of a lady's hand. The un-fair visitors blushed and acknowledged the—trowsers.

TASTE IN DRESS FAVORABLE TO SOME OF THE FEMALE VIRTUES.—Lavater, the man who, long before the birth of phrenology, wrote a clever book on physiognomy, gives a good opinion of people who are fond of dressing well, and throws something more than suspicion on ladies who are careless of their apparel: "Young women," said he, "who neglect their toilette, indi- in this very particular, a disregard of or, a deficiency of taste and the qualities which inspire love. The girl of eighteen who does not desire to please in so obvious a matter of dress, will be a slut, and probably a shrew, at twenty-five." When so much is written about the sin and danger of dress, it is pleasant to see a sensible record on the other side.

THE LATEST LIQUOR DODGE.—A large manufacturer of ale and beer in Philadelphia, notified his agent in Worcester, that he had consigned to him one hundred and fifty casks worth about $1000. Mr. Hill telegraphs back that he dare not move it from the cars, lest the City Marshal should seize it. On Saturday, Messrs. Davis & Co., of Boston, came to this city sued out a writ against the Philadelphia manufacture, who was perfectly good before, and placed the writ in sheriff Day's hands. Mr. Day, as officer, carts the liquor through the streets and deposits it in Mr. Hill's cellar, and makes Mr. Hill keeper! We doubt if the case ever comes to trial.—Worcester Transcript.

PROLIFIC—Mrs. Culwick, the wife of a laboring man living at Albrighton, England, gave birth to four children, three girls and a boy, three of whom were alive. The woman was confined with twins just eleven months and one week previously, making in the aggregate six children in less than twelve months.

☞ A train of cars passed through Rochester, N. Y., on the 9th inst., which consisted of one hundred and twenty-two freight cars and five locomotives, and was nearly a mile in length.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce a trial, and that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1860.

The people evidently demand the nomination of Douglas—they have nominated him, and are waiting for a chance to make him President. The politicians are afraid to trust him before the people, because they know he would be elevated above them.—Will the people consent that he shall be slaughtered to gratify their enemies?—Bath Times,

The Washington States and Union places Yancey and Yanceyism in the same scale with Seward and Helperism, and comes to the conclusion that, by the deliberate and indignant action of a free people, both will be made to kick the beam in November next. So mote it be.—Bath Times.

We shall see in due time, says Uncle Toby,—but the irrepressible conflict between freedom and slavery, cannot be long checked by a wall daubed by untempered mortar. Shams and compromises must be temporary. Oppression shall not always reign; there comes a brighter day.

DEFAULTERS.—The Traveller well says, business men are supposed to be possessed of more than the usual amount of shrewdness, yet not a month passes without some event coming to light that shows how easy it is to "do" them. They talk of practical men's superiority, and yet they are practised upon to an extent that is never attempted in any other department of life.—Officers are allowed to go on for a lifetime, without, apparently, ever having their accounts effectively audited. We think there is occasion for a little reform, or there'll be a fine mess one of these days.

CALIFORNIA JUSTICE.—It has been recently stated that an ingot of gold, forwarded to Paris from San Francisco, and sold for $2075, proved to be nothing but a gilded mass of lead. The swindle was perpetrated through the agency of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, who, when the leaden ingot was returned to their office in San Francisco, set to work to discover the swindler. He was found to be a fancy goods dealer, named A. Kohler, and he was let off on payment of the amount of the ingot, $2075, and $2000 for expenses incurred. But the matter did not end here, although the government officers concluded not to prosecute him, on account of a defect in the law.—When Kohler's rascality became known, his bankers immediately paid him his balance, and declined to have any further transactions with him. The insurance companies also cancelled their policies upon his property, and the man stands before the community a convicted swindler, shunned by all honorable men.

PLYMOUTH COUNTY MANUFACTURES. The Middleborough Gazette says the Charlotte Furnace at that place has been in operation 102 years, and was never insured till the present month, and never has burnt down. It is owned by Jesse Murdock, employing eighty hands, running full time, and with the prospect of making $60,000 the present year.

The only grate factory now in New England is in South Carver, carried on by Benj. Griffin & Co., employing 15 hands, and doing business amounting to about $15,000 a year.

The Russell Cotton Duck Mills, at Plymouth, have manufactured during the last year 1748 bales of cotton, against 1000 last year,at an average cost of 12 23-100 cents per pound. The sales have amounted to $163,783, against $93,183 last year. The quality of the duck continues to meet with favor.

A MAN AND HIS WIFE ROBBING HEN ROOSTS.—A New Use for Hoop Skirts.—A man named William Mills, who, with his wife, have been suspected of being the perpetrators of a number of fowl robberies in the vicinity of Brooklyn, N. Y., were stopped while riding home one night last week, by some officers who were on the watch for them. The officers proceeded to search the wagon, but, to their surprise, the only occupants of the wagon, apparently, were Mills and his wife. The officers were about to leave, when a clucking noise, proceeding from beneath Mrs. Mills' ample skirt, caused them to look in that quarter, when no less than fourteen sprightly-looking chickens were found.

☞ Not many days ago, it was said that orders had gone from the White House to Postmaster Fowler of New York, Grand Sachem of the Tammany wigwam, to call a meeting of that society, and have Douglas and popular sovereignty denounced. Unluckily, Mr. Fowler has got into hot water himself, about the finances.

☞ The Manchester Union Democrat, speaking of what it terms enthusiasm for Douglas, says, this "we imagine is not to be gratified by the nomination of Mr. Douglas at Baltimore as a national candidate. Indeed, the chance, perhaps, is not very hopeful that any man will be nominated in that character."

DOINGS IN CALIFORNIA.

The California Legislature adjourned April 30. Bills were passed to submit to a vote of the people whether a convention shall be called to revise the State Constitution; to grant the right of way to the San Francisco and Los Angelos Telegraph Co.; and $100,000 to aid trans-continental telegraph lines. The appropriations for ordinary State purposes exceed a million of dollars.

The favorite objects of a majority of the Legislature were defeated by the Governor's veto, or by his withholding his approval of them on the last day of the session.—These were the San Francisco Bulkhead bills; a bill appropriating $250,000 to build nine wagon roads over the mountains to the Washoe mines; an act amending the law of libel, so as to permit newspapers to be sued for libel in any county in the State, irrespective of the residence of the plaintiff or defendant; and an act providing for the issue of $300,000 of Indian war bonds, unless Congress should sooner redeem them.

This heavy responsibility, assumed by Gov. Downey, has been the subject of general remark. The majority of the people appear to heartily sustain the vetoes. In the principal towns in the State, guns were fired in honor of the veto of the Bulkhead Bill, the scheme being regarded as an immense monopoly and a tax on commerce. San Francisco was also brilliantly illuminated on the night of May 1st, in honor of this veto.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, May 14.

The Senate met, but there being a slim attendance, adjourned.

The House, 103 to 61, agreed to consider the Michigan contested election case

Mr. Colfax, from the Post Office Committee, reported a bill to establish certain post routes, all of which had been recommended by members of the House. Passed without reading.

Mr. Dawes called for the reading of the resolutions reported from the majority of the Committee on Elections, declaring that Mr. Howard is, and Mr. Cooper is not, entitled to a seat from the First Congressional District of Michigan. The minority report declares that Mr. Cooper is entitled to retain his seat.

WASHINGTON NEWS, May 14.—There is intense excitement owing to the rumored extensive defalcation of a prominent federal officer in a Northern city.

Robert J. Walker has obtained all his papers relative to Kansas, and is prepared to close the testimony before the Covode Committee. Among them, it is said, is his inaugural address, with interlineations by the President in regard to submitting the constitution to the people.

The Southern address, urging the seceding delegates to return, was written by Mr. Toombs.

If a radical candidate be insisted upon at Chicago, a defection is expected in Pennsylvania and New Jersey among the conservative portion of the opposition.

Mr. Walker, correspondent of the New York Express, received $2500 of the money appropriated by Wendell to carry the English bill through the House.

Attorney General Black has notified the Covode Committee that he desires to be present at the next examination of Mr. Schnabell; a lively time is expected.

District Attorney Woodbury is here with reference to the action of the Senate upon the new law which the Judiciary Committee contemplates bringing forward, to enforce the attendance of witnesses before investigating committees. If it be admitted that no legal authority existed for the recent arrest of Sanborn, then the officers who officiated will be subjected to imprisonment for five years in the Penitentiary, by the laws of Massachusetts, prohibiting kidnapping under that penalty.

CORRUPTION AMONG OFFICIALS.—Washington, May 14.—An investigation, ordered by the Department, and conducted by the Special Agent of the General Post Office, thus far exhibits a deficiency of over $150,000, on the part of Isaac V. Fowler, Postmaster of New York. The criminality consists in failing to deposit at the Sub-Treasury the full amount of the postal revenue collected for the government. There is evidence that there is now due in such deposits the amount above stated. It may be found, as the investigation proceeds, that the deficit amounts to a much larger sum. His bondsmen, G. A. Connover and George Law, are bound in the sum of $75,000.—There were rumors a short time since that there was a deficiency in a quarter's report of Mr. Fowler, but they were immediately set at rest by his depositing $15,000 claimed.

The Cashier's department, from which the advances have always been made to the Postmaster, now holds full and satisfactory vouchers for all sums paid to him, so that whatever criminality attaches must be placed to the account of Fowler alone. He had an absolute right to withdraw funds by giving receipts for various amounts. The investigation is still going forward,and Fowler is at his hotel, awaiting the result. The Post Office has been placed in the hands of other agents of the government.

☞ The Boston Atlas & Bee is a well known, ably conducted morning sheet, decidedly republican. The publishers now advertise that they will publish three evening editions, making a republican campaign paper, not only daily, but three times a day. These evening Bees will be humming in great swarms all over the country, at a cent a piece. They will command a great sale, and have a wide influence. Circulate the documents. See advertisement.

☞ Rev. Dr. Dimmick at Newburyport, and Rev. Dr. Whittemore of Cambridge, at Lowell,Ms. where he was preaching,—were both interrupted in the pulpit, on Sunday, by temporary sickness.

☞ They are shipping oats from America to Ireland, the crops, we may suppose, arising from those wild oats which the Irish have sown so abundantly here.

CURE FOR CANCER.

The Milwaukie Free Democrat contains the following plain statement of a cure for cancer, very valuable, if a real cure.

Eight months ago, Mr. T. B. Mason, who keeps a music store on Wisconsin street, and is a brother of the well-known Lowell Mason, ascertained that he had a cancer on his face the size of a pea.

It was cut out by Dr. Walcott, and the wound partly healed. Subsequently the cancer grew again, and while he was at Cincinnati on business, it attained the size of a hickory nut. He remained there since Christmas under treatment, and is now perfectly cured. The process is this:

A piece of sticking plaster was put over the cancer, with a circular piece cut out of the centre a little larger than the cancer, and a small circular rim of healthy skin next to it was exposed. Then a plaster made of chloride of zinc, bloodroot and wheat flour, was spread on a piece of muslin the size of this circular opening, and applied to the cancer for twenty-four hours. On removing it, the cancer will be found to be burnt into, and appear of the color and hardness of an old shoe sole, and the circular rim outside of it will appear white and parboiled, as if scalded by hot steam. The wound is now dressed, and the outside rim soon separates, and the cancer comes out in a hard lump, and the place heals up. The plaster kills the cancer, so that it sloughs out like dead flesh, and never grows again.

The remedy was discovered by Dr. Fell, of London, and has been used by him for six or eight years with unfailing success,and not a case has been known of the reappearance of the cancer where this remedy has been applied.

☞ Some of the English papers profess to doubt whether Heenan is a hard hitter. There is a story current, that at the Boston Gymnasium, where they have a contrivance to test the weight of a blow, the best pupil struck 70 pounds. After a few days' practice the teacher was able to strike 130 pounds. Heenan put himself in training for a short period, and the weight of his blow was 620 pounds—nearly a third of a ton! Can anybody tell how hard a horse kicks?

Realf, who was John Brown's secretary at one time, has turned Shaker. He was a Quaker in the other business, and it is supposed that he will not be more faithful to Mother Anne Lee than he was to Father Brown, but that he will run off with one of her daughters. They ought to be prettier than those we occasionally see in this part of the world, to tempt man to sin. If Eve had been a Shakeress, Adam never would have been a Quaker when the Lord approached him. It is wonderful how easily sin is resisted when it assumes a disagreeable shape and form.—Traw.

☞ They are having freshets in Pennsylvania. If they have a spare one, the owner would hear of something to his advantage by applying anywhere in these parts. For if the dry weather should last, the Traveller says we shall this year raise nothing but parched corn.

The burglars are about in different parts of Bath, Me. A short time since a lady was disturbed by their entrance to her house, and she discharged at their heads first a coffee pot and next a lighted fluid lamp! They were glad to beat a retreat.—Times.

☞ Connecticut is severe on pickpockets. The lightest penalty is two years in the State Prison. One of Van Amburgh's menagerie drivers has just been shut up that time for using his pickers in the wrong place.

SINGULAR BUT TRUE.—The water at Lake Cochituate has risen several inches since the present drought, and is higher than ever. At Fresh Pond also,from which Cambridge is supplied, there has been a rise of two inches. These facts are curious. Who can explain them?—Atlas.

☞ A Hartford gentleman bought one of the "Higley coppers" recently, for which he paid the sum of fifty dollars. It was made by a blacksmith named Higley, of Granby, one hundred and twenty-three years ago.

The "Single Eye" on Britain—The Irish. Ease for the New Yorkers—The Japanese.
Night Nurses at Bellevue—Rats!
The Way to Hide a Bear—Skin him.
Net Profits—The net receipts of shad.—N. Y. Sunday Atlas.

THE PEC-ULATION.—The Portland Advertiser says that Maine will not ultimately lose more than four thousand dollars by the defalcation of B. D. Peck, the late Treasurer of the State.

Young woodcocks leave their nest directly they are hatched, and never return to it. They run with great speed the first day of their existence.

☞ The Manchester American says that by the recent count of the Assessors the population of that city is 19,038. This is several thousand below the actual population.

That Bell gives no certain sound, and it will be so badly cracked in November that the fragments will scarcely pay for gathering up.—Bath Times.

☞ Brother Peck, of Maine, may now hide his diminished head behind the bushel defalcation of Postmaster Fowler of New York, who has sequestrated $150,000 sure, and probably more.

☞ Chief Justice Taney has been restored to health by the newspapers. Last week they nearly got him into the grave.—A great power is the press.

☞ At Washington, D. C., a great rain storm closed on Sunday night.

MR. PEARSON having had many years' experience as teacher in the above branches, is confident that his method of instruction is eminently successful. The most competent and reliable references given, if desired.

Having also had extensive experience as Agent for the sale of PIANOS, he calls attention to this department of his business, and would inform the public that he is able to furnish superior instruments at manufacturers' prices, and offers his services to those desirous of purchasing.

The advantage of employing, in the selection of a Piano, one whose business gives him opportunities for testing the merits of various kinds of Pianos, must be obvious.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."
BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1858.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of
THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,
There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact:

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from a disease so distressing.
W. A. BACON, Teacher of Detroit Select School.

For the Chronicle.

I am right glad to see a movement making to clean Market street; it should have been done long ago. Let the occupants, one and all, direct that all dirt and paper should be deposited in the cellars or yard, instead of right in front of the sidewalk, which will half remedy the evil, and set a good example of neatness. What an intolerable and unnecessary nuisance we are and have been subjected to, on windy days, to have to wade through lots of waste paper, accompanied with the sweepers' dust; but let us have no more of it hereafter; let us have clean streets, and well watered. *

We may add;—that one poor man, or woman, (who is not too proud,) could earn good wages and "keep the wolf from the door," by picking up the paper that flies about our streets.

The same business partly maintains a number in Boston, and a large number in New York.

☞ The Stone Cutters are at work preparing for the new Custom House Fence. So we suppose the building may be occupied some time in 1860.

OLD OFFENDER.—'Albert Smith,' arrested for attempting to break into the Thompson Bank, Thompson, Conn., a day or two since, after a long chase and a violent resistance, turns out to be an old hand at the business of bank robbery. His real name is John W. Rand, who, as long ago as 1843, was arrested for robbing the Weymouth stage, and was sentenced to four years in the State Prison.

In 1854 he was arrested for robbing the Concord, N. H., Savings Bank, of several thousand dollars, but in this case his wife worked for him so effectually that he was released. He was twice arrested and carried to Norfolk, Va., for trial, on a charge of robbing the Portsmouth (Va.) Bank of a large amount of money, but on both occasions managed to escape from the jail.—He was next arrested for robbing a bank in New Jersey, but escaped there also without punishment. In 1857 he was arrested for robbing a bank at Frederickton, N. B., of the large sum of 96 thousand dollars.—Here he laid in jail there for some time, but was finally released on restoration of nearly the full amount stolen. He was afterwards seen at Montreal, but has been apparently resting upon his oars, until his reappearance in his old capacity at Thompson. In this case the arrest was made before the robbers had completed their preparations, and the charge will therefore be for the attempt merely.

THE FOWLER DEFALCATION looms up. New York dispatches of Tuesday show it to be $175,000. And Mr. Fowler, having recently been at Charleston, and since returned, has now disappeared.

It is said, and generally believed, that the great portion of Fowler's money was spent in 1856, to carry Pennsylvania for Buchanan. He was liberal to a fault in political contributions. It was under his patronage, and in his rooms that the celebrated New York Hotel meeting was held, at which an immense fund was raised just previous to the Presidential election, and Fowler was among the most liberal who gave.

Auditors at Washington must have known he was in arrears, for many month. The N. Y. Post thus explains the cause of Fowler's embezzlement of the public money:

The numerous friends of Mr. Fowler will be pained to hear of this disgrace; for he is a man of many generous and popular qualities. But he was preyed upon by the politicians by whom he was surrounded, and yielded to their solicitations. In this way he became embarrassed, and resorted to the official drawer to make good his imprudent loans and advances.

☞ Two columns of speculations in the papers of Tuesday—leave the nomination at Chicago as uncertain as if nothing had been said. They are very ingenious, but not very satisfactory.

Farewell, ye gilded follies, pleasing troubles;
Farewell, ye honored rags, ye glorious bubbles;
Fame's but a hollow echo; gold, pure clay;
Honor, the darling but of one short day;
Beauty, the eye's idol, but a damask'd skin;
State, but a golden prison to live in,
And torture free-born minds; embroidered trains
Merely but pageants for proud swelling veins;
And blood allied to greatness is alone
Inherited, not purchased, nor our own:
Fame, honor, beauty, state, brain, blood and birth,
Are but the fading blossoms of the earth.

JEWISH WEDDINGS.—Thursday last was known among the Jews as Lay Ber Omer (thirty-third day in Omer,) one of the two days allowed by Jewish law on which weddings may take place, between the second day of the Passover and the Feast of the Pentecost—the other wedding day in this period being the first of the month Ey-ar, which occurs a few days after Passover. This then is always a busy day for the Jewish ministers, and this year an unusually busy one, ninety couples having been joined in wedlock on this festival.—New York Sun.

☞ Peter McKenna, formerly publisher of the Catholic Instructor in Philadelphia, committed suicide in that city last week, by drowning himself. Business misfortunes are assigned as the cause of his distaste of life.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—A destructive fire occurred at Nebraska City last Saturday afternoon, consuming nearly all the business portion of the city, consisting of 42 prominent business houses, including the Post Office, with considerable mail matter, and the government land office, with nearly all its papers; also Nuckett's Hotel. Loss $125,000; insurance $70,000, mostly in Hartford, Ct., and St. Louis companies.

MOBILE, May 14.—Thirty-five of the leading and most prominent gentlemen of Mobile have signed a call for a State Convention, to be held at Selma, June 4, to select delegatet to the Convention to be held at Baltimore. It is signed by Gov. Winslow Forsyth, and others.

Robert C. McDonald, the murderer of Virginia Stewart, attempted suicide to-day. He is still living, but his recovery is considered hopeless.

SARGENT'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is free from all deleterious qualities, and perfectly harmless. Its use will not injure the skin, or the most delicate fabrics.

It saves labor, almost superseding the necessity of rubbing; washing can be done in about half the time, as the clothes do not require boiling; thus saving fuel and labor that is required by washing with other kinds of soap, and the necessity of having steam in the house.

Flannels and colored goods can be washed with the ease of cotton or linen, without fulling or shrinking. For washing and whitening Hosiery and Yarn, it is unequalled.

Grease spots of any kind removed in a short time from carpets and woolen goods.

It will instantly remove grease and dirt from paint without any water whatever; protecting windows, carpets and furniture from suds or slops. The worst bilge-water stains removed from paint immediately, by applying the soap with a sponge.

It supersedes the use of all polishing powders by imparting a brilliant lustre to Jewelry, Plate, etc.

For cleansing, softening or healing the skin, it is unequalled.

It is acknowledged by all who have tested its superior qualities, to be one of the greatest improvements of the age, and its use is indispensable to the comfort of every family, and the convenience of every hotel, ship, steamboat or laundry. For sale by

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all two have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed every thing I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
W. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three size viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 50 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ John Morrissey has published a card in the New York Herald, in which he denies that he cut the ropes when Heenan had Sayers in a tight place. He says the ropes were not cut at all, but the stakes were pulled out so that the ropes fell to the ground. He does not intimate whether he had anything to do with pulling the stakes out or not.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says that two Americans were heard talking of 'the fight,' and saying that, in spite of national feeling, they would not much lament that Heenan had not carried off the belt, for that if he had he would have run a good chance of the Presidency in the next election!

THE LAST POPE.—There is, and has been for years, a curious tradition in regard to Italy—that Pius the ninth would be the last Pope; and in illustration of this, I will repeat an anecdote related to me by a friend of mine. Several years ago, in the pontificate of Gregory XVI, this gentleman was in the cathedral of Siena, looking on the busts of the popes, that are placed, after their deaths, in a niche devoted to that purpose. Two empty niches then remained. "Why," said my friend, there is only room for two more busts: you will have to make some niches for those of the future popes." "O, no, signore, replied the cicerone, "they say that after these two, we shall never have any other popes." Gregory's bust now stands in one of these niches; the other is still empty.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when Infants are troubled with Wind Colic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATES, but is the only relieving preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain. It is perfectly harmless, an anti-spasmodic. It is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attack, nor future one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously manifested, mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, abuse of all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is transmitted in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which generates in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and other destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, HORNS OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular term "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is afflicted with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Fever, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from a hopeless and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and consequently serves too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Imperfections of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable form. Immoderate use of all medicines in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description can fully convey, and testimonials would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are at present in our mind. Numerous unmarried victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous extinction, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to sip and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, this preparation will prove invaluable to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must be necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorating tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local congestency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and generally malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and hectic fever of a lady, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known inhibities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and its recognition and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole category of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully beneficial effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box, for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

A DIFFICULT QUESTION ANSWERED.—"Can any reader of this paper tell why, when Eve was manufactured from one of Adam's ribs, a hired girl wasn't made at the same time to wait on her?"

We can, easy! Because Adam never came whining to Eve with a ragged stocking to be darned, a collar string to be sewed on, or a glove to be mended "right away, quick now!" Because he never read the newspaper until the sun got down behind the palm trees, and then stretched himself, yawning out, "Ain't supper most ready, my dear?" Not he. He made the fire and hung over the tea-kettle himself, we'll venture, and pulled the radishes, and peeled the bananas, and did everything else that he'd ought to! He milked the cows, and fed the chickens, and looked after the pigs himself. He never brought home half-a-dozen friends to dinner, when Eve hadn't any fresh pomegranates, and the mango season was over! He never stayed out until eleven o'clock to a "ward meeting," hurrahing for the out-and-out candidate, and then scolding because poor dear Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. To be sure he acted rather cowardly about apple-gathering time, but then that don't depreciate his general helpfulness about the garden! He never played billiards, nor drove fast horses, nor choked Eve with cigar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries while solitary Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home.—In short, he didn't think she was especially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten his wife's cares a little.

That's the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and we wish it was the reason that none of her fair descendants did!—Life Illustrated.

DIFFERENCES.—What a terribly monotonous and stupid world this would be if all people thought alike—if everything was harmonious and pretty, and instead of the rough and irregular existence that we live, we should have plane sailing and smooth water all our lives—if what we call evil were all abolished, and we were allowed to sit down with no more battles to fight!—There are many, however, who are looking forward to such a realization, and hope to see a millennium come fraught with supineness, though it would be unlike all that has given them happiness before, in the atmosphere of which they are to "rest," as they are disposed to regard it.

It is by the conflict of opposites that men grow—the "irrepressible conflict" that is necessary to strength and development; differences of opinion are as necessary as changes in the atmosphere or the season.—Bos. Sat. Eve. Gaz.

☞ The anniversaries held in New York last week are represented as not as interesting as in former years. Good speakers were scarce, and consequently audiences were small.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest comendation of its medical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints: Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 8 Cedar st. New York.

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

Price only 25 cents per bottle.

CLIPPER PLOWS

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!

These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.

We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring, by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."

Notwithstanding the immense advantage which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1860.

DOUGLAS AND DAVIS.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Tuesday, May 15, the special order, Mr. Davis' Territorial resolutions, came up. Mr. Douglas addressed the Senate.

He defined his position, and complained of so much of Senator Davis' speech as arraigned his conduct. He would take as his text certain extracts from the speech of that Senator, (Davis,) which he caused to be read. Douglas said the extracts read conclusively showed that the doctrine of popular sovereignty did not originate with him, but had been held by Cass and Dickinson. He was not aware that either Dickinson or Cass had modified his views. Yet his record was held up as though he stood alone, a heretic then, a heretic now, and unworthy of recognition in the regular Democratic family.

Mr. Douglas then went on to show the inconsistency and changeableness of the Democratic party, on Congressional intervention with slavery, and said if he could forgive them for their change of views, they ought to be willing to forgive him for an adherence to his own principles. He also showed up Mr. Davis, in his crooked course.

Mr. Douglas said the Democracy pardoned Mr. Davis on the ground of his acquiescence in the compromise measures, and he granted him quarter.

Mr. Davis (with intense feeling)—"I scorn your quarter."

Mr. Douglas—Yes; as I scorned yours the other day. He thought it strange that those who had been forgiven should now undertake to proscribe. The Democracy had no intention now to proscribe those who entered into their organization, and were willing to support the regular nominee. He then took up the Kansas-Nebraska bill, to show that the same doctrine of non-intervention entered into that, and read the Georgia resolutions of '54, after its passage, to show that the country understood the measure as he did. The House of Representatives understood it in the same way, and Mr. Richarson, who reported the bill, was made the Democratic candidate for Speaker at the next session. He believed he was as sound on the question as Mr. Richardson.

Who had changed since then? Was it he? No! If Southern men had changed their minds, he had no fault to find; but they, having done so, ought honestly to avow it. If he could forgive them for changing, could they not magnanimously forgive him for adhering to their former doctrines? He did not believe the Alabama Democracy would follow the lead of Mr. Yancey any more than in 1848.

Mr. Douglas exhibited signs of exhaustion, and gave way to an adjournment.

The HOUSE passed a resolution, by a vote of 97 to 77, declaring Mr. Cooper, of Michigan, not entitled to a seat; also, a resolution, 92 to 77, giving the seat to Mr. Howard, who was sworn in.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Post Office deficiency bill. The bill appropriates $13,000,000—$7,694,000 of which is for inland mail service. The Postmaster General is to restore the service on all routes under the contract of March 4th, 1859. This was debated at length, when the Committee rose. Without concluding the subject, the House adjourned.

A GREAT DEMOCRATIC MEETING was held at Lowell, Wednesday evening, where the Post's report says 2000 persons were present to listen to the report of Gen. Butler, one of the delegates to Charleston.

The Atlas report says the meeting was noisy, and Gen. Butler, during his speech, was frequently interrupted by the dissatisfied Democrats, and there was great confusion. But Gen. Butler sustained himself well, and defended his course vigorously.—He said his choice was Douglas, but he had sacrificed him to principle, and was ready to do so again.

A squatter sovereignty resolution was laid on the table, but a vote was adopted, tendering to Gen. Butler a vote of thanks for his services in the national convention.

It is not expected that Gen. Butler will resign, although the pressure upon him is very hard; and there is much difference of opinion among the Democrats in relation to the policy pursued at Charleston.

THE "INTERNATIONAL" FIGHT.—It has been stated that Heenan and Sayers, who "represented" England and America at the late great prize-fight, are both Irishmen.—But Heenan was born in Troy, New York,—though of Irish parents; and Tom Sayers' father says that the rumors as to his being of Irish descent are utterly unfounded. He was born at Steyning, Sussex, and his ancestors for many years were inhabitants of the same county, on both sides. So, whatever the opponents of fisticuffs may say, they should state the truth.

☞ The funeral of Hon. S. G. Goodrich, at Southbury, Conn., on Sunday afternoon last, was attended by a vast concourse of people. Two hundred Sunday School children headed the procession to escort the remains of Peter Parley to the grave.

THE CATTLE DISTEMPER

In Massachusetts has assumed a most alarming character; and its fatality affords another proof that very much of medical science, so called, is guess-work.

The Massachusetts State Board of Agriculture held a meeting at the State House, in Boston, on Tuesday, Hon. Marshall P. Wilder presiding.

The Commissioners have great fears, that notwithstanding all their efforts, the disease may extend its ravages. Its central point was the farm of Leonard Stoddard in North Brookfield, to which an infected Dutch calf was brought from the herd of Mr. Chenery in Belmont. The disease is now more or less prevalent in all the towns immediately adjoining North Brookfield.

The number of persons owning cattle infected, as already ascertained, is 75, and the number of animals killed or doomed was 750. The disease is something more than the proper pleuro-pneumonia, and is evidently contagious wherever animals are exposed, but there is no proof that it is epidemic from any atmospheric causes. Dr. Bowditch, a celebrated Boston physician, publicly expresses his regret that the commissioners have not adopted a plan to establish a hospital, and thoroughly and scientifically study the manner, and try means of cure. An opportunity will then be given to the poor animals to recover; or if not, mercy would be thus shown to the poor owners, by permitting their stock to live instead of destroying it by wholesale, as it is proposed to slaughter Mr. Chenery's herd, some of whom have have apparently gone through the disease, and are recovering!

A YANKEE BURNT AT THE STAKE IN TEXAS.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Buchanan, Texas, gives the particulars of the burning at the stake of a young white man, a colporteur, and a supposed Yankee, who had with him a wagon load of books, consisting of bibles, standard religious works, and a few copies of Helper's Crisis. The victim was stripped, covered with tar, tied to a tree over his own wagon, which was filled with fagots and tar, and then set on fire. There was a pretence that he gave a forged pass to a runaway slave.

☞ Rev. Dr. Whittemore, while preaching in the First Universalist Church, Lowell, Sunday, was overcome with sudden illness, which compelled him to call upon Rev. Mr. Twiss, the pastor, to finish out the discourse; which the latter did, taking it up at the point where Mr. Whittemore left it, and carrying it through to the satisfaction of all present. Mr. Whittemore recovered so far as to address the congregation before the close of the services. He said that he did not anticipate but that he should be able to occupy the pulpit for some years yet; that it was only a nausea of the stomach which had overcome him a few minutes before, and he had yet many sermons to preach.

HORSE RACE AT SAUGUS.—Several hundred persons were present at the Franklin Course in Saugus, on Tuesday, to assist at a running match, one mile and repeat, for a purse of $500, divided into three parts—of $400, $75 and $25. The affair was strictly private, and by the judicious distribution of tickets, a select and pleasant company was brought together. There were four entries of thoroughbreds owned in Boston, as follows: Lady Fairfield, White Eye, Adelaide, and Blueskin. The race resulted in the triumph of Adelaide in two straight heats. Time 1:57 and 1:57 1-2.—Lady Fairfield came in second and White Eye third, in both heats.

ABORTION.—Much excitement exists in Haverhill on account of the sudden death of a Miss Caroline C. Roswell, as is stated, from abortion procured by a physician of Haverhill and one of Newburyport. The Haverhill physician has left for parts unknown, and the other was examined before the Newburyport Police Court on Monday. The prosecution is by order of the Selectmen of Haverhill; but the Herald says, "as it is usually difficult to substantiate such charges, it is doubtful if anything is gained by it. If rumor tells half the truth, deaths from the same cause are not unfrequent."

TAKEN IN AND DONE FOR.—Timothy Looney, of Portland, while in Boston, on Wednesday, with $147 in his pockets, was enticed by a stranger into Hugh Galligher's place, North street, where he was induced to partake a glass of drugged ale. He soon became stupefied, and, while in that condition, was robbed of his money by two females. The girls were subsequently arrested, but Looney could not get back his money.

☞ A petition to Congress is now in circulation in New York city, asking that a law be passed permitting copper coins, either of the large or small issue, to be returned to the United States mint, and their value either in gold or silver, paid to the holder. Many business persons are overstocked with pennies to such an extent that they cannot get rid of them except at a large sacrifice.

A HOUSE FOR SALE AND SOMETHING MORE.—The following characteristic advertisement, from Solomon Sturges, Esq., formerly of Zanesville, Ohio, appeared in the Chicago Press and Tribune of the 21st ult.:—

Editor Press and Tribune:

I want, my dear sir, to sell one or both of my houses at the corner of Pine and Huron Streets, north side. I want money, but I will sell them without money, — and almost without price. When I commenced those houses, my wife was living, and I fondly hoped I should die before she did.—She has "gone before," and the HOMES have no charm for me. They are too high, too showy, and have too many MODERN CONVENIENCES to suit me. Some one, on looking over the corner house before it was finished, said it had seven hundred miles of LEAD PIPE, in it. I believe he lied! I don't believe there is half as much. Did you ever LIE? No? I don't believe you. WE WILL ALL LIE.

As soon as my wife returned to Ohio from our trip to Lake Superior in the summer of 1858, she wrote to me, "Husband, if I am to move to Chicago, the sooner you build me a house, the better I shall be suited. We have had as good a house as any of our neighbors here, and I want as good a one there."

The next morning I had the saddle on "Kate" rather early, rode out to Dunlap & Co.'s brick yard, (4 miles,) waked up Dunlap, gave him a good scolding for sleeping so late, bargained with him for 300,000 bricks, and was back to my son's house, on Ohio street, before the family had their morning's devotions, and long before breakfast was ready. My contract for stones was made the same day, and the house commenced the next one. You, my dear sir, are a husband. Is there a greater pleasure in the world than that enjoyed by a husband in doing just as his wife wishes him, even if he does, sometimes, do very foolish things, and even build such fine houses, that it may almost bankrupt him in paying for them. Were you ever guilty of such folly? I trust not; if you have, then you will know how to exercise CHRISTIAN CHARITY in judging me.

But the houses are very perfect—that is so. Filled with all sorts of "MODERN IMPROVEMENTS." Let me see how many kinds of Baths. The "SHOWER." I don't know the use of it, for I always run to get out of a shower, if I see one coming. The DOUCHE? I presume Mr. Weelock (the best Architect in Chicago, as I am told,) can tell what it is for. I believe they are used in PENITENTIARIES for incorrigible sinners, that nothing else will tame, and I suppose it is put in my house to tame naughty children; or perhaps, to "tame a Shrew." The Hot Bath. The Cold Bath. These are old fashioned institutions, we all know about. The "Berdet Bath." This will require a dissertion in French to explain. It has lately been imported into Boston, as my lying "Plumber," told me.—It must have cost at least the price of a good farm, and of course it must be exceedingly useful. Mr. Weelock said I could appeal to Dr. Brainard, who has spent five years in Paris, and he would know all about it. I knew if it cost a great deal of money, my ladies would want it, so I went it blind. Some one has told me that it would save its cost every year in DOCTOR'S BILLS. That if you used it, you would never need medicine or DOCTORS. As I would make any sacrifice to keep clear of Doctors, I let the farms go without complaint. The "minor baths" I cannot take time to describe. I believe one of the Bath Rooms cost me about Three Thousand Dollars (including the stealings). What is three thousand dollars? Why, nothing but filthy lucre, not to be thought of for a moment, when the health of one of God's ANGELS, is to be preserved or restored by the "Bedet Bath." Then the "Plunge." O! Cæsar. When God has given us such a "Plunge" as "Lake Michigan"—that we must have a Miniature Lake in our cellar. I guess that did not cost over a hundred dollars, and I have fitted it up in disgust.—If any one, Messrs. Editors, wants a palace with all modern improvements, and more too, I want to sell them one, for I am exceedingly anxious to get out of the city, on to "Barry Point Ridge," and into a DOUBLE LOG CABIN—just such as old Tippecanoe lived in at "North Bend." I want to live for a few years in simple Quaker simplicity, in a good "Log Cabin," the best house a man ever lived in. Do help me out of the scrape.

Your friend, SOLOMON STURGES.

☞ On Tuesday, at the jail in New York City, Robert C. Macdonald, the young Southerner, who was in confinement awaiting trial for the murder of Virginia Stewart, his paramour, on the 4th of last August,—committed suicide by poisoning,—sad end of a sadder life. Since the passage of the recent act, abolishing the death penalty, except in cases of clearly premeditated murder, the deceased had often threatened to take his life in preference to lingering for years in the State Prison. He was 29 years old, and belonged to a respected family in Alabama.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The nomination of Calhoun Benham as District Attorney for California, was confirmed in the Senate by a vote of 29 to 17, the Republicans voting in the negative. Mr. Hamlin called for a division by yeas and nays, and Mr. Wilson assigned as a reason against the confirmation that Benham was a second in the fatal duel against Broderick. Mr. Douglas was absent when the call commenced, but was sent for and came in. After asking the reason which induced a division, he said being concerned in a duel was not sufficient cause for rejection, and voted for the confirmation.

Mr. Browne, associate editor of the Constitution was examined to-day before the Covode Committee. He admitted having held office in the New York Custom House for about five months, at a salary of nearly $1200, but could not tell whether his whole service in that period amounted to one week's actual duty, or averaged a single day in each week.

☞ In the inquest on Miss. Tirrell, supposed to be poisoned by one Hersey, at Weymouth, Mass.,—it appears that Hersey went to Boston about four weeks ago, and purchased some strychnine from an apothecary on Hanover street. He remained in the store an hour, and had a long conversation, and bought a few other articles, such as perfumery, a hair brush, &c. He remarked that he might be a good customer, and just before he went out he asked for the strychnine, and it was given to him without suspicion. He bought in a small bottle containing one-eighth of an ounce.

In consequence of pregnancy discovered, in the case of Elizabeth, who died last,—it was decided to disinter the body of Miss Mary Tirrell, the sister who died about four months ago, and to have an examination of the body;—accordingly she has been disinterred, and examination is going on. The result of the autopsy induces the belief that the deceased died from the effects of poison administered for the purpose of procuring abortion. Hersey is in jail, charged with the murder of Elizabeth. He has of late evinced a religious turn of mind, borrowing books upon religious subjects, and was preparing to join the church. He makes no complaint of the fare at the jail, and says it will all come out right.

Sargent's Magic Soap!

It is free from all deleterious qualities, and perfectly harmless. Its use will not injure the skin, or the most delicate fabrics.

It saves labor, almost superseding the necessity of rubbing; washing can be done in about half the time, as the clothes do not require boiling, thus saving fuel and labor that is required by washing with other kinds of soap, and the necessity of having steam in the house.

Flannels and colored goods can be washed with the ease of cotton or linen, without fulling or shrinking. For washing and whitening Hosiery and Yarn, it is unequalled.

Grease spots of any kind removed in a short time from carpets and woolen goods.

It will instantly remove grease and dirt from paint without any water whatever; protecting windows, carpets and furniture from suds or slops. The worst filge-water stains removed from paint immediately, by applying the soap with a sponge.

It supersedes the use of all polishing powders by imparting a brilliant lustre to Jewelry, Plate, etc.

For cleansing, softening or healing the skin, it is unequalled.

It is acknowledged by all who have tested its superior qualities, to be one of the greatest improvements of the age, and its use is indispensable to the comfort of every family, and the convience of every hotel, ship, steamboat or laundry.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful as true as life itself, at

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (ebrotype pictures, are taken at this establishment, with double lens Cameras, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontiorum nos.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofula in the Throat, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1835.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St. for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the 'Peruvian Syrup.' It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cure of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt quite a change for the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

W. A. BACON, Teacher of Detroit Select School.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. F. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 4wd&w

LIBRARY FOR THE COUNTY JAIL IN THIS CITY.—Messrs. Editors:—It has long been the wish of some of our citizens to have a suitable Library provided for the benefit of the prisoners who from time to time are lodged in our jail. We are happy to say that a good beginning has recently been made in this work. Some two hundred and forty volumes have already been collected, more than a hundred of which were presented by the Young Men's Temperance Association, which has recently been disbanded. The remainder have been given by a few friends who have contributed liberally to this object.

Mr. Adams, the keeper of the jail, has furnished a suitable book-case, and has established a system for the giving out of these books to the prisoners which we think will be likely to secure their preservation and safe return.

The subscriber has taken pleasure in making some efforts to collect this library, from the assurance he feels that it will prove the means of great moral and intellectual good to the unfortunate individuals who may at any time be incarcerated there. He has taken this method to call the attention of the public to this subject, and would invite any of our citizens who have books suitable for the library, which they feel they could spare, to send them to his residence, 66 Market street. He will see that all volumes entrusted to his care are properly placed in the case with the books already collected. N. MEDBERY.

Portsmouth, May 15, 1860.

GOOD TEAMS.—The two handsomest work teams in this city are those attached to the Breweries of M. Fisher & Co., and Frank Jones; and although we can't command or rejoice at the people's taste which calls for such an amount of beer to be circulated—yet we do like to see a handsome rig-out, while the proprietors are about it.

SADDLERY GOODS.—The substantial and handsome harness of Frank Jones' new Brewery team, are from Larrabee's Saddlery establishment—which is hard to beat for anything in that line, whether for fancy or service. See his advertisement of new goods, of which he has a large and excellent stock.

☞ We learn that Isaiah Hanscom, Esq., U. S. Naval Constructor, has been ordered to the Naval Station at Portsmouth, N. H.; to which position he will be warmly welcomed by his numerous friends in this vicinity.

☞ At the annual meeting of the Universalist Society in this city, it was unanimously voted to add $200 to the salary of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Patterson. The salary is now $1200.

FOWLER'S MANIA.—The New York Herald says of Fowler, the defaulter:—

It is alleged that Mr. Fowler had a mania for speculating in new patents for sewing machines, steamboat propellers, car brakes, &c; and that since his connection with the Post Office he has owned no less than twelve or fifteen patents, of which but one turned out a success, and that the car brake speculation, which is now being used with success, and whose value, it is alleged, with the indemnification of his sureties ($75,000) will nearly, if not quite, balance his account with the government.

Mr. Fowler was born at Newburgh, N. Y., practiced law for fifteen years, up to the time of his appointment of Postmaster at New York, and ranked as one of the most correct, prompt and reliable lawyers attached to the New York bar. He has ever been active in New York politics, and for the last four years the leader of the Tammany Hall branch of the Democracy, and the present Grand Sachem of the Tammany Society, and has always been regarded as one of the "wheel horses" of the "soft shell Democracy." He is a man of fine talents, possessing much tact and great energy of character—liberal to a fault—which has no doubt about aided greatly in his present embarrassment. He is forty-five years of age, and a bachelor.

The Boston Post's New York correspondent, speaking of the defaulting Postmaster, says:

Mr. Fowler's friends have known for years that he had not property. His personal expenses have never been large, for any other purposes than politics. Within the last two years it has been observed that he lived with much frugality for him. He has been constrained by his position as leader of the Democracy of New York to expend much money in elections, and for all party objects, but it was not generally supposed that he was paying out more than his salary.

OPENING OF THE CONVENTION.—Chicago, May 16—12 o'clock.—Hon. E. D. Morgan of New York, chairman of the Republican National Committee, called the Convention to order at 12 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Read of California, David Wilmot of Pennsylvania was chosen temporary President.

The sessions are held in a Wigwam erected for the purpose, capable of holding 10,000 persons. The delegations marched in procession to the Wigwam. Great enthusiasm prevails.

The city is thronged with strangers, and the visitors amount to about 40,000.

☞ That fugitive slave who honored the S. R. Spalding with his presence from Charleston to Boston, and who escaped from thence to Canada, is named Norris.—He was a steam engineer, and was let out for $60 per month.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Japanese Princes have a letter from Yeddo, handsomely written in English, asking their introduction to the President through the State Department. They are accredited full Envoys Extraordinary. They visit the State Department to-morrow, and will be formally received by the President on Thursday.

It is of the utmost importance, as every dairywoman knows, to have a Churn well made, and free from imperfection of the wood that will retain any particles of cream to become sour, and spoil the flavor of the butter. None but the best of material is used in constructing these Churns, and every one is perfect before being sent to market.

The farmers in our vicinity are using these Churns very extensively, and award to them the highest commendation.

Morning Chronicle.

GARIBALDI, by the annexation of Nice to Savoy, loses his seat in the Sardinian Chambers, but will probably get another seat at Turin at the supplementary elections. They tell a funny story about him. On the eve of his departure from Nice for Turin to take his seat in the Parliament, a grand dinner was given to him at the hotel, and at its conclusion two carriages came to the door, one for Garibaldi and the other for his trunks. The servants were sent to his room for his baggage, and soon returned, ostentatiously bearing a pair of doctor's saddle-bags, miserably dilapidated, containing two shirts, two handkerchiefs and two pairs of socks. With this extensive wardrobe, Garibaldi departed for Turin, as the representative of Nice.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection of the throat or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that when you pain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Consciousness or other Fits. As you value the health or life of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of anodynes, or which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; it is perfectly safe, it is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing even the aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, it removes all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor tissue one which it may not disorder. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filthy habits, and filthy habits, the direct, or any vice, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, or other internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which renders the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active vegetables that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND DYSPEPTIC DISTRESS, BONES ON ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "purifying the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of their properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and efficacious.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use, to all who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and efficacious.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the range of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known to have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies have gone into disuse, others have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy and consequent sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted lunacy or benighted land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of chronic complaints, one total

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1860.

THE JAPANESE AT WASHINGTON.—Whether drawing is natural to the Japanese, or whether the delegation sent out have been selected for their ability in this art, is not stated; but their expertness in sketchings and drawings of everything which they see, and the rapidity with which they execute the work, is matter of surprise to all spectators.

On their arrival at Washington, they would not land until the historian of the Embassy had written out an account of the events of the moment, and till the draftsmen could complete their sketches of the interesting scenes around them. The historian had his broze ink-stand hanging to his dress, and a roll of paper some yards in length, indeed of indefinite length. This was the opening of a new chapter. He slipped a small brush out of the handle of the ink-stand, and commenced writing with great diligence, and rapidity, and neatness. Great importance was evidently attached to this record, and no doubt it is under positive instructions.

The personnel of the Japanese party is striking. They are in appearance effeminate,and very like the better looking squaws of our Indian tribes. They do not look as if they could fight, though they might run.—They are but Oriental foxes among Anglo-Saxon wolves. Everybody is struck by their apparent good nature and their polite manners.

For the Weekly Chronicle.

DRUNKENNESS AND ITS CAUSE.—On my way, not many days ago, I saw a man lying near his door-step, drunk. The family at home consisted only of himself and his wife. His wife alone could not get him into the house, if she had wished. Perhaps, indeed, she pitched him out when she found him drunk, that those who passed might see what rum-sellers were doing in one single case. Any way, it was a terrible exhibition of their work of ruin.

In reflection, I cast back to find some of the causes of this man's intemperance. I knew his father. He was a member of a Church, but drank, and sometimes to intoxication. And so the iniquity of fathers is visited upon their children. Not unfrequently the withering curse of Heaven will come upon Church members who practice using intoxicating liquors.

Then I took a view of the present. This man, who was drunk, is not a member of a church, but he has a son who is, and it is said he at times drinks of "the cup of devils." He has a son-in-law, also a church member, who occasionally is intoxicated. O, what a state of things! I entreat church members not to touch, taste or handle those drinks that cause drunkenness.

I had thought to speak of the future, but the heart sickens and is pained at what already appears. Tipplers are training their posterity for drunkenness and its horrid train of evils. Try, all ye who can, to save as many as possible from the doom of intemperance. J.

REV. LUTHER F. DIMMICK, D. D., pastor of the North Congregational Church, in Newburyport, died on Wednesday, May 16, in that city, aged 69 years. On the previous Sunday he was taken ill in the pulpit, and, unable to deliver his sermon, had to be assisted home; his illness was not then reported to be dangerous, but it proved to be ossification of the heart, of which he died after three days' illness. He was a native of Oneida county, New York; was an early graduate of Hamilton College, at Utica; was ordained at Newburyport in 1819, as successor of Dr. Spring, and had completed forty years in the ministry as pastor of one congregation, by whom he was held in high esteem.

CATTLE DISEASE AT WATERVILLE, ME.—The Skowhegan Clarion says that a valuable cow belonging to Mr. David Shorey, of Waterville, died on the 10th inst., under circumstances which led to a post mortem investigation. On opening her it was found the wind pipe presented the appearance of Gutta Percha, and that the lungs were a mass of liquid corruption.—The symptoms were first, difficult breathing, then loss of the use of her limbs; and are identical with those among cattle in Mass.

MORMONISM IN NEW ENGLAND.—A Man with Four Wives.—Perkins, alias Frank Hays, alias Henry Brown, was arrested in Groveland, Mass., a few days since, for the crime of having more wives than the law allows. He has a wife in Derry, another in Concord, and one in Danvers. Recently, he made selection of a fourth wife, in the person of a young girl in Groveland.

THE BIBLE.

ILLUSTRATIONS OF SCRIPTURE; suggested by a Tour through the Holy Land. By Horatio B. Hackett, D. D., Professor of Biblical Literature in Newton Theological Institution. New and revised edition. Boston: Gould & Lincoln.—364 pages, 12 mo.

This new edition of an extremely interesting and valuable book, is not a mere reprint of the former—but additions have been made, the result in part of a second visit to some of the localities of the bible.—New engravings are also inserted.

The title gives a general idea of the contents; and the purpose of the book is modestly stated in the Preface, where it is said that "the writer has been induced to prepare this volume in the hope that it may be useful to general readers of the Bible. The journey in Egypt and Palestine, out of which it has grown, was performed in the spring and summer of 1852, and a greater part of the contents were written out for the press more than a year ago, but unavoidable circumstances have delayed the publication until the present time. The work does not claim to be a book of travels, and would be misjudged if viewed in that light. The object has been to make this account of the journey to the reader, as nearly as possible what the journey itself was to the writer in the prosecution of it,—a means of illustrating the Scripture, throwing light upon obscure passages, bringing vividly before the mind the scenes of sacred history, tracing out the proofs of the accuracy of the Bible in its allusions, customs, narratives, geographical notices; and, in general, putting us more exactly in the situation of the inspired writers, and thus enabling us the better to understand and appreciate their spirit and meaning."

An examination shows this purpose to be carried out by "a workman that needs not to be ashamed."

The author further informs us, in his preface, that "it has been necessary, in order to keep before the mind the connection between Palestine and the Bible, to quote numerous passages of Scripture; the frequency of these citations forms one peculiar feature of the work. It has been the author's rule to compare the passages with the Hebrew and Greek, and, without seeking occasion to depart from the common version, he has not hesitated to change the language in some instances where the meaning of the original, or perspicuity, seemed to require it."

In several of these instances, very slight changes have rescued a beautiful passage from obscurity that before seemed hopeless.

"The engravings, which have been inserted at the request of the publisher, cannot be otherwise than acceptable to the reader. They are not original, but have been copied from works of an approved character. None have been selected except of objects or places which the writer has seen, so as to enable him to judge of the accuracy of the representations."

The work will commend itself to every intelligent reader who gets hold of it; no professor, and no tyro, can be found, who may not derive pleasure and profit from its perusal.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for June will be published on Friday. The contents will be as follows:—The Future of American Railways, by Thomas C. Clarke, C. E. In a Fog, by E. H. House. The Granadian Girl's Song, by the author of "The Amber Gods," "Sir Rohan's Ghost," etc.,etc.—The Humming Bird. Spring Song, by Aubrey de Vere, London. Chess, by M. D. Conway, Cincinnati. Model Lodging Houses in Boston, by Charles E. Norton. A Short Campaign on the Hudson, by F. Sheldon. Thine, by Florence Percy. The Representative Art, by Adam Badeau.—Roba di Roma—The Evil Eye, etc., by W. W. Story. Pythagoras, by T. B. Aldrich. Clarian's Picture, by Edward Spencer. Japan, by E. H. House. The Vineyard Saint, by Bayard Taylor. The Professor's Story. The Sphinx's Children, by Miss Rose Terry. Reviews and literary notices.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for June, is another superlative No. The frontispiece is "Children gathering water-lilies," a splendid engraving. This number contains:—"The Art of Swimming," very useful for the coming season; "Draperies, Curtains and Blinds," illustrated; "Drawing Lessons," illustrated; "Wonderful Things," illustrated; &c.

☞ Dr. Tilton of Newburyport, for procuring miscarriage and death of Miss Roswell, of Haverhill, was held to bail in the sum of $2000 to answer. The deceased was about twenty years of age, and has worked in the shoe manufactory of William Luce, at Newburyport. A Haverhill physician is suspected of having had a knowledge of the cause of her death.

☞ A disposition is manifested to get up a handsome purse for Heenan in this country. A meeting has been held in New York,with a view of obtaining subscriptions, through committees, in all the large cities, to the extent of $25,000, of which $5000 has already been subscribed.

"That's part of the sinking fund," as the chap said when a box off specie went to the bottom of the river.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

CHICAGO, May 17.—The Convention came to order at 10 o'clock A. M. The pressure of outsiders was greater than ever, who, when Mr. Giddings entered, greeted him with great applause.

Prayer was offered by Rev. G. Patten of Chicago.

A letter was read as follows:—"Can you not send some able speakers outside to entertain 20,000 Republicans and their wives. We cannot get in." (Great applause.)

Mr. Corwin of Ohio, from the Committee on the Order of Business, reported eight rules: 1st, as to the order in which States shall be called; 2d, the vote of each man to be reported by the Chairman of his delegation; 3d, the platform to be acted on before the nomination; 4th, 304 votes—a majority of the whole Electoral College—shall be necessary for a nomination (hisses and cheers; 5th, the rules of the House of Representatives shall be adopted. The 4th rule was greeted with cheers, and 'no' from the Seward men, and much confusion.

Mr. Jameson of New York said the 4th rule was only adopted in committee by one majority, and he proposed to present a minority report, that the majority of the whole number of votes in the convention only shall be necessary for a nomination.

The rules were taken up in order.

Mr. Carter of Ohio moved to lay the report on the table in order to receive the report of the Committee on Credentials.

Mr. ——of New Hampshire presented the report of the Committee on Credentials. They recommend the admission of the delegates from Kansas, Nebraska, and the District of Columbia, but leave it to the Convention to decide if they may vote.

Timothy Davis of Mass. moved to refer so much of the report as related to the Texas delegation back to the committee.

Mr. Wilmot of Pa. moved to recommit Kentucky and Virginia, as there was no constituency behind them, and it was not proper for them to come here and control this Convention. This was a Republican Convention, and that party was to elect the candidate if he was to be elected at all.—If those delegates were admitted into the National Convention, there would be gentlemen here from every Southern State,not elected by anybody, brought up by Northern influence. What he wanted was that the representatives of the Republican party here should vote, and that a majority of their votes alone should be necessary for a nomination. He also included Kansas, Nebraska and the District of Columbia in his motion.

Very warm remarks were made by Mr. Palmer of Md., Blakely of Ky., and others.

Mr. Wilmot replied that such practices would demoralize and break up the republican party. One mischievous rule had adopted, when these were admitted, and the other objectionable rule requiring a majority of all the States of the Union to nominate, grew out of this.

May 17, 1 P. M.—Mr. Seward on the first ballot will probably have from 100 to 180 votes out of the 448 to be cast. Balloting is expected this afternoon.

2 P. M.—Dispatch to Traveller.—The debate on the Southern delegations, was continued. Finally, the report was recommitted:

In favor of recommittal	275
Against "	172

The vote was taken by States. Seward delegations generally voted No.

☞ Our rain—where is it? Non est, in this vicinity, although we are informed that Newburyport, Greenland, Rye, and about all the places lying west of us have been visited with copious showers. Last Sabbath—which was the hottest day we have had this season—ended with a bountiful shower in Greenland, Rye, and the adjacent towns. We believe we have had no rain in this city, save a very slight shower in the first part of this month, since April 8th. Nearly six weeks without water enough to lay the dust! Such a drought at this season of the year, is beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant. But we have heavy dews, for which we should feel grateful until we get something more substantial. As it is, the trees are putting forth their leaves and blossoms, the grass is making a luxurious green carpet under our feet, and, barring a little superfluous dust, dame Nature is in pretty good trim.—Let us wait with patience, and we will soon have the one thing needful—rain. ***

☞ The railroad bridge on the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad, over the Pemigewassett, at Holderness, was nearly destroyed by fire on Monday night. The fire took from the engine of the cattle train. The running of the passenger cars will not be interrupted.

PHENIX HOTEL, CONCORD, N. H.—Visitors to Concord, N. H., are advised to stop at the Phenix, one of the best hotels for which New Hampshire is celebrated.—Messrs. Corning & Dumas, both well known to the public, are proprietors, and as the house is a new one, in perfect order, and their experience large, they are sure to please their guests, if they are not of that fretful order which nothing can suit.—Traveller.

☞ Many of our New England farmers think it pays well to sow a little Plaster of Paris on their garden and grain fields when the season is very dry.

HEENAN IN ENGLAND.—He is soon to commence his harvest by giving exhibitions, and may be assured of coining money by his mill for months to come. He is burning for another fight, but it is considered certain that Sayers would be whipped, and it will not be permitted.

Perley telegraphs to the Journal that Caleb Cushing is in Washington, and that it is confidently predicted that enough seceders will be sent back to Baltimore to secure the defeat of Douglas. To kill Douglas is more important to the office holders and fire-eaters, than to save the democratic party.—Bath Times.

CONGRESS.

In the U. S. Senate, Wednesday, May 16, Mr. Green, from the Committee on Territories, reported the House bill for the admission of Kansas into the Union, without recommendation.

M. Hale offered a resolution calling on the Postmaster General for all the facts relative to the Defalcation of Postmaster Fowler. Adopted.

Mr. Davis' resolution was then taken up, when Mr. Douglas resumed his speech, further explaining the Kansas Nebraska bill.

Mr. Douglas concluded his speech—The Charleston Convention decided that he was its choice as candidate for the presidency. He had no desire for that office. He preferred a seat in the Senate. His name would never have been presented at Charleston, but for an attempt to proscribe him. He was forced to allow his name to be used in self defence.

Mr. Douglas denounced dissolution, and again argued in favor of non-intervention, under which the South had got slave territory up to latitude 38, when in '49 and '50 they only claimed up to 36 30. It was the only platform upon which he could stand.—

It was not susceptible of two constructions. The only difference was as to a judicial question, which would be settled by the Courts.

Mr. Davis replied, denying Mr. Douglas' statement that Charleston seceders contemplated disunion. The Senator from Illinois was like the witness on the stand, who commenced at the Deluge, and had gone over a vast extent of ground, but had not come down to the present time. The Supreme Court had made all the decision it could make on a political question, and it was now necessary that public men should declare their sentiments.

Without Mr. Davis concluding his reply, the Senate went into an Executive session, after which it adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House proceded to the consideration of the bill providing for the safety of passengers on steamboats.

On motion of Mr. Morrill of Ill., the House adopted a resolution calling on the Postmaster General for all the facts relative to the defalcation of Postmaster Fowler.

The King of Sardinia was at Bologna, where he met an enthusiastic reception.—The Lydicas has made him presents amounting to five million francs, the product of a voluntary contribution.

Belgium has offered Turkey 40,000,000 francs for the island of Cyprus.

England and France have sent an energetic note to the Porte, demanding 3,000,000 francs as an indemnity for the Jeddah massacre.

BALLOT VS. CHRONICLE.—The Ballot, a few weeks ago, for the twentieth time say, unprovokedly attacked the Chronicle. We responded, as we are apt to do, when we feel like it. Our amiable friend finally said he should not enter on a long discussion,—which he himself started; and this week says he "shall not attempt a reply to our article"—and yet accuses us of "backing out of the controversy." Wonder if he has forgotten "the windmill discussion?"—Also how he censured the Chronicle for its Americanism, and afterwards hoisted the K. N. flag himself? One paper is enough for a man to edit, neighbor; and those persons who interfere with other people's business, are not apt to be well received.

☞ We have had no rain worth mentioning since Sunday, April 8; and then not a great rain in this city. At this writing, Thursday, May 17, at 3 P. M., the wind is from the South, with a slight leaning from the East, and not a cloud to be seen.

This entire cloudless sky, by the way, used to be an old farmer's sign of rain; our farmers, young and old, now, are praying for rain.

☞ It is not, perhaps, to be wondered at, that the Exeter Ballot should not relish the County Fair being held in Portsmouth; but it would seem that the press here, as well as other people, might find it for the interest of Portsmouth, to aid the affair all in their power—as we have no doubt they will.

☞ The editor of the Ballot seems particularly fond of styling the editor of the Chronicle "responsible." Much obliged for the compliment—after which, of course, he must acknowledge that all our "guaranties" are "good."

☞ Our tax-payers growl at the taxes in Portsmouth—which were last year about 9-10ths of 1 per cent; but we see by the Exeter Ballot, that the rate in that town, is 1 and 1-5th per cent. In Portland, we believe it is upwards of 2 per cent.

☞ If the "responsible editor" of the Chronicle "does not independently advocate his own political sentiments, nor defend his own opinions"—won't the Ballot be so kind as to inform us whose sentiments and opinions he (the Chronicle) does advocate?

Something to A-maze.—Love is a labyrinth in which every man is Miss-led.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—The Chronicle, the responsible editor of which is one of the Directors of the Rockingham Fair, says the time for holding the fall exhibition is fixed for Sept. 19th and 20th, and that $500 has been "guaranteed from the citizens of Portsmouth." The editor of the Chronicle, we understand, has guarantied it from the citizens of Portsmouth, but the citizens have not guarantied it;—and we have heard several who were active in getting up the last one here, declare they would not have anything to do with another. The editor of the Chronicle is not the "organ" of the citizens of Portsmouth, and they have given no such guaranty as that paper refers to.—Ballot.

Really,—"how d'ye hear," neighbor?—The citizens "have not given any such guaranty," hey? Perhaps the Ballot man can prove a negative—for the first time in history. But granted, for the sake of discussion, that they havn't—and that "the responsible editor of the Chronicle has"—let us see how the case stands.

(But first let us say that "the Chronicle is the 'organ' of the citizens of Portsmouth," one and all—the organ of the whole people, and not of any clique or party,—and is so regarded by all fair-minded readers.)

Now a word of and for the Fair—against the success of which in Portsmouth, the Ballot seems disposed to labor. When the Trustees were considering the location of the Fair, two years ago, the writer was called on and invited to assist, (with his "organ" and otherwise) in getting up an interest in the matter here. For this he was ready to work—as for everything else which he deems worthy, and for the benefit of the city. And after much importunity,—having stated our opinion that $500 (we think that was the sum) could be raised in the city for the purpose—we were induced to circulate a subscription paper for this object, (in which labor of canvassing, by the way, we were promised considerable assistance, but never received any.) But suffice it to say,the desired sum was readily raised, and the Fair successfully carried through—and we became a life member of the Society, by paying our $5 in cash, like other citizens; and have since attended all meetings of the Society, and at the last annual meeting had the honor to be chosen one of the Trustees. And at the late meeting of the Board to locate the Fair, we had no hesitation in making the same'guaranty' we made under similar circumstances; nor have we any doubts as to the result—and we assure our neighbor of the Ballot, that, in any event, he shall not be called upon to endorse or make good our promise.

Since these details have been dragged before the public, against our wishes,—we shall just say, that it would seem that our citizens might see, by and by, which papers have the interests of the city at heart. This opposition of the Ballot to Celebrations here, is no new thing since the paper ceased to be published here—for the Printers' memorable celebration here (for which also $500 was in the same way, and by the same party, "guarantied" and raised) was bitterly denounced by that paper; likewise the Mercantile Lyceum—as will be recollected by many. But in spite of that, both were successfully carried out; and so, we have no doubt, will be the Rockingham Fair next Fall.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.

A. PEARSON continues to give instruction in the following branches of Music:—

Piano-Forte, Organ, Harmony and Vocalization.

Particular attention given to the formation of tone, Cultivation of the Voice, Musical Elocution, and in imparting such directions and principles as will, if adopted by the pupil, give correct Style in Singing.

Having also had extensive experience as Agent for the sale of PIANOS, he calls attention to this department of his business, and would inform the public that he is able to furnish superior instruments at manufacturers' prices, and offers his services to those desirous of purchasing.

The advantage of employing, in the selection of a Piano, one whose business gives him opportunities for testing the merits of various kinds of Pianos, must be obvious.

Persons desiring his services, may find him from 11 to 12 o'clock, at his MUSIC ROOM, No 4 Exchange Buildings, or information of his whereabouts can be obtained at his residence, No. 30 Hanover Street; at either of which places they can examine a splendid instrument of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s manufacture, and receive information relative to the purchase of Pianos. m12

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,

There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.

☞ We are frequently indebted to Wm. H. Brewster, Esq., of the Boston Traveller, for copies of the evening edition of that paper, by the last train—which are often of much service to us. The number sent us on Wednesday evening, however, owing to the inattention of the boy to whom it was entrusted, did not reach us till Thursday morning—when it was about as valuable as last year's almanac. Conductor Philbrick or Jackson & Co.'s Express, always serve us promptly in these matters; and we owe them many an acknowledgement therefor.

We are told that the "city dads" look with disfavor upon a Fourth of July celebration. "Economy!" is the plea. We propose that some one carry around the hat and raise the means to relieve the city of the stale cry of hard times and high tax rates. Let $500 merely change hands in the city on the 4th, and $1000 will be brought in from outside, and $2000 will be saved from going abroad. So much for the economy of doing nothing.—Bath Times.

Sargent's Magic Soap!

It is free from all deleterious qualities, and perfectly harmless. Its use will not injure the skin, or the most delicate fabrics.

It saves labor, almost superseding the necessity of rubbing; washing can be done in about half the time, as the clothes do not require boiling, thus saving fuel and labor that is required by washing with other kinds of soap, and the necessity of having steam in the house.

Flannels and colored goods can be washed with the ease of cotton or linen, without fulling or shrinking. For washing and whitening Hosiery and Yarn, it is unequalled.

Grease spots of any kind removed in a short time from carpets and woolen goods.

It will instantly remove grease and dirt from paint without any water whatever; protecting windows, carpets and furniture from suds or slops. The worst bilge-water stains removed from paint immediately, by applying the soap with a sponge.

It supersedes the use of all polishing powders by imparting a brilliant lustre to Jewelry, Plate, etc.

For cleansing, softening or healing the skin, it is unequalled.

It is acknowledged by all who have tested its superior qualities, to be one of the greatest improvements of the age, and its use is indispensable to the comfort of every family, and the convenience of every hotel, ship, steamboat or laundry.

SINGULAR AFFAIRS.—An extraordinary affair is related in the Russian journals.—Prince Nesvitzky was some years ago murdered by his servant, who possessed himself of his papers and fortune, and, assuming the name of the prince, travelled abroad for some years, living in good style. Afterwards returning, he married a wealthy heiress named Sokoloff, and had by her several children. Recently, his imposture was discovered, and he has been sent to the mines of Siberia; but the Russian government has authorized the children and the wife to continue to bear the name of Nesvitzky.

This case is similar to one which occurred in France in the time of the Restoration. An escaped convict named Cogniard possessed himself of the family papers of Count Pontis de Saint Helene, and by means of them not only assumed his name and title, but caused himself to be presented at Court, and actually succeeded in obtaining the grade of lieutenant-colonel in the army.—He was after a while discovered, however, and sent back to the bagne.

THE MYSTERY OF IT.—Two darkies had bought a quantity of pickled pork in partnership, but Sam having no place to put his portion in, consented to entrust the whole to Julius' keeping. The next morning they met, when Sam said, "Good morn-in', Julius, anything happened strange or mysterious down in your vicinity lately?" "Yaas, Sam; most strange thing happen at my house yesterlast night. All mystery—all mystery to me." "Ah, Julius, what was dat?" "Well, Sam, I tole you now. Dis mornin' I went down into de cellar for to get a piece of hog for dis darkey's breakfast, and I put my hand down into de brine an' felt round, but no pork dare—all gone—couldn't tell what bewent with it; so I turned up de barl, an', Sam, true as preachin', de rats eat a hole clar froo de bottom of de barl, and dragged de pork all out!" Sam was petrified with astonishment, but presently asked, "Why didn't de brine run out of de same hole?" "Ah, Sam, dat's de mystery—dat's de mystery!"—Home Journal.

RECENT TESTIMONY.

Washington, April 16, 1860.

Sir:—In answer to your letter, asking that I would inform you as to what standard of orthography has been adopted in the Smithsonian publications, I give you the following reply:

Early in the history of the Institution, the subject of orthography was referred to one of the best writers of this country, and in accordance with his recommendation, Worcester's Dictionary was adopted as being nearest the general usages of English scholars.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JOSEPH HENRY, Secretary S. I.

From Hon. Philip F. Thomas, Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C.

U. S. Patent Office, March 16, 1860.

The new Dictionary of Dr. Worcester combines, in my opinion, more of the requisites of a work of reference than any similar one ever published. The fullness and accuracy of its technical definitions make it of special value in this office; and this, together with the correctness of its orthography, and its general excellence in definition and in etymology, have made it the standard work of reference in this office.

PHILIP F. THOMAS.

From Hon. John Hart, Sup. of Public Printing.

OFFICE SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC PRINTING,
Washington, March 14, 1860.

I have long been familiar with Worcester's Dictionary, and have been highly gratified with the appearance of the new and beautiful edition of this valuable work. Its vast vocabulary, the skill of its arrangement, accuracy of orthography, precision of definitions, particularly of technical and scientific terms, its general completeness, and its freedom from political or sectarian bias, render it, in my estimation, the most perfect and authoritative expositor of the English language. It gives me pleasure to state that it is the standard authority for the public printing.

JOHN HART.

From Joe Mattingly, Foreman of the Congressional Globe Office.

It gives me pleasure to inform you that, with the commencement of a new volume of the Congressional Globe, the system of orthography represented in Worcester's Dictionary will take the place of that heretofore used in the publication of the debates of Congress.

Office Secretary U. S. Senate, March 16, '60.

Dear Sir:—It affords me great pleasure to inform you that the Committee on Contingent Expenses of the Senate, have manifested their appreciation of Worcester's Quarto Dictionary by ordering it for the Senate Chamber and all the committee and office rooms of the Senate, to be furnished with that work.

I am highly gratified at this unanimous testimonial of the merits of a book, that in my judgment, is decidedly the best work of the kind in the English language.

JOHN G. FITZPATRICK,
Assistant Clerk, Office Secretary Senate.

Clerk's Office, U. S. House of Representatives
March 15, 1860.

Worcester's New Quarto Dictionary is the standard work of reference in this office, and the system of orthography therein represented, is that adopted in the official records and documents of the U. S. House of Representatives.

J. W. FORNEY,
Clerk U. S. House of Reps.

No scholar can afford to be without your Dictionary. N. LORD, D. D., President of Dartmouth College.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard—Analysis the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, and many affections of whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Sleep, and on all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. For LIVER COMPLAINTS, No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA, Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you pay for is not lost. MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous ease, and gives GOOD REST, which could be made, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself to the only rational preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING; DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WORMS, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the bowels, and giving rest to the child, and therefore an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value life and health for your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of those fatal nostrums, the only safe and Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Costiveness, and other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will invigorate and revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating effects of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions, irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint Bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the vital fluid becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, by the child inherited, or as the healthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its cause, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the curse of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commonly appear by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers are cut by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the foul stain, scrofula is a disease of the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our time has devised for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the eradication of this foul disease from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for this purpose for all cases of scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, RHEUMATALGIA OR THE DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

It not only can cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Female Weakness and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, AND FOR THE RELIEF OF CONSUMPTIVE PATIENTS in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cures that spring from almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate illness by the use of this remedy. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation. Its virtues are now known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the throat and lungs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

DR MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Imparities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Immense is all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous influence and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are at present in the recollection of numerous victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable scouring.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and incipient tubercle, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic preventative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, powerful, and fully beneficial effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THE SMITH MORMONS have determined to settle in Nebraska territory, and may increase the population sufficiently to make it a State at the next session of Congress.—They already number several thousand, and have made extensive purchases of real estate in Douglas county, upon which they are soon expected to locate. It is thought that at least ten thousand will permanently settle in Douglas county within the present year. They want to be as near to Utah as possible without causing a conflict, since they will endeavor to bring the larger body of Mormons, under Brigham Young, to their views, and receive such as desert his standard. The new city of Florence is to be their headquarters. The Omaha City Nebraskian, which is located in the same county, says—"We understand agriculture is to be the principal occupation of these people, while they have also among them artizans and workmen skilled in the various mechanical arts. We most cheerfully welcome them to Nebraska, and sincerely hope that nothing may ever transpire to render their residence among us unpleasant to themselves or annoying to others."

CURIOSITY is a thing that makes us look over other people's affairs, and overlook our own. Xenocrates, reprehending curiosity, said,—"It is as rude to intrude into another man's house with your eyes, as with your feet."

Sweet are the uses of adversity—especially in the case of lawyers, who thrive in proportion to the number and variety of their trials.

Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

SATURDAY, MAY 19, 1860.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

On Thursday, May 17th, the report on rules was taken up and amended, in the first instance so as to limit the number of votes cast to the number of delegates. A debate arose upon the number of votes necessary to a choice, and at last, by vote of 331 to 130, the minority report, requiring only a majority of the votes actually cast, was adopted.

The platform was adopted with great enthusiasm. It affirms the continued necessity of the republican organization: expresses devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and the Union, and the laws; refutes the pet dogmas of the present administration; declares that Kansas should be admitted; and favors a protective tariff, the Homestead Bill, a Pacific Railroad, internal improvements, and protection to the rights of all our citizens.

The Thursday evening dispatch to the Boston Advertiser says:—

The convention is all ready to ballot.—All the preliminary matters have been adjusted.

Two hundred and thirty-four votes will be necessary to effect a nomination. Maryland is allowed 12, Virginia 23, Kentucky 23, Texas 6, Oregon 5, Kansas 6, Nebraska 6, the District of Columbia 2.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATOIN.

CHICAGO, Friday, May 18.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock, and after very brief preliminaries voted to procecy to ballot. As soon as a ballot was ordered, Mr. Evarts asked if it was in order to present names for nomination. The chair replied, "Yes, but without debate.

Mr. Evarts named William H. Seward of New York as a candidate.

The Illinois delegation named Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Dudley of N. J. named William L. Dayton.

The Pennsylvania delegation named Simon Cameron.

The Ohio delegation nominated Salmon P. Chase.

Mr. Blair of Mo. named Edward Bates.

INFORMAL BALLOT.

On this ballot New England voted as follows:—

Maine—Seward 10, Lincoln 6.
New Hampshire—Seward 1, Lincoln 7, Chase 1, Fremont 1.
Vermont—Collamer 10.
Massachusetts—Seward 21, Lincoln 4, 1 vacancy.
Rhode Island—Bates 1, McLean 5, Chase 1, Read 1.
Connecticut—Lincoln 2, Bates 7, Wade 1, Chase 1.
Pennsylvania voted 47 1-2 for Cameron, 4 for Lincoln, and 1-2 for McLean.

FORMAL BALLOT.

R.Island—Lincoln 3, McLean 3, Chase 2.
Connecticut—Lincoln 4, Bates 4, Chase 2, C. M. Clay 2.

Michigan—Seward 12.
Illinois—Lincoln 22.
Texas—Seward 6.
Wisconsin—Seward 10.
Iowa—Seward 2, Lincoln 5, Chase 1-2, McLean 1-2.

On the third ballot LINCOLN was nominated.

The following was the result of the first ballot—Seward 171, Lincoln 110 1-2, Bates 51, Cameron 50 1-2, McLean 12, Chase 47, Wade 3, Dayton 14, Read 1, Collamer 10, Fremont 1, Sumner 1.

On the second ballot, the name of Cameron was withdrawn, and the vote of Pennsylvania cast for Lincoln. This decided the result.

Second ballot—Seward 184 1-2, Lincoln 181 1-2, Bates 35, Cameron 2, McLean 5 1-2, Chase 44 1-2, Dayton 10, Clay 2.

Third ballot — Seward 180, Lincoln 231 1-2, Chase 24, Bates 22, McLean 5, Clay 1, Dayton 1.

During this ballot, while the States were changing to Lincoln, there was tremendous applause. The motion to make the nomination unanimous was made by Mr. Evarts of New York, and when it was carried, the firing of artillery salutes commenced.

☞ On the Union Course, Long Island, Wednesday, in the race between Ethan Allen and Geo. M. Patchen, to harness, mile heats, best 3 in 5, for $2000, Patchen won in three straight heats, 2:25—2:24—2:29.—Ethan was the favorite at the start 100 to 80. An immense quantity of money changed hands. The time was better than ever before made by any entire horse, to the same hitch. The match is to be tried over again next week, to wagons, and the week after to two-mile heats.

There seems a certain link of reason between many of the most frequent and popular rhymes. Thus:—Boys always suggest noise; trees often feel the breeze; love is natural to the dove; college is favorable to knowledge; truth commonly belongs to youth; and age to sage. Who says that Rhyme and Reason are not neighbors and friends?—Post.

THE SECOND ADVENT.

Messrs. Editors:—In your issue of the 9th inst., great injustice is done Dr. Cummings by your article noticing the "Voice of the Prophets," by Mr. J.V. Himes, in which you say that, with Dr. Cummings and others, he predicts the end of the world in 1867. You also remark, in said article, that the "end of the world has been preached these two thousand years, and any number of dates for that event have been set, but the ball rolls on yet; and while the Adventists see in the Scriptures many predictions of the destruction of the earth as it now appears, other sects of Christians see and believe the statement that 'the earth abideth forever, though one generation goeth and another cometh.'"

In this article Dr. Cummings is misrepresented, and as I should be pleased to see the misrepresentation rectified in your impartial and independent journal, I herein offer you for publication selections from his works for that purpose.

I have read twenty-nine volumes of his published works, with very great satisfaction and profit, and can safely say that I have no recollection of any passage in them in which he predicts the end of the world in 1867. What his views are in respect to the time of the Second Advent of our Lord to this earth again, he having assured his disciples when here that he would "come again," may be gathered from said selections.

Dr. Cummings says—"Many have speculated where they ought to have paused.—Dates in the future are not so clear as dates in the past. We cannot read prophecy as we read history. Sunshine sleeps on the one, and the mists of evening hang on the other."

"Of that day and hour knoweth no man,—no, not the angels of heaven; but as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be."

"If I believed that 1867 were to end the economy of things, I should have my hands equally busy in my work."

"Watch ye therefore, for ye know not when the master of the house cometh—at even, or at midnight, or at each crowing, or in the morning; lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping; and what I say unto you, I say unto all."

"And this watching takes for granted the suddenness and uncertainty of the day of the Lord. It does not say the Lord must come in my day, but it says the Lord may come in my day; therefore I must be on the outlook. This may come is the secret of a watchful spirit. Without it, we cannot watch."

"My discussion will be less the expression of my own, and rather what I have been collecting during many years—the opinions of interpretations of some of the best and wisest and most laborious men who have given their attention to this very important subject. What I shall endeavor to show is this—that whatever theories of the fulfillment of these dates are held, whether they fix the commencement at this period, or at that period, or at some other period, nearly all concur in one remarkable conclusion, namely, that 1867 is to be the great crisis, the testing crisis in the events of history, in the fulfillment of prophecy, and in the experience of mankind. If all that some expect to occur at that period does not occur, we are at least on the eve of events, as Lord Carlisle has expressed it in his work on David, the most stupendous, if not ushering in the close of this present Christian economy; we must carefully weigh the questions, that thus we may be able to judge whether the data on which these writers have come to their conclusion be correct or not."

"When Christ ascended from the Mount of Olives, and when the disciples asked, 'Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?'—he said to them, 'It is not for you to know the times or seasons which the Father hath put in his own power, but (mark what follows) ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witness unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and in Samaria, and unto the utmost parts of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up and a cloud received him out of their sight; and while they looked steadfastly towards heaven as he went up, behold two men stood by them, which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand you gazing up to heaven? This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go.' It would be altogether morally without practicable good results, and incompatible with other portions of the Scripture, if God were to tell us the precise day and hour.—What would be the practicable use of either. Were that day made known to us, it would be gratifying a worthless curiosity."

"Ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh."—Jesus Christ. "Here we are distinctly informed that the exact chronological day and hour of the advent of our blessed Lord is known to none; but we are also told that there are certain premonitory and significant signs that are meant to be to us evidence of its nearness; that to these, and not to the day and the hour imagined or supposed, we are constantly to attend. Let me first of all notice the practical importance of concealing the day and hour when the Son of Man shall come from the knowledge of the church and of all mankind. Were the day and the hour of the Saviour's advent specifically stated, it would contradict constantly those passages scattered throughout the whole word of God, which say he shall come as a thief in the night; that he will come at the very time when men, so far from expecting the day and the hour, will be congratulating each other on the impossibility of his advent, saying where is the promise of his coming, for all things continue as they were from the beginning until now."

"I know not from which to infer most—the inspiration of the writer, the pure and transparent eloquence with which they speak on all that is essential, or the unbroken silence that they maintain on all that merely gratifies an itching and curious inquiry. Suppose that this day and hour had been made known, there is no proof that it would be believed by the unconverted masses of mankind. If the masses refuse to believe the Gospel, surely they could never be persuaded to believe that at a certain and hour Christ would come like the lightning, and finish this dispensation. If the unconverted and unsanctified multitude believed it, it would do incalculable mischief. We all know that in the days of Noah, when he told them, on the authority of the living God, that in a hundred and twenty years the whole population would be swept away, they laughed at him—not one belived it. And if we were to tell the multitude now, proclaim it in every newspaper, proclaim it from every pulpit, that on a certain day, and in a certain year, Christ would come, not one would believe it; and if they did believe it, what would be the effect on them? What the effect was in Jerusalem, when the people were warned that the ploughshare of Titus would soon overturn their ancient and magnificent temple, they indulged in all sorts of intoxication, excess and crime."

"The apostle Paul, speaking to his Thessalonian converts, says—"Of the times and the seasons, (that is, the hour and the day,) ye have no need that I write unto you; for yourselves know that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night; for when they shall say, Peace and safety, sudden destruction shall come upon them. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief;" as if some clear intimation were given to the apostles, subsequent to the day of pentecost, which enabled them to form and communicate some idea of nearness to, or remoteness from, the coming of our Lord. When sailing on the ocean, we come to large pieces of driftwood, and we instantly suppose we must be approaching some land; or when we discover quantities of floating weeds, as Columbus did on the very point of despair of finding the great western continent—we take heart and say: The continent of glory is near, for we see the drift detached from the shore, which must indicate we are approaching land. As the men that watch upon the mountain crags catch the first beams of the rising sun before he comes above the horizon, whilst the people in the glens and valleys below are involved in complete darkness, so the students of the signs of the times, diligently comparing what history records with what the Apocalypse predicts, may form a proximate estimate whether they are distant from or near to that great continent of glory, to which the earth, this broken-off island, shall be united, in order that heaven and earth may be one again and forever." D. P. D.

TRAGEDY.—A lovely little girl of five summers, was killed by a crazy woman, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, who loved the little girl, Carrie Freeman, almost to idolatry, and on one occasion at least, was heard to say, "She is too good for earth—she must not, shall not live," and then turning her face to the wall she muttered to herself, "Must I do it—how can I do it!" Those who heard these remarks understood not their meaning at the time, but it is plain now, and the woman goes to an asylum. This was at Haverstraw, New York.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—The seventeenth annual session of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance of North America, will be held in Portland, on the 7th of June next, and will continue about one week. About 150 representatives are expected, from all the States in the Union and from all the British Provinces. On Friday evening, June 8th, a reception meeting will be held in the new City Hall. On the following Monday evening, June 11, a grand banquet will be given the National Division at the new City Hall, by the Lady Visitors of the Order in Maine. On Tuesday, June 12, there is to be a great out-of-doors demonstration, with procession, music, banners and speeches. On the final adjournment, the Grand Divisions of Maine have made arrangements to take the members of the National Division on an excursion to the White Mountains.

Letters from Washington say that Mr. Buchanan will cut off the head of every office holder found sympathizing with or working for Douglas. Good! We want to see this administration play its hand out. Infamy will have an infamous end.—Bath Times.

☞ Hon. John A. Dix is confirmed as postmaster of New York, in place of the absconded Fowler.

SINGULAR INCIDENT.—Rev. Dr. Dimmick, of Newburyport, had designed, on Sabbath morning, to preach a sermon from the 7th verse of the 56th chapter of Isaiah—"For my house shall be called a house of prayer for all people." In announcing the text, he mistook and read the 7th verse of the 46th chapter, a prophecy that was literally fulfilled almost immediately in his own case. It reads—"They bear him upon their shoulders; they carry him, and set him in his place and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove; yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer nor save him out of his trouble." He had not proceeded more than a minute—not aware of the mistake he had made—when he sunk upon his seat helpless, and they did really bear him out, to return no more.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION.—Almost every writer and paper in the land, is joining to aid the new and glorious "muscle" movement in the United States; and about the only exception we have noticed is the Ishmaelitish editor of the New York Saturday Press, who takes decided ground against it, as against everything else,—and says he would as soon have a world full of windbags as Windships. Won't somebody "hit" him?

"CLASSIC" MUSIC.—The New York exquisites are having "the French opera of The Jew, sung in Italian by German, to an audience which knows nothing of the school of music, and little of the language." That must be delightful, all round—and is a good specimen of the fashionable craving for "first-class" entertainments.

☞ John Morrissey is in New York, but fears to appear in public much, lest his head should experience what is sometimes termed a "smash," as he so richly deserves.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.

A. PEARSON continues to give instruction in the following branches of Music:—

Piano-Forte, Organ, Harmony and Vocalization.

Particular attention given to the formation of tone, Cultivation of the Voice, Musical Elocution, and in imparting such directions and principles as will, if adopted by the pupil, give correct Style in Singing.

MR. PEARSON having had many years' experience as teacher in the above branches, is confident that his method of instruction is eminently successful. The most competent and reliable references given, if desired.

Having also had extensive experience as Agent for the sale of PIANOS, he calls attention to this department of his business, and would inform the public that he is able to furnish superior instruments at manufacturers' prices, and offers his services to those desirous of purchasing.

The advantage of employing, in the selection of a Piano, one whose business gives him opportunities for testing the merits of various kinds of Pianos, must be obvious.

Persons desiring his services, may find him from 11 to 12 o'clock, at his MUSIC ROOM, No 4 Exchange Buildings, or information of his whereabouts can be obtained at his residence, No. 30 Hanover Street; at either of which places they can examine a splendid instrument of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s manufacture, and receive information relative to the purchase of Pianos. m17

FINE PIANO AT A BARGAIN.

A very superior 7 octave PIANO-FORTE, which has been used a very little, and is warranted to be equal in every respect to any instrument ever brought into Portsmouth, may be seen for a few days at the Store of the subscriber; and will be sold at a great reduction from cost, if applied for soon. Gentlemen of such instruments and those who want to improve a rare opportunity to procure a first-class Piano, at the price of a mean one, are invited to call and examine.

JAMES H. HEAD,
Exchange Block

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY, In Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontiotrumenos.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."
BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1835.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

☞ Mrs. Winslow, an experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflamation—will allay all pain, and it is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

Paralysis.

This terrifying disease, even when depending on grave derangements of the nervous centre, will yield to the alterative power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which by improving the digestion, and consequently purifying the blood, promotes a proper nutrition of the substance of the brain and nerves.

Says the Rev. Thos. Whittemore: "I have been using, for some time past, the "Peruvian Syrup." It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. I have no doubt, that in cases of Paralysis, like mine, Dyspepsia, and especially of Dropsy, it may be administered with a greater prospect of success than any other medicine in use among us."

DYSPEPIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of
THE OXYGENATED BITTERS,
There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree.

The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question.

Its speedy and permanent cures of some of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL TEACHER IN DETROIT.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—In reference to the Oxygenated Bitters, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I had used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it in any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady.
W. A. BACON, Teacher of Detroit Select School.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan F. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spot 4wd&w

Local.

Messrs. Editors.—I have occasionally visited the meetings held in Mercantile Hall, and wondered that such doctrines as are there advocated are not publicly rebuked. It would seem from the discourses that our departed friends are cognizant of our actions, and even thoughts, and these are used as motives of goodness and purity of life. Liberty is given to question the spirits who claim to be present and speaking, and it seems to me that they might be entangled in their speech and their claims overthrown. I have observed that often the hearers wear emblems of affliction, insinuating that consolation is derived from this source.

I should think some of our learned people would attend, and show the fallacy of these doctrines, for they are certainly different from the discourses or lectures we hear in our religious services in other places. Perhaps they will, to-morrow afternoon or evening, and show in some way that spirits are away off somewhere in Heaven, and explain where Heaven is.—"A cloud of witnesses" I supposed was figurative; but they say it is true. If so, the Bible is correct, but it is a text I never heard explained as they explain it. I do hope those who can, will appear and answer these new doctrines. ENQUIRER.

☞ Fruit trees about here give promise of a good crop this season, which we have not had for several years. The pear trees are white with flowers, and the apple trees generally full of pink buds. The cherry and plum trees too are in full flower, and promise well for the birds and curculio, which generally consume most of their fruit.

BODY FOUND.—The body of Eugene Sullivan, an Irishman, who probably fell overboard near The Spring, in this city, on Fast Night; was found on the Portsmouth shore of the river, a mile or two above the Bridge, on Thursday night. Poor fellow! although he found his death at last in the water—it was the stronger liquids which brought him to it thus untimely. His age was about 30, and leaves a wife and five children.

DAVIS AND DOUGLAS.

In the the U. S. Senate, Thursday, May 17, Mr. Davis resumed his speech. The Democratic party of the Union, unless they stood on principle, ought to be destroyed. The Senator from Illinois has assailed every prominent Democrat in the country, not even excepting the President of the United States, whose position should have sealed his lips. He (Davis) denied that the President's letters sustained the principle of non-intervention, as interpreted by Mr. Douglas. The southern delegates withdrew from the Charleston Convention only because that Convention had failed to announce the true principles of the Democratic party.

A discussion on legal points ensued between Messrs. Davis and Douglas.

Mr. Davis asked if the Senator was elected President, whether he would sign a bill passed by Congress to protect property in Territories?

Mr. Douglas said there would be time enough to answer that when he got in the place referred to.

Mr. Davis asked if a Territorial Legislature passed a law to embarass the action of the fugitive slave law, would Mr. Douglas vote to repeal that legislation?

Mr. Douglas said the Supreme Court had decided that matter. Neither a State or Territory could interfere with the rendition of fugitive slaves. No legislation was therefore necessary.

Mr. Davis said he thought he had shown that non-intervention, as proclaimed by the South, was a shadowy and unsubstantial thing, dependent upon circumstances.—They could repeal the old French law giving slavery to Kansas, but not the old Mexican law prohibiting it in New Mexico. If the right of the people of the Territories is complete, how can the Senator from Illinois propose to repeal the organic act of Utah?

Mr. Davis contended that Mr. Douglas, by his course on the Lecompton Constitution, had placed himself outside of the Democratic party. He would ask Mr. Douglas if in a sectional vote, he did not see that a large portion of the Union was opposed to him, and if he pressed his dogma of squatter sovereignty on the party its days were numbered?

Mr. Douglas replied he would make any personal sacrifices for the unity of the party. But the Senator presented the terms.

[Query, whether he did not say, wrong terms?]

Mr. Douglas only wanted to fight under the same flag which waved over their triumph in 1856. Mr. Douglas then spoke at some length in support of his former positions. Mr. Davis replied briefly, and Mr. Douglas again rejoined.

HOUSE.—In the House bills were reported, regulating army contracts, and retiring disabled and superanuated officers of the army. Several bills were discussed in committee of the whole.

☞ Sad accounts continue to be received of the distress in some parts of Ireland.—At Dunkeehan, where it is said there are no resident gentry, no roads, no church, no chapel, and no schools, 103 head of cattle, 1096 sheep, and 590 lambs have died in consequence of the want of fodder.

The Last Work on Pugilism—The Mill on the Floss.

Mr. FOWLER, the defaulting Postmaster of New York, has borrowed some fifty thousand dollars from his personal friends, and it is now ascertained that he assigned all his real and personal property some years ago.

☞ The Washington Constitution, the organ of Mr. Buchanan, contains a call for the seceders at Charleston to return to the bosom of the party and attend the Baltimore convention.

☞ A. E. Burr, of the Hartford Times, has been presented with a solid silver service, of a new and very elegant pattern.—The gift was made up by his democratic friends, in consideration of service in the State campaign, and cost about $1000.

☞ The London Morning Post says that in the building-trades in the metropolis, there are symptoms of a revival of that disastrous struggle between masters and workmen witnessed in the course of last autumn.

☞ In the obituary of the London Times of the 26th were recorded the deaths of ten persons whose united ages amounted to 828 years, or an average of nearly 83. They comprise one of 100 years and one of 99.

☞ The town authorities of Portsmouth, R. I., have prohibited the importation of cattle from Massachusetts, through fear of the pleuro-pneumonia.

☞ Jesse Norcross, a prominent citizen of Bangor, dropped dead in the street, on Wednesday.

Sargent's Magic Soap!

It is free from all deleterious qualities, and perfectly harmless. Its use will not injure the skin, or the most delicate fabrics.

It saves labor, almost superseding the necessity of rubbing; washing can be done in about half the time, as the clothes do not require boiling, thus saving fuel and labor that is required by washing with other kinds of soap, and the necessity of having steam in the house.

Flannels and colored goods can be washed with the ease of cotton or linen, without fulling or shrinking. For washing and whitening Hosiery and Yarn, it is unequalled.

Grease spots of any kind removed in a short time from carpets and woolen goods.

It will instantly remove grease and dirt from paint without any water whatever; protecting windows, carpets and furniture from suds or slops. The worst bilge-water stains removed from paint immediately, by applying the soap with a sponge.

It supersedes the use of all polishing powders by imparting a brilliant lustre to Jewelry, Plate, etc.

For cleansing, softening or healing the skin, it is unequalled.

It is acknowledged by all who have tested its superior qualities, to be one of the greatest improvements of the age, and its use is indispensable to the comfort of every family, and the convenience of every hotel, ship, steamboat or laundry.

The Bartlett Mills have also declared a semi-annual dividend of $25 a share.

We admire the placid spirit of some of our democratic exchanges. They smile over the little split at Charleston, as though it could be healed as easily as a chap in one's lips. Unfortunately our political Court plaster tends to open rather than heal the the breach. It seems to us like being merry over a yawning grave. But then some people will laugh, no matter what happens. Tell them their house is on fire and their children are in the flames, and they will blandly reply, "O, I guess it will be all all right!" Happy fellows!—Bath Times.

This popular, comfortable and commodious House is pleasantly situated

On Congress St., near Market Square.

The location is unsurpassed for business or pleasure. He would now return his sincere thanks to the public generally, for the very liberal patronage they have been pleased to bestow upon him; and ever grateful for past favors, respectfully solicits a continuance. J. B. FLAGG.

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE

DR. TOWNSEND'S

BLOOD.

the sovereign remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.

These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this

WORLD RENOWNED

SARSAPARILLA.

Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has caused to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a unfavorable diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will renew the blood, purify the putrid humors, cleanse the Stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a one of vigor to the whole body.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of the Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c., special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULA, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as a mild yet and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, its extensive sale is now nearly double the quantity ever known for CHILDREN TEETHING; DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WINDY BOWELS, HEAD, AND CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving Pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your offspring, give it a trial, and you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and invigorate the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three do cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquor, in violent headaches, nausea, at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated weak and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor tissue on which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions of various forms. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from manifest complaints, but have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and indeed all of the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;—their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the cause of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofulous, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, JAUNDICE AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded on truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health and energies restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every household, but the more formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of these cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Scurvy, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gravel, Colic, Neuralgia, as a dinner Pill, and for Purifying the blood.

COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and fatal affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, extending its sphere of action as they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The Subscriber has for years daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATIONS, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as it returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Every spring instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, nervous charges, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old nostrums, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

IN DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, continued, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has gained the esteem of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedial and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it is found invariably well regulated, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

IN INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative; and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

It remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects,—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual degree of active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

From the very flattering manner in which our Machines have been received by the public, resulting in the sale of

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.
[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]
Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.
[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]
My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.
[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]
My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.
Baltimore, July 14, 1859.
PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.
PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, and see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.
"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CLIPPER PLOWS
Are manufactured only by the subscribers, the inventors, who offer them to the agricultural interest after they have been
THOROUGHLY TESTED
by experienced Plowmen, who pronounce them
The Best in the Market!
These Plows embrace NINE DIFFERENT SIZES, the largest of which is much in advance of anything in the United States, as regards size, and, like the other sizes of this celebrated Plow, is drawn easily by a team much smaller than is absolutely requisite to draw a Plow of less size, of any other make than the Clipper.
We also assure our Farming friends that as we have hitherto endeavored to make our Plows superior to all others in those points which especially interest Plowmen, we are still endeavoring by unceasing exertions, to improve—if this be possible—upon our former successes, although those who are best acquainted in these matters say, "It cannot be done."
Notwithstanding the immense advantages which these Plows possess over all others, we offer them at THE SAME PRICES as are charged for common grades, satisfied that their great superiority will induce so large a sale, that our aggregate profits will make our business sufficiently remunerative.

EXCOMMUNICATION.

The Boston Pilot severely consures the American newspaper editors for laughing at the Pope's Bull which excommunicates King Victor Emanuel, of Sardinia, and turns him over to the custody of the devil. The Pilot says:—

It is no credit to the age to have the thinkers of the people commending open violation of sovereign rights, and urging universal contempt for merited spiritual excommunication from the real, visible, legal head of the spiritual order.

Such is the Pope. The majority of the human race * for eighteen centuries acknowledge that, and it is impossible for such a majority for such a length of time to be deceived. Falsehood could not merit such lasting and universal belief. Truth alone can secure such wonderful adherence.—From this most certain supremacy of the Pope, it is a clear inference, that excommunication by him is not a thing to be laughed at. He is the certain legal representative of the God-head. Eighteen hundred years are wrong if he is not, and eighteen hundred years cannot be in error. The Pope has, consequently, the power of banishing bad men from the limits of his spiritual jurisdiction. He is not the head of the church, if he has not this power. Evidently, the exercise of this power must be a terrible thing. It endangers salvation. Here is the direct effect of excommunication. The only use of the Church is to lead men to their ultimate end. Without that institution the end cannot be reached. If it could, the Church could be entirely dispensed with.—But firm universal belief in the doctrines of the Church for immense period of one thousand eight hundred years, is absolute proof of its indispensability for salvation purposes.

But as the excommunication has been made—and most richly has it been deserved—and as it absolutely implies the worst spiritual consequences on those against whom it has been launched, the morals of the times are attacked, when those who do the writing and thinking of the people endeavor to fling universal ridicule on it.

Nothing, we suppose, can be more ridiculous to an American freeman, than the idea that a bull of excommunication from the great pope at Rome, or any of the little popes of any church on this side of the water, can injure any man's hope or prospect of salvation.

If a man has done any piece of wickedness, and the church turns him out, so much the worse for his reputation—that's all.—And if, having done such wickedness, this church whitewashes him, and covers him up as well as it can, so much the worse for the church;—and that's all.

Yankees, unless they be Romanized, don't think their salvation can be greatly endangered by the bellowing of a bull, or the bleating of a bull calf;—and would be more afraid of a deputy sheriff with a writ of attachment, than a priest with a papal letter of cursing.

The Pilot's article closes with the following ghostly admonition to the editors of the New York Times, Herald, Tribune, and the North American, who have all laughed at the bull.

But, seriously, do not these persons think that the Church may be at last—say at the time of dissolution—of far greater benefit to them than Victor Emanuel? They will certainly find that out.

If any of these reprobates cared anything about Mother Church, perhaps they might cross themselves on reading this;—but such heathen as they are will be more likely to make a parenthesis on their nose and forehead with the thumb and forefinger.

---

* A majority of the human race have never heard of him;—and a majority of those who do hear, care not a rush about him: they are willing he may be the head of such minds as can be swept along in such a tail: but they regard the universality of the Roman Church as a humbug, only a little behind the nationality of parties.

☞ One of our neighbors says the Southern part of the Charleston convention did not ask for a slave code; and the Boston Post says:

If we understand the issue, the South did not ask for a "slave code"—but asked to have expressed in the Charleston platform what should stand as an interpretation of the Cincinnati platform.

To this the Boston Journal replies:

How refreshingly innocent our neighbor is. The South did not ask for a slave code! Oh, no. They simply requested the convention to declare that Congress has no power to abolish slavery in the territories, but that it is the duty of the federal government to protect the rights of persons and property in the territories, on the high seas, &c.

In other words, to make a slave code, but not to call it by that name.

☞ The Wisconsin Legislature have a proposition to abolish all laws for the collection of debts. The mover of the bill said:

You have no doubt seen a suit in a Justice's Court in the country. There is time spent by jurors and hangers on, besides other costs, at least $50, besides the ill feelings and dissensions caused by it. It is all a cheat. The litigants had better set down and play a game of old sledge to decide the case. It would be more sure to settle the disputes justly.

☞ Seventy acres were plowed by steam in Illinois recently in one piece.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Republican Convention finished up its work on Friday evening, by the nomination of Hannibal Hamlin of Maine as Vice President. The proceedings were these:

The Convention re-assembled at 5 P. M. A large banner was brought on the platform—"Pennsylvania good for 20,000 majority for the people's candidate—Abe Lincoln. The banner was greeted with loud applause.

The Convention proceeded to ballot for Vice President.

First Ballot.—Hannibal Hamlin of Me. 194, John Hickman of Pa. 58, N. P. Banks of Massachusetts 38 1-2, Cassius M. Clay of Ky. 101, Gov. Reeder of Pa. 51, Henry Winter Davis of Md. 8, Sam Houston of Texas 6, Wm. L. Dayton of N. J. 3, Wm. Reed of Pa. 1; total, 461; necessary to a choice, 232. No choice.

Second Ballot.—Massachusetts withdrew the name of Banks, and cast 26 votes for Hamlin.

Pennsylvania withdrew the name of Reeder, and cast 54 votes for Hamlin.

New York cast 70 votes for Hamlin.

Hamlin 367, Clay 86, Hickman 13.

The result was greeted with tumultuous applause, and the nomination was subsequently made unanimous.

After speeches had been made by a number of delegates, Joshua R. Giddings moved the following:

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with those men who have been driven, some from their native States, and others from States of their adoption, and who are now exiled from their homes on account of their opinions, and that we hold the Democratic party responsible for the gross violation of the clause of the Constitution which declares that the citizens of each State shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of the several States.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Tuck of N. H. moved that the President of the Convention, and the chairmen of the several delegations, be a committee to inform Lincoln and Hamlin of their nomination. Adopted.

A vote of thanks was passed to the officers of the Convention.

The Convention then adjourned sine die, with nine parting cheers for the ticket.

Immediately on the adjournment 100 guns were fired from the roof of the Tremont House in honor of the nominations.

☞ Great rejoicings took place in Manchester, N. H., Friday evening, over Lincoln's nomination. Under the head "Great Waste of Powder,"—the Boston Post records the fact that 100 guns were fired in honor of the same event, at Concord, Bangor, Portland, Bath, New York, and many other places.

Lincoln was formerly a whig; Hamlin a democrat.

New Hampshire gave Lincoln 7 votes on the first ballot, and 9 on the second: and her voters will probably give him and Hamlin a very large majority in November.

☞ At Springfield, Ill., there were great rejoicings on Friday afternoon and evening,—speeches, and a serenade, with a brief response from Mr. Lincoln, the presidential nominee.

AFFRAY AT MANCHESTER.—William Calef, a flier maker, in Manchester, N. H., was shot Wednesday evening in that city, by Stephen Corliss, a shoemaker, in the shop of the latter. The families of the two men were formerly intimate. Recently Corliss has circulated stories that Calef's wife was a woman of easy virtue. Wednesday evening Calef went into Corliss shop and told him that if he did not stop lying about him and his family, he would wring his nose for him. Upon that Corliss drew out from under his bench, a long horse pistol, loaded with shot, and fired at Calef. The shot entered his throat in thirteen places. It is not thought that Calef is dangerously injured. Corliss is now before the Police Court, having his examination.

☞ In the police court at Manchester, Stephen Corliss has been held to bail in $280, for shooting Wm. Calef, with intent to kill. It appeared in evidence that all hands had been drinking before the assault; so that the point of honor was very tender about that time.

☞ In the obituary notices for 1858, just published by Judge Crosby of Massachusetts, it seems that the average age of all the clergymen whose ages are given (181) is 62 1-2; and the average age of all the physicians (227) is 57, making a difference of over five years in the longevity of the two professions. Of the 181 clergymen whose obituary notices are given in this work, 30 were over 70 years of age, 22 over 80 years, 7 over 90, and 3 over 100 years of age.

HOW TO DO IT.—The New York Herald says:

There is but one ray of hope for the Democratic party—but one chance of presenting a single candidate to the country—and that is, to throw overboard both the Baltimore and Richmond conventions, which are to meet in June, and to call a new convention between July and September.

☞ George Ticknor, Esq., has given 2000 volumes of valuable books, to the Boston Public Library. Many of them are choice books of reference; others books of popular reading: the whole forming a munificent donation.

☞ The Atlas and Bee announces the alarming illness of Rev. Theodore Parker at Florence. He has failed rapidly of late.

☞ As the Japanese were supposed to be about to take their leave, after the reception at Gen. Cass's on Wednesday, the rustling of a lady's dress was heard, and Miss Ledyard, the accomplished grand-daughter of General Cass, passed into the room, and walking over to the Secretary's table, was followed by the eyes not only of the Japanese but of everybody present. She was introduced to the Japanese, who shook hands with her with uncommon heartiness. And now the ladies crowded in from an adjoining room with great rapidity, making the room quite warm, when Gen. Cass remarked to the Japanese, that he did not know how they regulated the ladies in Japan, but in this country the ladies regulated the gentlemen, and went just where they pleased. This was an apology for the presence of the ladies, and the Embassadors replied, in a very grave manner, that they observed that there was a very marked difference in the discipline of the two countries. The General could scarcely control his countenance with this sally from the Japanese, who evidently thought they possessed an advantage over American in this respect.

☞ The last "Gross Outrage" in New York, according to the Express, was committed by a good-looking, coffee-colored slave girl. She was coming home with her mistress from Grenada, but taking a fancy to the steward of the steamer, she went off in his company on the arrival of the vessel in New York, to try the sensation of personal possession. The "outrage" appears more apparent when it is stated that the girl's mistress had been lately bereaved of what the slave ran away for—a husband; and that the captain of the vessel would not go hunting for the runaway, who was "highly valued as a maternal gift." The Express says the "perpetrators of this outrage should be held to public scorn and reproach," and adds that the widow "appeared much dejected and worn down with sorrow. Her heart, already made desolate by death, now freshly torn by the ungrateful conduct of a cherished servant." The ungrateful huzzy seems to have had a reciprocal feeling, for she did a little "cherishing" on her own account.

KATHERINE MORRIS: An Autobiography. By the author of "Step by Step," and "Here and Hereafter." Boston: Walker, Wise & Co.

This is a volume of 358 pages, got up in the usual neat style of these publishers, and like all their publications, designed to be of the best moral and religious tendency.

From an examination of its pages, we can say, with another reader, that this is a work of more than ordinary attraction, for two reasons, viz., that it partakes of reality and romance. It is both real life, and some that appears more than life.

It therefore, in some degree, realizes the paradoxical saying, that truth is stranger than fiction. The only fiction about the book, we imagine, are the names. The author, while relating the events of her life, does so in a style that is attractive, running through the whole a vein of humor and good sense, of wisdom and fun, that is rare, even in works of pretension, which this not. The characters are admirably sketched, the narrating is vigorous, and the whole performance, in a literary point of view, is quite successful. If the volume does not find a large circle of readers, it will not be from want of merit, but of appreciation from the public.

The book is sold in this city by Mr. J. H. Foster.

SPIRITUALISM vs. DEMONOLOGY.—In reviewing a pamphlet entitled "Spiritualism Exposed," the editor of the Bath Times closes thus:—

We must say that the God and the theology of spiritualism are infinitely preferable to such a God and such a theology as this book pretends to find in the bible. It is a hard task to convince the world that the God of the universe is a being of wrathful passions; and if any think the secret of "spiritual manifestations," so called, is to be unlocked by a Devil's key—by admitting the intervention of immaterial devils—they greatly misjudge the intelligence of the day. If we have got to admit the truth of spiritualism, and the existence of spirits and spirit agency, in the name of humanity let it be a merciful spiritualism, and the agency of spirits, and not an infernal spiritualism in which devils and incarnate fiends alone are the conspicuous actors.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, May 18.

SENATE.—Mr. Anthony made an explanation in regard to an historical allusion contained in the speech of Mr. Davis on the 7th of May, and proceeded to show that at the time referred to, Rhode Island was the only spot on the civilized globe where religious toleration was practiced.—He (Anthony) quoted from instructions to Colonial agents from the old charter, and from the early laws of the Colony, to vindicate the claim of Roger Williams as the first asserter of religious freedom, and Rhode Island as the first place where it was first practically indicated.

Mr. Mason, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a bill for carrying in effect the treaties with China, Japan, Siam, and Persia.

Mr. Davis's resolutions were taken up, and Mr. Mason spoke at length, replying to Mr. Douglas's speech on Wednesday. He did not want to force slavery on a reluctant people, but did want to make them respect the rights of others, and the Constitution of the country.

Mr. Toombs got the floor, and the subject was postponed until Monday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Reynolds, of the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill abolishing the Court of Claims, and providing for the adjudication of claims by courts of the United States.

The bill providing for the better security of passengers on board steamers was taken up, and passed.

The Committee on Elections reported that Mr. Daily was entitled to a seat, in place of Easterbrook, of Nebraska, which was adopted, and Mr. Daily was sworn in.

Several private bills were passed.

REVOLUTION AT MESSINA.—A letter to a Boston merchant, dated Messina, April 28, states that the revolutionists had the upper hand, and should they succeed in driving the troops from Palermo, the whole island will burst out in a general insurrection.

BELFAST, Me., May 19.—Steamer Daniel Webster, which left Portland last evening, on her regular trip to Bangor, broke down when between Camden and Belfast. Her engine is badly damaged. It will take several weeks to repair damages.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Western Republicans here are delighted with the Chicago nomination and platform. The Seward men quietly remark that they will vote the ticket.

Mr. Douglas now regards his nomination as certain.—Boston Jour.
